G-d, who has no body and no place, "sits" on the Torah, rests His "feet" on the Jewish people raised by the mitzvos, and is "housed" in prayer; each is drawn down by a person's own service, from contemplation and love to deeds and self-nullification.

Each section: the Hebrew, then the translation, then a short explanation under a gold rule. Small numbers in the Hebrew are the notes at the end.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar asks how G-d, who has no body and is not in space, can have a throne and a footstool. The "heavens," fire and water, are the Torah. A person "makes" the Torah: contemplating the Shema (shem ayin) shows that everything in the worlds is only a "name," a glimmer, so the soul longs for G-d Himself; this love, an arousal from below, draws the Infinite Light into the Torah and brings it from its pre-world level into the 613 mitzvos. The Torah is thus a "throne" on which G-d's will and wisdom lower themselves into physical mitzvos. The "earth" is the practical mitzvos, above all charity, which raise the "foot," the Jewish people; since "their end is wedged in their beginning," the lowest becomes the head, and a person's deeds raise his emotions into his mind. Heaven and earth are also the Written and Oral Torah. The "house" is prayer: through bowing and self-nullification it draws down the encompassing light that heart and mind cannot contain, a light that does not look upon a person's faults.

OUTLINE

1 The question and the Torah as "heaven" ¶1

How can the bodiless G-d have a throne? The Torah is from heaven, and like shamayim it is fire and water.

2 A person makes the Torah through contemplation and love ¶2–4

Mercy grants understanding; the Shema teaches that the worlds hold only a "name" of G-d; this awakens love for G-d Himself, which draws the Infinite Light into the Torah and down into the mitzvos.

3 The Torah as G-d's throne ¶5

Through Moshe the Torah comes down; like sitting, it lowers G-d's "head," His will and wisdom, into physical mitzvos.

4 The footstool: raising the foot ¶6–10

Israel are G-d's "foot," which in the returning light becomes the head; the practical mitzvos, especially charity, raise the emotions into wisdom, above and in the human soul, so that love becomes lasting.

5 Heaven and earth within the Torah ¶11

The Written Torah is heaven, from above; the Oral Torah is earth, grasping G-d's will from below; three things are called "earth."

6 The house: prayer ¶12–14

Prayer with bowing and self-nullification draws down the encompassing light beyond the worlds, which neither heart nor mind contains, and which is present without regard to a person's faults.

KEY CONCEPTS

Memalei and sovev ממלא כל עלמין וסובב כל עלמין

The light that fills the worlds, enlivening each according to its measure, is only a "name," a glimmer; the light that encompasses them is beyond grasp and can only surround a person.

Arousal from below אתערותא דלתתא

Human love and service that draw down a divine response: "a spirit brings a spirit."

Their end is wedged in their beginning נעוץ סופן בתחלתן

In the light that returns upward, the lowest level is the highest, so the "foot," the Jewish people and their physical deeds, becomes the "head."

Integrating emotions into intellect התכללות המדות בשכל

Emotions cut off from understanding are fleeting; raised into the mind, they become stable and elevated.

Self-nullification in prayer ביטול

Bowing before G-d as before a king too exalted to approach; it draws down the encompassing light that Torah and mitzvos cannot reach.

SECTION 1 • ¶1

The question and the Torah as "heaven"

1 השמים כסאי[1,2] והארץ הדום רגלי אי זה בית וגו'. להבין איך שייך עליו יתי לומר כסאי[3] והדום רגלי.

"The heavens are My throne and the earth is My footstool; what house…," etc. [We need] to understand how it is fitting to say of Him, blessed be He, "My throne" and "My footstool."

> The maamar opens with Isaiah's verse and raises its problem: a throne and a footstool belong to someone with a body who sits in a place. How can such words be said of G-d?

שהרי אין לו דמות הגוף[4,5] ואינו בגדר מקום וכמ"ש הנה מקום אתי[6,7] שהוא מקומו של עולם ואין העולם מקומו.[8,9]

For He has no bodily form and is not within the bounds of place, as it is written, "Behold, there is a place with Me": for He is the place of the world, and the world is not His place.

> G-d has no bodily form (as the Yigdal hymn, based on Maimonides, puts it) and is not in space. The Midrash reads "Behold, there is a place with Me" as saying that G-d contains the world, not that the world contains Him; so a "throne" cannot be meant literally.

אך להבין הענין כי הנה התורה היא מן השמי' כמ"ש כי מן השמים דברתי[10] וגו'

But to understand the matter: the Torah is from heaven, as it is written, "For from heaven I spoke," etc.;

> The answer begins with the Torah, which G-d gave "from heaven." The Alter Rebbe will show that the "heavens" that are G-d's throne are the Torah.

דהיינו שהיא בחי' שמים כי שמים אש ומים.[11,12] וכך גבי התורה כתיב מימינו אש דת למו.[13] that is, it is of the level of "heaven," for shamayim (heaven) is fire and water. And so it is written concerning the Torah, "From His right hand, a fiery law for them."

> The Sages read shamayim (heaven) as a fusion of esh (fire) and mayim (water). The Torah is likewise a blend of both, for it came "from His right hand" (the right is kindness, like water) as "a fiery law" (fire stands for strictness).

SECTION 2 • ¶2–4

A person makes the Torah through contemplation and love

2 והנה כתיב ושמרתם את חוקתי[14] ועשיתם אתם[15] אתם כתיב שהאדם הוא העושה את התורה. וכך אנו מבקשים[16] בברכת אהבת עולם אהבתנו כו׳ לשמור ולעשות ולקיים תחלה לעשותה

Now, it is written, "And you shall keep My statutes and do them (osam)"; it is written atem [— "you"]: that man is the one who makes the Torah. And so we ask in the blessing "With an everlasting love You have loved us," etc.: "to keep, to do and to fulfill" — first to do it,

> The verse "and do them" is spelled so that it can be read "and make yourselves," and in the reading here, man is the one who "makes" the Torah — brings it into being. The morning prayer before the Shema asks G-d to help us "keep, do and fulfill," and the order matters: first the Torah must be "done," made.

ואח״כ לקיימה[17] והיינו ע״י אב הרחמן[18] רחם עלינו ותן בלבנו בינה[19,20] שמבחינת רחמים עליונים נמשך בינה והתבוננות בלב להיות בה ועל ידה עשיית והתהוות התורה.

and afterwards to fulfill it. And this is through "Merciful Father, have mercy on us and put understanding in our hearts": for from the level of supernal mercy, understanding and contemplation are drawn into the heart, so that in it and through it there be the making and the coming into being of the Torah.

> Only afterwards can it be "fulfilled." The same prayer asks the "merciful Father" to "put understanding in our hearts": from G-d's supernal mercy comes Binah, the heart's understanding and contemplation, and through that contemplation the Torah is "made" and comes into being.

3 וכיצד תהי׳ התבוננות זו מבואר בק״ש שמע לשון הבנה[21] והבנה זו היא בתיבת שמע עצמה

And how this contemplation is to be is explained in the reading of the Shema: Shema is an expression of understanding, and this understanding is in the word Shema itself;

> The contemplation that "makes" the Torah is spelled out in the Shema. Shema means not only "hear" but "understand," and the word itself holds what is to be understood.

כי שמע שם ע׳[22] פי׳ כי ע״י רבתי היא בחינת לך ה׳[23] הגדולה והגבורה וכו׳ for Shema is shem ayin ("the name of the ayin"). That is: the enlarged ayin is the level of "Yours, O G-d, are the greatness and the might," etc.,

> Shema splits into shem (name) and ayin, the letter whose value is seventy and which is written large in the Torah's text of the Shema. The enlarged ayin stands for "Yours, O G-d, are the greatness, the might…": G-d's seven emotive attributes, each including ten, making seventy.

ז' מדות עליונות שהם בחינת לך דהיינו שהם בטלים אליו ונכללים במקורן שעדיין אינן בבחינת המשכה והתפשטות למטה להיות עולים בשם גדולה וגבורה וכו' the seven supernal attributes, which are the level of "Yours": that is, they are nullified to Him and included in their source, not yet in a state of being drawn down and spreading forth below so as to go by the names of greatness, might, etc.

> "Yours" means that in their source these attributes are wholly nullified to G-d, not yet flowing downward to become distinct qualities like greatness and might that act on the world.

ואזי נקרא בשם ע' רבתי והמשכה שנמשך ומתפשט למטה הוא רק בחינת שם לבד[24] שהוא הארה בעלמא

And then it is called by the name of the enlarged ayin; and the drawing down that is drawn and spreads forth below is only the level of a "name" alone, which is a mere glimmer,

> In that hidden state they are the "enlarged ayin." What spreads down into the world is only a "name": just as a name is not the person but only how others refer to him, it is a mere glimmer of the source.

וכמאמר ברוך שם כבוד מלכותו לעולם ועד שאין זו אלא מבחינת שם ומדת מלכותו ית' כי מלכותך מלכות כל עולמים[25] כתיב.

as in the saying, "Blessed be the name of the glory of His kingdom forever and ever": this is only from the level of a "name" and of His attribute of Malchus (sovereignty), blessed be He, for it is written, "Your kingship is a kingship over all worlds."

> This is why we say "Blessed be the name of the glory of His kingdom": what reaches the world is only the "name," the attribute of Malchus (sovereignty), as the verse says, "Your kingship is a kingship over all worlds."

4 וזהו ענין בינה להבין דבר מתוך דבר[26] פי' תוך דבר נקרא בחינת ממלא כל עלמין שהיא בחינת שם דהיינו בחינת זיו והארה הנמשך תוך עלמין.

And this is the meaning of Binah (understanding): to understand one thing from within another. That is, "within" a thing is called the level of the light that fills all worlds (memalei kol almin), which is the level of a "name," that is, the level of a radiance and glimmer drawn within the worlds.

> Binah is traditionally defined as "understanding one thing from within another." Here "within" refers to memalei kol almin, the light that enters each world and enlivens it — which is only the "name," a radiance of G-d.

וצריך להבין מזה שאינו אלא זיו כנ״ל שהוא יתׄ׳ הוא הסובב כל עלמין ולית מחשבה כו׳[27] ולאו מכל מדות אלין כלל[28]

And one must understand from this that it is only a radiance, as mentioned above; that He, blessed be He, is the One who encompasses all worlds (sovev kol almin), and "no thought [can grasp Him]," etc., and He is "not of any of these attributes at all."

> From that inner light one is to infer what lies beyond it: if all this is only a glimmer, G-d Himself encompasses all worlds (sovev kol almin), beyond any grasp — as the Tikkunei Zohar says, "no thought can grasp You at all," and He is "not of any of these attributes."

וע״י זה נמשך להיות ואהבת את הוי״ה אלהיך ממש לדבקה בו יתׄ׳ באי״ס ב״ה ממש כמ״ש מי לי בשמים[29] ועמך לא חפצתי וגו׳

And through this there comes to be "And you shall love Havayah your G-d" — truly: to cleave to Him, blessed be He, to the Infinite One (Ein Sof), blessed be He, truly, as it is written, "Whom do I have in heaven? And besides You I desire nothing," etc.;

> This contemplation leads to "You shall love Havayah your G-d" in the fullest sense: a longing to cleave to the Infinite One Himself, not to any of His revelations. It is the Psalmist's cry, "Whom do I have in heaven? Besides You I desire nothing."

שיהי׳ רק חפצו ורצונו שהוי״ה אור א״ס ב״ה עצמו יהיה אלהיך שורה בקרבך דהיינו שיהא גילוי אור א״ס ב״ה עצמו על נפשו that his only desire and will be that Havayah, the Infinite Light (Or Ein Sof), blessed be He, itself, be "your G-d," dwelling within you; that is, that there be a revelation of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, itself upon his soul.

> The lover wants Havayah — the Infinite Light itself — to become "your G-d," your own, resting within you and revealed in your soul.

והיינו ע״י בכל לבבך שהוא כמ״ש אם ישים אליו לבו[30] רוחו ונשמתו אליו יאסף כי רוח אייתי רוח[31] ואמשיך רוח שע״י רוח האדם העולה למעלה שישים אליו

And this is through "with all your heart," which is as it is written, "If he sets his heart to Him, His spirit and His breath He will gather to him"; for "a spirit brings a spirit and draws forth a spirit": through the spirit of man that rises upward, when he "sets [his heart] to Him,"

> This happens "with all your heart." The Alter Rebbe reads Job's verse this way: when a person sets his heart toward G-d, G-d gathers His spirit to him. The Zohar's rule is that "a spirit brings a spirit": a human arousal from below draws down a divine response.

דהיינו שלבבו יכסף לדבקה בו יתי ולהמשיך בחי' גילוי אלהותו יתי על נפשו ותוך נפשו.

that is, when his heart yearns to cleave to Him, blessed be He, and to draw a revelation of His G-dliness, blessed be He, upon his soul and into his soul,

> "Setting his heart to Him" means a heartfelt yearning to cleave to G-d and to have His G-dliness revealed on and within one's soul.

אזי רוחו ונשמתו מבחינת סובב כל עלמין אליו יאסף להיות מתאסף השראתו אצלו בקרב איש ולב עמוק[32]

then "His spirit and His breath," from the level of the light that encompasses all worlds, "He will gather to him," so that His indwelling is gathered to him, "within a man and a deep heart."

> Then G-d's "spirit and breath" from the encompassing level, beyond the worlds, are gathered to the person and dwell with him, in "the depth of a man's heart."

ומזה נמשך להיות והיו הדברים האלה אשר אנכי[33] מי שאנכי[34] מצוך כו' שע"י זה נמשך גילוי אלהותו והתהוות התורה בבחינת שמים אש ומים.

And from this there comes to be "And these words which I (Anochi) — who I am — command you," etc.; for through this there is drawn down a revelation of His G-dliness and the coming into being of the Torah at the level of "heaven," fire and water.

> This is followed by the next verse of the Shema, "And these words which I (Anochi) command you": Anochi means G-d's very self, "who I am." Through love, G-dliness is revealed and the Torah comes into being as "heaven," fire and water.

כי הנה התורה קדמה אלפים שנה לעולם[35] פי' עולם נקרא בחינת אש ומים[36] והתורה גבהה מעלתה מאד בבחינת אלפים שנה שהם למעלה מבחינת עולם וכדי שתמשך לבחינת עולם

For the Torah preceded the world by two thousand years. That is: "world" is the name for the level of fire and water, and the Torah is exceedingly lofty in its standing, at the level of "two thousand years," which are above the level of "world"; and in order that it be drawn down to the level of "world,"

> The Midrash says the Torah existed two thousand years before the world. "World" here means fire and water, the attributes (kindness and restraint) that build the worlds, while the Torah's "two thousand years" stand for a level far above the world. The Torah must still be drawn down into the level of "world."

דהיינו להיות מימינו אש כו׳ שהוא רמ״ח מצות עשה שמימין ושס״ה מצות לא תעשה משמאל כו׳

that is, that there be "From His right hand, fire," etc., which is the 248 positive commandments, which are from the right, and the 365 prohibitions, from the left, etc. —

> That drawing down is "from His right hand, fire": the Torah's 248 positive commandments correspond to the right side (kindness) and its 365 prohibitions to the left (restraint).

הנה המשכה זו היא על ידי אתערותא דלתתא בואהבת בכל לבבך רוח אייתי רוח ואמשיך רוח

this drawing down is through the arousal from below in "And you shall love… with all your heart": "a spirit brings a spirit and draws forth a spirit."

> What draws the Torah down is the arousal from below — loving G-d with all one's heart — for "a spirit brings a spirit."

וע״י זה ודברת בם[37] ודברת לשון הנהגה והמשכה דהיינו להיות המשכת אור א״ס ב״ה בתורה.[38]

And through this, "and you shall speak of them": vedibarta ("and you shall speak") is an expression of leading and drawing, that is, that there be a drawing down of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, into the Torah.

> Then comes "and you shall speak of them": the word for "speak" also means "lead," as in guiding or drawing along. Speaking words of Torah draws the Infinite Light into the Torah.

SECTION 3 • ¶5

The Torah as G-d's throne

5 וזהו ענין וידבר[39] ה׳ אל משה שהמשכת הוי״ה להיות התורה צריך להיות המשכה תחלה לבחינת משה שהוא[40] מבחינת כי מן המים משיתיהו.[41]

And this is the meaning of "And G-d spoke to Moshe": that the drawing down of Havayah so that there be Torah must first be a drawing down to the level of Moshe, who is of the level of "for I drew him out of the water."

> The Torah reaches the world through Moshe: "G-d spoke to Moshe" means that the drawing down of Havayah into Torah passes first through Moshe. His name comes from "I drew him out of the water," and the Torah's water is Chochmah, so Moshe is the channel of divine wisdom.

וזהו השמים כסאי שהשמים היא התורה הרי היא כסא ע״ד[42] משל שנעשה לשבת וישיבה זו היא השפלה לגבי עמידה שכשהאדם עומד הנה הוא בעל קומה וראשו ומוחו גבוהים מעל הארץ וע״י ישיבה נשפל קומתו.

And this is "The heavens are My throne": the heavens are the Torah, and it is a throne — by way of analogy — which is made for sitting. And this sitting is a lowering compared with standing: for when a person stands he has full stature, and his head and brain are high above the ground, and through sitting his stature is lowered.

> Now the verse is explained: "The heavens," the Torah, are G-d's "throne." A throne lowers a person: standing, his head is high above the ground, while sitting lowers his stature.

כך התורה נעשה כסא לאור א״ס ב״ה לבחינת ראשו שהיא בחינת רצונו וחכמתו ובינתו דאנת חכים[43]

So the Torah is made a throne for the Infinite Light, blessed be He, for the level of His "head," which is the level of His will, His wisdom and His understanding; for "You are wise,

> Likewise the Torah is a "throne" on which G-d's "head" — His will, wisdom and understanding — "sits," that is, lowers itself. The Tikkunei Zohar says of G-d: "You are wise, but not with a knowable wisdom."

ולא בחכמה ידיעא ומבין ולא בבינה ידיעא[44] ובתורה יורדים ומשתלשלים חכמתו ובינתו בדברים גשמיים כתפילין וציצית וצדקה ותרומות ומעשרות וקרבנות[45] כו׳:

but not with a knowable wisdom, and understanding, but not with a knowable understanding"; and in the Torah His wisdom and understanding descend and come down, step by step, into physical things, such as tefillin, tzitzis, charity, terumos and tithes, and sacrifices, etc.

> Through the Torah this unknowable wisdom descends and becomes clothed in physical mitzvos — tefillin, tzitzis, charity, tithes, sacrifices.

SECTION 4 • ¶6–10

The footstool: raising the foot

6 והארץ הדום רגלי. הדום בלשון הפסוק הוא כמו שרפרף בלשון הגמרא שהוא ג״כ כסא קטן.

"And the earth is My footstool." Hadom (footstool) in the language of the verse is like shrafraf in the language of the Gemara, which is also a small seat.

> Now the second half of the verse, "the earth is My footstool." The biblical word hadom is what the Talmud calls a shrafraf: a small seat.

והוא מה שמעמידין תחת רגלי היושב להגביה הרגל מעל הארץ וע״ז אמרו בגמ׳ על פסוק כרסון רמיו אחד לכסא ואחד לשרפרף. כסא הוא הגדול שיושבין עליו ושרפרף הוא הקטן שמעמידין תחת הרגלים.[46]

It is what is set beneath the feet of one who sits, to raise the foot above the ground. And about this they said in the Gemara, on the verse "thrones were set up": one for a throne and one for a footstool. The throne is the large one on which one sits, and the footstool is the small one set beneath the feet.

> A footstool raises the feet of the one sitting. The Talmud reads the plural "thrones" in Daniel's vision as one throne and one footstool.

7 והענין כי הנה[47] כנסת ישראל נקרא רגל כמ״ש בנים אתם לה׳ אלהיכם וברא כרעא דאבוה[48] והנה כמו ע״ד משל שנמצא מעלה יתירה

And the explanation: the Community of Israel is called "foot," as it is written, "You are children to Havayah your G-d," and "a son is his father's leg." Now, by way of analogy, there is an added advantage

> Why is the earth G-d's "footstool"? Because the Jewish people are called G-d's "foot": they are His children, and the Talmud says "a son is his father's leg," an extension of the father. Now, in some ways the foot is superior to the head.

ברגל מה שאין בראש שהרגלים הם המהלכים והם נושאים את הראש ומוליכין אותו למחוז חפצו in the foot that is not in the head: for the feet are what walk, and they carry the head and bring it to its desired destination.

> The feet carry the head and bring it where it wants to go; the head cannot get there without them.

ונמצא הראש צריך להרגל וגם גידי הראש וחיותו שהדם הוא הנפש[49] הם ברגלים וכשמקיזין דם מהרגל מתרפא הראש ומתקיים

So the head needs the foot. And also the veins of the head and its life-force — for "the blood is the soul" — are in the feet; and when blood is let from the foot, the head is healed and sustained.

> Moreover, the veins that supply the head run through the feet, and blood is the life. So bloodletting from the foot (a remedy of the time) could heal the head.

וכן כמה רפואות יש שעושין ברגלים[50] ומתרפא הראש ובבחינה זו נקרא הרגל ראש[51] והראש רגל שהוא למטה מהרגל במדרגה זו.[52]

And likewise there are several remedies that are applied to the feet, and the head is healed. And in this respect the foot is called head and the head foot, for in this degree it is below the foot.

> Other remedies applied to the feet also heal the head. In this respect the foot is the "head" and the head the "foot," since the head depends on it.

8 וכך הוא למעלה על ידי התכללות המשכות המדרגות נעוץ תחילתן בסופן[53] וסופן בתחילתן[54] אור ישר ואור חוזר[55] אור ישר נקרא מלמעלה למטה

And so it is above: through the interinclusion of the drawings-down of the levels, "their beginning is wedged in their end and their end in their beginning" — direct light and returning light. Direct light is what goes from above to below,

> The foot analogy is now applied to the spiritual levels. Sefer Yetzirah says the Sefiros have "their beginning wedged in their end and their end in their beginning." Kabbalah speaks of two flows, the first being "direct light," which descends from the highest level to the lowest.

[where] whatever is higher is superior; and returning light goes from below to above, [where] whatever is lower is superior. And this is "their beginning is wedged in their end": that their end is their beginning, for the level of the foot is called head.

> In direct light the higher is superior; in "returning light," rising from below, the lower is superior. So the end is also a beginning: the "foot" becomes the "head."

וישראל נקראו ראשית[56, 57, 58] וכתיב וירא ראשית לו[59] וע״י אתערותא דלתתא נעשה למעלה תיקון אורות עליונים וזהו שמצינו במשה שבחטא העגל נטלו ממנו אלף אורות (ובשבת חוזרין[60] ונותנין אליו במתנה וזהו ישמח משה במתנת חלקו)[61]

And Israel are called "first," and it is written, "And he saw the first for himself." And through the arousal from below there comes about above a rectification of supernal lights. And this is what we find with Moshe: at the sin of the Golden Calf a thousand lights were taken from him (and on Shabbos they are given back to him as a gift; and this is "Moshe rejoices in the gift of his portion");

> Israel are called "first" (reishis), the head of creation, though they stand at the lowest level. Their service from below repairs and completes the lights above. Moshe illustrates this: when Israel sinned with the Golden Calf, he lost a thousand lights, which are restored to him each Shabbos (the Shabbos prayer "Moshe rejoices in the gift of his portion").

ועל זה רמזו רז"ל במ"ש ע"פ לך רד[62,63] רד מגדולתך כלום נתתי לך גדולה אלא בשביל ישראל והיינו לפי שהיו ישראל בבחינת הרגל שלו and our Sages alluded to this in what they said on the verse "Go, descend": "Descend from your greatness; did I give you greatness except for the sake of Israel?" That is, because Israel were at the level of his "foot,"

> The Talmud says G-d told Moshe after the sin, "Go, descend from your greatness; I gave you greatness only for the sake of Israel." Moshe's greatness depended on Israel, because Israel were his "foot."

וכמ"ש שש מאות אלף רגלי העם[64] אשר אנכי בקרבו[65] והם היו לו בחינת מקיף ובחינת ראש אף שהם היו לו בבחינת רגל ודאי.

as it is written, "Six hundred thousand on foot are the people in whose midst I am"; and they were for him the level of the encompassing and the level of head, even though they were certainly for him at the level of foot.

> Moshe himself called the people "six hundred thousand on foot." Though they were his foot, they were also his encompassing light and his head: his elevation depended on them.

וכך הוא בכל ישראל ע"י שמתקן מעשיו שהם בכח המעשה בעשי' גשמיות בבחי' רגלים נעשה מוחו ולבו זכים[66] אלף פעמים ככה.[67]

And so it is with every Jew: through rectifying his deeds, which are in the power of action, in physical doing, at the level of the feet, his brain and heart become a thousand times as pure.

> The same holds for every Jew: his practical deeds, the "feet" of his soul, when rectified, purify his mind and heart a thousand times over.

9 והנה להיות הדום לבחינת רגל שהוא בחינת כנסת ישראל דהיינו להגביהי'[68] ולהעלותה ממטה למעלה הוא ע"י בחי' הארץ שהם מצות מעשיות וכללותן היא הצדקה

Now, for there to be a "footstool" for the level of the foot, which is the level of the Community of Israel — that is, to raise it and elevate it from below to above — is through the level of "earth," which is the practical mitzvos, and their general and collective expression is charity.

> Now the "footstool" itself: it raises the "foot," the Jewish people. What raises them is the "earth," the practical mitzvos, and the mitzvah that sums them all up is charity.

ועל זה נאמר צדקה תרומם גוי[69] תרומם ממטה למעלה והגבהה והעלאה זו היא בבחינת גוי שהם אותיות ג'[70] ו' י' דהיינו העלאת המדות שנחלקין דרך כלל לג' בחינות חסד דין רחמים[71,72]

And of this it is said, "Charity exalts a nation (goy)": exalts from below to above. And this raising and elevation is at the level of goy, which is the letters gimmel, vav, yud: that is, the elevation of the attributes, which divide, in general, into three levels: kindness, judgment and mercy

> Proverbs says "Charity exalts a nation (goy)." The word goy is spelled gimmel, vav, yud. Its letters hint at the process: the emotional attributes, which fall into three groups — kindness, judgment and mercy — are raised up.

(כי נה"י אינו אלא התפשטות חג"ת[73] וענפיהן) והתעלותן היא לבחינת יו"ד שהיא בחינת החכמה ע"י הוא"ו שהוא הממשיך ומחבר המחשבה כו'

(for Netzach, Hod and Yesod are only the extension of Chesed, Gevurah and Tiferes and their branches); and their elevation is to the level of the yud, which is the level of Chochmah, through the vav, which is what draws down and connects the thought, etc.

> (The lower three Sefiros, Netzach, Hod and Yesod, are only extensions of the first three.) The three (gimmel) rise to the yud, which stands for Chochmah, by way of the vav, a straight line that connects and draws the thought down.

ככה ממש נעשה למטה בנפש האדם העלאת המדות בשכלו ובינתו כי כשהמדות נפרדות מהשכל הם נחשבות לדבר בפני עצמו.

Exactly so it takes place below, in the soul of man: the elevation of the attributes into his intellect and understanding. For when the attributes are separated from the intellect they are considered a thing unto itself.

> The same happens in a person: his emotions are raised into his mind. When emotions are cut off from understanding they are a separate force, acting on their own.

10 ולכן יש לך אדם שמתעורר לבו בשעת התפלה וכיוצא בה שאז היא שעת גדלות המוחין

And therefore you find a person whose heart is aroused at the time of prayer and the like, for that is a time of expanded intellect (gadlus hamochin);

> This explains a familiar experience: during prayer, when the mind is expanded by contemplation, a person's heart is stirred with love for G-d.

ואח״כ חולפת ועוברת האהבה ופונה לדרכו מהיפך להיפך באין מבין כי הם שני הפכים והיינו מפני שהמדות נפרדים מהשכל and afterwards the love passes and goes away, and he turns to his own way, from one extreme to the other, without understanding that these are two opposites. And this is because the attributes are separated from the intellect;

> Afterwards the feeling vanishes, and he goes about his business as if it had never been, not noticing the contradiction. This happens because his emotions were not integrated with his understanding.

משא״כ בהתכללותן כו׳ והרי אז הוא עילוי המדות ביתר שאת שנעשו בחינת מוחין וזהו בכל נפשך[74] דהיינו בכל כחות הנפש אפילו בבחינת רגל שגם בחינת הרגל תרום ותגביה:[75] whereas when they are interincluded, etc., then there is an elevation of the attributes with surpassing excellence, for they have become the level of intellect (mochin). And this is "with all your soul," that is, with all the powers of the soul, even the level of the foot — that even the level of the foot be exalted and raised.

> When emotions are integrated into the intellect they are raised to a far higher and more lasting level. This is loving G-d "with all your soul": with every power of the soul, including the lowest, the "foot," which must also be lifted up.

SECTION 5 • ¶11

Heaven and earth within the Torah

11 והנה זהו דרך כלל שנקי׳ שמים וארץ תורה ומצות ודרך פרט בתורה עצמה שמים זו תורה שבכתב שמים שם מים[76] דאורייתא מחכמה נפקת[77, 78] וארץ נקרא תורה שבע״פ

Now, this is in general: that Torah and mitzvos are called heaven and earth. And in particular, within the Torah itself: "heaven" is the Written Torah — shamayim is sham mayim ("there is water"), for the Torah comes from Chochmah — and "earth" is the name for the Oral Torah,

> In general, heaven and earth are Torah and mitzvos. Within the Torah itself, "heaven" is the Written Torah: shamayim is read as sham mayim, "there is water," and water stands for Chochmah, from which the Torah comes, as the Zohar says. "Earth" is the Oral Torah.

כי ארץ מלשון רצון כמאמר רז״ל למה נקרא שמה ארץ שרצתה[79, 80] כו׳ וארץ אותיות אי רץ כו׳[81] for eretz (earth) is from the word ratzon (will), as the saying of our Sages: "Why is it called eretz? Because it wished (ratz'sah)," etc.; and eretz is the letters alef, ratz ("runs"), etc.

> The Midrash says the earth is called eretz because it "wished" (ratz'sah) to do its Maker's will; the letters of eretz also form alef-ratz, "running to the Alef," the One. So "earth" means will and striving.

והענין כי תורה שבע"פ היא השגת תכלית הרצון לידע איך ומה כגון סוכה שהיא גבוה כו'

And the matter is: the Oral Torah is the grasp of the ultimate intent of the will — to know how and what, such as [the law of] a sukkah that is high, etc.,

> The Oral Torah grasps what G-d's will actually requires: exactly how and what. For example, a sukkah may not be higher than twenty cubits.

שאין זה מבואר בתורה שבכתב ותושב"כ היא רק בחי' אותיות להיות כדמותן בצלמן שהן שמותיו של הקב"ה[82] which is not explained in the Written Torah. And the Written Torah is only the level of letters, [to be read] in their likeness and in their image, which are the Names of the Holy One, blessed be He.

> Such details are not stated in the Written Torah. The Written Torah is letters, to be read exactly as written; its words are all Names of G-d, as Nachmanides writes.

ולכן נקרא קורא בתורה כמו שקורא בשם והיינו מלמעלה למטה אבל תורה שבע"פ עיקרה ממטה למעלה ע"י השגת הרצון בנפש[83] תכלל הנפש במקורה למעלה.

Therefore one is said to "read" (kore) in the Torah, as one calls (kore) a name; and this is from above to below. But the Oral Torah is essentially from below to above: through grasping the will in the soul, the soul becomes included in its source above.

> That is why one "reads" (kore) the Torah, as one calls (kore) a name: it comes from above. The Oral Torah works from below: by grasping G-d's will with his own mind, a person's soul is absorbed into its source.

ושלשה נקראו ארץ[84] כנסת ישראל ותורה שבע"פ ומצות וכולן נרמזין במקרא אחד. ארץ ארץ ארץ שמעי דבר[85, 86] ה':

And three are called "earth": the Community of Israel, the Oral Torah and the mitzvos; and all of them are alluded to in one verse: "Land, land, land, hear the word of G-d."

> Three things are called "earth": the Jewish people, the Oral Torah and the mitzvos. Jeremiah's triple "land, land, land" alludes to all three.

SECTION 6 • ¶12–14

The house: prayer

12 אך אי זה בית[87] כו׳ כי הכסא והשרפרף אין דרכן להעמידן בחוץ אלא בתוך הבית ובחי׳ בית היינו בכל מאדך[88, 89] שהוא בבחי׳ מקיף[90]

But "what house," etc.: for a throne and a footstool are not usually set up outside, but inside the house. And the level of "house" is "with all your might," which is at the level of the encompassing,

> Now the verse's last question, "what house?" A throne and footstool stand inside a house. The "house" is "with all your might" (me'odecha, literally "your very much"), love beyond all measure, which surrounds rather than enters.

כמו ע״ד משל בית שהוא מקיף את האדם בגגו ובקירותיו[91] ובית זה הוא בית תפלה שע״י התפלה ח״י פעמים ברוך אתה כו׳ just as, by way of analogy, a house surrounds a person with its roof and its walls. And this house is the house of prayer; for through prayer — eighteen times "Blessed are You," etc. —

> A house surrounds a person with roof and walls. This house is prayer: the Amidah, with its eighteen blessings, each saying "Blessed are You."

היא המשכת מקיפין מבחי׳ סוכ״ע (והיא בחי׳ רוחו ונשמתו אליו יאסף[92] כנ״ל) שהם נמשכין ע״י כריעות והשתחויות באבות ובהודאה תחלה וסוף[93] שהם בחינת ביטול.

there is a drawing down of encompassing lights from the level of the light that encompasses all worlds (and this is the level of "His spirit and His breath He will gather to him," as mentioned above), which are drawn through the bowings and prostrations in [the blessing of] the Patriarchs and in [the blessing of] Thanksgiving, at the beginning and the end, which are the level of self-nullification (bittul).

> Prayer draws down encompassing light from sovev kol almin, the light beyond the worlds — the "spirit and breath" gathered to a person, as in paragraph 4. It is drawn through the bows at the beginning and end of the first blessing and of the blessing of thanksgiving, which express self-nullification.

והענין כי אי אפשר להיות גילוי אור א״ס ב״ה דלית מחשבה תפיסא ביה כלל[94] ולאו מכל מדות[95] וכו׳

And the matter is: it is impossible for there to be a revelation of the Infinite Light, blessed be He — which "no thought can grasp at all," and "not of any of the attributes," etc. —

> Why must this light be encompassing? Because the Infinite Light is beyond all thought and all attributes.

בבחינת פנימיות הלב רק מעט מזעיר הארה בעלמא ואפילו גילוי במוח והשגה לית מחשבה כו' רק בבחי' מקיף וסובב לבד וע"ז נאמר ואל זה אביט[96,97] שרומז על בחינת תפלה.[98] in the inner dimension of the heart, except for a very small amount, a mere glimmer; and even a revelation in the mind, and grasp — "no thought [can grasp]," etc. — [is possible] only as encompassing and surrounding. And of this it is said, "And to this one I will look," which alludes to the level of prayer.

> The inner heart can absorb only a tiny glimmer of it, and even the mind cannot grasp it; it can be present only as a surrounding light. Of this G-d says in the next verse, "And to this one I will look," alluding to prayer.

13 ופי' הפסוק ואת כל אלה ידי עשתה[99] בחינת עשיה היינו מעשה המצות. ויהיו כל אלה נאם ה' היא בחינת תורה שבע"פ שהיא נאם ודבר ה' בחינת דבור

And the explanation of the verse: "And all these My hand has made" is the level of action, that is, the performance of the mitzvos. "And all these came to be, says G-d" is the level of the Oral Torah, which is the saying and the word of G-d, the level of speech;

> The next verse is read as three levels. "All these My hand has made": action, the performance of the mitzvos. "And all these came to be, says G-d": speech, the Oral Torah, which is G-d's word.

משא"כ אל זה אביט הוא בחינת תפלה אביט הוא בחינת הבטה היא הסתכלות בבחי' עיניך יונים[100] שהיא בחי' המחשבה לבד והיא היא בחי' מקיף וסובב whereas "And to this one I will look" is the level of prayer. "I will look" is the level of gazing, which is looking, at the level of "your eyes are doves," which is the level of thought alone; and this is precisely the level of the encompassing and surrounding,

> "And to this one I will look" is prayer. Looking is like thought ("your eyes are doves"), and thought is encompassing.

כמו עד"מ מחשב' שמקפת מחשבתו את הדבר שחושב עליו וכן הראיה והסתכלות כו' משא"כ דבור ומעשה הם פנימיים כו' as, by way of analogy, with thought: one's thought encompasses the thing one is thinking about; and so too sight and looking, etc. Whereas speech and action are inner, etc.

> Thought surrounds its subject, as sight takes in what it sees from outside, while speech and action are inner: they enter into and shape their object.

והבטה זו היא אל עני ונכה רוח בחינת ביטול דלית ליה מגרמיה כלום אפילו תורה ומצות לפי שהמשכה זו אי אפשר להשיג ע״י התורה ומצות שהם פנימיי׳ רק

And this gaze is "to the poor and broken of spirit": the level of self-nullification, which has nothing of its own at all, not even Torah and mitzvos; because this drawing down cannot be attained through the Torah and mitzvos, which are inner, but only

> G-d's "look" goes "to the poor and broken of spirit": someone who feels he has nothing of his own, not even his Torah and mitzvos. For this encompassing light cannot be drawn by Torah and mitzvos, which are inward.

ע״י בטול בתפלה וכריעות והשתחואות כמשל המלך שכורעים ומשתחוים לו מפני שאי אפשר להתקרב אליו מגודל מעלתו אזי ממילא נמשך אליו בחינה זו. וזהו ברוך אתה כלומר ברוך מעצמך ומאליך.[101] through self-nullification in prayer, and bowings and prostrations — like the analogy of a king, to whom one bows and prostrates because one cannot draw near to him, owing to his great exaltedness; then this level is drawn down to him of itself. And this is "Blessed are You," that is to say, blessed of Yourself and on Your own.

> It is drawn only by self-nullification in prayer and bowing, as one bows before a king who is too exalted to approach; then the king's favor comes of itself. This is the meaning of "Blessed are You": may You be drawn down of Your own accord.

14 והנה בבחינה זו של המשכת המקיף כתיב לא הביט און ביעקב[102] שבבחינת פנימיות כתיב בוחן לבות וכליות[103]

Now, concerning this level, the drawing down of the encompassing light, it is written, "He has not looked upon iniquity in Jacob"; for concerning the inner level it is written, "He tests hearts and kidneys,"

> The maamar closes with a comforting consequence. The encompassing light drawn through prayer is not measured by a person's spiritual state: of it Bilaam said, "He has not looked upon iniquity in Jacob." The inner light, by contrast, is subject to G-d who "tests hearts and kidneys."

דהיינו להבחין התשוקה המורגשת אם הוא מקרב איש ולב עמוק באמת לאמתו משא״כ בבחינת מקיף לא הביט און וגו׳ רק ה׳ אלהיו עמו שנמשך מאליו תמיד:

that is, to examine the felt yearning, whether it is truly from "within a man and a deep heart," in absolute truth; whereas at the level of the encompassing, "He has not looked upon iniquity," etc., but only "Havayah his G-d is with him," which is drawn of itself, always.

> Inner revelation depends on whether one's yearning is genuine, from the depths of the heart. The encompassing light does not examine flaws: "Havayah his G-d is with him," it comes of itself and remains always.

IN ONE'S AVODAH

Contemplate in prayer that all that fills the worlds is only a glimmer of G-d, until the heart longs for G-d Himself; bring that love into daily life by integrating the emotions with understanding, so that it does not fade after prayer; give charity and do the practical mitzvos, which raise even the lowest powers; and pray with self-nullification, for the encompassing light it draws does not depend on one's level.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why does the maamar say that the Torah must be "made" by a person, if it was already given at Sinai?
2. How does the reading of Shema as shem ayin lead to love of G-d Himself rather than of His revelations?
3. In what sense is the "foot" higher than the "head," and how does this apply to Moshe and Israel and to every Jew's deeds?
4. Why does love aroused in prayer often fade, and how does the maamar suggest making it last?
5. Why can the encompassing light be drawn down only through self-nullification in prayer and not through Torah and mitzvos?

FOR CHILDREN · AGES 9–13

For the children at the table

G-d's throne, footstool and house

THE BIG IDEA

G-d has no body and no place, yet through our Torah learning, our mitzvos and our prayer we give Him a throne, a footstool and a house in this world.

The prophet Yeshayahu says in G-d's name, "The heavens are My throne and the earth is My footstool; what house can you build for Me?" But G-d has no body and is not in any place, so what can this mean? The maamar explains that the "heavens" are the Torah. When a person sits down, they lower themselves; so too, in the Torah, G-d's own will and wisdom "sit down" and come into physical mitzvos like tefillin, tzitzis and tzedakah. This happens when we think deeply, especially in the Shema, that the whole world holds only a tiny glimmer of G-d, until we long for G-d Himself. The "earth" is the mitzvos we do with our hands, above all giving tzedakah. They lift up the Jewish people, who are called G-d's "foot." The "house" is prayer. When we bow in davening and set ourselves aside before G-d, a light surrounds us that is too great for our mind or heart to hold. That light is drawn to every Jew, and it does not look at our faults.

THE MASHAL

The foot is the lowest part of the body, yet it walks and carries the head to where the head wants to go. So in a certain way the foot is higher than the head. The Jewish people are called G-d's "foot," and the mitzvos we do, like tzedakah, lift the foot up high.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. How can G-d, who has no body, have a throne, a footstool and a house?
2. In what way does the foot carry the head, and what does that teach about the Jewish people?
3. What tzedakah or other mitzvah with your hands can you do this week to help make a place for G-d in the world?

2 השמים כסאי

G-d says through Isaiah: heaven is My throne and earth My footstool; what house could you build for Me? The whole maamar interprets this verse.

Isaiah 66:1 ישעיהו ס"ו:א׳

כֹּה אָמַר ה׳ הַשָּׁמַיִם כִּסְאִי וְהָאָרֶץ הֲדֹם רַגְלָי אֵי־זֶה בַּיִת אֲשֶׁר תִּבְנוּ־לִי וְאֵי־זֶה מָקוֹם מְנוּחָתִי׃

Thus saith the L-RD: The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool; where is the house that ye may build unto Me? And where is the place that may be My resting-place?

There the Alter Rebbe shows that G-d's making of heaven and earth is not like a craftsman's work, which only reshapes existing material and then stands without him; it is creation from nothing, which must be renewed constantly.

11 התורה היא מן השמים . . שמים אש ומים

The Tzemach Tzedek notes that this needs study: in Torah Ohr, Miketz, "For with You is the source of life," and later in this maamar, the "water" of heaven is explained as Chochmah, while here fire and water are explained as Chesed and Gevurah.

KEHOT'S NOTE

ראה אוה"ת כרך ו תתרכג, ב (מלקו"ת לגי פרשיות א, א) שצ"ע שלקמן פ' מקץ בד"ה כי עמך מקו"ח (לד, ד) מפרש שהכוונה על חכמה, וכן לקמן במאמר זה מפרש כן, וכאן מפרש על חו"ג ע"ש.

12 שמים אש ומים

The Talmud explains the word shamayim: it is esh (fire) and mayim (water), which G-d blended together to make the heavens. The Alter Rebbe applies this to the Torah.

13 מימינו אש דת למו

Moshe describes the giving of the Torah: "from His right hand, a fiery law for them." The Alter Rebbe reads the right hand as water and fire as the law, so the Torah too is "fire and water."

Deuteronomy 33:2 דברים ל״ג:ב׳

וַיֹּאמַר ה' מִסִּינַי בָּא וְזָרַח מִשֵּׂעִיר לָמוֹ הוֹפִיעַ מֵהַר פָּארָן וְאָתָה מֵרִבְבֹת קֹדֶשׁ מִימִינוֹ אֵשׁ דָּת לָמוֹ׃

And he said: The L-RD came from Sinai, And rose from Seir unto them; He shined forth from mount Paran, And He came from the myriads holy, At His right hand was a fiery law unto them.

PARAGRAPH 2

14 ושמרתם את חוקותי

The Kehot note points to this verse, "You shall keep My statutes… which a man shall do," which also makes the human being the one who "does" the Torah.

Leviticus 18:5 ויקרא י״ח:ה׳

וּשְׁמַרְתֶּם אֶת־חֻקֹּתַי וְאֶת־מִשְׁפָּטַי אֲשֶׁר יַעֲשֶׂה אֹתָם הָאָדָם וָחַי בָּהֶם אֲנִי Havayah

Ye shall therefore keep My statutes, and Mine ordinances, which if a man do, he shall live by them: I am the L-RD.

KEHOT'S NOTE

ויקרא יח, ה.

15 "You shall keep My statutes and do them." The spelling of the word for "them" allows the reading "you," as if one makes oneself, or here, makes the Torah.

Leviticus 20:8 ויקרא כ׳:ח׳

וּשְׁמַרְתֶּם אֶת־חֻקֹּתַי וַעֲשִׂיתֶם אֹתָם אֲנִי ה׳ מְקַדִּשְׁכֶם׃

And keep ye My statutes, and do them: I am the L-RD who sanctify you.

16 וכך אנו מבקשים

A handwritten gloss on a first-edition Torah Ohr sends the reader to this passage in the Mitteler Rebbe's work on the Shema, which discusses the request in the blessing before the Shema.

KEHOT'S NOTE

"ע׳ אמרי בינה פתח השער ט, ב סי׳ ט״ו" — הג״ה בכת״י על תו״א דפוס ראשון.

17 תחלה לעשותה ואח״כ לקיימה

The Tzemach Tzedek explains "first to do it, then to fulfill it": first to draw the Torah from its source, the level of the "two thousand years" that preceded the world, into the level of "world." This ties the prayer to paragraph 4.

KEHOT'S NOTE

"דהיינו תחלה להמשיכה ממקורה מבחי׳ אלפים שנה שקדמה לעולם להמשיכה בבחי׳ עולם" — אוה״ת שלח ע׳ תקפא.

18 ע״י אב הרחמן

There the Alter Rebbe explains that the Men of the Great Assembly placed requests for mercy before the Shema — "our Father, merciful Father, have mercy on us and put understanding in our hearts," and "in Your great mercy" — because understanding comes from arousing G-d's mercy.

KEHOT'S NOTE

20 אב הרחמן רחם עלינו ותן בלבנו בינה

The blessing before the Shema (called Ahavas Olam in the Alter Rebbe's rite) asks: "merciful Father, have mercy on us and put understanding in our hearts… to keep, to do and to fulfill." The Alter Rebbe reads both its order and its request.

21 שמע לשון הבנה

Shmuel says, "Speak, for Your servant hears (shomea)" — the Kehot note brings this as an example of "hearing" in the sense of understanding.

I Samuel 3:10 שמואל א ג׳:י׳

A handwritten gloss on the first edition refers here: Imrei Binah discusses "shem ayin" of the enlarged ayin, and there, the gloss says, the verse "Yours, O G-d, are the greatness" is well explained.

KEHOT'S NOTE

"ע' אמרי בינה שער הקי"ש ענין שם ע' רבתי ומתפרש יפה פי' הפסוק לך ה' הגדולה בסי' ג ובסי' ו" — הנ"ה בכתי"י על תו"א הני"ל. ראה לקמן קה, ג. לקו"ת ואתחנן יא, ב. ושם מציין לכאן.

23 David's blessing, "Yours, O G-d, are the greatness and the might, the glory, the victory and the majesty," lists the divine attributes; "Yours" shows they belong wholly to G-d.

I Chronicles 29:11 דברי הימים א כ"ט:י"א

24 ש"ה רבתי — לבד

The manuscript reads bilvad instead of levad ("alone"); the meaning is the same.

KEHOT'S NOTE

בכור 1824: בלבד.

25 מלכותך מלכות כל עולמים

"Your kingship is a kingship over all worlds": Malchus is what extends to all the worlds, and so it is only a "name."

Psalms 145:13 תהילים קמ"ה:י"ג

39 וזהו ענין וידבר ה׳ אל משה

A handwritten gloss on the first edition suggests that this passage is based on Iggeres HaKodesh 12, which says that the plain Name Havayah throughout the Torah refers to the attribute of Tiferes.

KEHOT'S NOTE

"לכמוני השפל הדל נראה דזה הוא עפ״י מה דאיתא באגה״ק סי׳ יב וז״ל: ולכן סתם שם הוי׳ ב״ה שבכל התורה מורה על מדת התפארת כו׳ ע״ש, ואם שגיתי ה׳ יכפר בעדי" — הג״ה בכת״י על תו״א הנ״ל.

40 לבחינת משה שהוא מבחי׳ כי מן המים משיתיהו

A handwritten gloss connects this to paragraph 11 of this maamar: "shamayim is sham mayim, for the Torah comes from Chochmah." The glossator suggests that this is why it is called "the Torah of Moshe," since Moshe was "drawn from the water."

KEHOT'S NOTE

"נראה דזהו ע״פ משי״כ לקמן בד״ה והנה זהו דרך כלל כו׳ ושם וז״ל שמים שם מים דאורייתא מחכמה נפקת, ואולי אפשר לתת טעם שנקי תורת משה — מטעם הזה דאורייתא מחכמה נפקת — ומשה מן המים משיתיהו וד״ל" — הג״ה בכת״י על תו״א הנ״ל.

41 כי מן המים משיתיהו

Pharaoh's daughter named him Moshe, "for I drew him out of the water." The Alter Rebbe links Moshe to "water," the Chochmah from which the Torah comes.

כי כאשר השמים החדשים והארץ החדשה וגו׳

"For as the new heavens and the new earth"

The world's heaven and earth are sustained by a spiritual "earth" and "heaven" — the soul's upward rush of longing (ratzo) and the drawing down of G-dliness through Torah and mitzvos (shov). In the future, the pulse of ratzo and shov will flow from G-d's own essence, heaven first, and Israel's service will be raised to stand before Him with it.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The Sages say that heaven and earth were created for the sake of Israel and the Torah; the Alter Rebbe infers that Israel and the Torah contain a spiritual heaven and earth that keep the physical ones in being. Eretz (earth) is linked to ratzon and ratz: the "running" of longing, like the chayos who "ran and returned." This ratzo is the love of the Shema, prepared for by Pesukei deZimra, a single-minded desire for G-d's essence beyond all the worlds that live from His mere "kingship." The "return" (shov) comes in the Shemoneh Esreh, Torah study and above all the practical mitzvos, which encompass the soul like the heavens around the earth. Now, amid concealment, earth must precede heaven: an arousal from below must precede the response from above. In the Time to Come, with no concealment, the "new heavens and new earth" will come from G-d alone, heaven first — as the pulse of G-d's own flow, like a heartbeat, reaches and withdraws. Yet "your seed and your name" — Israel's mitzvos and acceptance of G-d's yoke — will also stand before Him.

OUTLINE

1 Heaven and earth in Torah and Israel ¶1–2

Since the world exists for Israel and the Torah, they must contain a spiritual heaven and earth; eretz means both running and will.

2 Ratzo: the running of longing ¶3–8

The angels' and souls' yearning to be absorbed in G-d; in prayer it is the love of the Shema, prepared by Pesukei deZimra, reaching past the worlds that live from G-d's "kingship" to His essence.

3 Shov: drawing G-dliness down ¶9–11

The Shemoneh Esreh, Torah study and practical mitzvos draw the light into vessels; the soul "lives against its will" in the body for this purpose.

4 Shov is heaven, ratzo is earth ¶12–15

Torah and mitzvos encompass the soul as heaven encompasses earth; the throne and footstool, the ladder of prayer, and why earth preceded heaven in creation.

5 Why the world exists for Torah and Israel ¶16

The Torah (shov) and Israel's self-sacrifice (ratzo) are the spiritual heaven and earth that sustain the physical ones.

6 The new earth of the Time to Come ¶17–21

Present ratzo is a struggle out of concealment; in the future, without kelipah, the revelation will come from above alone, heaven before earth, not through the contractions of Elokim.

7 Ratzo and shov within the divine flow ¶22–26

Like a heartbeat or a flame, G-d's own flow expands and withdraws ("reaching and not reaching"); here expansion (heaven) precedes withdrawal (earth).

8 "So shall your seed and your name stand" ¶27–28

Israel's mitzvos and acceptance of G-d's yoke will not be eclipsed by the future revelation but raised to stand before Him.

KEY CONCEPTS

Ratzo and shov רצוא ושוב

"Running and returning": the upward rush of longing to cleave to G-d, and the return downward to draw G-dliness into the world. Here ratzo is "earth" and shov is "heaven."

Arousal from below and from above אתערותא דלתתא ואתערותא דלעילא

Human initiative that draws a divine response, and divine revelation unprompted by us. Now the first must precede the second; the new heavens and earth come from above alone.

"King" and "Unique One" מלך ויחיד

G-d as "King" — His kingship, merely a "name" and radiance — gives life to all worlds (memalei); as "Unique" He is His essence, unchanged by creation (sovev), and it is to this that Israel is bound.

Encompassing lights מקיפים

Light that surrounds rather than enters; the mitzvos become the soul's encompassing garments, so the shov of Torah and mitzvos is "heaven" around the "earth" of ratzo.

Reaching and not reaching מטי ולא מטי

The Arizal's term for the pulse of divine light that reaches into the vessels and withdraws, like a heartbeat or a flame; expansion comes first.

The Name Elokim שם אלקים

The Name of contraction and concealment through which the present world was made; the soul's ratzo "sweetens" it until it merges with Havayah.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–2

Heaven and earth in Torah and Israel

1 כי כאשר השמים[1,2] החדשים והארץ החדשה וגו׳. הנה כתיב בראשית ברא אלקי׳ את השמים ואת הארץ וארז״ל בראשית בשביל ישראל שנקראו ראשית.[3]

"For as the new heavens and the new earth," etc. Now, it is written, "In the beginning (Bereshis) G-d created the heavens and the earth," and our Sages, of blessed memory, said: "Bereshis — for the sake of Israel, who are called 'beginning' (reishis)."

> The maamar opens with Isaiah's promise that the "new heavens and new earth" that G-d will make will endure before Him, and so will Israel's offspring and name. Before explaining it, the Alter Rebbe turns to the Torah's first verse and the Sages' reading of Bereshis as "for the sake of reishis (the first)": the world was created for the sake of Israel, who are called "first."

וגם אמרו בשביל התורה שנק׳ ראשית.[4] וא״כ כיון ששמים וארץ נבראו בשביל תורה וישראל מוכרח לומר שיש בחי׳ שמים וארץ בתורה ובעבודת ישראל שבהן ועל ידן יתקיימו שמים וארץ הגשמיים.[5]

They also said: for the sake of the Torah, which is called 'beginning.' If so, since heaven and earth were created for the sake of the Torah and Israel, we are compelled to say that there is a level of heaven and earth in the Torah and in the service of Israel, by which and through which the physical heaven and earth are sustained.

> The Sages also read it as "for the sake of the Torah," which is likewise called "first." The Alter Rebbe draws the conclusion: if the physical heaven and earth exist for the Torah and for Israel, then the Torah and Israel's divine service must themselves contain a spiritual "heaven" and "earth," and it is these that keep the physical ones in existence. The maamar now sets out to identify them.

2 והענין הוא כי הנה אמרז״ל למה נק׳ שמה ארץ שרצתה לעשות רצון קונה.[6] פי׳ שרצתה היינו ל׳ רץ וגם ל׳ רצון.[7,8]

The explanation is this: our Sages, of blessed memory, said, "Why is it called by the name eretz (earth)? Because it ran (ratzsah) to do the will (ratzon) of its Maker." That is, ratzsah is a term of running (ratz) and also a term of will (ratzon).

> The Midrash explains the name eretz (earth) by wordplay: the earth "ran" (ratzsah) to do its Maker's will. The Alter Rebbe points out that ratzsah carries two meanings at once — running (ratz) and wanting (ratzon) — and both will matter in what follows.

וכמ"ש בכה ארוץ גדוד[9] שהוא ג"כ לי' רץ וגם יש בו ג"כ ענין רצון וכמש"ת.

As it is written, "For by You I run (arutz) through a troop," which is also a term of running and also contains the idea of will, as will be explained.

David's words "by You I run through a troop" use the same root for running. The Alter Rebbe adds that the verse also carries the sense of will, which he explains later (paragraph 8), where "by You" is read as "in Your very essence."

SECTION 2 • ¶3–8

Ratzo: the running of longing

3 והענין דהנה כתיב והחיות רצוא ושוב[10] בחי' רצוא זה הוא ענין תשוקה בלב לדבקה בו יתברך והוא ג"כ לי' מרוצה

The explanation: it is written, "And the chayos ran and returned (ratzo vashov)." This level of ratzo is a longing in the heart to cleave to Him, blessed be He, and it is also a term of running (merutzah):

Ezekiel's vision describes the chayos — the angelic "living creatures" who bear the divine chariot — as "running and returning" (ratzo vashov). The Alter Rebbe defines ratzo, the "running," as the heart's longing to cleave to G-d, and notes that it shares the root of merutzah, a run.

כמו הרץ ממקומו להלאה כך הוא ענין תשוקה זו של החיות להיות יוצאים ועולים ממקומם וליבטל וליכלל באי"ס ב"ה וכעין מ"ש שרפים עומדי' ממעל לו ופי' ממעל לשכינתי'.[11,12] just as one who runs from his place onward, so is this longing of the chayos — to go out and rise up from their place, to be nullified and absorbed into the Infinite One (Ein Sof), blessed be He. It is akin to what is written, "Seraphim stood above Him (mima'al lo)," which is explained [as] "above His Shechinah."

As a runner leaves his place and moves beyond it, the angels' longing drives them out of their own level, rising to be nullified and absorbed in the Infinite. Isaiah's seraphim who "stand above Him" are similar: they are explained as standing above the Shechinah, rising beyond the level of the Divine Presence that rests upon them.

4 והיינו שתשוקתם להכלל שם כו'. וכן בחי' כללות נש"י במקורן ושרשן יש בהן בחי' רצוא ברצון ותשוקה לדבקה בו באי"ס ב"ה וכמ"ש ואל אישך תשוקתך.[13]

That is, their longing is to be absorbed there, etc. Likewise, the souls of Israel as a whole, in their source and root, have a level of ratzo, with will and longing to cleave to Him, to the Infinite One, blessed be He, as it is written, "And your longing shall be for your husband."

> The same yearning exists in the source of all Jewish souls, the Community of Israel, which longs to cleave to the Infinite. The words said to Eve, "your longing shall be for your husband," are read as the longing of this collective soul, the "bride," for G-d.

והיינו מפני השגתה בהיותה בבחי' ארץ שהיא בחי' המדרגה התחתונה להיות עם ודבר נפרד[14] כו'

This is because of her apprehension, being on the level of "earth," which is the lowest level — to be a "people" and a separate thing, etc.

> Her longing comes from what she perceives in her position as "earth," the lowest divine level (Malchus), through which there comes to be a "people" — beings who exist as separate from their King. From that lowest place she yearns to be reunited with Him.

וכן הוא ג"כ בנפש האדם למטה המשכלת ומתבוננת בה' אחד איך שהוא יתברך מחדש בטובו[15] כו'

So too with the soul of man below, which reasons and contemplates the One G-d: how He, blessed be He, renews in His goodness, etc.,

> The same pattern repeats in the individual soul below: a person reflects with his intellect on G-d's oneness and on how He "in His goodness renews [each day the work of creation]" (from the first blessing before the Shema).

ומהווה כל העולמות מאין ליש ממש אשר ע"כ הוא ג"כ בחי' ארץ בבחי' רצוא ורצון לדבקה בו ית' ולאהבה את[16] ה' כי הוא חייך.

and brings all the worlds into being from nothing into actual something. Therefore it too is on the level of "earth," in a state of ratzo and will to cleave to Him, blessed be He, and "to love G-d, for He is your life."

> In this renewal G-d brings all worlds from nothing into real existence. Through such reflection his soul too becomes "earth": it is stirred to run toward G-d with desire and love. The verse "to love G-d, for He is your life" shows that the love grows from recognizing that G-d is one's very life.

5 והנה בחי' הרצוא הזה הוא בק"ש ובחי' השוב הוא בתפלת שמ"ע ובת"ת שהוא בחי' גילוי אלקות מלמעלה למטה כנודע.

Now, this level of ratzo is in the reading of the Shema, and the level of shov (return) is in the Shemoneh Esreh prayer and in Torah study, which is the level of the revelation of G-dliness from above to below, as is known.

> The Alter Rebbe now maps ratzo and shov onto the morning prayers. The Shema, with its declaration of G-d's oneness and its command to love Him, is the soul's running upward; the Shemoneh Esreh and the Torah study that follows are the "return," in which G-dliness is drawn down and revealed below.

ופסוד"ז שקודם ק"ש היינו לספר בשבחו של מקום כמ"ש רוממות אל בגרונם[17] ועי"ז נעשה כמו חרב פיפיות לעשות נקמה[18] כו' דהיינו לקרוע המסכים המבדילים גילוי אלקות.

The Verses of Praise (Pesukei deZimra), which precede the Shema, are to recount the praise of the Omnipresent, as it is written, "The exaltations of G-d are in their throat," and through this it becomes like "a double-edged sword, to execute vengeance," etc. — that is, to tear apart the partitions that screen off the revelation of G-dliness.

> Pesukei deZimra, the psalms and verses of praise said before the Shema, recount G-d's greatness. Psalm 149 speaks of "exaltations of G-d in their throat and a double-edged sword in their hand to execute vengeance"; the Alter Rebbe reads the praise itself as the sword, cutting through the screens that hide G-dliness.

וכ"ז הכנה בלבד לשמ"ע כי בשמ"ע הוא המשכת גילוי אלקות באמרו ברוך אתה הוי"ה אלקינו שהוא בחי' גילוי סוכ"ע בממכ"ע.

All this is only a preparation for the Shemoneh Esreh, for in the Shemoneh Esreh there is the drawing down of the revelation of G-dliness, when one says, "Blessed are You, Havayah, our G-d," which is the revelation of the light that encompasses all worlds (sovev kol almin) within the light that fills all worlds (memalei kol almin).

> Everything before it prepares for the Shemoneh Esreh, where the drawing down is explicit in each blessing's formula. "Blessed are You, Havayah, our G-d" means that the transcendent light (Havayah, sovev) becomes revealed within the light invested in the worlds ("our G-d," memalei).

אך כדי שיבא לזה צריך הוא[19] לסדר שבחו של מקום תחלה בפסוד"ז כמו בברוך שאמר והיה העולם[20]

But in order to come to this, one must first set out the praise of the Omnipresent in the Verses of Praise, as in "Blessed is He who spoke and the world came into being"

> Before this can happen, one must first set out G-d's praise in Pesukei deZimra, beginning with Baruch She'amar. As the Tzemach Tzedek observes, this seems to repeat the previous point; but here the point is that Pesukei deZimra prepares for the Shema, where the ratzo takes place. A long parenthesis follows, and the sentence resumes in part 9.

(כי עם היות שהנה"א היא בחי' ארץ שהוא בחי' רצוא אך היינו מצד שורשה יש בה בחי' השתוקקות תמיד לדבקה בו יתי'

(For although the G-dly soul is on the level of "earth," which is the level of ratzo, this is only from the standpoint of its root, [where] it has a constant yearning to cleave to Him, blessed be He.

> The parenthesis explains why preparation is needed: the G-dly soul is by nature "earth," always yearning to cleave to G-d — but that is its state in its root, above.

אבל בירידתה למטה להתלבש בגוף ונה"ב אשר הן מסתירי' על אורה כו' וממשיכים אותה אחריהם להמשך בקדרות אופל עניני עוה"ז ואז נסתר ונעלם בה התשוקה והרצוא לאלקות כנודע שלאום מלאום יאמץ וכשזה קם[21,22] כו'.

But in its descent below, to be clothed in the body and the animal soul, which conceal its light, etc., and draw it after them to be drawn into the murky darkness of the affairs of this world, then the longing and the ratzo for G-dliness become concealed and hidden within it, as is known: "one nation shall prevail over the other nation," and when this one rises, etc.

> Once it descends into a body and an animal soul, they hide its light and draw it into the darkness of worldly concerns, and its yearning for G-dliness becomes hidden. The verse about Jacob and Esau, "one nation shall prevail over the other," read by the Sages as "when one rises, the other falls," describes this contest: when the animal soul is strong, the G-dly soul's longing is concealed.

ואי לזאת כדי שתוכל לבא לבחי' הרצוא בשעת ק"ש צריכה הכנה רבה לזה והוא ענין פסוד"ז בסידור שבחו של מקום כו' והכל הכנה לבחי' השוב דשמ"ע[23] כי גם הרצוא הוא בשביל להיות שוב כנודע.

Therefore, in order that it be able to come to the level of ratzo at the time of the Shema, it needs great preparation for this, and that is [the purpose of] the Verses of Praise, in setting out the praise of the Omnipresent, etc. And all of it is a preparation for the level of shov of the Shemoneh Esreh, for the ratzo, too, is for the sake of there being shov, as is known,

> To reach the ratzo of the Shema, then, the soul needs considerable preparation, and this is the task of Pesukei deZimra. Yet the ratzo itself is not the goal: it exists for the sake of the shov, the drawing down that takes place in the Shemoneh Esreh.

כמו שהלוים היו טפלים לכהנים כו׳ וגם דרך פרט פסוד״ז הוא הכנה לשמ״ע ג״כ שהוא המשכה וגילוי למטה שמתחלה צריך לקרוע המסכים המבדילים ע״י פסוד״ז בכדי שיוכל להיות הגילוי למטה) just as the Levites were subordinate to the Kohanim, etc. And also, in particular, the Verses of Praise are a preparation for the Shemoneh Esreh, which is a drawing down and revelation below, for first one must tear apart the separating partitions through the Verses of Praise, so that the revelation below can take place.)

> The ascent serves the descent the way the Levites served as assistants to the Kohanim. More specifically, Pesukei deZimra also serves the Shemoneh Esreh directly: its cutting away of the separating screens is what allows the revelation below to happen.

איך שבדבור א׳ בלבד נתהוו שמים וארץ[24] וכל צבאם[25] כו׳ וכמו שמסיים בברכה זו בישתבח מלך יחיד חי העולמים[26] ובב״ש אומרים ג״כ יחיד חי העולמים מלך.

[It recounts] how by a single utterance alone heaven and earth and all their host came into being, etc., and as one concludes this blessing in Yishtabach: "King, Unique One, Life of the worlds," and in "Blessed is He who spoke" one likewise says, "Unique One, Life of the worlds, King."

> Back to the main sentence: Pesukei deZimra praises G-d by describing how heaven, earth and all their hosts came into being through a single utterance. Both Yishtabach, which closes this section, and Baruch She'amar, which opens it, call G-d "Unique One, Life of the worlds" together with "King."

פי׳ שהוא יתׄ׳ הוא יחיד ומיוחד כמו קודם בריאת העולם וחי העולמים הוא רק מבחי׳ מלך שבחי׳ מלוכה היא

This means that He, blessed be He, is single and unique just as before the creation of the world, and [being] "Life of the worlds" is only from the level of "King," for the level of kingship is only a mere radiance from Him, blessed be He; this radiance is drawn forth from Him, blessed be He, to be the life-force of all the worlds, higher and lower.

> The Alter Rebbe explains the phrase: G-d is "Unique" — alone and unchanged, exactly as before creation — while being "Life of the worlds" belongs only to His aspect of "King."

רק הארה בלבד ממנו יתׄ׳ שהארה זו נמשכת ממנו יתׄ׳ להיות חיות כל העולמות עליונים ותחתונים.[27]

> Kingship is only a faint radiance of G-d. It is this radiance, not His essence, that is drawn down to be the life-force of all the worlds. The contrast between "Unique" (G-d Himself) and "King" (a mere radiance) prepares for the next paragraphs.

6 ונודע שיש רבוי עולמות למעלה עד אין קץ ולמטה עד אין תכלית. וזהו פי' בשכמלי"ו כי ועד אין לו הפסק.[28]

It is known that there is a multitude of worlds, above without end and below without limit. This is the meaning of "Blessed be the Name of the glory of His kingdom forever and ever (le'olam va'ed)": for va'ed has no break.

> Kabbalah teaches that there is an endless multitude of worlds, both above and below. The Alter Rebbe finds this in the response to the Shema, "Blessed be the Name of the glory of His kingdom forever and ever": the Talmud teaches that wherever va'ed is used it means without interruption, so G-d's kingdom extends endlessly.

והיינו שבחי' כבוד מלכותו נמשך להחיות עולמות ונבראים אין קץ וכמ"ש היש מספר לגדודיו[29] כו' וכתיב אלף אלפין[30] ישמשוניה ורבו רבבן קדמוהי יקומון וזהו מספר גדוד[31] א' כו'.

That is, the glory of His kingdom is drawn forth to give life to worlds and creations without end, as it is written, "Is there any number to His troops?" etc., and it is written, "A thousand thousands serve Him, and myriads of myriads stand before Him" — and this is the number of one troop, etc.

> It is His kingship, "the glory of His kingdom," that flows into all these endless worlds and creatures to give them life. Job speaks of G-d's countless "troops," and Daniel of "a thousand thousands" and "myriads of myriads" of angels — yet the Talmud says Daniel's staggering figure is only the count of a single troop.

7 ועם כל הרבוי הזה מ"מ כולם נמשכים רק מבחי' מלך שהוא בחי' שם לבד כמאמר למען שמו באהבה מלך[32] כו'.

Yet with all this multitude, they are nonetheless all drawn only from the level of "King," which is merely the level of a "name," as the saying goes, "for the sake of His Name, with love. King," etc.

> Yet this entire endless multitude draws its life only from the level of "King," which is merely G-d's "Name." A name exists for others to call a person by and does not touch his essence; so too kingship is how G-d relates to others, not what He is. The first blessing of the Shemoneh Esreh places "for the sake of His Name, with love" directly beside "King."

והוא בחי' ממכ"ע ומזה נולדה בחי' התפעלות האהבה בלבבו באמרו ואהבת את[33] ה' אלקיך פי' את ה' אלקיך היינו כמש"ל שמע ישראל[34] ה' אלהינו כו'

This is the level of memalei kol almin. And from this is born the stirring of love in one's heart when he says, "And you shall love Havayah your G-d." The meaning of "Havayah your G-d" is as stated above, "Hear, O Israel, Havayah is our G-d," etc.

> This life-giving kingship is the light that fills all worlds (memalei), the divine energy within each creature. Contemplating this arouses love when one says "And you shall love Havayah your G-d," and "Havayah your G-d" means what was explained for "Havayah is our G-d": the transcendent Havayah revealed within "your G-d."

והוא מה שמעלה יתירה נודע' לנו מכל גדודי מעלה שקרבנו לשמו הגדול שהוא בחי' סוכ"ע ועצמיות אלקותו יתברך הוא בחי' יחיד שלמעלה מעלה מבחי' חי העולמים שהוא רק מבחי' מלך כו'

And this is the added superiority that is known to us over all the troops on high: that He has brought us near to His great Name, which is the level of sovev kol almin and the very essence of His G-dliness, blessed be He — the level of "Unique One," which is far, far above the level of "Life of the worlds," which is only from the level of "King," etc.

> Israel's special advantage over all the angelic hosts is that G-d "brought us near to His great Name" (from the blessing before the Shema): to sovev, His very essence, the level of "Unique One," far above "Life of the worlds," the mere level of "King" from which the angels draw.

וזהו שנק' כנ"י אחת כמ"ש אחת היא יונתי[35] כו' שהיא מקבלת מבחי' ה' אחד ממש.

And this is why the Community of Israel is called "one," as it is written, "One is she, My dove," etc., for she receives from the level of "Havayah is One" in the fullest sense.

> That is why the Community of Israel is called "one," as in the Song of Songs, "One is she, My dove": she receives from "Havayah is One" — from G-d's oneness itself, not merely from His kingship.

8 והיינו ע"י שתהי' בבחי' אחת היא לאמה[36,37] להיות שע"י ההתבוננות תבא לבחי' אחת להיות לה

That is, by her being in the state of "She is one to her mother": that through contemplation she comes to a state of oneness, having

> The verse "One is she, My dove" continues, "she is one to her mother." The Alter Rebbe explains how the soul reaches this oneness: through contemplation it comes to have a single will.

רק רצון א' לדבקה בו יתב' והוא בחי' רצוא הנ"ל לבחי' סוכ"ע לדבקה בעצמות אלקות וכמאמר מי לי בשמים כו'.

only one will — to cleave to Him, blessed be He. This is the above-mentioned level of ratzo toward the level of sovev kol almin, to cleave to the very essence of G-dliness, as in the saying, "Whom do I have in heaven," etc.

> That single will is to cleave to G-d Himself. This is the ratzo described above, now directed to sovev — G-d's transcendent essence — rather than to the life-force within the worlds; as the Psalmist says, "Whom do I have in heaven [but You]?"

וזהו ענין ואהבת שבק"ש ופי' וענין הרצוא היינו כמ"ש בכה ארוץ גדוד[38] בכה דוקא בעצמותך וארוץ גדוד היינו בחי' אלף אלפין ישמשוניה ורבו רבבן קדמוהי יקומון[39]

And this is the meaning of "And you shall love" in the Shema. The meaning and nature of the ratzo is as it is written, "For by You (bechah) I run through a troop": "bechah" specifically — in Your very essence; and "I run through a troop" refers to the level of "A thousand thousands serve Him, and myriads of myriads stand before Him"

> This is the love of "And you shall love" in the Shema. David's verse "by You I run through a troop" now receives its full meaning: bechah, "by You," means in G-d's very essence, and the "troop" is the countless angelic hosts of Daniel's vision.

(ועמ"ש במ"א ע"פ ורב כח לתבונתו אין מספר[40,41] איך ששרש כל גדוד הוא בו"ק דאצי' יעו"ש) שבכולם לא יחפוץ רק בהי' לבדו.

(and see what is explained elsewhere on the verse "Great in power, His understanding is beyond number," how the root of every troop is in the six extremities (vav ketzavos) of Atzilus; see there) — that among all of them he desires nothing but G-d alone.

> In a parenthesis, the Alter Rebbe refers to another discourse that traces the root of every angelic "troop" to the six emotive Sefiros of Atzilus. The soul runs past all these hosts because it desires nothing but G-d alone.

ואדלג שור היינו גם בחי' כל המקיפים עליונים כי שור הוא חומה כמ"ש בנות צעדה[42] עלי שור.

"I leap over a wall (shur)" refers also to the level of all the supernal encompassing lights (makifim), for shur means a wall, as it is written, "Daughters strode upon the wall (shur)."

> The second half of David's verse, "by my G-d I leap over a wall," refers to something higher still: the encompassing lights (makifim), levels too lofty to enter the worlds, which surround them as a wall surrounds a city. Shur means "wall," as in Jacob's blessing of Joseph.

ועד"מ החומה הוא מקיף לעיר גם הם אדלג כי התשוקה היא רק למהו"ע יתי' ממש

By way of analogy, a wall encompasses a city; these too "I leap over," for the longing is only for His very essence and being, blessed be He > Even these lofty surrounding levels the soul "leaps over," because its longing is not for any revelation, however high, but for G-d's essence itself.

(שגם כל המקיפים כלא חשיב אצלו יתי' וכמ"ש במ"א בפי' אדון הנפלאות[43] כו' ולכן נק' שור כמו שהחומה נעשית מאבני' שהם רק בחי' דומם כך כתיב עשה פלא[44] שבחי' פלא ומקיפי' עליונים הוא רק כמו בחי' עשייה אצלו יתי')

(for all the encompassing lights, too, are considered as nothing before Him, blessed be He, as is explained elsewhere on the meaning of "Master of wonders," etc. That is why they are called "wall": just as a wall is made of stones, which are merely inanimate, so it is written, "He does (oseh) wonders," for the level of "wonder" and the supernal encompassing lights are only like the level of "doing" (asiyah) before Him, blessed be He).

> A second parenthesis: before G-d even the highest encompassing lights count as nothing. That is why they are called a "wall" — a wall is built of stones, inanimate matter — and why the verse says "He does wonders": from G-d's perspective even the "wonders," the supernal makifim, are a mere "doing," the lowest kind of activity.

וז"ש מי לי בשמים[45,46] ועמך לא חפצתי בארץ כו' שמים הם בחי' מקיפים וארץ הם בחי' פנימיים שזהו בחי' שור ובחי' גדוד הנ"ל וארוץ ואדלג אותם בכח התשוקה שלי בכה ממש בעצמותך:[47]

This is the meaning of "Whom do I have in heaven? And besides You I desire nothing on earth," etc.: "heaven" is the level of the encompassing lights and "earth" is the level of the inner lights — that is, the level of "wall" and the level of "troop" mentioned above — and I run past them and leap over them by the power of my longing, "bechah," truly in Your essence.

> The Psalm verse sums it up: "heaven" stands for the encompassing lights (the "wall") and "earth" for the inner lights that enter the worlds (the "troop"). The soul runs past both by the strength of its longing for bechah — G-d's very essence.

SECTION 3 • ¶9–11

Shov: drawing G-dliness down

9 והנה מבחינת רצוא הנ"ל בק"ש נעשה שוב אח"כ בתפלה. ולכן גם בסוף הק"ש הוא מסיים אני ה' אלהיכם

Now, from the above-mentioned level of ratzo in the Shema, there afterward comes about shov in the prayer. Therefore at the end of the Shema, too, one concludes, "I am Havayah your G-d,"

> The Shema's upward ratzo leads into the shov of the Amidah prayer. That is why even the Shema itself ends with a descent: "I am Havayah your G-d."

פי' אלקיכם ממש להיות בחי' גילוי אלקות בכל או"א מלמעלה למטה להיות אחד באחד[48] כו'.[49] meaning literally "your G-d": that there be a revelation of G-dliness in each and every one, from above to below, "to become one with the One," etc.

> "Your G-d" is meant literally: G-dliness is to be revealed within each individual, from above to below. The Zohar's phrase "to become one with the One" describes this unity, when the One above is revealed within the one below.

10 ואח"כ בשמ"ע בח"י ברכאן נמשך זה הגילוי אור בבחי' שוב ממש בח"י ברכות באמרו בא"י מברוך לאתה בגילוי לנוכח כידוע.

Afterward, in the Shemoneh Esreh, in the eighteen blessings, this revelation of light is drawn down in a state of actual shov — in the eighteen blessings, when one says, "Blessed are You, Havayah": from "Blessed" to "You," in revelation, in direct address, as is known.

> In the Shemoneh Esreh the revelation is drawn down in full shov through its eighteen blessings. Each begins "Blessed are You": the movement from "Blessed" (understood in Chassidus as a drawing down) to "You" addresses G-d directly, as present and revealed.

ואחר שמ"ע בלימוד התורה נמשך גילוי זה בתורה כמ"ש ותורה אור[50] כו' כי רוח אייתי רוח כו'

After the Shemoneh Esreh, in the study of Torah, this revelation is drawn into the Torah, as it is written, "and the Torah is light," etc., for "spirit brings spirit," etc.

> After prayer comes Torah study, and the same revelation is drawn into the Torah, which Proverbs calls "light." The principle "spirit brings spirit" explains the link: the spirit a person arouses in prayer brings a corresponding spirit from above into his learning.

ועי"י בחי' הרצוא הנ"ל נמשך בחי' רוח המשכה מלמעלה למטה וכמ"ש אם ישים אליו לבו רוחו ונשמתו אליו יאסף[51] כו'

Through the above-mentioned level of ratzo, the level of "spirit" is drawn down — a drawing from above to below — as it is written, "If he sets his heart toward Him, His spirit and His soul He gathers to him," etc.

> It is the ratzo of the Shema that draws this "spirit" down. Job's words "If he sets his heart toward Him, His spirit and His soul He gathers to him" are read as: when a person turns his heart to G-d, G-d's spirit is drawn to him.

ואח"כ במעשה המצות נמשך בחי' שוב זה יותר וכידוע בשרש ענין המצות שהוא להמשיך האור בכלי דוקא וכמ"ש כי נר מצוה כו'.

Afterward, in the practical performance of the mitzvos, this level of shov is drawn down further, as is known concerning the root of the mitzvos: it is to draw the light into a vessel specifically, as it is written, "For a mitzvah is a lamp," etc.

> The shov goes further still in the practical mitzvos. The root purpose of the mitzvos is to draw the divine light into a vessel — physical objects and deeds — as "a mitzvah is a lamp" suggests: a lamp is the vessel that holds the light.

11 ועל קיום המצות ארז"ל בע"כ אתה חי[52,53] פי' לפי שאחר האהבה והתשוקה במס"נ בבחי' רצוא הנ"ל אח"כ נעשה בחי' שוב להיות בע"כ אתה חי בגוף כדי להיות גילוי אור האלקי מלמעלה למטה במעשה המצות.

Concerning the fulfillment of the mitzvos, our Sages, of blessed memory, said, "Against your will you live." That is: after the love and longing with self-sacrifice (mesirus nefesh), in the above-mentioned state of ratzo, there afterward comes about the state of shov — "against your will you live" in the body — so that there be a revelation of the G-dly light from above to below through the performance of the mitzvos.

> The Mishnah's "Against your will you live" is applied to the mitzvos. After the soul's ratzo — a love so intense that it would give itself up entirely — it must "return" and go on living in the body against its will, because only there can the G-dly light be revealed below through the practical mitzvos.

וזהו פי' בכל לבבך[54] במס"נ תחילה בבחי' הרצוא ואח"כ ובכל נפשך היא בחי' שוב לקשר מחדו"מ במחדו"מ של התורה ומצות כו'.

This is the meaning of "with all your heart" — with self-sacrifice first, in the state of ratzo — and afterward, "and with all your soul," which is the level of shov: to bind thought, speech and action with the thought, speech and action of the Torah and mitzvos, etc.

> Two phrases of the Shema match the two movements: "with all your heart" is the self-sacrificing ratzo, and "with all your soul" is the shov, in which a person binds his thought, speech and action to the thought, speech and action of the Torah and its commandments.

SECTION 4 • ¶12–15

Shov is heaven, ratzo is earth

12 והנה בחי' השוב נק' שמים כי הנה בבחי' השוב הזה בתומ"צ נמשך האור למעלה בבחי' מקיף כידוע שהמצות הן בחי' מקיפי' וע"כ נעשו המצות לבושים לנשמה בג"ע כי הלבושים והמקיפי' ענין א' הם כו'.

Now, the level of shov is called "heaven," for in this level of shov, through Torah and mitzvos, the light is drawn above in the manner of an encompassing light, as is known that the mitzvos are encompassing lights (makifim). Therefore the mitzvos become garments for the soul in the Garden of Eden, for garments and encompassing lights are one thing, etc.

> Now the shov is identified with "heaven." Through Torah and mitzvos a light is drawn that encompasses the soul (a makif), as the heavens encompass the earth. This is why the mitzvos become the soul's "garments" in the Garden of Eden: a garment is a kind of encompassing.

וז"ש צרורה בצרור החיים[55,56] כו' צרור זה היינו המצות כידוע והתורה אע"פ שנק' מזון[57] מ"מ היא ג"כ בחי' לבוש

This is the meaning of "bound up in the bond of life," etc.: this "bond" is the mitzvos, as is known. And the Torah, although it is called "food," is nevertheless also a garment, > Abigail's blessing that David's soul be "bound up in the bond of life" is read as referring to the mitzvos, which wrap the soul. The Torah is called "food," which is absorbed within like an inner light; yet it too is a garment.

כמ"ש עטה אור כשלמה[58] (ועיין דבר זה במ"א ע"פ כי ביום הזה יכפר[59,60] כו' בענין כך היא דרכה של תורה כו' אשריך וטוב לך.[61] וע"פ וראיתם אותו וזכרתם[62,63] כו' וע"פ את שבתותי תשמרו)[64]

as it is written, "He wraps [Himself in] light as a garment" (and see this matter elsewhere, on the verse "For on this day He shall atone," etc., on the theme "This is the way of the Torah… happy are you, and it is good for you"; and on the verse "And you shall see it and remember," etc.; and on the verse "My Sabbaths you shall keep").

> The verse "He wraps [Himself in] light as a garment" shows light — the Torah — as a garment. The parenthesis points to other discourses (on Yom Kippur's atonement, on the tzitzis, and on keeping Shabbos) where this is developed.

ע"כ נק' בחי' שוב זה ע"י תומ"צ בשם שמים כי כמו שהשמים מקיפי' לארץ כך בחי' השוב הזה הוא בחי' מקיף לבחי' הרצוא דארץ הנ"ל.

Therefore this level of shov, through Torah and mitzvos, is called by the name "heaven": for just as the heavens encompass the earth, so this level of shov encompasses the above-mentioned level of the ratzo of "earth."

> So the shov achieved through Torah and mitzvos is called "heaven": it surrounds the "earth" of the soul's ratzo as the heavens surround the earth.

ועוד זאת עד"מ מארץ ושמים הגשמיים הרי אנו רואים שהארץ אינה רק כגרגיר חרדל לגבי מרחב הכדור של השמים המקיפי' עליה מכל צדדיה בהשואה אחת.

Moreover, by way of analogy from the physical earth and heavens, we see that the earth is only like a mustard seed compared with the expanse of the sphere of the heavens, which surround it on all sides equally.

> A second point from the physical world: compared with the vast sphere of the heavens surrounding it equally on every side, the whole earth is no larger than a mustard seed.

כך ערך בחי' הרצוא הזה דארץ לגבי בחי' השוב דתומ"צ שנק' רצונו וחכמתו ית' הוא רק כערך גרגיר חרדל לגבי מרחב הגדול דשמי'.

So the proportion of this level of ratzo of "earth" to the level of shov of Torah and mitzvos — which are called His will and His wisdom, blessed be He — is only as the proportion of a mustard seed to the great expanse of the heavens.

> The same proportion holds spiritually. The soul's ratzo, however intense, is tiny compared with the shov of Torah and mitzvos, because Torah and mitzvos are G-d's own will and wisdom, while the ratzo is only a creature's longing.

13 וזהו השמים כסאי[65] והארץ הדום רגלי פי' הדום רגלי הוא ע"ד השרפרף לכסא שמגביה הרגלים כך הנשמות שנק' ברא כרעא דאבוה[66, 67] מתעלים ע"י בחי' ארץ הוא בחי' הרצוא.

This is [the meaning of] "The heavens are My throne and the earth is My footstool." The meaning: "My footstool" is like the footrest of a throne, which raises the feet; so the souls, which are called "the son is the leg of his father," are elevated through the level of "earth," which is the level of ratzo.

> Isaiah's verse, "The heavens are My throne and the earth is My footstool," is now read through ratzo and shov. A footstool raises the feet; the souls are called G-d's "feet" ("a son is his father's leg"), and they are raised through "earth," the upward ratzo.

ודרך פרט כל זמן שיש עליי' לבחי' ארץ העליונה היא כנס"י כמו בשבת ויו"ט דכתיב אם תשיב משבת רגלך[68] וכן הגי' י"ט נק' ג' רגלים.[69, 70, 71]

And in particular, whenever there is an elevation for the level of the supernal "earth," which is the Community of Israel — as on Shabbos and festivals, as it is written, "If you turn away your foot (raglecha) because of the Shabbos," and likewise the three festivals are called the three regalim ("feet").

> In particular, the supernal "earth" is the Community of Israel, and it ascends at special times: on Shabbos, as in "If you turn away your foot because of the Shabbos," and on the three festivals, which are called regalim, "feet."

14 והשמים כסאי היינו בחי' שוב שהוא ירידה והמשכה ה"ז כמו היושב על הכסא שמשפיל קומתו. וזהו ואתה קדוש[72] יושב תהלות ישראל.

And "The heavens are My throne" is the level of shov, which is descent and drawing down; this is like one who sits on a throne, who lowers his stature. This is [the meaning of] "And You, Holy One, sit [enthroned] upon the praises of Israel."

> "The heavens are My throne" refers to the shov, the descent: one who sits on a throne lowers his height. So too "You, Holy One, sit upon the praises of Israel."

פי' שהוא יתי קדוש ומובדל מכל העולמות רק ע"י תהלות ישראל נמשך להיות יושב ונשפל למטה וכמאמר שהקב"ה יושב ועוסק בתורה[73] כו'.

The meaning: He, blessed be He, is holy and separate from all the worlds; only through the praises of Israel is He drawn to be "sitting," lowered below, as in the saying that the Holy One, blessed be He, sits and occupies Himself with Torah, etc.

> G-d is "holy" — separate and beyond all worlds; only through Israel's praises is He drawn to "sit," lowering Himself to be revealed below. The Talmud's image of G-d "sitting and occupying Himself with Torah" reflects this same descent into the Torah.

15 וזהו שנקי התפלה סולם[74] מוצב ארצה וראשו מגיע השמימה.[75] פי' הסולם הוא העליי' בבחי' רצוא

This is why prayer is called "a ladder set upon the earth, and its top reaches to heaven." The meaning: the ladder is the ascent in the state of ratzo,

> The Zohar calls prayer the ladder of Jacob's dream, "set upon the earth with its top reaching heaven." The ladder itself — the climb upward — is the ratzo.

אך ראשו מגיע השמימה שבשמו"ע מתחיל השוב כנ"ל ועיקרו אח"כ ע"י תומ"צ. וזשארז"ל לחד מ"ד דארץ קדמה[76] לשמים בבריא'.

but "its top reaches to heaven," for in the Shemoneh Esreh the shov begins, as mentioned above, and its main part comes afterward through Torah and mitzvos. This is what our Sages, of blessed memory, said, according to one opinion, that the earth preceded the heavens in creation.

> But "its top reaches heaven": the shov begins at the peak of prayer, in the Shemoneh Esreh, and is completed through Torah and mitzvos. This explains the Talmudic view that the earth was created before the heavens.

כי הרי מבואר למעלה בענין ק"ש וש"ע ותורה דבחי' הרצוא צ"ל קודם לבחי' השוב וכך היא המדה כי מאתעדל"ת דוקא נעשה אתעדל"ע

For it has been explained above, concerning the Shema, the Shemoneh Esreh and Torah, that the level of ratzo must come before the level of shov. And this is the rule: specifically from an arousal from below is an arousal from above brought about, as it is written, "If he sets his heart toward Him," and only then, afterward, "His spirit and His soul He gathers to him." Therefore "earth" (eretz), which is a term of ratzo, preceded "heaven," which is the level of shov.

> As shown above, in the order of the Shema, the Shemoneh Esreh and Torah study the ratzo comes before the shov. This is a general rule: an arousal from above (the divine response) comes about only through an arousal from below (human initiative).

וכמ״ש אם ישים אליו לבו[77] ואז אח״כ רוחו ונשמתו אליו יאסף וע״כ ארץ שהוא ל׳ רצוא קדמה לשמים שהוא בחי׳ שוב.

> Job's verse shows the order: first "he sets his heart toward Him," then "His spirit and His soul He gathers to him." So eretz, "earth," the running, came before "heaven," the return.

SECTION 5 • ¶16

Why the world exists for Torah and Israel

16 ובכ״ז יובן משארז״ל בראשית בשביל ישראל שנק׳ ראשית וגם בשביל התורה שנק׳ ראשית. ברא אלקים את השמים ואת הארץ הגשמיים.

With all this, one will understand what our Sages, of blessed memory, said: "Bereshis — for the sake of Israel, who are called 'beginning,' and also for the sake of the Torah, which is called 'beginning' — G-d created the heavens and the earth," the physical ones.

> The Alter Rebbe returns to the question of paragraph 1: why did the Sages say that the physical heaven and earth were created "for the sake of" Israel and the Torah?

דהנה בתורה ובישראל יש בחי׳ שמים וארץ רוחניים. בתורה הוא בחי׳ שוב שהוא בחי׳ שמים כנ״ל. ובישראל בעבודתם במס״נ הוא בחי׳ רצוא בחי׳ ארץ.

For in the Torah and in Israel there is a spiritual heaven and earth. In the Torah it is the level of shov, which is the level of "heaven," as explained above; and in Israel, in their service with self-sacrifice, it is the level of ratzo, the level of "earth."

> The answer: the Torah and Israel each embody one of the two spiritual movements. The Torah is shov — G-d's will and wisdom drawn down — and so it is "heaven"; Israel, in their self-sacrificing service, embody ratzo, the upward rush, and so they are "earth."

וע״כ על ידי תורה וישראל דוקא יתקיימו שמים וארץ הגשמיי׳ דהיינו ע״י בחי׳ שמים וארץ הרוחניי׳ שהוא בחי׳ רצוא ושוב שע״י תורה וישראל

Therefore it is specifically through the Torah and Israel that the physical heaven and earth are sustained — that is, through the spiritual heaven and earth, which are the ratzo and shov that come through the Torah and Israel

> Therefore it is precisely through these spiritual counterparts — the ratzo and shov that come about through Israel and the Torah — that the physical heaven and earth continue to exist.

(וזהו ואשים דברי בפיך[78] כו' לנטוע שמים וליסוד ארץ. וגם יי"ל שבתומ"צ עצמן יש בחי' שמים וארץ כי המצות מעשיות הן בחי' ארץ כי הארץ הדום רגלי[79] שרפרף.

(and this is [the meaning of] "And I have put My words in your mouth," etc., "to plant the heavens and to lay the foundations of the earth." One may also say that within the Torah and mitzvos themselves there is a level of heaven and earth: the practical mitzvos are the level of "earth," for "the earth is My footstool," a footrest.

> A parenthesis offers support and a refinement. G-d tells the prophet, "I have put My words in your mouth… to plant the heavens and lay the foundations of the earth": Torah establishes heaven and earth. Alternatively, Torah and mitzvos themselves contain heaven and earth: the practical mitzvos are "earth," the "footstool" that raises one up.

וכך צדקה תרומם גוי.[80] ותורה היא בחי' שמים והמשכה. ועי' על מאמר מזוזה מימין[81] כו'. וזהו ואשים דברי בפיך הוא בחי' תורה.

And so, "Charity exalts a nation." And the Torah is the level of "heaven" and drawing down. And see on the saying "The mezuzah on the right," etc. And this is [the meaning of] "And I have put My words in your mouth" — this is the level of Torah;

> So too "Charity exalts a nation": a practical mitzvah lifts up, like the footstool. The Torah is "heaven," a drawing down. The reader is also referred to another discussion, on the saying "the mezuzah on the right." In Isaiah's verse, "I have put My words in your mouth" refers to the Torah.

ובצל ידי כסיתיך הוא בחי' מצות שעי"ז לנטוע שמים וליסוד ארץ. וא"ש דבראשית היינו בשביל התורה שנק' ראשית שיש בה עצמה בחי' שמים וארץ תומ"צ.

"and in the shadow of My hand I have covered you" — this is the level of mitzvos; and through this, "to plant the heavens and to lay the foundations of the earth." It thus fits well that Bereshis means "for the sake of the Torah, which is called 'beginning,'" for it itself contains the level of heaven and earth: Torah and mitzvos.

> In the same verse, "in the shadow of My hand I have covered you" refers to the mitzvos, which surround a person like a covering; together they "plant the heavens and found the earth." So the Torah, which itself contains heaven and earth — study and mitzvos — is fittingly the "beginning" for whose sake the world was created.

לכן ע"י"ז מתקיימים שמים וארץ וכן בשביל ישראל כו' שיש בהן בחי' רו"ש. ועיין מ"ש ע"פ הזוהר פרשה שופטים[82] שמים וארץ אינון סהדין[83] כו'):[84]

Therefore through it heaven and earth are sustained; and likewise "for the sake of Israel," etc., who have within them the level of ratzo and shov. And see what is explained on the Zohar, Parshas Shoftim, "Heaven and earth are witnesses," etc.).

> Israel likewise contain ratzo and shov, so the world exists for their sake too. The parenthesis closes with a reference to the explanation of the Zohar's statement in Parshas Shoftim that "heaven and earth are witnesses."

SECTION 6 • ¶17–21

The new earth of the Time to Come

17 והנה כ"ז הוא ענין שמים וארץ דעכשיו שצ"ל תחלה בחי' ארץ רצוא. ואח"כ מקבלת מבחי' שמים השוב כו'.

Now, all this concerns the heaven and earth of the present, in which there must first be the level of "earth," ratzo, and afterward it receives from the level of "heaven," the shov, etc.

> Everything so far describes heaven and earth as they are now: first the "earth" of ratzo, and then the "heaven" of shov received in response.

אבל לע"ל כתיב הנני עושה חדשה[85] בארץ.[86] ופי' וענין התחדשות זו בבחי' ארץ. היינו משום דלע"ל לא יהיה שייך בחי' רצוא דארץ

But of the Time to Come it is written, "Behold, I am making a new thing in the earth." The meaning and substance of this newness in the level of "earth" is that in the Time to Come the ratzo of "earth" will not apply

> The prophets speak of "a new thing in the earth" in the Time to Come (the Alter Rebbe's wording joins Isaiah's "Behold, I am making a new thing" with Jeremiah's "a new thing in the earth"). The novelty will be in "earth" itself: ratzo as we know it will no longer apply.

ע"ד שהוא עכשיו שהוא ענין הרצוא והתשוקה לצאת מההפך אשר החושך יכסה ארץ[87] כו' כנ"ל בענין פסוד"ז שהוא בחי' רוממות אל בגרונם[88] in the way it does now — which is the ratzo and longing to go out of the opposite, where "darkness covers the earth," etc., as explained above regarding the Verses of Praise, which are the level of "the exaltations of G-d in their throat,"

> Today's ratzo is a longing to break out of its opposite, a state where "darkness covers the earth." That is why, as explained above, Pesukei deZimra — "the exaltations of G-d in their throat" — are needed.

כדי שעי"ז נעשה חרב פיפיות לעשות נקמה בגוים[89] הוא נה"ב והגוף כו' דהיינו שע"י הרצוא נעשה בטול רצון בחי' אתהפכא חשוכא לנהורא.

so that through this it becomes "a double-edged sword to execute vengeance upon the nations" — which are the animal soul and the body, etc. — that is, through the ratzo there comes about a nullification of will, the level of "transforming darkness into light."

> The praises of Pesukei deZimra become the "double-edged sword" taking "vengeance on the nations," now identified as the animal soul and the body. Through ratzo, a person's own will is nullified and "darkness is transformed into light" — the forces of concealment themselves are turned to holiness.

שזה אינו שייך רק עכשיו שיש קליפות המסתירים עד שהחשך יכסה ארץ והוא בחי' לבושים המלבישים ומסתירים וכמ"ש אלביש שמים קדרות[90] כו'.

This applies only now, when there are kelipos that conceal until "darkness covers the earth"; this is the level of garments that clothe and conceal, as it is written, "I clothe the heavens in blackness," etc.

> All this belongs only to the present, when the kelipos conceal G-dliness like garments covering it, as "I clothe the heavens in blackness" describes. Where there is no darkness, there is nothing to break out of.

18 ולכן הוזהרנו בק"ש השמרו לכם[91] פן יפתה לבבכם וסרתם כו' והשתחויתם פי' שכל קליפה המסתרי' נק' אלהים אחרים ועבודת כוכבים וההשתחואה

Therefore we were warned in the Shema, "Beware, lest your heart be seduced and you turn aside," etc., "and bow down." The meaning: every concealing kelipah is called "other gods" and idol worship, and the bowing down

> Because concealment exists now, the Shema warns: "Beware lest your heart be seduced… and you bow down [to other gods]." In Chassidic terms every concealing kelipah is "other gods": anything that hides G-dliness is a kind of idolatry.

היינו בחינת המשכה כמו ע"י השתחואה בקדושה בכריעה בברוך[92] שממשיך גילוי אלקות. כך את זלעו"ז[93] כו'.

is a drawing down — just as through bowing in holiness, in the bowing at "Blessed," one draws down a revelation of G-dliness. So too, "one opposite the other [G-d made]," etc.

> Bowing means drawing down. In holiness, bowing at "Blessed" in the Amidah draws down divine revelation; and since "G-d made one opposite the other," bowing to the "other side" draws life-force down to it.

19 וזהו מארז"ל ישראל שבחוץ לארץ[94] עובדי ע"ז בטהרה הם. דהיינו כשהוא ח"ו לגמרי חוץ לארץ העליונה שהוא בחי' הרצון לה' ית' בחי' ארץ שרצתה[95] כו'

This is [the meaning of] what our Sages, of blessed memory, said: "Jews who live outside the Land are idol worshipers in purity." That is, when one is, G-d forbid, entirely "outside the land" — the supernal "land," which is the level of will for G-d, blessed be He, the level of "earth, which ran," etc. —

> The Talmud says that Jews living outside the Land of Israel "worship idols in purity" — innocently. The Alter Rebbe reads "the Land" as the supernal "earth," the will and longing for G-d ("earth, which ran to do its Maker's will"). One who is wholly "outside" this land has lost all ratzo for G-d.

רק שנמשך לגמרי אחרי הבלי עוה"ז הגם שהם דברים המותרים מבחי' טוב שבנוגה ע"י גורם יניקה והמשכה לבחי' נוגה.

and is drawn entirely after the vanities of this world, even though they are permitted things, from the good within nogah, through this he causes nourishment and a drawing down to the level of nogah.

> Such a person is drawn entirely after worldly pleasures. Even if they are permitted things, which come from the good within nogah (the intermediate kelipah that can be raised to holiness or fall), pursuing them for their own sake feeds nogah instead of elevating it.

20 וזה נקרא השתחואה והמשכה לבחי' אלהים אחרים כו' דהיינו תוס' יניקה לחיצונים. וע"י ועצר את השמים[96] ולא יהיה מטר שלא יהיה ההמשכה בקדושה מבחי' שוב דשמים עליונים כו'

This is called bowing down and drawing down to the level of "other gods," etc. — that is, additional nourishment for the external forces. And through this, "He will close up the heavens and there will be no rain": there will be no drawing down in holiness from the shov of the supernal heavens, etc.

> Pursuing worldly things for their own sake is "bowing down to other gods": it gives added nourishment to the external forces (the kelipos). The consequence stated in the Shema — "He will close up the heavens and there will be no rain" — means that the shov, the drawing down of holiness from the supernal "heavens," is withheld.

ובהיות כן צריך כ"א לעורר בחי' רצוא אם ישים אליו לבו[97] לאהפכא חשוכא לנהורא ומרירו למתיקו כו'

That being so, each person must arouse the level of ratzo — "If he sets his heart toward Him" — to transform darkness into light and bitterness into sweetness, etc.,

> Therefore each person must arouse ratzo, setting his heart toward G-d, in order to transform darkness into light and bitterness into sweetness.

ולעבדו בכל לבבכם[98] כו' שזהו בחי' ארץ ועי"ז ונתתי מטר ארצכם[99] כו' הוא בחי' השוב.

and "to serve Him with all your heart," etc., which is the level of "earth"; and through this, "I will give the rain of your land," etc., which is the level of shov.

> This is "to serve Him with all your heart," the "earth" of ratzo; and in response comes "I will give the rain of your land," the shov from heaven. The second paragraph of the Shema thus describes both the problem and its remedy.

משא"כ לעתיד לבא דכתיב ואת רוח הטומאה[100] אעביר כו' ולא יהיה כלל בחי' קליפה המסתרת גילוי אלקות וכן נאמר ולא יכנף עוד מוריך[101] והיו עיניך רואות כו'.

This is not so in the Time to Come, of which it is written, "And I will remove the spirit of impurity," etc.: there will be no kelipah at all concealing the revelation of G-dliness. And it is also said, "Your Teacher will no longer be hidden, and your eyes shall see," etc.

> In the Time to Come it will be different: G-d promises to "remove the spirit of impurity," so no kelipah will conceal G-dliness, and "your Teacher will no longer be hidden; your eyes will see."

א"כ א"צ כלל ענין בחי' הביטול של היש שזהו בחי' הרצוא דעכשיו לצאת מבחי' ההפך המנגד כו'. וזהו הנני עושה חדשה בארץ.

If so, there will be no need at all for the nullification of the "something" (yesh), which is the ratzo of the present — to go out from the opposing contrary, etc. And this is [the meaning of] "Behold, I am making a new thing in the earth."

> Then there will be no need to nullify one's sense of self (yesh), which is what today's ratzo does as it breaks out of its opposite. This is the "new thing in the earth": "earth" will no longer be a ratzo of this kind.

פי' שלא יהיה כמו עכשיו בחי' רצוא ואתעדל"ת שעי"ז יהיה ההמשכה שאז כיון שיהיה הגילוי למטה כמו למעלה א"כ אין שייך רצוא כו'

That is, there will not be, as now, ratzo and an arousal from below through which the drawing down comes; for then, since the revelation below will be as it is above, ratzo does not apply, etc.

> Now the drawing down depends on our ratzo, the arousal from below. Then, because G-dliness will be revealed below as openly as above, there will be nothing to "run" toward.

(ובזה יי"ל מ"ש כי ההרים ימושו[102] כו' כי הר היינו בחי' רצוא כנודע מענין לא כאברהם שקראו הר[103] כו' ואז יתבטל בחי' זו כיון שגם למטה יהיה הגילוי ממש עין בעין יראו[104] כו')

(With this one may explain what is written, "For the mountains shall depart," etc., for "mountain" is the level of ratzo, as is known from the matter of "not like Abraham, who called it a mountain," etc.; and then this level will be annulled, since below too there will be actual revelation — "eye to eye they shall see," etc.)

> A parenthesis: this explains "the mountains shall depart." A "mountain" stands for ratzo, the climb upward (the Talmud says Abraham called the Temple site a "mountain"). When G-dliness is seen "eye to eye" below, the climb is no longer needed.

וע"כ אמר שיהיה אז בחי' השמים החדשים והארץ החדשה אשר אני עושה[105] אני דוקא דהיינו מצד אתעדל"ע בלבד ולא מצד אתעדל"ת כלל כי א"צ אתעדל"ת רק לברר ולהפך מחשוכא לנהורא כנ"ל

Therefore He said that there will then be "the new heavens and the new earth that I make" — "I" specifically, that is, from an arousal from above alone and not from an arousal from below at all; for an arousal from below is needed only to refine and to transform from darkness to light, as explained above.

> Hence G-d says "the new heavens and the new earth that I make" — "I," by an arousal from above alone. An arousal from below is needed only to refine the world and turn its darkness into light.

אבל לע"ל שא"צ לזה יהי' בחי' אתעדל"ע לבד ע"כ אמר אשר אני עושה והיינו שקורא אותן בשם שמים חדשים וארץ חדשה.

But in the Time to Come, when this will not be needed, there will be an arousal from above alone. Therefore He said, "that I make," and that is why He calls them "new heavens" and "a new earth."

> In the Time to Come, when there is no darkness to transform, everything will come from above alone; that is why they are called "new" heavens and a "new" earth.

פי' שבאים בבחי' גילוי מלמעלה למטה מצד עצמות המאציל אשר לא היה עדיין בחי' כזו בבחי' גילוי בראשית ההשתלשלות.

The meaning: they come as a revelation from above to below, from the very Essence of the Emanator, a level such as has not yet been in a state of revelation at the beginning of the chain of descending worlds (hishtalshelus).

> They are new because this revelation comes from G-d's very essence, "the Emanator," a level never revealed even at the very start of the chain of worlds.

כמו דכתיב ביום עשות[106] ה' אלקים ארץ ושמים ענין אלקים זה היינו בחי' הצמצום וההסתר.

As it is written, "On the day that Havayah Elokim made earth and heaven": this "Elokim" is the level of tzimtzum and concealment.

> By contrast, the present heaven and earth were made, as Genesis 2:4 says, by "Havayah Elokim," and "Elokim" is the Name of tzimtzum — contraction and concealment.

ששמים וארץ דעכשיו נמשכו על ידי שם אלקים כמ"ש בראשית ברא אלקים[107] כו' וע"י ארץ שהוא בחי' רצוא נמתק הדין והצמצום דשם אלקים המעלים והמסתיר.

For the present heaven and earth were drawn forth through the Name Elokim, as it is written, "In the beginning Elokim created," etc.; and through "earth," which is the level of ratzo, the judgment and the tzimtzum of the Name Elokim, which obscures and conceals, are sweetened.

> The present world came into being through the Name Elokim ("In the beginning Elokim created"). The ratzo of "earth" is what softens — literally "sweetens" — the judgment and concealment of Elokim.

21 וזהו ביום עשות[108] ה' אלקים שנכלל אלקים זה בהוי"ה וזהו פי' עשות ה' אלקים. היינו יחוד והתכללות שמות אלו יחד.

This is [the meaning of] "On the day that Havayah Elokim made": that this Elokim is absorbed into Havayah. This is the meaning of "Havayah Elokim made" — the union and merging of these Names together.

> The pairing "Havayah Elokim" in the verse expresses that the Name Elokim (contraction) is absorbed into Havayah (the infinite). "Havayah Elokim made" thus refers to the union and blending of these two Names.

וכ"ז הוא ע"י ארץ ושמים בחי' רו"ש. אך צ"ל ארץ קדמה דוקא בחי' רצוא תחלה.

All this comes through "earth" and "heaven," ratzo and shov; but "earth" must come first — the level of ratzo first.

> This union is achieved through "earth" and "heaven," ratzo and shov; and in the present order "earth" must come first, as the verse says, "earth and heaven."

אבל לעתיד שיהיו שמים חדשים וארץ חדשה הוא בחי' אשר אני עושה ולא ע"י צמצומים דשם אלקים ואז יהיו שמים קודם

But in the Time to Come, when there will be new heavens and a new earth, it is the level of "that I make," not through the contractions of the Name Elokim, and then the heavens will come first,

> In the Time to Come, the new heavens and earth will be "that I make," without the contractions of Elokim, and so "heaven" will come first.

כי א"צ לבחי' קדימת הרצוא כו' וזהו ויצא כברק חצו[109] שהוא בחי' גילוי מלמעלה למטה:

for there will be no need for the ratzo to come first, etc. And this is [the meaning of] "And His arrow shall go forth like lightning," which is the level of revelation from above to below.

> No prior ratzo will be needed then. Zechariah's "His arrow shall go forth like lightning" describes such a revelation, flashing from above to below.

SECTION 7 • ¶22–26

Ratzo and shov within the divine flow

22 אך הנה צריך להבין בענין השמים החדשים וארץ החדשה דאם הם באים רק בבחי' אתעדלי"ע לבד שזהו

But we must understand, concerning the new heavens and the new earth: if they come only through an arousal from above alone, which is

> The Alter Rebbe raises a difficulty with the maamar's verse itself. The new heavens and earth are said to come purely from an arousal from above; this is what "that I make" means.

פי' אשר אני עושה[110] כו' א"כ איך יתכן בזה בחי' ארץ בחי' רצוא מלשון רץ כנ"ל the meaning of "that I make," etc., then how can there be in this [a level of] "earth," the level of ratzo, from the term "running" (ratz), as explained above?

> If so, how can the future include an "earth" at all, if "earth" means ratzo, a creature's running upward toward G-d?

(והרי לעתיד לא שייך בחי' רצוא כלל אפי' מלמטה כמשנת"ל. וכ"ש לכאורה דלא שייך בחי' זו בהגילוי שמלמעלה שהוא בחי' אשר אני עושה).

(For in the Time to Come ratzo will not apply at all, even from below, as explained above; and all the more so, it would seem, this level does not apply to the revelation from above, which is the level of "that I make.")

> The parenthesis sharpens the question: it was just shown that in the future even creatures below will have no ratzo; surely, then, ratzo has no place in a revelation that comes from G-d above.

ולמה אמר והארץ החדשה אשר אני עושה לא היה לו להזכיר רק בחי' שמים לבד.

Why, then, did He say "and the new earth that I make"? He should have mentioned only the level of "heaven" alone.

> So why does the verse speak of "the new earth that I make," and not only of new heavens?

אך הענין הוא דגם בבחי' אתעדלי"ע בלבד יש ב' מדרגות הללו דרו"ש רק שהשמים קדמו לארץ.

But the explanation is that even in an arousal from above alone there are these two levels of ratzo and shov, except that the heavens precede the earth.

> The answer in brief: even a flow that comes purely from above has both movements, ratzo and shov — only there, "heaven" comes before "earth." The next paragraphs explain how.

23 ולהבין איך יתכן בחי' רצוא בעצמות המאציל מאחר שאין דבר מסתיר לפניו כלל.

To understand how there can be a level of ratzo in the very Essence of the Emanator, since nothing at all conceals before Him:

> Until now ratzo was described as a creature's longing to escape concealment. How can anything like it exist in G-d's own essence, where nothing hides anything?

הנה יובן עד"מ שאנו רואים בחי' רו"ש בגוף האדם הגשמי ברוח החיים אשר בקרבו שדופק בלבו ונק' בזוהר דפיקו דלבא שהחיות שבלב הוא בא בנשימה דוקא רו"ש בהתפשטות והסתלקות

It will be understood by way of analogy. We see a level of ratzo and shov in the physical human body, in the breath of life within it, which beats in his heart and is called in the Zohar "the beating of the heart" (defiku deliba). For the life-force in the heart comes specifically by way of breathing — ratzo and shov, in expansion and withdrawal —

> An analogy from the human body: the breath of life in the heart pulses; the Zohar calls it "the beating of the heart." The heart's vitality works like breathing — it expands and withdraws, which is ratzo and shov.

וכן חוזר חלילה שמתפשט וחוזר ומסתלק וחוזר ומתפשט כדפק שביד שהחיות נמשך ומתפשט וחוזר ומסתלק וחוזר ומתפשט.

and so it repeats over and over: it expands, then withdraws again, then expands again, like the pulse in the hand, where the life-force is drawn forth and expands, then withdraws again, then expands again.

> The pulse in the wrist shows the same rhythm: the life-force spreads out, pulls back and spreads out again, continuously.

וכן הוא ממש בדפיקו דלבא[111] שהוא ענין התפשטות והסתלקות והתפשטות של רוח החיים שבלב והיינו ממש כמו בחי' רו"ש.

And so it is exactly in the beating of the heart, which is the expansion, withdrawal and expansion of the breath of life in the heart; and this is exactly like the level of ratzo and shov.

> The heartbeat is exactly this rhythm of expansion and withdrawal of the life-breath, and it matches ratzo and shov.

ונמצא רו"ש כזה הוא הכל בגוף האדם עצמו עדיין ולא מזולתו אליו (ור"ל שרו"ש זה[112] הוא כענין המשכת חיות הנפש בהגוף שסדר המשכה זו הוא ע"י התפשטות והסתלקות כו' שזהו בחי' רו"ש) וגם

Thus such ratzo and shov is still entirely within the person's body itself, and not from something else toward it (that is to say, this ratzo and shov is like the drawing of the soul's life-force into the body, the order of this drawing being through expansion and withdrawal, etc., which is the level of ratzo and shov). And also,

> Crucially, this ratzo and shov takes place entirely within the body itself; nothing outside it blocks the life-force or draws it away. It is simply how the soul's vitality flows into the body — by expanding and withdrawing.

it will further be understood from this analogy that in the beating of the heart the ratzo does not precede the shov; on the contrary, the shov precedes the ratzo, as is plainly observed: first there is the expansion and drawing of the life-force into the heart, which is like the level of shov, the drawing of the light into the vessel.

> The analogy shows a second point: in the heartbeat, shov comes before ratzo. First the life-force expands into the heart, like shov, the light entering a vessel.

ואמנם תכף ומיד חוזר ומסתלק והוא בחי' רצוא והסתלקות האור מהכלי וחוזר ומתיישב וכן חוזר חלילה.

But immediately it withdraws again, which is the level of ratzo and the withdrawal of the light from the vessel; and it settles again, and so on over and over.

> Immediately it withdraws — like ratzo, light leaving the vessel — and then settles back again, over and over.

וכדמיון הנשימה מהבל הפה שבתחלה יתפשט ההבל והרוח ומיד יחזור בחזרה וחוזר ומתפשט. וכדוגמא הזאת יובן למשכיל למעלה בבחי' רצוא ושוב[113] שמלמעלה למטה

It is like breathing, the breath of the mouth: at first the breath and air go out, and immediately they come back, and go out again. And after this pattern the discerning will understand above, regarding ratzo and shov from above to below

> Breathing is similar: first the breath goes out, then it comes back, then it goes out again. From this the thoughtful reader can understand ratzo and shov in the flow from above to below.

(ולא בבחי' רו"ש שוהחיות רצוא ושוב של הנבראי' כו'. כ"א אדרבה ג"כ בהשפעה עליונה של א"ס ב"ה בכלים ועולמות.

(and not [only] regarding the ratzo and shov of "and the chayos ran and returned," of the creatures, etc.; but, on the contrary, also in the supernal flow of the Infinite One, blessed be He, into vessels and worlds.

> A parenthesis: ratzo and shov exist not only in creatures, like the chayos of Ezekiel's vision, but also in the flow of the Infinite into the vessels (the Sefiros) and the worlds.

וגם אפי' ממש בראשית מראשית ההמשכה מא"ס ב"ה להתלבש בשרש בחי' הכלים שהן שרש כל העולמות עליונים ותחתונים שייך ג"כ רצוא ושוב שהוא הסתלקות והתפשטות.

And also, even at the very beginning, from the very start of the drawing forth from the Infinite One, blessed be He, to be clothed in the root of the vessels, which are the root of all the worlds, higher and lower, ratzo and shov — which are withdrawal and expansion — also apply.

> Even at the very first stage, when the Infinite light is drawn to clothe itself in the root of the vessels — the source of all worlds — there is withdrawal and expansion.

כי מיד שנמשך ומתפשט צ"ל הסתלקות שאל"כ יתבטלו הכלים מהיות בחי' כלים כו' רק שההתפשטות הוא קודם. והוא כמו בחי' השוב ואח"כ הוא בחי' הסתלקות ורצוא וכן חוזר חלילה. ועמ"ש במ"א ע"פ ויקחו לי תרומה[114, 115] כו')

For as soon as it is drawn forth and expands, there must be withdrawal; otherwise the vessels would be nullified from being vessels, etc. Only, the expansion comes first. It is like the level of shov, and afterward comes the level of withdrawal and ratzo, and so on over and over. And see what is explained elsewhere on the verse "And let them take for Me an offering," etc.),

> The reason: if the light kept expanding without withdrawing, the vessels would be overwhelmed and cease to be vessels. So the flow must pulse. Still, the expansion comes first (shov), then the withdrawal (ratzo). The Alter Rebbe refers to his discourse on "And let them take for Me an offering" for more.

דשייך ג"כ בחי' רצוא. רק שהתפשטות האור קודם לבא ואח"כ מיד חוזר ומסתלק וחוזר ומתפשט.

that a level of ratzo applies as well; only, the expansion of the light comes first, and afterward it immediately withdraws again, and expands again.

> Back to the main sentence: ratzo applies even in the flow from above; only there the expansion of the light comes first, and then it immediately withdraws and expands again.

וזהו ענין קול דודי דופק[116] שהקול וההמשכה מלמעלה למטה הוא ג"כ כמו בחי' הדפק הנ"ל.

And this is the meaning of "The voice of my beloved knocks" (dofek): the voice and the drawing down from above to below is also like the pulse (dofek) mentioned above.

> This is the meaning of "The voice of my beloved knocks (dofek)" in the Song of Songs: the divine "voice" flowing down to us pulses like a heartbeat (dofek).

24 ונקי' זה בע"ח[117] בשם מטי ולא מטי[118] שהאור מטי ומתפשט וחוזר ומסתלק ולא מטי. שבחי' מטי הוא בחי' ההתפשטות קודם לבחי' לא מטי. והכל בבחי' אלקות עצמו.

In Etz Chaim this is called "reaching and not reaching" (mati velo mati): the light reaches and expands, and then withdraws again and does not reach. The level of "reaching," the expansion, precedes the level of "not reaching." And all of it is within G-dliness itself.

> Etz Chaim, the Arizal's classic, calls this pulse "reaching and not reaching" (mati velo mati): the light reaches into the vessel, then withdraws and does not reach. "Reaching" comes first. And all of this takes place within G-dliness itself, not through any outside concealment.

וזהו כי ה' אלקיך אש אוכלה הוא.[119, 120] ענין דמיון שפע האלקות לאש. הוא מפני שהאש טבעו בבחי' הסתלקות אחר ההתפשטות כדמיון דפיקו דלבא.

And this is [the meaning of] "For Havayah your G-d is a consuming fire." The reason the divine flow is likened to fire is that the nature of fire is to withdraw after expanding, like the beating of the heart.

> This is why the Torah calls G-d "a consuming fire." The nature of fire is to flare out and then pull back — it flickers — like the beating heart, and so it is an apt image for the divine flow.

25 וזהו ענין השמים החדשים והארץ החדשה. שהוא בחי' ההמשכה העליונה אשר נמשך באתעדל"ע לבד בזה יש ג"כ בחי' שמים וארץ.

And this is the meaning of the new heavens and the new earth: in the supernal drawing forth, which is drawn by an arousal from above alone, there are also the levels of heaven and earth.

> This resolves the question of paragraph 22: the new heavens and new earth, drawn purely from above, also contain "heaven" and "earth."

ההמשכה בחי' מטי נקי' שמים ובחי' ההסתלקות האור מהכלי הנקי' לא מטי זהו בחי' ארץ מלי' רצוא.

The drawing forth, the level of "reaching," is called "heaven"; and the level of the withdrawal of the light from the vessel, which is called "not reaching," is the level of "earth," from the term ratzo.

> In G-d's own flow, the drawing of light into the vessel ("reaching") is "heaven," and the withdrawal of the light from the vessel ("not reaching") is "earth" — ratzo, a running back upward.

26 ולכן כאן קדם שמים לארץ בהיות בחי' מטי קדם לבחי' לא מטי. משא"כ ברצוא ושוב דנבראים צ"ל תחלה ארץ בחי' רצוא ואח"כ שמים בחי' שוב. וכמ"ש והחיות רו"ש[121] וכתיב ביום עשות כו' ארץ ושמים[122] כנ"ל.

Therefore here "heaven" precedes "earth," since the level of "reaching" precedes the level of "not reaching." This is not so with the ratzo and shov of created beings, where there must first be "earth," the level of ratzo, and afterward "heaven," the level of shov — as it is written, "And the chayos ran and returned," and it is written, "On the day [Havayah Elokim] made," etc., "earth and heaven," as explained above.

> That is why the verse says "new heavens and new earth," with heaven first: in the divine pulse, reaching precedes not reaching. In creatures, by contrast, ratzo comes first — "the chayos ran and returned," and "earth and heaven" — as explained above.

SECTION 8 • ¶27–28

"So shall your seed and your name stand"

27 וזהו ענין כאשר השמים החדשי' והארץ החדשה כו' עומדים לפני. לפני דייקא דהיינו בבחי' הפנימיו' ועצמיות מה שאין אתעדל"ת מגעת לשם כלל. כן יעמוד זרעכם ושמכם.[123]

And this is the meaning of "For as the new heavens and the new earth," etc., "stand before Me": "before Me" (lefanai) precisely — that is, in the level of the innermost dimension and essence, where an arousal from below does not reach at all. "So shall your seed and your name stand."

> The verse continues: the new heavens and earth "stand before Me." Lefanai, "before Me," shares its root with penim, "inner," and so points to G-d's innermost essence, a level that no human arousal can reach. And yet: "so shall your seed and your name stand."

פי' זרעכם ושמכם הוא בחי' אתעדל"ת וההמשכה הנמשך ע"י אתעדל"ת. כי הנה המצות נק' בשם זריעה כמ"ש זורע צדקות.[124]

The meaning: "your seed and your name" is the level of the arousal from below and the drawing forth that is drawn through the arousal from below. For the mitzvos are called "sowing," as it is written, "He sows charity,"

> "Your seed and your name" represent the arousal from below and what it draws down. The mitzvos are called "sowing," as in the blessing before the Shema, where G-d "sows charity."

ועי"ז מצמיח ישועות בגילוי אלקות מבחי' ש"ע נהורין כו'. ושמכם הוא בחי' קבלת עומ"ש ויעש דוד שם.[125] and through this "He causes salvations to sprout," in the revelation of G-dliness from the level of the 370 lights, etc. And "your name" is the level of accepting the yoke of the kingdom of Heaven, as it is written, "And David made a name."

> That blessing continues that G-d "causes salvations to sprout": like a seed, the mitzvah yields a growth far greater than itself, a revelation from the "370 lights" (a Zohar term for a very lofty level of divine light). "Your name" is accepting the yoke of Heaven, as in "David made a name," David being the model of kingship.

28 והנה כבר מבואר שבחי' שמים וארץ החדשים הוא גילוי מבחי' שאין אתעדל"ת מגעת לשם כלל שגילוי זה יהי' לע"ל.

Now, it has already been explained that the level of the new heavens and earth is a revelation from a level that an arousal from below does not reach at all, and that this revelation will be in the Time to Come.

> The Alter Rebbe restates: the new heavens and earth are a future revelation from a level that no arousal from below can reach.

וא"כ סד"א שההמשכה שע"י אתעדל"ת בתומ"צ בבחי' ארץ ושמים שלנו רו"ש תהי' בטילה לגמרי מחמת גילוי העצום ההוא שמבחי' אשר אני עושה.

If so, one might have thought that the drawing forth through an arousal from below, in Torah and mitzvos — in the level of our "earth and heaven," ratzo and shov — will be entirely nullified because of that tremendous revelation from the level of "that I make."

> One might conclude that our present service — Torah and mitzvos, the "earth and heaven" of ratzo and shov that we bring about — will be swallowed up and lose all significance before that overwhelming revelation.

לזה אמר כן יעמוד זרעכם ושמכם.[126] שגם בחי' זו דאתעדל"ת יתעלה להיות עומדים לפני בבחי' הפנימית ממש כמו בחי' שמים החדשים וארץ החדשה כו'.

To this He said, "So shall your seed and your name stand": this level of the arousal from below, too, will be elevated to "stand before Me," in the innermost level itself, just like the level of the new heavens and the new earth, etc.

> The verse answers: "so shall your seed and your name stand." Our arousal from below will itself be raised to "stand before Me," in the innermost level, just like the new heavens and earth.

וכמ״ש הנה ישכיל עבדי[127] ירום ונשא וגבה מאד דהיינו עבדי הוא בחי׳ אתעדל״ת בחי׳ לעבדה ולשמרה[128] כו׳. הנה בחי׳ זו ממש תתעלה בעילוי אחר עילוי עד כי גבה מאד:

As it is written, "Behold, My servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up and be very high." That is, "My servant" is the level of the arousal from below, the level of "to work it and to guard it," etc. This very level will be elevated from ascent to ascent, until "very high."

> Isaiah's "My servant shall prosper… and be very high" says the same: "My servant" is the service of the arousal from below, like Adam's charge "to work it and to guard it." This service will rise from level to level until it is "very high."

IN ONE'S AVODAH

Through contemplation in Pesukei deZimra and the Shema a person must arouse a longing for G-d Himself, beyond anything in the worlds, and so overcome the animal soul's concealment. That longing must then "return" into Torah study and the practical mitzvos, living in the body for their sake. One who pursues even permitted pleasures for their own sake, without any longing for G-d, is "outside the land" and feeds the kelipah. And this service, done now through an arousal from below, will itself stand forever before G-d.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why must the physical heaven and earth have spiritual counterparts in the Torah and Israel, and which is which?
2. How does the contrast between G-d as "King" and as "Unique One" shape the love of the Shema?
3. Why is the ratzo of prayer only a preparation for shov, and how does "against your will you live" express this?
4. If ratzo belongs to creatures escaping concealment, how can there be ratzo within G-d's own flow? What do the heartbeat and fire illustrate?
5. Why does the verse put heaven before earth in the future, and what does "so shall your seed and your name stand" promise about our service now?

FOR CHILDREN · AGES 9–13

For the children at the table

Running up and coming back

THE BIG IDEA

We run toward G-d with longing in our prayer, and then come back down to bring His light into the world through Torah and mitzvos.

The Torah begins, “In the beginning G-d created the heavens and the earth,” and our Sages say the world was created for the sake of the Jewish people and the Torah. So the maamar teaches that there is a spiritual “earth” and “heaven” inside our service of G-d. The Hebrew word for earth, eretz, is connected to running (ratz) and to wanting (ratzon). This is ratzo, “running”: a deep longing to come close to G-d Himself. We reach it in the Shema, after thinking in Pesukei deZimra about how G-d made the whole world with a single word. Then comes shov, “returning”: in the Shemoneh Esreh, in learning Torah and in doing mitzvos, we bring G-d’s light down into our lives. The Torah and mitzvos surround the soul the way the sky surrounds the earth. Now, we must first run up, and only then does G-d’s light come down, so earth comes before heaven. The prophet Yeshayahu promises “new heavens and a new earth” in the Time to Come, when G-d’s light will come first. Even then, the mitzvos we do now will stand before G-d forever.

THE MASHAL

Our heart beats all the time: the life in it spreads out, pulls back, and spreads out again, and we breathe out and breathe in, over and over. This running and returning happens inside us without stopping. In the same way, G-d’s own light reaches out and then pulls back, again and again.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. What is the difference between “running” toward G-d and “returning” to bring His light into the world?
2. Why does the maamar compare the Torah and mitzvos to the sky that surrounds the whole earth?
3. Before davening this week, what could you think about that would help you want to be close to G-d?

The way of the world is that a person empties a full vessel into an empty vessel. Can one, perhaps, pour a full vessel into a full vessel? The world in its entirety is all water, and yet you say "to one place"? But from here [we see] that a smaller space was able to contain a greater amount [than its size]. Rabbah b. Hinnana [the Elder] also said in the name of Rab : When one prays [the Tefillah] and has to bow, he should bow at the word "Blessed" ; and when returning to the erect position, he should do so on mentioning the Divine Name. Samuel asked : What is Rab's reason ? Because it is written, "The L-rd raiseth up them that are bowed down" (ibid, cxlvi. 8). Against this is quoted, "And from before My name he is afraid" (Mal. ii. 5)!

An Explanation of the Above

Torah and mitzvos, though clothed in physical matters, are G-d's own wisdom and will, one with Him as no created soul can be; they draw the unity of Atzilus into the lower worlds, and in the Time to Come they will rise even higher, into the World of Akudim revealed in the "new heavens and new earth."

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

Building on Isaiah's promise that, like the new heavens and earth, "your seed and your name" will stand, the maamar asks why the soul descends into a body: above it already loved and feared G-d, and the Torah, which has descended into physical matters, seems to depend on love and awe to "fly upward." The answer distinguishes Atzilus, "called by My Name," where lights and vessels are one with the Infinite, from Beriah and below, "created for My glory," which receive G-d's light only through a garment and contain the broken vessels of Tohu. Rectifying them takes two stages: prayer's ratzo, which separates good from evil (mayin nukvin, "earth"), and Torah and mitzvos, the "limbs of the King," which draw down the unity of Atzilus (mayin dechurin, "heaven"). Since the soul is a created being while Torah and mitzvos are one with G-d, they surpass its love and awe; love and awe only reveal the Infinite Light within them. In the Time to Come the World of Akudim, the inner dimension of Atik, will be revealed as the "new heavens and earth," and Torah ("your seed") and accepting G-d's kingship ("your name") will ascend there too.

OUTLINE

1 The question ¶1–4

The theme verse; the soul's descent is for an ascent through Torah and mitzvos — but why are Torah and mitzvos, which descended into physicality and need love and awe to rise, greater than the soul's love and awe above?

2 "Called by My Name" and "for My glory" ¶5–10

Atzilus, where lights ("His life-forces") and vessels ("His vessels") are one with the Infinite, versus Beriah and below, which receive G-d's light through a garment and remain separate.

3	Tohu and Tikkun: the angels and the lower worlds The angels' roaring service; the lower worlds hold the broken vessels of Tohu and need a new light from Atzilus, drawn through service, to be rectified.	¶11–14
4	Two stages of refinement Prayer's ratzo separates good from evil (mayin nukvin); Torah and mitzvos, the limbs of the King, draw down the supernal unity (mayin dechurin).	¶15–18
5	Why Torah surpasses the soul's love and awe The soul is created and not one with G-d; Torah and mitzvos are His wisdom and will. Love and awe reveal the Infinite Light within the Torah and "make" G-d's Name; earth (prayer) precedes heaven (Torah).	¶19–21
6	The future: the World of Akudim After the refinement is complete, the inner dimension of Atik — the World of Akudim, above Atzilus — will be revealed as the "new heavens and new earth," bringing new souls.	¶22–26
7	"Your seed and your name" Torah is the "seed" that grows; accepting G-d's kingship is the "name," rooted in Keser. Both will ascend into the World of Akudim.	¶27–28

KEY CONCEPTS

Atzilus and Beriah אצילות / בריאה

Atzilus is "called by My Name": G-d's light is received there in full unity. Beriah and below are "created for My glory": they receive the light only through a garment and remain separate.

He and His life-forces, He and His vessels איהו וחיוהי חד איהו וגרמוהי חד

The Tikkunei Zohar's description of Atzilus: the lights ("life-forces") and the vessels ("organs") are both one with the Infinite.

Tohu and Tikkun תהו ותקון

The World of Tohu, whose vessels shattered and fell into the lower worlds, and the World of Tikkun (Atzilus), where lights and vessels are ordered and united; service rectifies the fallen fragments.

Mayin nukvin and mayin dechurin מ"ן ומ"ד

The "feminine waters," the arousal and refinement from below through prayer, and the "masculine waters," the flow from above through Torah and mitzvos.

Ratzo רצוא

The soul's "running" toward G-d in prayer, leaping beyond even the encompassing lights; it separates good from evil.

The World of Akudim עולם העקודים

A world above Atzilus in which all powers are "bound" in one vessel without division; the inner dimension of Atik, to be revealed in the Time to Come as the "new heavens and new earth."

Limbs of the King רמ"ח אברין דמלכא

The 248 positive commandments, vessels for G-d's own light and life-force, clothed in physical matters to elevate them.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–4

The question

1 ביאור על הנ"ל[1]

An explanation of the above.

> This maamar is presented as a further explanation of the preceding discourse in Torah Ohr. It develops the idea discussed there — how the unity that exists in the highest world, Atzilus, is to be drawn down into the lower worlds — through a verse from Isaiah about the "new heavens and the new earth."

2 כי כאשר השמים[2] החדשים והארץ החדשה אשר אני עושה עומדים לפני כן יעמוד זרעכם ושמכם.

"For as the new heavens and the new earth that I am making stand before Me, so shall your seed and your name stand."

> The verse from the end of Isaiah is the theme of the whole maamar. The prophet promises that just as the "new heavens and new earth" of the future will endure before G-d, so will Israel's "seed" and "name." Later the maamar will explain each of these terms: the new heavens and earth as a new revelation from beyond the ordinary order of the worlds, the "seed" as Torah and the "name" as accepting the yoke of the mitzvos.

הנה נודע תכלית ירידת הנשמה לגוף בעוה"ז שטרם ירידתה היתה כלולה במאצילה ב"ה באהוי"ר כו'. כי הנפש יש לה שכל ומדות[3] כו'.

Now, it is known [what] the purpose of the soul's descent into the body in this world [is]: before its descent it was included in its Emanator, blessed be He, with love and awe, etc. For the soul has intellect and emotive attributes, etc.

> The discussion begins with a well-known premise: before coming down into a body, the soul already stood in closeness to G-d, loving and fearing Him. That was possible because a soul has intellect and emotions of its own, with which it can understand G-dliness and respond with love and awe. So why did it need to descend at all?

3 וירדה ונתלבשה בגוף ונה"ב המעלימי' ומסתירי' כו' ומלבישים אותה בלבושים צואים.[4] הן המדות שמצד הקליפה כו'

And it descended and was clothed in a body and in the animal soul, which conceal and hide [it], etc., and clothe it in soiled garments — these are the emotive attributes that stem from the side of kelipah, etc.

> The soul came down and was wrapped in a body and in the animal soul, which hide its G-dly light. The "soiled garments" (an image from Zechariah's vision of the High Priest) are the emotions that come from the side of kelipah, the forces of concealment: love and fear directed to worldly things instead of to G-d.

שירידה זו צורך עליי' היא. כדי לברר בירורין ע"י המשכת התורה והמצות שבהן מלובש אור א"ס ב"ה.

[And it is known] that this descent is for the sake of an ascent: in order to effect refinements (birurim) through drawing down the Torah and the mitzvos, in which the Infinite Light, blessed be He, is clothed.

> Yet the descent serves a higher purpose. Through the Torah and the mitzvos, in which the Infinite Light is clothed, the soul refines (literally, "sorts out") the good from the bad in the world and in itself, and so rises higher than it was before.

4 ובהן ועל ידן יהי' גילוי אור א"ס ב"ה ממש על נפשו כו' כמ"ש במ"א.[5,6] ולהבין זה

And in them and through them there will be a revelation of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, itself upon his soul, etc., as is explained elsewhere. And to understand this:

> Through Torah and mitzvos the Infinite Light itself — not merely a glimmer of it — is revealed upon the soul. The Alter Rebbe now sets out to understand why this should be so.

for the Torah and the mitzvos that are before us are also [the product] of descents and the chaining-down of levels from the light of His countenance, may He be blessed, until they were clothed in physical and material matters — which is why the angels requested, "[You] Who set Your majesty upon the heavens," etc. So in what will their superiority over the level of the soul's love and awe consist?

> The difficulty: the Torah we have also came down through all the levels, until it deals with physical matters such as oxen and property. The Talmud recounts that when Moshe ascended to receive it, the angels asked G-d to keep the Torah in heaven ("Set Your majesty upon the heavens"). If the Torah has descended so far, how can it be greater than the pure love and awe the soul had above?

וגם הרי אמרו כי אורייתא בלא דו"ר[9] לא פרחת לעילא[10] שאהוי"ר הן הגדפין המעלות ומנשאות את התורה. והרי אדרבה נראה שמעלת אהוי"ר גדלה מאד ביתר שאת ממעלת התורה:

And moreover, [the Sages] said that Torah without fear and love does not fly upward, for love and awe are the wings that raise and lift up the Torah. On the contrary, then, it would appear that the level of love and awe is very much greater, and exceedingly so, than the level of the Torah.

> A second difficulty: the Tikkunei Zohar says that Torah studied without love and awe "does not fly upward." Love and awe are the wings that carry the Torah up. It seems, then, that love and awe are far greater than the Torah itself.

SECTION 2 • ¶5–10

"Called by My Name" and "for My glory"

5 אך הענין הוא דכתיב כל הנקרא בשמי[11] ולכבודי בראתיו כו'. הנקרא בשמי הוא עולם האצילות שהוא נקרא בשמי ממש.

But the matter is [as] it is written, "Everyone that is called by My Name, and for My glory I created him," etc. "That is called by My Name" is the World of Atzilus, which is called by My Name in actuality.

> The answer begins with a verse that divides creation into two kinds: "called by My Name" and "created for My glory." Atzilus, the highest world, is "called by My Name" literally: it is itself G-dly.

ששם שורה אור א"ס ב"ה ממש ומתייחדים עמו בתכלית היחוד דאיהו וחיוהי חד[12] ואיהו וגרמוהי חד שהכל בטל ונכלל באור א"ס ב"ה ממש.

For there the Infinite Light, blessed be He, itself rests, and they are united with it in the utmost unity, for "He and His life-forces are one, and He and His vessels are one," for everything is nullified and included in the Infinite Light, blessed be He, itself.

> In Atzilus the Infinite Light itself dwells, and everything there is completely united with it. The Tikkunei Zohar expresses this: in Atzilus G-d is one with His "life-forces" (chayohi), the lights, and with His "vessels" (garmohi), the vessels. Nothing there feels itself as separate.

ועל כולם נקרא שמו שכולם הם בבחי' א"ס. הגם שאין ערוך אליו יתי' (וכנודע שאדם דאצילות נקרי' אדם דעשיה בחי' עשי' גשמי') ואפילו עולם האצילות אינו אלא זיו והארה כו'.

And His Name is called upon all of them, for they are all on the level of the Infinite. [This is so] even though there is no comparison [between them and] Him, may He be blessed (and as is known, Adam of Atzilus is called Adam of Asiyah, the level of physical Asiyah), and even the World of Atzilus is only a radiance and an illumination, etc.;

> The Alter Rebbe qualifies this: Atzilus is still not comparable to G-d Himself. As is known from Kabbalah, even "Adam of Atzilus" (the Divine configuration of that world) counts, relative to G-d's essence, like the lowest, physical world. Atzilus is only a radiance of G-d, not His essence.

רק שההארה היורדת ונמשכת שם היא מתאחדת בלי שום פירוד והתחלקות עד שכולם מלאים מן ההארה ההיא. ואין שם תפיסת שום דבר זולת ההארה ההיא.

only, the illumination that descends and is drawn there is united, without any separation or division, until they are all filled with that illumination. And there, nothing at all has any hold apart from that illumination.

> What makes Atzilus unique is that this radiance is received there without any separation or division: everything in it is filled with that radiance, and nothing there exists as a thing in its own right apart from it.

כי אצילות מלשון הפרשה[13, 14] כמו ויאצל מן הרוח[15] כו' דגבי משה דתרגומו ואפריש שבודאי לא נתן כל רוחו על הזקנים עד שהגיעו למעלתו ומדרגתו ממש

For "Atzilus" is from the term for setting apart, as in "And He set apart (vayatzel) from the spirit," etc., concerning Moshe, which the Targum renders "and He separated." For certainly he did not give all of his spirit to the elders until they reached his very stature and level;

> The very name Atzilus shows this. It comes from the verse in which G-d "set apart" some of the spirit that was upon Moshe and gave it to the seventy elders; the Targum translates the word "and He separated." Moshe did not give the elders all his spirit, so that they would equal him.

אלא שהפריש מרוחו והוריד למטה שיתלבש במדת הזקנים כדי שיתעלו קצת ויוכלו שאת עמו כאחד והיו לאחדים. עם היות שאינם אחדות אחד במהותם ממש מ"מ יכולים הם להתאחד עמו.

rather, he set apart [some] of his spirit and brought it down below, to be clothed in the measure of the elders, so that they would be elevated somewhat and be able to bear [the burden] with him as one, "and they became one." Although they are not one unity in their actual essence, nevertheless they are able to be united with him.

> Rather, a portion of his spirit was brought down and fitted to the elders' capacity, so that they could share his burden and become "one" with him. They were not one with him in their essential selves, but they were united with him through the portion of his spirit they received — just as Atzilus is united with G-d through the light it receives from Him.

6 והיינו שהם מיוחדים בזיו ואור הנמשך ממנו. כך עולם האצילות הוא שהאציל אור א"ס ב"ה והפריש זיו

That is, they are united in the radiance and light that is drawn from him. So too the World of Atzilus: [G-d] emanated the Infinite Light, blessed be He, and set apart a radiance

> The elders were united with Moshe through the light of his spirit that came to them. Likewise, Atzilus is the Infinite Light "set apart": a radiance separated off from it and brought down into a world.

ואור בעולם ההוא שיהי' יכולת בהם לקבל זיו ואור אוא"ס ב"ה הזה בבחינת יחוד שיתייחד הכל בבחינת אור א"ס דהיינו בבחי' אור וזיו הנמשך ממנו.

and light in that world, so that they would have the capacity to receive this radiance and light of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, in the manner of unity, so that everything is united on the level of the Infinite Light — that is, on the level of the light and radiance drawn from Him.

> That radiance gives the beings of Atzilus the capacity to receive G-d's light in a state of unity. Everything there is united with the Infinite — not with His essence, but with the radiance drawn from Him.

7 וענין היחוד הוא בב' בחינות איהו וחיוהי איהו וגרמוהי. חיוהי הם האורות[16] דהיינו המקורות שמהן נתהוו חכמה וחסד כו'

And the unity is in two aspects: "He and His life-forces" [and] "He and His vessels." "His life-forces" are the lights, that is, the sources from which Chochmah and Chesed, etc., came into being;

> The unity of Atzilus has two sides, matching the two halves of the Zohar's phrase. "His life-forces" are the lights — the sources from which the Sefiros such as Chochmah and Chesed come into being.

והמקורות הם אורו' וחיות. שבאורו' לא שייך עדיין בחי' התחלקות פרטים להיות נק' בשם חכמה או חסד כו'.

and the sources are lights and life-force. For in the lights, the aspect of division into particulars — to be called by the name Chochmah or Chesed, etc. — does not yet apply.

> Light as such is simple and undivided: on the level of the lights alone, there are not yet distinct attributes that could be named "wisdom" or "kindness."

8 וכמ"ש במ"א בענין האורות דאחליפו דוכתייהו[17] אור החסד בכלי הגבור' כו'. וגרמוהי הם הכלים המגבילים את האורות

And as is explained elsewhere concerning the lights that "exchanged their places" — the light of Chesed in the vessel of Gevurah, etc. And garmohi ("His vessels") are the vessels, which set bounds to the lights,

> A proof that lights in themselves are undivided: the Zohar speaks of lights that "exchanged their places," so that the light of Chesed rests in the vessel of Gevurah. This would be impossible if the light were already defined as "kindness." "His vessels," by contrast, are the vessels, which give each light its bounds and definition.

שע"י הכלים הם עולים בשם חכמה[18] או חסד כו' ואעפ"כ שורה בהם אור א"ס בבחינת יחוד ונקרא חכמה דא"ס וחסד דא"ס כו'.

for through the vessels they come to bear the name Chochmah or Chesed, etc. Nevertheless, the Infinite Light rests in them in the manner of unity, and it is called the Chochmah of the Infinite and the Chesed of the Infinite, etc.

> It is only the vessel that makes a light into "Chochmah" or "Chesed." Yet in Atzilus the Infinite Light rests in the vessels in complete unity, so they are called the Chochmah of the Infinite and the Chesed of the Infinite.

שעם היות שנקרא בשם חכמה מ"מ אינה נגבלת בשם גבול ומדה אלא כמאמר אנת הוא חכים[19] ולא בחכמה ידיעא[20] כו'.

For although it is called by the name Chochmah, nevertheless it is not bounded by a name of limit and measure; rather, [it is] as the saying goes, "You are wise, but not with a known wisdom," etc.

> Even though it is given a name, the Chochmah of Atzilus is not a limited, measurable wisdom. As Eliyahu says in the Tikkunei Zohar, G-d is wise, but not with a wisdom that can be known — His wisdom is one with Him.

9 והוא המדע והוא הידוע[21,22] כו' ולכן נק' עולם האצילות הנקרא בשמי ממש. אבל עולם הבריאה וממנו ולמטה נקרא לכבודי בראתיו כו'.

And "He is the Knowledge and He is the Known," etc. Therefore the World of Atzilus is called "that is called by My Name" in actuality. But the World of Beriah, and from it downward, is called "for My glory I created him," etc.

> The Rambam writes that G-d is the Knower, the Known and the Knowledge itself — His wisdom is not something apart from Him. That is why Atzilus is "called by My Name." From Beriah downward, however, the worlds are only "created for My glory."

כבוד הוא התלבשות וכמאמר אליהו[23] לבושין תקינת לון[24] כו' כמו לבוש שאינו מתאחד עם עצמיות כו'

"Glory" is enclothement, as in the saying of Eliyahu, "You fashioned garments for them," etc. — like a garment, which is not united with the essence, etc.;

> "Glory" here means a garment. In Eliyahu's prayer, G-d "fashioned garments" for the Sefiros — the lower worlds, which relate to G-d's light as a garment relates to the person wearing it: the garment is not one with him.

אלא אדרבה שהעצמיות מתכסה ומתעלם בהן לבלתי הגלות נגלות העצמי' כמו שהוא ואין אור העצמות נראה אלא דרך לבוש זה ומ"מ לבושין תקינת לון כו' rather, on the contrary, the essence is covered and concealed in them, so that the essence is not revealed as it is, and the light of the essence is not seen except through this garment. Nevertheless, "You fashioned (tikanta) garments for them," etc.,

> A garment even hides the one inside it, so that he is seen only through it. Yet Eliyahu's word for "fashioned" (tikanta) also means "repaired" or "rectified."

which is a rectification (tikkun), so that the light of the essence will be revealed specifically through a garment; for without a garment, the World of Beriah would not be able to receive, etc.

> The garment is a benefit: without it Beriah could not receive the Divine light at all; through the garment the light can be revealed to it.

10 ולפי שבלבוש זה מתגלה אור העצמות לכך כתיב וצבא השמים[25] לך משתחוים שבטלים כו'. ומחמת שאינו מתגלה

And because the light of the essence is revealed in this garment, therefore it is written, "And the host of heaven bow down to You" — for they are nullified, etc. And because it is not revealed

> Because G-d's light is revealed through this garment, the angels of Beriah — "the host of heaven" — bow down to Him: they are nullified before the light they perceive. But since the light reaches them only through a garment...

אלא בבחי' לבוש לכך הם בבחי' פירוד ומשם יפרד[26] טורי דפרודא כו' שאינם מתאחדים כבאצילות:

except in the manner of a garment, they are therefore in a state of separateness, and "from there it is parted" — the mountains of separation, etc. — for they are not united as in Atzilus.

> ...they remain separate beings. The verse about the river that "from there is parted" into four heads is read by the Zohar as the point where the realm of separation ("the mountains of separation") begins. Unlike Atzilus, the beings of Beriah are not united with G-d.

SECTION 3 • ¶11–14

Tohu and Tikkun: the angels and the lower worlds

11 והנה נודע עבודת המלאכים[27] שעומדים מששת ימי בראשית ברום עולם ומשמיעים ביראה כו' אריה שאג[28] הוא מיכאל פני אריה אל הימין[29] וכד איהו שאיג שאגין לגבי' ש"ע אלפין אריות כו' שהן מחנה מיכאל כו'.

Now, the service of the angels is known: they stand, from the six days of Creation, in the heights of the world and proclaim with awe, etc. "A lion has roared" — this is Michael, "the face of a lion on the right"; and when he roars, three hundred and seventy thousand lions roar toward him, etc., and these are the camp of Michael, etc.

> The angels' service is described in the morning prayers: they stand "in the heights of the world" and proclaim G-d's holiness with awe. The Alter Rebbe cites a Zohar-style description: "A lion has roared" refers to the angel Michael, who in Ezekiel's vision is the lion-face on the right side of the Divine Chariot; when he roars, the 370,000 lions of his camp roar with him.

12 וצריך להבין מהו עבודתם ואיך נחשבת עבודה להם מה שבטלים בהשגתם חיותם וקיומם מאין ליש מאחר שכך היא השגתם ולמה שואגים ומרעישים. איזה חידוש נתחדש להם בהשגתם זו ומה הם משתוקקים ונכספים.

We need to understand what their service is, and how it is considered service for them that they are nullified through their comprehending [how] their life and existence [come] from nothing into something, since that is [simply] their comprehension; and why do they roar and make a tumult? What new thing has been newly revealed to them in this comprehension of theirs, and what are they yearning and longing for?

> The question: angels naturally perceive how their existence comes from G-d out of nothing, and so they are nullified before Him. If that is simply their nature, how is it "service"? And why do they roar with such tumult — what new thing do they perceive, and what are they longing for?

אך הענין הוא כי הנה עולם האצילות הוא עולם התקון שנתקן כבר להיות האורות והכלים בבחי' איהו וגרמוהי חד כו' כנ"ל. משא"כ עולמו' בי"ע הם משבה"כ שבעולם התהו שנפלו בבי"ע.

But the matter is: the World of Atzilus is the World of Tikkun (Rectification), which has already been rectified, so that the lights and the vessels are in the state of "He and His vessels are one," etc., as mentioned above. This is not so with the worlds of Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah, which are from the breaking of the vessels of the World of Tohu, which fell into Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah.

> The answer begins: Atzilus is the "World of Tikkun" (rectification), where lights and vessels are already one. Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah, however, contain the fragments of the vessels of the prior World of Tohu (chaos), which shattered because their lights were too intense for them, and fell down into these lower worlds.

13 ולכן צ"ל עבודה תמה[30] להמשיך בהם בחי' תקון מעולם האצילות כדי שגם הם יתעלו ויתאחדו.

Therefore a complete service is needed to draw into them an aspect of rectification (tikkun) from the World of Atzilus, so that they too will be elevated and become united.

> Because the lower worlds are made of Tohu's broken fragments, they need "complete service": effort that draws the rectified order of Atzilus into them, so that they too rise and become united with G-dliness.

ולא די באור וחיות הנמשך דרך מסך והתלבשות כסדר ירידת והשתלשלו' המדר' כמו שהוטבע בטבע יצירת העולם להיות מדרגה אחר מדרגה אבי"ע שעולם הבריאה הוא בבחי' פירוד טורי דפרודא כו'.

And it is not enough [to have] the light and life-force that is drawn through a screen and enclothement according to the order of the descent and chaining-down of the levels — as was implanted in the nature of the world's formation, to be level after level, Atzilus, Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah — such that the World of Beriah is in a state of separateness, "the mountains of separation," etc.

> The ordinary flow of Divine life into Beriah — screened and clothed, level after level, as built into the structure of creation — is not enough. By that natural order Beriah remains a realm of separateness, the "mountains of separation."

אלא צריך להמשיך אור חדש מלמעלה עד שיוכלל עולם הבריאה בבחינת עולם האצילות ממש. כי עולמות בי"ע הם אשר ברא[31] ה' לעשות ולתקן[32,33] מה שלא נתקן כך בסדר השתלשלות בשעת בריאת עולם

Rather, it is necessary to draw down a new light from above, until the World of Beriah is included in the level of the World of Atzilus itself. For the worlds of Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah are [those] "which G-d created to make" — to rectify what was not rectified in this way in the order of the chaining-down at the time of the world's creation.

> What is needed is a new light from above that lifts Beriah into the unity of Atzilus itself. That is the meaning of "which G-d created to make": the lower worlds were created in order to be "made," that is, rectified, completing what the natural order of creation left unrectified.

וגם עולם העשי' שהוא התחתון מכולם מלך בעל חנן בן עכבור[34] הנה אח"ז וימלך תחתיו הדר[35] כו' שהוא עולם התקון.

And also [of] the World of Asiyah, which is the lowest of them all, [it says,] "Baal Chanan son of Achbor reigned," and behold, after this, "and Hadar reigned in his stead," etc., which is the World of Tikkun.

> Kabbalah reads the list of kings of Edom "who reigned before a king reigned over Israel" as the World of Tohu: each king "reigned and died," a collapse. The last, Hadar, is not said to have died, and marks the beginning of Tikkun. The Alter Rebbe associates Baal Chanan, the king before him, with Asiyah, the lowest world — showing that even Asiyah is destined for Tikkun.

וזהו דרך כלל כל העבודה בעולמות בי"ע להיות שהם מבחי' שבה"כ שנפלו מעולם התהו בבי"ע וצריכים תקון להתעלות ולהתכלל באצילות. והתקון הוא על ידי עבודה:

And this, in general, is all the service in the worlds of Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah: since they are from the breaking of the vessels, which fell from the World of Tohu into Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah, they need rectification in order to be elevated and included in Atzilus. And the rectification is through service.

> This sums up all service in the lower worlds: they contain the broken vessels of Tohu and must be rectified so as to rise and be included in Atzilus — and this rectification comes only through service.

14 והנה בעוה"ז הגשמי שהוא מגושם כמו עפר מן האדמה ואעפ"כ מפני שיש בו חיות רוחני מעפר העליון שבעולם התהו שלפני אצי' יש בו יכולת להתתקן.

Now, this physical world is as coarse as dust from the ground; nevertheless, because it has a spiritual life-force from the supernal dust of the World of Tohu, which precedes Atzilus, it has the capacity to be rectified.

> Even our coarse, physical world can be rectified, because its life-force derives from the "supernal dust" of Tohu — the lowest level of that very lofty world, which stands above Atzilus. The higher its source, the lower a thing falls, yet it retains the potential to be restored.

והנה ענין התקון היינו בירור הרע מן הטוב להסיר הסיגי' והפסולת כדי שיוכל הטוב לעלות.

And the meaning of rectification is the refining of the evil from the good — removing the dross and the waste — so that the good can ascend.

> Rectification means "refining": separating the good from the evil mixed with it, like smelting metal to remove the dross, so that the good can rise to its source.

SECTION 4 • ¶15–18

Two stages of refinement

15 והנה בבריאה רובו טוב[36,37] כו' עד בעשי' רובו רע ומעורב כו'. וצריך עבודה תמה גם לבחי' זו להפריד הרע ובירור זה נעשה

Now, in Beriah the majority is good, etc., until in Asiyah the majority is evil and intermixed, etc. And a complete service is needed for this level too, to separate out the evil. And this refinement is accomplished

> The lower worlds differ in how much evil is mixed into them: in Beriah the good predominates, and so on down to Asiyah, where evil predominates and is intermixed with the good. Separating out the evil demands thorough service at every level.

ע"י סדר התפלה שעד"ז נתקן כל סדר התפלה והיינו ע"י בחי' רצוא אם ישים אליו לבו[38] כו'.

through the order of prayer, for the whole order of prayer was instituted along these lines; that is, through the aspect of ratzo (running forth), [as in] "If He sets His heart upon him," etc.

> This refining is done through prayer, whose whole order was designed for it. Prayer works through ratzo, the soul's "running" toward G-d in a longing to leave its limits. The verse from Job ("if He sets His heart upon him, He gathers his spirit and soul to Himself") describes the soul's yearning to be absorbed into G-d.

16 ורצוא זה היינו מ"ש כי בכה ארוץ[39] כו' אדלג שור. שור פי' חומה דהיינו בחי' מקיפים ואדלג שור ר"ל שאדלג למעלה מבחי' כל המקיפים מחמת בחי' רצוא לדבקה בו באי"ס ב"ה ממש

And this ratzo is what is written, "For by You I run [through] a troop," etc., "I leap over a wall (shur)." Shur means a wall, that is, the level of the encompassing [lights] (makifim); and "I leap over a wall" means that I leap above the level of all the encompassing [lights], by virtue of the ratzo, to cleave to Him — to the Infinite One, blessed be He, Himself, > King David's words "I leap over a wall" describe ratzo. The "wall" is the encompassing lights (makifim), which surround the worlds; the soul in its longing leaps even beyond them, seeking to cleave to G-d's own infinite essence.

שהוא למע' מגדר עלמין ואינו לא בבחי' ממלא ולא בבחי' סובב כו' וכל עולם האצי' עולם הברודים נקרא אדם דעשיה בלבד ואדם דיצירה עולם הנקודים כו'.

Who is above the category of worlds, and is neither on the level of memalei nor on the level of sovev, etc. And the whole World of Atzilus, the World of Berudim, is called only Adam of Asiyah; and Adam of Yetzirah [is] the World of Nekudim, etc.

> That essence is beyond all worlds — beyond both memalei, the light that fills worlds, and sovev, the light that encompasses them. Compared to it, even Atzilus (the World of Berudim, the "speckled" world of Tikkun) counts only as the lowest level, "Adam of Asiyah," and the earlier World of Nekudim is "Adam of Yetzirah."

17 ומרצוא זה יתפרדו כל פועלי און[40] כמ"ש רוממות אל בגרונם[41] וחרב פיפיות בידם לעשות נקמה בגוים[42] כו'.

And from this ratzo, "all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered," as it is written, "The exaltation of G-d is in their throats, and a two-edged sword in their hand, to execute vengeance upon the nations," etc.

> This ratzo is what separates evil from good. The Psalms describe it: "all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered," and those with "the exaltation of G-d in their throats" hold "a two-edged sword" — praising G-d's exaltedness is itself the weapon that cuts evil away.

ועד"ז הוא כל סדר תפלה שהיא בכללה רוממות אל כו' ולכן בה ועל ידה נעשה הבירור והפירוד הטוב מהרע וזו היא עבודת התפל' ברצוא שהיא בירור המ"ן.

And the whole order of prayer is along these lines, for in its entirety it is "the exaltation of G-d," etc.; therefore in it and through it the refinement and the separation of the good from the evil is accomplished. And this is the service of prayer with ratzo, which is the refinement of the mayin nukvin (feminine waters).

> All of prayer is "the exaltation of G-d," and so prayer is the means of separating good from evil. In Kabbalistic terms this is the refinement of mayin nukvin, the "feminine waters": an arousal and elevation from below.

אבל בירור המ"ד שהיא ההמשכ' עליונה שמעולם האצי' להיות ביטול והתכללות כבאצי' ממש בחי' יחוד עליון אשר שם איהו וחיוהי חד איהו וגרמוהי חד חד ממש.

But the refinement of the mayin dechurin (masculine waters) — which is the supernal drawing-down from the World of Atzilus, so that there be self-nullification and inclusion as in Atzilus itself, the level of the supernal unity, where "He and His life-forces are one, He and His vessels are one," truly one —

> The complementary process is mayin dechurin, the "masculine waters": a flow from above, from Atzilus, which brings the lower worlds to the full unity of Atzilus — where the lights and vessels are completely one with G-d.

זה נעשה ע"י תורה ומצות שהן הן המשכות מבחי' יחוד עליון דאורייתא וקוב"ה כולא חד.

this is accomplished through Torah and mitzvos, which are indeed drawings-down from the level of the supernal unity, for "the Torah and the Holy One, blessed be He, are all one."

> This flow from above comes through Torah and mitzvos, because they come from that supernal unity itself: the Zohar says "the Torah and the Holy One, blessed be He, are all one."

18 ורמ"ח פקודים הם רמ"ח אברין דמלכא[43] אברין ממש שהן כלים לאור וחיות הנמשך ומלובש ומתפשט בהם מאא"ס ב"ה ממש

And the 248 commandments are the 248 "limbs of the King" — actual limbs, which are vessels for the light and life-force that is drawn, clothed and spread forth in them from the Infinite Light, blessed be He, itself;

> The Tikkunei Zohar calls the 248 positive commandments the 248 "limbs of the King." As a person's limbs are vessels for his soul, each mitzvah is a vessel for G-d's own light and life — truly His "limbs."

only, they descended and were clothed in physical matters for the sake of the physicality and materiality of this world, in order to elevate them, and so that the life-force of this world's physicality, too, will be included in the supernal light and life-force. And therefore the supernal life-force had to descend and become so physical.

> They were clothed in physical things (leather tefillin, wool tzitzis) for a purpose: to elevate physicality itself and include its life-force in the supernal light. That is why the Divine life-force needed to descend so low.

SECTION 5 • ¶19–21

Why Torah surpasses the soul's love and awe

19 ובזה יובן יתרון ומעלת עסק התורה וקיום המצות בעוה"ז יותר מדו"ר של הנשמה טרם ירידתה

And with this, the advantage and superiority of engaging in Torah and fulfilling the mitzvos in this world, over the love and awe of the soul before its descent, will be understood.

> Now the opening question can be answered: why Torah and mitzvos in this world surpass the soul's love and awe before it came down.

כי הנשמה עם היות שהדו"ר שלה גבוהים ונעלים מאד ביתר שאת אפי' מן המלאכים שבעולם ההוא בכל עולם ועולם לפי מה שהוא כנודע שהמלאכים הם מחיצוניות העולמות והנשמות הן מבחי' פנימיות.

For the soul — although its love and awe are very lofty and exalted, exceedingly so, even beyond the angels in that world, in each and every world according to what it is, as is known that the angels are from the outer dimension of the worlds and the souls are from the level of the inner dimension —

> The soul's love and awe above are very lofty — higher even than those of the angels in each world, because angels derive from the external aspect of the worlds while souls derive from their inner aspect.

עכ"ז מאחר שהנשמה היא בחי' נברא ומחודש יש מאין אינה מיוחדת במאצילה ב"ה כיחוד תורה ומצות דאורייתא וקוב"ה כולא חד[44] ממש ורמ"ח מצות הן רמ"ח אברין דמלכא[45] ממש שהן הן חכמתו ורצונו ממש והוא המדע כו'.[46]

nevertheless, since the soul is a created being, brought into existence anew, something from nothing, it is not united with its Emanator, blessed be He, like the unity of Torah and mitzvos, for "the Torah and the Holy One, blessed be He, are all one" in actuality, and the 248 mitzvos are the 248 limbs of the King in actuality, for they are His very wisdom and will, and "He is the Knowledge," etc.

> Nevertheless, a soul is a created being, brought into existence from nothing, and so it is not one with G-d. Torah and mitzvos, however, are G-d's own wisdom and will, one with Him as "He is the Knowledge" is one with Him. Therefore the Torah and mitzvos in this world bring a unity with G-d that no created soul, however lofty, could achieve on its own.

20 ומ"מ אורייתא בלא דו"ר לא פרחא לעילא[47,48] כי מאחר שירדה ונתלבשה בעניינים גשמיים הרי היא מקושרת למטה והרי היא בבחי' ירידה מאור פניו ית'.

Nevertheless, Torah without fear and love does not fly upward. For since it descended and was clothed in physical matters, it is bound below, and it is in a state of descent from the light of His countenance, may He be blessed.

> Now the second question: why does Torah without love and awe not "fly upward"? Because the Torah descended and clothed itself in physical matters, it is bound to the world below and stands in a state of descent from G-d's countenance.

אבל ע"י דו"ר הנה הוא ממשיך אור א"ס ב"ה המלובש בתורה בבחי' יחוד גמור להיות אורייתא וקוב"ה כולא חד וכנודע מ"ש במ"א בענין עסק התורה לשמה דע"ז אמרו מעלה אני עליהם כאלו עשאוני.[49]

But through fear and love one draws down the Infinite Light, blessed be He, that is clothed in the Torah, in a state of complete unity, so that "the Torah and the Holy One, blessed be He, are all one." And [this is] as is known from what is explained elsewhere concerning engaging in Torah for its own sake, of which [the Sages] said, "I account it to them as if they had made Me."

> Love and awe draw the Infinite Light hidden in the Torah into revelation and full unity with G-d. So love and awe are not greater than the Torah; they are the means that reveal the G-dliness already within it. The Sages' teaching about Torah study "for its own sake" is cited: G-d says, "I account it as if they made Me."

עשאוני ממש שע"י עסק התורה נמשך הוי"ו של שם הוי"ה ב"ה שהוא ת"ת וע"י המצות וכללותן היא מצות הצדקה נמשך ה"א של שם הוי"ה כנודע ודרך כלל

"Made Me" literally: for through engaging in Torah the vav of the Name Havayah, blessed be He, which is Tiferes, is drawn down; and through the mitzvos — and their general and collective expression is the mitzvah of charity — the hei of the Name Havayah is drawn down, as is known. And in general,

> The Alter Rebbe takes "made Me" literally: Torah study draws down the vav of the Divine Name Havayah (Tiferes), and the mitzvos — summed up in charity — draw down its final hei (Malchus). Thus Torah and mitzvos "build" the Divine Name.

ע"י תורה ועבודי' וגמ"ח נמשכו ג' קווין חח"ן בימין כו' והן ג' ווי"ן מויסע ויבא ויט כו' שהווי"ן הם המשכות מהיודי"ן שבראש הווי"ן כו':

through Torah, service and acts of kindness, the three lines — Chochmah, Chesed and Netzach on the right, etc. — are drawn down; and these are the three vavs of "Vayisa," "Vayavo," "Vayet," etc., for the vavs are drawings-down from the yuds at the head of the vavs, etc.

> More generally, the three pillars of the world — Torah, service (prayer) and acts of kindness — draw down the three "lines" of the Sefiros, such as the right line of Chochmah, Chesed and Netzach. These correspond to the three verses beginning "Vayisa," "Vayavo," "Vayet" (Exodus 14:19–21), each of which begins with the letter vav, whose shape is a drawing-down of the yud at its head.

21 והנה בבחי' זו ארץ קדמה לשמים.[50] ארץ הוא בחי' רצוא שבתפלה דהיינו בירור המ"ן תחלה

Now, in this respect, the earth preceded the heavens. "Earth" is the aspect of ratzo in prayer, that is, the refinement of the mayin nukvin, first;

> The Sages debated whether heaven or earth was created first; Beis Hillel said earth came first. In service, "earth" — the ratzo of prayer, the refining of mayin nukvin from below — must indeed come first.

ואח"כ שמים היינו השפעת המ"ד ע"י תו"מ כי השמים הם בחי' משפיעים כמ"ש המכסה שמים בעבים[51] המכין לארץ מטר כו' and afterwards "heavens," that is, the bestowal of the mayin dechurin through Torah and mitzvos. For the heavens are the aspect of those that bestow, as it is written, "Who covers the heavens with clouds, Who prepares rain for the earth," etc.,

> "Heavens" comes afterwards: the influence from above, mayin dechurin, drawn down by Torah and mitzvos. Heaven is by nature a giver, as the verse describes the heavens sending rain upon the earth.

למטר השמים[52] כוי להיות המ"ד מברר את המ"ן להעלות עד שיוכלל גם בחי' העשיה בבחי' אציי' דאיהו וחיוהי חד כוי.

[and] "of the rain of heaven," etc. — so that the mayin dechurin refine the mayin nukvin to raise [them], until even the level of Asiyah will be included in the level of Atzilus, where "He and His life-forces are one," etc.

> The land of Israel "drinks water of the rain of heaven." The flow from above refines what the service from below raised up, until even Asiyah becomes included in the unity of Atzilus.

SECTION 6 • ¶22–26

The future: the World of Akudim

22 וצ"ל קדימת בירור המ"ן תחלה כדי שאח"כ יבא בירור המ"ד לברר את המ"ן משא"כ בלי העלאת מ"ן אין כח במ"ד לברר כוי.

And the refinement of the mayin nukvin must come first, so that afterwards the refinement of the mayin dechurin will come to refine the mayin nukvin; whereas without the raising of mayin nukvin, the mayin dechurin have no power to refine, etc.

> The order matters: the arousal from below (mayin nukvin, the ascent through prayer) must come first. Without it, the flow from above (mayin dechurin, through Torah and mitzvos) has nothing to act upon and cannot refine.

וזו היא עבודתינו כל ימי משך הגלות שהרע גובר וצ"ל בירור הרע ולהפרידו מן הטוב.

And this is our service all the days of the duration of the exile, when evil prevails, and there must be a refinement of the evil and a separating of it from the good.

> This two-stage work is our task throughout the exile, when evil is strong and must be separated from the good.

אבל לע"ל בביאת משיח ב"ב כשיושלם ויוגמר כל הבירור ויקויים בלע המות לנצח[53] ואת רוח הטומאה אעביר[54] כו' שאז יהי' הכל בבחי' עולם התקון כבאצי' ממש שיהי' יחוד והתכללות למטה כמו למעלה.

But in the Time to Come, with the coming of Mashiach, speedily in our days, when all the refinement will be completed and finished, and "He will swallow up death forever" and "I will remove the spirit of impurity," etc., will be fulfilled — for then everything will be in the state of the World of Tikkun, as in Atzilus itself, so that there will be unity and inclusion below as above —

> When Mashiach comes, the refining will be complete: death will be abolished and impurity removed, as the prophets promised. Then the whole of creation will be in the state of Tikkun, united with G-d below just as Atzilus is above.

הנה התכלית הוא שיאיר ויתנוצץ גילוי אור עולם העקודים שלמעלה מעולם האצי' כמ"ש הנה ישכיל עבדי[55] ירום ונשא וגבה מאד.

behold, the ultimate purpose is that the revelation of the light of the World of Akudim, which is above the World of Atzilus, will shine and sparkle forth, as it is written, "Behold, My servant shall be wise; he shall be exalted and lifted up and be very high."

> Yet even that is not the final goal. The ultimate purpose is the revelation of the World of Akudim, a level higher than Atzilus. Isaiah's description of Mashiach as "exalted, lifted up and very high" — three ascending terms — alludes to this revelation beyond Atzilus.

23 וזהו פנימי' עתיק שיתגלה ואז יהי' התנוצצות נשמות חדשות שאין בהם בחי' בירור.

And this is the inner dimension of Atik, which will be revealed; and then there will be the sparkling forth of new souls in which there is no aspect of refinement.

> The World of Akudim corresponds to the "inner dimension of Atik" — the innermost level of the Divine will, which has never been revealed. Its revelation will bring "new souls," souls that were never part of the mixture of good and evil and so need no refining.

דהנה כל הנשמות אשר מעולם הן שנכללו באדה"ר[56] שצריכים בירור ותקון והן הן שירדו מחיצוני' עתיק שנשתלשלו כסדר המדרגות ומה שהוא מסודר כבר בסדר ההשתלשלות אין זה חידוש

For all the souls there have ever been are those that were included in Adam, the first man, which need refinement and rectification; and they are the ones that descended from the outer dimension of Atik, chained down according to the order of the levels. And what is already arranged in the order of the chaining-down is not a new thing;

> All souls until now were included in Adam, the first man, and were affected by his sin, so they need refining. They descended from the external aspect of Atik through the ordered chain of levels. What already exists within that order is, by definition, nothing new.

אבל חידוש נשמות הוא מלמעלה מן ההשתלשלות מה שלא ירד ונשתלשל עדיין והוא מפנימי' עתיק שלא בא לידי גילוי בסדר השתל' but newness of souls is from above the chaining-down — what has not yet descended and been chained down — and this is from the inner dimension of Atik, which has not come to revelation in the order of the chaining-down.

> Truly "new" souls must come from above the chain of descent — from the inner dimension of Atik, which has never been revealed within it.

כי סדר ההשתלשלות הוא שמחיצוניות שבעליון נעשה פנימי' למטה. אבל פנימי' עליון אינו יורד ומשתלשל כלל.

For the order of the chaining-down is that from the outer dimension of the higher [level] the inner dimension of the lower [level] is made; but the inner dimension of the higher [level] does not descend and chain down at all.

> The rule of the chain of descent is that only the outer aspect of a higher level becomes the inner core of the level below it. The inner aspect of the highest level never descends at all — so its revelation would be something utterly new.

24 ולע"ל יהי' גילוי אור חדש הזה שלמעלה מסדר ההשתלשלות. והוא עולם העקודים שלפני האצי'. כי באצי' שהוא עולם התיקון נתקן ונסדר

And in the Time to Come there will be a revelation of this new light, which is above the order of the chaining-down; and this is the World of Akudim, which precedes Atzilus. For in Atzilus, which is the World of Tikkun, [everything] was rectified and arranged

> The new light of the future is the World of Akudim, which preceded Atzilus. In Atzilus, the World of Tikkun, everything is arranged in the orderly way needed for the chain of descent.

כמו שראוי להיות השתלשלות בהתחלקות המדרגות חכמה וחסד כו' כמאמר אנת הוא חכים[57,58] אלא ולא בחכמה ידיעא שנמשך אור א"ס בחכמה.

as is fitting for the chaining-down to be, with the division into levels, Chochmah and Chesed, etc., as the saying goes, "You are wise," only "not with a known wisdom" — [meaning] that the Infinite Light is drawn into Chochmah.

> That order means division into distinct attributes, Chochmah, Chesed and so on. Eliyahu's words "You are wise" describe the Infinite Light clothed in Chochmah; "not with a known wisdom" means that in Atzilus this wisdom is still one with Him.

25 וזהו אנת הוא אור א"ס ב"ה שנתלבש בבחי' חכים כו'. וכן בכל הבחי' אנת הוא מבין כו' צדיק ה' בכל דרכיו[59] וחסיד כו'.

And this is [the meaning of] "You are": the Infinite Light, blessed be He, which was clothed in the level of "wise," etc. And so with all the levels: "You are understanding," etc.; "G-d is righteous in all His ways, and kind," etc.

> "You are wise" means that the Infinite One is clothed in the attribute of wisdom; likewise for understanding and the other attributes. The verse "G-d is righteous in all His ways, and kind in all His deeds" likewise names distinct attributes.

והן מקורות לחכמה וחסד דבריאה שהן חכמה ידיעא וחסד ידיעא כו' אבל עולם העקודים הוא התכללות כל הכחות וכל הבחי' ועקוד בכלי א' כו'

And these are sources for the Chochmah and Chesed of Beriah, which are a known wisdom and a known kindness, etc. But the World of Akudim is the inclusion of all the powers and all the levels, bound together (akud) in one vessel, etc.,

> These attributes of Atzilus are the sources of the Chochmah and Chesed of Beriah, which are a "known," definable wisdom and kindness. The World of Akudim, by contrast, holds all powers "bound together" (akud) in a single vessel.

בלי התחלקות שם חכמה וחסד כלל וגילוי זה נקרא שמים חדשים וארץ חדשה אשר אני עושה.

without any division of the names Chochmah and Chesed at all. And this revelation is called "the new heavens and the new earth that I am making."

> In Akudim there is no division into separate attributes at all. This revelation is what Isaiah calls "the new heavens and the new earth."

אני דייקא הוא המאציל עליון ברוך הוא. שלהיות כח ההתחדשות זה הוא מא"ס ב"ה עצמו כנודע ואעפ"כ נקרא בשם שמים וארץ.

"I" specifically — this is the supernal Emanator, blessed be He. For this power of renewal is from the Infinite One, blessed be He, Himself, as is known. And nevertheless it is called by the name "heavens and earth,"

> The word "I" ("which I am making") is emphatic: this renewal comes from the Emanator Himself, since only the Infinite One can bring about something genuinely new. Still, the prophet calls it "heavens and earth."

כי מאחר שהוא בבחי' איזה גילוי להיות אפי' מקור דמקור לסדר השתלשלות מוכרח להיות שם איזה בחי' שהיא דוגמת ההשתלשלות.

for since it is in a state of some revelation, so as to be even a source of the source for the order of the chaining-down, there must necessarily be some aspect there that resembles the chaining-down.

> Since Akudim is a revelation — the source of the source of the whole chain of worlds — it must contain something that resembles the structure of that chain, like heaven and earth.

26 ומאחר שבהשתלשלות נעשה שמים וארץ מוכרח להיות גם שם בחינות הללו אלא דשם נק' שמים וארץ שמים תחלה דהיינו מטי ולא מטי.[60]

And since in the chaining-down heavens and earth came into being, these aspects must necessarily be there as well. Only, there it is called "heavens and earth" — heavens first — that is, "it reaches and does not reach."

> Since heaven and earth exist in the chain of descent, they must have a counterpart in Akudim. But there the order is "heavens first": the flow from above takes the lead. This is described by the Zohar's term "it reaches and does not reach."

מטי שרוצה להשפיע ולא מטי שאין הכלי יכול לסבול (משא"כ ממטה למעלה רצוא תחלה מים תחתונים בוכין כו') ולכן נקרא שמים וארץ הללו עומדים לפני פי' עומדים שעומדים תמיד.

"It reaches," for it wishes to bestow; "and does not reach," for the vessel cannot bear [it] (whereas from below to above, ratzo comes first: "the lower waters weep," etc.). And therefore these heavens and earth are called "standing before Me": "standing" means that they stand always.

> "Reaches" — the light seeks to give; "does not reach" — the vessel below cannot contain it. In service from below, the order is reversed: first comes ratzo, as the "lower waters" wept to be close to G-d. Because there the giving comes first, from above, these new heavens and earth are said to "stand" — forever.

שהרי גם היום יש בחי' זו דעולם העקודים אלא שהיא בהעלם. ולע"ל יתגלה. והם לפני. פי' בבחי' פנימיות דהיינו פנימית עתיק כנ"ל:

For even today this level of the World of Akudim exists, only it is in concealment; and in the Time to Come it will be revealed. And "they are before Me (lefanai)" means in the manner of the inner dimension (pnimiyus), that is, the inner dimension of Atik, as mentioned above.

> Akudim exists even now, but hidden; in the future it will be revealed. "Before Me" (lefanai, related to penim, "inner") means that it belongs to the innermost level, the inner dimension of Atik.

SECTION 7 • ¶27–28

"Your seed and your name"

27 ובישר הנביא זה לומר שכן יעמוד זרעכם ושמכם.[61] זרעכם הוא בחי' זריעת המ"ד ע"י התורה שהתורה שנתלבשה בעניינים גשמיים היא כמו זריעת הגרעין בעפר שעם היות שגוף הגרעין נרקב מ"מ הכח שבו מצמיח

And the prophet announced this, saying that so too "your seed and your name shall stand." "Your seed" is the aspect of the sowing of the mayin dechurin through the Torah. For the Torah, which was clothed in physical matters, is like the sowing of a seed in the soil: although the body of the seed rots, nevertheless the power within it makes [the plant] grow;

> Isaiah adds that Israel's "seed" and "name" will endure like the new heavens and earth. "Seed" is the flow from above through Torah. Torah clothed in physical matters is like a seed planted in soil: the seed itself decays, yet its inner power makes the plant grow.

and therefore nothing grows except what is like the seed — from a seed of grain an esrog does not grow, etc. — and as it is written, "after its kind," etc.

> A seed produces only its own kind, as the Torah says of the plants of Creation, "after its kind." So too the Torah's power produces growth of its own spiritual kind.

כך התורה אע"פ שנתלבשה בעניינים גשמיים (ויש מאן דאמר מצות בטילות לע"ל) מכל מקום אור התורה הוא המצמיח ופועל ישועות בקרב הארץ[63] לברא את המ"ן ולהעלותו למעלה מעלה.

So too the Torah: although it was clothed in physical matters (and there is an opinion that the mitzvos will be annulled in the Time to Come), nevertheless the light of the Torah is what makes [things] grow and "works salvations in the midst of the earth," to refine the mayin nukvin and raise them ever higher.

> Although the Torah is clothed in physical matters — and the Talmud even holds that the mitzvos will be annulled in the future — its light is what makes things grow, refining and raising the good from below.

ושמכם הוא בחי' קבלת עול מ"ש שמקבלים במצותיו ית' ונק' בחי' שם שנקרא שמו יתברך על ישראל בקבלת מלכותו עליהם וזהו ומלכותו ברצון קבלו עליהם

And "your name" is the aspect of accepting the yoke of the Kingdom of Heaven, which they accept in His mitzvos, may He be blessed. And it is called the aspect of "name" because His Name, may He be blessed, is called upon Israel through their accepting His sovereignty upon themselves; and this is [the meaning of] "and His sovereignty they willingly accepted upon themselves."

> "Name" is accepting the yoke of Heaven through the mitzvos. By accepting G-d's sovereignty, Israel have His Name called upon them. The evening prayer praises Israel for accepting His sovereignty "willingly."

משא"כ על העכו"ם הוא מושל ולא מלך כי אין נקרא מלך אלא ברצון וזהו ענין כתר מלכות שעיקר המלכו' הוא הכתר שמכתירין אותו וכתר היינו בחי' רצון

Whereas over the nations He is a ruler and not a king, for one is called a king only [when accepted] willingly. And this is the meaning of "the crown of sovereignty": the essence of sovereignty is the crown with which he is crowned, and Keser is the aspect of will;

> A king, as opposed to a ruler, reigns by the people's consent. The Kabbalistic term "crown of sovereignty" (keser malchus) expresses this: the crown the people place on the king is their will, and Keser is the level of will.

וזהו נעוץ תחלתן בסופן[64] שהמשכ' המל' הוא מן הכתר שהוא הרצון כו'. ולכך נק' בבחי' שמכם.[65] and this is [the meaning of] "their beginning is wedged in their end": the drawing-down of Malchus is from Keser, which is the will, etc. And therefore it is called the aspect of "your name."

> Sefer Yetzirah says the Sefiros' "beginning is wedged in their end": Malchus, the last Sefirah, draws from Keser, the first — the level of will. That is why accepting G-d's kingship is called "your name."

28 והנה זרעכם ושמכם שהן הן המשכות תורה ומצות שבעוה"ז הן המשכת המ"ד מעולם האצי' שהוא עולם התקון כדי לברר המ"ן שעולה מהעשי' שיוכלל באצי' כנ"ל.

Now, "your seed" and "your name," which are the drawings-down of Torah and mitzvos in this world, are the drawing-down of the mayin dechurin from the World of Atzilus, which is the World of Tikkun, in order to refine the mayin nukvin that rise from Asiyah, so that it will be included in Atzilus, as mentioned above.

> "Your seed" and "your name" — Torah and mitzvos — are the flow from Atzilus that refines what rises from Asiyah and includes it in Atzilus.

וא"כ לע"ל כשיושלם ויוגמר הבירור ויהי' הכל עולם התקון ויתנוצץ ויתגלה גילוי אור חדש העליון מבחי' שמים חדשים וארץ חדשה סד"א שלא יהי' עליי' עוד להתורה ומצות.

If so, in the Time to Come, when the refinement is completed and finished and everything is the World of Tikkun, and the revelation of the new supernal light, from the level of "new heavens and new earth," sparkles forth and is revealed, it might have entered your mind that there will no longer be an ascent for the Torah and mitzvos,

> One might therefore think that once the refining is complete in the future and the higher light of Akudim is revealed, Torah and mitzvos will have finished their role and have no further ascent.

רק ישארו בעולם האצי'. ולכן מבשר הנביא שבאמת לא כן הוא רק גם זרעכם ושמכם יעמוד שם.

[but that] they will only remain in the World of Atzilus. Therefore the prophet announces that in truth it is not so; rather, "your seed and your name," too, "shall stand" there.

> One might think they would stay at the level of Atzilus, their source. So the prophet promises that Torah and mitzvos too will "stand" in the new heavens and earth.

כי גם אחר שיושלמו כל הבירורים ויוכללו באצי' עוד זאת תהיה מעלה יתירה בעילוי אחר עילוי שיתעלו גם בעולם העקודים:

For even after all the refinements are completed and included in Atzilus, there will yet be this additional superiority, ascent after ascent: that they will be elevated into the World of Akudim as well.

> Even after all refining is done, Torah and mitzvos will rise further still, into the World of Akudim, higher than Atzilus. This answers the maamar's theme: the enduring value of Torah and mitzvos in the future.

IN ONE'S AVODAH

Prayer must come first: through the soul's ratzo, the exaltation of G-d in prayer, a person separates good from evil in himself and his world. Then the Torah and mitzvos he performs, animated by love and awe, draw G-d's own light into this world and unite it with Him. Engaging in Torah for its own sake and fulfilling the mitzvos — above all charity — "makes" G-d's Name, and this service will retain and increase its value in the Time to Come.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. If the soul already loved and feared G-d before its descent, what does it gain by coming into a body? How does the maamar answer this?
2. What is the difference between being "called by My Name" and being "created for My glory"? How does the image of a garment explain both the concealment and the benefit of Beriah?
3. Why must prayer ("earth," mayin nukvin) come before Torah and mitzvos ("heaven," mayin dechurin)? What would happen without it?
4. How can Torah, which needs love and awe to "fly upward," still be greater than love and awe?
5. What will be new about the "new heavens and new earth," and why does the prophet need to promise that "your seed and your name" will stand there too?

FOR CHILDREN · AGES 9–13

For the children at the table

Why the soul comes down

THE BIG IDEA

A soul comes down into a body because Torah and mitzvos are G-d's own wisdom and will, and through them it can come closer to G-d than it ever could above.

Before a soul comes into this world, it is in heaven, loving and fearing G-d. So why does it come down into a body? The answer is Torah and mitzvos. The maamar asks a strong question: the Torah has come down into physical things, and the Sages say that Torah learned without love and fear of G-d "does not fly upward." So love and fear seem greater. But a soul, however holy, is something G-d created. The Torah and the mitzvos are different: they are G-d's own wisdom and will, one with Him. The 248 mitzvos are called the "limbs of the King." Love and fear are like wings; they reveal the G-dly light already hidden inside the Torah we learn. The maamar also explains that prayer comes first, to separate good from bad in ourselves, and then Torah and mitzvos draw G-d's light down, just as rain comes from the heavens to the earth. When Mashiach comes, a new, even greater light will be revealed, and the Torah we learn and our acceptance of G-d as our King will rise with it.

THE MASHAL

When a farmer plants a seed, the seed itself rots in the ground, yet the power inside it makes a whole plant grow. And only what is like the seed grows: a grain seed will never grow an esrog. So too the Torah is planted in physical things, and its light makes good things grow in the world.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. Why is a soul in a body, learning Torah, able to come closer to G-d than a soul in heaven?
2. How is the Torah like a seed planted in the ground?
3. Before you learn this week, how could you remind yourself that the Torah is G-d's own wisdom?

2 כי כאשר השמים

Isaiah's closing prophecy compares the permanence of Israel's seed and name to that of the new heavens and earth G-d will make. The maamar interprets every phrase of this verse in terms of the future revelation and the enduring value of Torah and mitzvos.

Isaiah 66:22 ישעיהו ס"ו:כ"ב

3 הנפש יש לה שכל ומדות

In Vayera the Alter Rebbe explains that the soul in itself is simple light without division, and that its intellect and emotions are its "garments" (tikkunim) — not separate garments, but like the vessels of Atzilus, which are one with the light.

8 בקשו המלאכים אשר תנה הודך על השמים

The passage contrasts the coming-into-being of Atzilus, through the tzimtzum of the Infinite Light, with that of Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah, which come about through a "curtain" (parsa) between the worlds — explaining further what is distinctive about Atzilus.

15 ויאצל מן הרוח

G-d set apart some of the spirit that was upon Moshe and placed it on the seventy elders. The Alter Rebbe uses this to illustrate how Atzilus receives a portion of G-d's light and is thereby united with Him.

Numbers 11:25 במדבר י"א:כ"ה

וַיֵּרֶד ה' בֶּעָנָן וַיְדַבֵּר אֵלָיו וַיָּאצֶל מִן־הָרוּחַ אֲשֶׁר עָלָיו וַיִּתֵּן עַל־שִׁבְעִים אִישׁ הַזְּקֵנִים וַיְהִי כְּנוֹחַ עֲלֵיהֶם הָרוּחַ וַיִּתְנַבְּאוּ וְלֹא יָסָפוּ׃

And the L-RD came down in the cloud, and spoke unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and put it upon the seventy elders; and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, but they did so no more.

11 כל הנקרא בשמי

G-d speaks of "everyone that is called by My Name, and for My glory I created him, formed him and made him." The Alter Rebbe reads "called by My Name" as Atzilus and "for My glory I created" as Beriah and below.

להבין הטעם שנשתנה יצירת גוף האדם משאר כל...

To understand the reason why the formation of man's body differs...

Plants and animals came forth whole, body and soul together, because their levels are adjacent; man's body was first made as lifeless dust because only the highest soul, rooted in supernal Chochmah, can descend into the lowest, inanimate body — and from there raise all of creation.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar asks why man's body was formed first as lifeless dust, while plants and animals emerged from the earth complete with their life. The four classes of creation — inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking — correspond to the four letters of the Name Havayah. The vegetative and the animal are adjacent levels, so an animal's body and soul could come into being together; the speaking soul is far removed from the vegetative, and could be joined only to the inanimate. This serves man's purpose: like a jack lifting a wall from its lowest beam, the soul enters the lowest matter in order to raise the sparks in all creation. The same pattern appears in the soul (letters, emotions, intellect) and in the Sefiros: the emotions grow from Binah by cause and effect, but Malchus, the "letters," comes directly from Chochmah — "With Chochmah He founded the earth." Angels, whose bodies and souls are close, cannot transform a physical body; the souls of Israel, from the inner dimension, can. Adam's soul is from supernal Chochmah, the Name Av, and the two Names "Havayah Elokim" join Chochmah with Malchus.

OUTLINE

1 The question: why man's body was made differently ¶1–6

Plants and animals came forth whole by G-d's word; man's body was first lifeless dust. The four levels of creation correspond to the letters of Havayah; vegetative and animal are adjacent and could emerge together, but the speaking is too far from the vegetative.

2 Why the body is inanimate: raising all of creation ¶7–9

Man is the purpose of creation, elevating the sparks in the lower realms; like lifting a wall from its lowest beam, the soul enters the lowest matter. The Yud connects with the final Hei, for the beginning is wedged in the end.

3 "With Chochmah He founded the earth" and the two Names ¶10–12

The earth (inanimate) is founded with Chochmah and the heavens (vegetative) with Tevunah; hence Adam, whose soul is from supernal Chochmah, began as a golem, and his formation required two Names.

4 The four levels in the soul and in the Sefiros ¶13–17

In the soul, letters are inanimate, emotions vegetative, intellect living; above, Malchus, Z'eir Anpin and Imma. Emotions gestate and nurse from the intellect, but letters bear no relation to it; only the highest can descend to the lowest.

5 Angels and souls: the purpose of self-nullification ¶18–23

Angels have more spiritual bodies of fire and air. The purpose of creation is the nullification of 'something' to 'nothing,' the union of lights and vessels in Tikkun. Only souls from the inner dimension of the vessels can transform a physical body; angels' bodies and souls came forth together from Malchus of Atzilus.

6 Malchus and the letters come from a higher source ¶24–29

From Chochmah down to the emotions is a chain of cause and effect, but the letters come from the soul's essence and can express opposite ideas. So Malchus is founded directly by Chochmah ("Abba founded the daughter"); two levels of Chochmah and two kinds of 'Adam' are distinguished.

7 Adam as supernal Chochmah; the pattern in every realm ¶30–32

Adam is supernal Chochmah, the Name Av, and so his body was inanimate; the two Names join Chochmah with Malchus. Above and below alike, adjacent levels arise together, while the highest soul enters the lowest body afterward.

KEY CONCEPTS

Inanimate, vegetative, animal, speaking דומם צומח חי מדבר

The four classes of creation, corresponding to the four letters of Havayah, which the maamar finds also in the soul (letters, emotions, intellect) and in the Sefiros (Malchus, Z'eir Anpin, Binah, Chochmah).

Chain of cause and effect השתלשלות עילה ועלול

The gradual descent in which each level flows from the one above it, as the emotions flow from the intellect; Malchus and the letters do not arise this way.

Their beginning is wedged in their end נעוץ תחלתן בסופן

From Sefer Yetzirah: the highest level connects directly with the lowest, which is why Chochmah founds the 'earth' and the highest soul enters the lowest body.

Nullification of the 'something' ביטול היש

The purpose of the descent of the worlds: that created existence be nullified before G-d, as lights and vessels unite in the World of Tikkun.

Outer and inner dimension of the vessels חיצוניות ופנימיות הכלים

Angels' souls come from the outer dimension and cannot transform a physical body; the G-dly soul comes from the inner dimension and can.

Two kinds of Adam שם מ"ה ושם ע"ב

'Adam' as Tiferes, the Name Mah of Z'eir Anpin, and Adam the first man as supernal Chochmah, the Name Av.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–6

The question: why man's body was made differently

1 להבין הטעם שנשתנה יצירת גוף האדם[1] משאר כל הנבראים כמו הצומח והחי שכולם נברא גופם ע"י מאמר[2] ה'

To understand the reason why the formation of man's body differs from all the other creatures, such as the vegetative and the animal, whose bodies were all created through G-d's utterance,

> The maamar opens with its question: why was man's body made differently from every other creature? Plants and animals came into being directly through G-d's spoken word (His "utterance"), body and life together.

כמ"ש ביום ג' תדשא הארץ דשא עשב מזריע כו' עץ עושה פרי כו' ויהי כן[3] וכן ביום חמישי ישרצו המים שרץ נפש חיה[4] כו'.

as it is written of the third day, "Let the earth sprout vegetation, herbs yielding seed…, fruit trees yielding fruit…, and it was so"; and likewise on the fifth day, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures…."

> The proof-texts: on the third day G-d said "Let the earth sprout vegetation" (Genesis 1:11), and on the fifth "Let the waters swarm" (Genesis 1:20). In each case the living thing arises complete from its element at G-d's command.

2 וכן בכולם הרי שהארץ הוציאה את העשבים ואת האילנות כאו"א כמו שהוא אח"כ עם הנפש הצומחת שבו

And so with all of them: the earth brought forth the grasses and the trees, each one just as it is afterward, with the vegetative soul within it.

> Each plant came out of the ground already in its final form, together with its "vegetative soul" — the life-force that makes it grow.

And likewise the earth also brought forth the animals just as they are, alive — the bear and the lion, etc.; and the waters too swarmed in this way with "swarms of living creatures," which are the fish, likewise

> The same holds for land animals and for fish: the earth and the waters produced them already alive, as the finished creatures we know.

כמו שהן דהיינו הגוף עם הנפש החיונית שבתוכו יחד ע"י מאמר ה' שאמר תוצא הארץ[6] כו' as they are, that is, the body together with the vital soul within it, through the utterance of G-d, who said, "Let the earth bring forth...,"

> "As they are" means body and animating soul together, produced by a single divine utterance, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures" (Genesis 1:24).

ישרצו המים כו' והוא צוה ונבראו[7] כמו שהן עתה וכמארז"ל בקומתן נבראו.[8] משא"כ בבריאת האדם שנעשה גופו תחלה בפ"ע עפר בלי שום נפש חיונית בתוכו.

"Let the waters swarm...." He commanded and they were created as they are now, as our Sages, of blessed memory, said: "They were created in their full stature." This is not so in the creation of man, whose body was first made by itself, of dust, without any vital soul within it.

> The Sages teach that all the works of creation were made "in their full stature," fully formed. Man is the exception: his body was made first, on its own, as lifeless dust.

3 וכמ"ש וייצר ה' אלקים את האדם[9] עפר מן האדמה וכמארז"ל שעה ראשונה צבר עפרו[10] כו' ומתחלה היה גולם

As it is written, "And Havayah Elokim formed the man of dust from the ground"; and as our Sages, of blessed memory, said: "In the first hour his dust was gathered..."; and at first he was an unformed mass (golem),

> The verse says man was formed "of dust from the ground" (Genesis 2:7), and the Talmud describes Adam's creation hour by hour: in the first hour his dust was gathered, and only afterward was it shaped. Before receiving life he was a golem, a shaped but lifeless mass.

כמ"ש גלמי ראו עיניך[11] עד שאח"כ ויפח באפיו נשמת חיים הרי שלא יצא גופו מן הארץ על דרך שהוא עתה בהיות בו נפש החיונית והמדברת אלא שלקח עפר ועשה ממנו גוף.

as it is written, "Your eyes saw my unformed mass," until afterward "He blew into his nostrils the breath of life." Thus his body did not come forth from the earth in the way it is now, with the vital and speaking soul within it; rather, He took dust and made a body of it.

> Psalm 139:16, "Your eyes saw my unformed mass," is read as referring to that lifeless stage. Only afterward did G-d breathe life into him, so man's body did not arise alive from the earth as the animals did; it was made from dust as a separate step.

4 ואח"כ נפח נשמה באפו כו'. וזהו בחי' שפלות לגבי האדם שהרי הגוף שלו נמוך במדרגה[12] יותר מגופות הבע"ח שנתהווה בבחינת דומם עד שאח"כ ויפח באפיו[13] כו'.[14]

And afterward He blew a soul into his nostrils, etc. And this is a mark of lowliness with respect to man, for his body is lower in level than the bodies of the animals, since it came into being on the level of the inanimate, until afterward "He blew into his nostrils...."

> Being made first as lifeless dust is a mark of lowliness: in its origin man's body stands lower than an animal's, since it began at the level of the inanimate (domem), like earth or stone.

עם היותו מובחר בנבראים[15] וז"ש אחור וקדם[16] כו'. אך להבין זה על מה ולמה נהייתה כן.

[This,] although he is the choicest of the creatures. And this is what is written, "Behind and before...." But we must understand this: why and for what reason did it come to be so?

> Yet man is the choicest of creatures. Both sides are hinted at in "Behind and before You formed me" (Psalms 139:5): in body he is last and lowest, in soul first and highest. The question now is why G-d made him this way.

הענין הוא כי הנה ד' בחי' דצח"ם[17] הם כנגד ד' אותיות דשם הוי"ה. הדומם הוא כמו עפר ואבנים ומתכות שאין לו גידול והצומח הם אילנות ועשבים[18] כו'

The explanation is that the four levels — inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking — correspond to the four letters of the Name Havayah. The inanimate is such as dust, stones and metals, which have no growth; the vegetative are trees and grasses, etc.;

> The answer begins with the four classes of creation — inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking (human) — which correspond to the four letters of the Name Havayah (Yud, Hei, Vav, Hei). Inanimate things such as dust, stone and metal do not grow; plants do.

ובע"ח יש להם כ"ז ונוסף ע"ז נפש החי' הרוחני'.[19] ובמדבר נוסף עוד על כולם נפש השכלית נפש המדברת כו'.[20] animals have all this, and in addition to it the spiritual animal soul. And in the speaking [being] there is added, beyond all of them, the intellectual soul, the speaking soul, etc.

> Animals have growth and, beyond it, a spiritual animating soul. The human, the "speaking" being, adds an intellectual soul, which expresses itself in speech.

5 והנה דרך כלל הבע"ח הם כלולים מב' דברים הגוף שבו הוא בחי' צומח[21] שהרי נולד קטן ונעשה גדול והנפש שבו היא נפש החי' למינה.

Now, in general, animals are made up of two things: the body within them, which is on the level of the vegetative, for it is born small and becomes large; and the soul within them, which is the animal soul of its species.

> An animal is made of two components: a body, which belongs to the vegetative level since it grows from small to large, and a soul of the animal level, particular to its species.

ומה ששניהם יצאו ביחד מן הארץ. דהיינו הגוף עם נפש החי' שבו ע"י מאמר ה' כו'

And as for the fact that both came forth together from the earth — that is, the body with the animal soul within it — through G-d's utterance, etc.:

> The question is why these two came out of the earth together, at a single divine command.

היינו משום שבחי' צומח וחי עם היותם ב' מדריגות זו למעלה מזו אבל הם[22] סמוכי' זה לזה.

this is because the levels of the vegetative and the animal, although they are two levels, one above the other, are nevertheless adjacent to each other.

> The reason: the vegetative and the animal are two distinct levels, one above the other, yet they are adjacent — nothing stands between them.

6 ולכן יכולים להתחבר יחד דהיינו שיהיה התהוותם בבת אחת כיון שבחי' צומח הוא סמוך לבחי' חי ואין ביניהם הפסק עוד מדרגה אחרת

Therefore they can be joined together, that is, they can come into being at once, since the level of the vegetative is adjacent to the level of the animal, with no further level interrupting between them.

> Because no intermediate level separates the vegetative from the animal, the two can be joined and come into being in one act.

לכן נתהוו הבע"ח גופם ונפשם החיונית בבת אחת כנ"ל. משא"כ המדבר רחוק בדילוג הערך מהצומח ולכן לא הי' יכול לצאת עם הגוף כאחד:[23]

Therefore the animals came into being, their bodies and their vital souls, at once, as said above. But the speaking [being] is distant from the vegetative by a leap in rank, and therefore it could not come forth together with the body as one.

> So the animal's body and life emerged at once. But the human, "speaking" soul is removed from the vegetative by a leap — the animal level lies in between — so it could not come forth together with a body.

SECTION 2 • ¶7–9

Why the body is inanimate: raising all of creation

7 ואמנם מה שגופו היה דומם דוקא הוא כי היות ידוע דהאדם הוא תכלית הבריאה[24] והיינו להיות הוא מעלה הנצוצות שנפלו בדצ"ח

However, the fact that his body was specifically inanimate is because it is known that man is the purpose of creation, namely, that he is to elevate the sparks that fell into the inanimate, vegetative and animal [realms]

> Now the maamar explains why man's body had to be specifically inanimate. Man is the purpose of creation: his task is to raise the "sparks" — the fragments of divine light hidden in all things — that fell into the mineral, plant and animal realms.

ע"י שנטפלים לצרכיו לחם לאכול ובגד ללבוש והוא יש בו דעת לעבוד את ה' כו'.

by their being made subordinate to his needs — bread to eat and clothing to wear — while he has the understanding (daas) to serve G-d, etc.

> He does this by using them for his needs, eating bread and wearing clothing, while he has the understanding to serve G-d; when what he uses fuels his service, it is elevated with him.

8 ועד"מ כשצריכים להגביה איזה דבר מן הארץ ע"י כלי ההגבהה הנקרא ליווע"ר[25] צריכים לאחוז בחלקים התחתונים שבו דוקא

By way of analogy: when one needs to lift something from the ground by means of the lifting device called a "levar" [jack], one must take hold of specifically its lowest parts,

> An analogy from lifting heavy things: with a jack (the Yiddish "levar"), one must grip the object at its lowest part.

כמו בהגבהת כותלי בית שצריכים להתחיל להגביה הקורה התחתון דוקא ואז ממילא יוגבהו גם העליונים הימנו.

as in raising the walls of a house, where one must begin by raising specifically the lowest beam, and then the ones above it are automatically raised as well.

> When raising the walls of a house, one lifts the bottom beam, and everything resting on it rises along with it.

משא"כ אם היה מתחיל מאמצע הכותל לא היה מגביה התחתונים. כמו"כ נשמת האדם נתלבשה בגוף שמבחי' דומם היותר תחתון מכולם ויעלה אותו וממילא יתעל' גם הצומח שהוא למעלה מדומם כו'

But if one were to begin from the middle of the wall, he would not raise the lower ones. So too, the soul of man was vested in a body of the inanimate level, the lowest of them all, and it will raise it, and automatically the vegetative, which is above the inanimate, is also elevated, etc.

> Lifting from the middle would leave the lower part behind. So the human soul was placed in a body drawn from the very lowest level, the inanimate, so that by raising it everything above it, beginning with the vegetative, is raised too.

וע"ש זה נק' מדבר מלשון ידבר עמים[26] כלומר שהוא המנהיג את כולם בהיותו מעלה אותם ע"י עבודתו כו'.

And on account of this he is called "medaber" (speaking), from the expression "He leads (yadber) peoples," that is, he is the leader of them all, since he elevates them through his service, etc.

> Hence man is called medaber, "speaker," related to yadber in "He leads peoples under us" (Psalms 47:4), a term for leading and governing: man leads all of creation by lifting it up through his service of G-d.

9 והנה נשמת האדם דוקא יען היותו בחי' מדבר הגבוה שבכולם יתלבש בדומם דוקא ולא בצומח

Now the soul of man specifically, because it is the level of the speaking, the highest of them all, is vested specifically in the inanimate, and not in the vegetative.

> The human soul, being the highest level ("speaking"), is vested specifically in the inanimate, not in the vegetative.

כי צומח רחוק מבחי' מדבר רק לבחינת החי הוא סמוך כנ"ל שהם בחי' ו' ובחי' ה' עלאה דשם הוי"ה הסמוכה לוי"ו

For the vegetative is distant from the level of the speaking; it is adjacent only to the level of the animal, as said above, for they are the level of the Vav and the level of the upper Hei of the Name Havayah, which is adjacent to the Vav.

> The vegetative is far from the speaking level and close only to the animal. In the letters of Havayah these are the Vav and the upper (first) Hei, which stand side by side.

אבל בחינת מדבר הוא יו"ד וקש"י שלמעלה מעלה מן הוי"ו אלא בבחינת ה' תתאה שהוא מקור בחינת דומם הוא מתלבש כי נעוץ תחלתן בסופן[27,28] דוקא.

But the level of the speaking is the Yud and the tip of the Yud, which are far, far above the Vav; rather, it is vested in the level of the lower Hei, which is the source of the level of the inanimate, for "their beginning is wedged in their end" specifically.

> The speaking level corresponds to the Yud and the tip of the Yud, far above the Vav. It enters instead into the final Hei, the source of the inanimate, because, as Sefer Yetzirah says, the beginning is "wedged" into the end: the highest connects directly with the lowest.

SECTION 3 • ¶10–12

"With Chochmah He founded the earth" and the two Names

10 והענין דכתיב בחכמה יסד ארץ[29] כונן שמים בתבונה ושמים וארץ הם רוחניות וגשמיות שהם דרך כלל דומם וצומח

And the explanation: it is written, "With Chochmah He founded the earth; He established the heavens with Tevunah (understanding)." Heaven and earth are spirituality and physicality, which are, in general, the inanimate and the vegetative.

> Proverbs 3:19 says the earth was founded with Chochmah (wisdom) and the heavens established with Tevunah (understanding, i.e., Binah). Heaven and earth stand for the spiritual and the physical — broadly, the vegetative and the inanimate.

כי הדומם הוא הגשם היותר אחרון והצומח יש בו איזה רוחניות ולמעלה היינו זו"נ שהמדות נק' צומח שיש בהן קטנות וגדלות אבל האותיות הם בחי' דומם שאין בהם גידול כו'.

For the inanimate is the very last [degree of] physicality, while the vegetative has some spirituality in it. And above, this is Z'eir Anpin and Nukva: the emotive attributes are called "vegetative," for they have smallness and greatness, but the letters are the level of the inanimate, which has no growth, etc.

> The inanimate is the most physical; the vegetative has a measure of spirit, since it lives and grows. Above, in the Sefiros, this is Z'eir Anpin and Nukva: the emotions are "vegetative" since they grow from small to large, while the letters (speech, Malchus) are "inanimate," fixed and without growth.

11 והנה שמים עם היותם נעלים במדרגה הוא כוננם בתבונה שלמטה מהחכמה ובחכמה יסד ארץ[30] שלמטה במדרגה משמים. ולכאורה נהפוך הוא.

Now the heavens, although they are exalted in level, He established with Tevunah, which is below Chochmah; and with Chochmah He founded the earth, which is lower in level than the heavens. Seemingly, it should be the reverse!

> The puzzle: the heavens are higher, yet they were made with Tevunah, which is below Chochmah, while the lower earth was made with the higher Chochmah. One would expect the reverse.

אבל הענין מטעם הנ"ל כי היא הנותנת שבחי' המדות מקבלים מהבינה שמהתבוננות מתפעל והוא בחי' חי וצומח משא"כ החכמה היא למעלה מערך זה

But the matter is for the reason stated above; this is exactly what dictates it: the level of the emotive attributes receives from Binah, for from contemplation one is stirred, and this is the level of the animal and the vegetative; whereas Chochmah is above this category.

> The answer follows the principle already stated: the emotions come from Binah, since contemplating an idea stirs feeling; this is a gradual, adjacent relationship, the "animal and vegetative" kind. Chochmah is beyond that kind of relationship altogether.

אבל בה יסד ארץ משום דנתחב"ס כו' ולכן הי' גוף האדם מתחלה דומם דוקא ולא כשאר בע"ח שנתהווה גופם בבחי' צומח מתחלתם ולא הי' דומם

Yet with it He founded the earth, because "their end is wedged in their beginning," etc. And therefore the body of man was at first specifically inanimate, and not like the other animals, whose bodies came into being on the level of the vegetative from their very beginning and were not inanimate.

> Precisely because Chochmah is so high, it can found the lowest, for "their end is wedged in their beginning." That is why man's body began as inanimate, unlike the animals, whose bodies were vegetative from the outset.

משא"כ אדה"ר דכתיב בי' גלמי ראו עיניך[31] בחי' גולם ודומם ואח"כ ויפח[32] כו' לפי שנשמתו מבחי' ח"ע ובחכמה יסד ארץ.

Not so Adam, the first man, of whom it is written, "Your eyes saw my unformed mass" — the level of an unformed mass and of the inanimate — and afterward "He blew...," because his soul is from the level of supernal Chochmah, and "with Chochmah He founded the earth."

> Adam's body began as a golem, lifeless and inanimate, before G-d breathed life into it, because his soul derives from supernal Chochmah — and it is Chochmah that founds the "earth," the inanimate.

12 ובזה יובן מ״ש בבריאת האדם וייצר ה׳ אלקים בב׳ שמות כי להיות התחברות נפשו וגופו מדבר ודומם הרחוקים זמ״ז בערך יותר מריחוק הגוף מהנפש שבשאר כל הבע״ח כנ״ל שצומח וחי סמוכים יחד

With this we will understand what is written of the creation of man, "And Havayah Elokim formed," with two Names: since it is the joining of his soul and his body — speaking and inanimate — which are farther apart from each other in rank than the body is from the soul in all the other animals, for, as said above, the vegetative and the animal are adjacent to each other;

> This explains why the verse about man's formation uses two divine Names, Havayah and Elokim. Man's soul (speaking) and body (inanimate) are much farther apart than an animal's soul and body, which belong to adjacent levels.

משא״כ הדומם עם המדבר שרחוקים זמ״ז מהקצה אל הקצה ולכן כדי שיתחברו יחד הוא ע״י ב׳ שמות:[33]

whereas the inanimate and the speaking are distant from each other, from one extreme to the other. Therefore, in order that they be joined together, it is through two Names.

> Speaking and inanimate stand at opposite extremes, so joining them requires two Names working together; later (paragraph 30) the maamar says that through these two Names Chochmah is joined with Malchus.

SECTION 4 • ¶13–17

The four levels in the soul and in the Sefiros

13 ולהבין בתוס׳ ביאור[34] ענין וייצר ה׳ אלקים את האדם עפר מן האדמה ואח״כ ויפח באפיו נ״ח[35] שהגוף שלו בתחלתו הי׳ בלא נפש עדיין והי׳ דומם מעפר גשמי

To understand with further explanation the matter of "And Havayah Elokim formed the man of dust from the ground," and afterward "He blew into his nostrils the breath of life" — that his body at first was still without a soul, and was inanimate, of physical dust,

> The maamar begins a second, deeper explanation of the same verse: man's body was first lifeless, inanimate dust, and only afterward received a soul.

ואח״כ נתלבשה בו נפש חיה המדברת כו׳ משא״כ בשאר כל הנבראי׳ דצומח וחי שגופם ונפשם יצאו כא׳ מן הארץ כו׳.

and afterward the living, speaking soul was vested in it, etc.; whereas in all the other creatures, vegetative and animal, their bodies and souls came forth together from the earth, etc.

> In contrast, plants and animals received body and soul together from the earth.

הענין יובן בהקדם דכמו שיש בגשמיות ד' בחי' דצח"מ. ככה גם ברוחניו' נמצאים ד' בחי' אלו.

The matter will be understood by first stating that just as in physicality there are four levels — inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking — so too in spirituality these four levels are found.

> The key premise: the four levels of the physical world (inanimate, vegetative, animal, speaking) have counterparts in the spiritual realm — in the human soul and in the Sefiros above.

14 ועד"מ בנפש האותיות הן בחי' דומם[36] שאין בהם גידול כו' והמדות הן בחי' צומח שהרי התפעלות קטנה בתחלתה מתלהבת אח"כ עד שתהי' שלהבת עזה כו'

By way of analogy, in the soul: the letters are the level of the inanimate, which have no growth, etc.; and the emotive attributes are the level of the vegetative, for an emotional arousal that is small at first later blazes up until it becomes a mighty flame, etc.

> In the human soul, the letters of thought and speech are "inanimate": a word stays what it is and does not grow. The emotions are "vegetative": a feeling starts as a small stirring and grows into a strong flame.

וצמיחותם הוא מן השכל כמו שהצומח גשמי הי' בתחלה צפון וטמון בארץ ואח"כ יוצא וצומח לחוץ כן המדות הם כלולים ונעלמים תחלה בשכל המולידם ואח"כ יוצאים בגילוי.

And their growth is from the intellect: just as the physical plant was at first hidden and buried in the ground, and afterward comes out and sprouts outward, so the emotive attributes are at first contained and concealed in the intellect that gives birth to them, and afterward they come out into revelation.

> Emotions grow out of the intellect as a plant grows out of the ground: first hidden within the idea that gives birth to them, then emerging into the open.

15 ובנמשל למעלה המל' נק' דומם וז"א דאצי' שהוא המדות נק' צומח והיינו שצומח מן אימא עלאה שהוא בחי' השכל העליון שנק' בשם חי

And in the analogue above: Malchus is called "inanimate," and Z'eir Anpin of Atzilus, which is the emotive attributes, is called "vegetative," meaning that it grows from the supernal Imma, which is the level of the supernal intellect, called by the name "living,"

> Applied above to the Sefiros of Atzilus: Malchus (divine speech) is "inanimate"; Z'eir Anpin, the divine emotions, is "vegetative," growing out of the supernal Imma ("mother"), that is, Binah, the supernal intellect, which is called "living."

כמ"ש בחוה כי היא היתי אם כל חי[37] וגם החכ' נק' חיה כדכתיב והחכמה תחי'[38] כו'.

as it is written of Chavah, "for she was the mother of all life"; and Chochmah too is called "life," as it is written, "And wisdom gives life…," etc.

> Binah is called "living" after Chavah, "the mother of all life" (Genesis 3:20), since Imma, the mother, is Binah; and Chochmah too is associated with life, for "wisdom gives life" (Ecclesiastes 7:12).

16 ונמצא שהצומח עם החי הם סמוכים זל"ז בלי דילוג והפסק מדריגה אחרת אמצעית ביניהן והם מתאחדים ומתדבקים זב"ז מצד עצמותן[39] ומהותן

It turns out that the vegetative and the animal are adjacent to each other, without a leap or the interruption of another, intermediate level between them, and they unite and cleave to each other by virtue of their very essence and nature.

> So the vegetative (the emotions) and the animal (the intellect) are adjacent, with nothing between them, and bonded by their very nature.

שהרי מתחלה הי' הצומח כלול בחי ממש שהוא ענין העלם המדות בבחי' עבור בהשכל כולד הצפון בבטן האם דירך אמו[40] הוא ממש

For at first the vegetative was contained within the animal itself — this is the concealment of the emotive attributes in a state of gestation within the intellect, like a fetus hidden in the mother's womb, which is literally "its mother's thigh";

> At first the emotions exist hidden within the intellect, a stage called "gestation," like a fetus in the womb, which the Talmud regards as part of the mother's body ("a fetus is its mother's thigh").

וגם אח"כ ביציאתן לחוץ עדיין צריכין לאמן הם בימי יניקה שהשכל מחי' ומגדל את המדות והוא קיומן ממש.

and even afterward, when they come out, they still need their mother in the days of nursing: the intellect enlivens and grows the emotive attributes, and it is their very sustenance.

> Even after they emerge, the emotions still depend on the intellect as an infant depends on nursing: the intellect keeps nourishing and growing them.

17 ולכן גם בגשמיו' במאמר תוצא הארץ נפש חיה[41] יצא גוף הבהמות ונפשותן שהם בחי' צומח וחי כאחד מן הארץ על היותן סמוכים ומתאחדי' זע"ז גם בשרשן כנ"ל.

Therefore in physicality too, by the utterance "Let the earth bring forth living creatures," the bodies of the animals and their souls, which are the levels of the vegetative and the animal, came forth together from the earth, since they are adjacent and united with each other in their root as well, as said above.

> That is why, at "Let the earth bring forth living creatures," the animals' bodies (vegetative) and souls (animal) came forth together: they are united even at their root.

משא"כ הדומם רחוק מן החי ביותר שהרי בחי' צומח מפסיק ביניהן. ועד"מ האותיות אין להם שייכות כלל להשכל שאינן כמו המדות שהם בערך וסוג קרוב עם השכל.

But the inanimate is very far from the animal, for the level of the vegetative interrupts between them. By way of analogy: the letters have no connection at all to the intellect, for they are not like the emotive attributes, which are of a kind and category close to the intellect.

> The inanimate, however, is far from the animal, with the vegetative in between. In the soul, the letters bear no relation to the intellect, while the emotions are of a kindred nature with it.

וראוי הוא שיהי' התהוות ההתפעלות מן השכל כמ"ש לפי שכלו יהולל איש.[42] וע"כ הם סמוכים זל"ז כנ"ל.

And it is fitting that the emotional arousal come into being from the intellect, as it is written, "A man is praised according to his intellect." Therefore they are adjacent to each other, as said above.

> Feelings naturally arise from understanding — "a man is praised according to his intellect" (Proverbs 12:8) — so intellect and emotion are adjacent.

אבל האותיות הן הנה ממהות וסוג אחר כי הם גשמיים ממש ואין להם שייכות כלל למהות השכל (ועמש"ל בד"ה בכ"ה בכסליו[43] גבי נרות וקטורת)

But the letters are of another essence and category, for they are actually physical and have no connection at all to the essence of the intellect (and see what is written above in the discourse beginning "On the twenty-fifth of Kislev," regarding the lamps and the incense).

> The letters, though, are of a different order entirely; the Alter Rebbe refers to his Chanukah discourse, on the lamps and the incense, for more on this.

ולכן גוף האדם שהי' דומם וגולם נתהווה כמו שהוא בלא נפש החיונית כי לא יכלה נפש החיה כלל להתחבר עמו.[44]

Therefore man's body, which was inanimate and an unformed mass, came into being as it is, without the vital soul, for the animal soul could not join with it at all.

> Therefore man's body, being inanimate, came into being without any life; even the animal soul could not join with it.

אמנם אח"כ נתלבשה בו נפש האדם עם היותה בחי' מדבר שהוא למעלה בערך גם מן החי.[45]

However, afterward the soul of man was vested in it, though it is the level of the speaking, which is above in rank even the animal.

> Yet the human soul, higher even than the animal soul, did afterward enter it — which seems surprising.

אבל הענין כי היא הנותנת שבבחי' שלמטה מטה ביותר א"א שירד וישפיל א"ע שם רק מי שהוא גבוה בערך ביותר

But the matter is that this is exactly what dictates it: into the very lowest level, none can descend and lower himself there except one who is highest in rank.

> The principle: only something of the very highest rank can descend to the very lowest place.

ולכן בגוף שמבחי' דומם היותר נמוך במדרגה נתלבשה נפש המדברת הגבוה מכולן משא"כ בצומח שלא נתלבשה בו רק נפש החיה.

Therefore into the body of the inanimate level, the lowest in rank, the speaking soul, the highest of them all, was vested; whereas into the vegetative only the animal soul was vested.

> So the lowest body received the highest soul, while the vegetative body received only the animal soul.

רק שאותה הנפש יצאה כאחד עם הגוף אבל בדומם אינו כן שלא יצאה הנפש המדברת עמו כא' רק שאח"כ נתלבשה בו כו':

Only, that soul came forth together with the body; but with the inanimate it is not so, for the speaking soul did not come forth together with it; rather, afterward it was vested in it, etc.

> The difference: the animal soul came forth together with its body, while the speaking soul entered the inanimate body only afterward.

SECTION 5 • ¶18–23

Angels and souls: the purpose of self-nullification

18 וביאור כל זה הנה יובן ע"פ ענין ההפרש שבין מלאכים[46] לנשמות. כי הנה המלאכים נק' בשם חיות ובהמות[47] כמ"ש פני ארי' אל הימין[48] ופני שור מהשמאל כו'.

The explanation of all this will be understood through the difference between angels and souls. For the angels are called by the names of beasts and animals, as it is written, "The face of a lion on the right, and the face of an ox on the left…," etc.

> To clarify all this, the maamar compares angels with souls. Angels are called "beasts" (chayos) and animals, as in Ezekiel's vision of the divine chariot, with the faces of a lion and an ox.

והם מורכבים ג"כ מגוף ונפש ונק' חומר וצורה[49] כמו בנ"א. רק שההפרש ביניהם לבנ"א הוא שגופם רוחני יותר.[50]

And they too are composed of a body and a soul, called matter and form, as with human beings; only, the difference between them and human beings is that their body is more spiritual.

> Angels too have a "body" and a "soul" — matter and form — as humans do, but their body is more spiritual.

19 וכמ"ש הרמב"ן[51] ע"פ עושה מלאכיו רוחות משרתיו אש לוהט[52] שמרוחניות שני היסודות אלו אש ורוח[53] נעשה גופות המלאכים יש מהן שגויתם מבחי' רוח והוא כמו מחנה מיכאל ויש שמבחי' אש וכמו מחנה גבריאל[54] כו'.

As the Ramban writes on the verse "He makes His angels winds, His ministers a flaming fire": the bodies of the angels are made from the spirituality of these two elements, fire and air; some have bodies of the level of air, such as the camp of Michael, and some of the level of fire, such as the camp of Gavriel, etc.

> The Ramban explains "He makes His angels winds, His ministers a flaming fire" (Psalms 104:4) to mean that angels' bodies are made of the spiritual essence of two elements, fire and air (ruach, also "wind"). The camp of Michael is of air, that of Gavriel of fire.

משא"כ גופות בנ"א הם מגשמיות ד' יסודות ארמ"ע. אמנם הסבה לזה למה נתנו להם גופות רוחניות מלישראל.

Whereas the bodies of human beings are of the physicality of the four elements: fire, air, water and earth. But the reason for this — why they were given bodies more spiritual than Israel —

> Human bodies, by contrast, are made of all four physical elements: fire, air, water and earth. Why, then, did the angels receive more spiritual bodies than the Jewish people, who are higher?

כי הנה תכלית הירידה[55] בהשתלשלות העולמות הוא רק כמ"ש ולכבודי בראתיו[56] כו' דהיינו להיות ביטול היש is that the purpose of the descent in the chain of the worlds is only as it is written, "And for My glory I created him…," namely, that there be the nullification of the "something."

> The answer starts from the purpose of the whole descent of the worlds, "For My glory I created him" (Isaiah 43:7): that the "something" (yesh) — creation's sense of being a separate existence — be nullified before G-d.

וזהו עיקר ענין עולם התקון יחוד והתכללות אורות וכלים שהן דרך כלל בחי' אין ויש

And this is the essential point of the World of Tikkun (rectification): the union and inclusion of lights and vessels, which are, in general, the levels of "nothing" and "something."

> That is the core of the World of Tikkun (rectification): lights and vessels are united and blended together. The lights are "nothing" (ayin), selfless; the vessels are "something," defined and distinct.

כי האורות הן בחי' הארו' והמשכות א"ס ב"ה והן בבחי' ביטול והכלים הם בחי' יש חו"ב חו"ג.[57,58]

For the lights are the level of the illuminations and emanations of the Infinite One, blessed be He, and they are in a state of self-nullification; and the vessels are the level of "something": Chochmah and Binah, Chesed and Gevurah.

> The lights are rays of the Infinite One and remain wholly nullified; the vessels are the defined Sefiros — Chochmah and Binah, Chesed and Gevurah — each with its own distinct character.

20 והנה בעולם התהו לא יכלו הכלים להכיל את האורות דהיינו שלא הי' היש נכלל ובטל אל

Now in the World of Tohu (chaos) the vessels could not contain the lights; that is, the "something" was not included and nullified into

> In the World of Tohu ("chaos"), the stage before the ordered world, the vessels could not hold the lights: the "something" did not merge into the "nothing."

האין ועיקר ענין התקון הוא להיות התכללות האורות עם הכלים וכן להיות התכללות חו"ג שמאלא וימינא כו' שהוא בחי' ביטול היש לאין.

the "nothing." And the essential point of Tikkun is that there be the inclusion of the lights with the vessels, and likewise the inclusion of Chesed and Gevurah, left and right, etc., which is the nullification of the "something" to the "nothing."

> Tikkun means that lights and vessels are blended, and that the opposing attributes, Chesed (right) and Gevurah (left), include one another; this integration is itself the nullification of "something" to "nothing."

21 וגם המלאכים יש להם עבודה זו לבטל היש והגוף שלהם ע"י נשמתם שהיא מבחי' אין ונלקחה מחיצוניות הכלים.

The angels too have this service: to nullify the "something," their body, through their soul, which is of the level of "nothing" and was taken from the outer dimension of the vessels.

> The angels too serve by nullifying their "something," their body, through their soul, which is "nothing"; but their soul comes from the outer dimension of the vessels.

וכן גם ישראל צריכין לבטל היש שהוא הגוף הגשמי שלהם ע"י נפשם האלקית שהיא בעצמה א"צ תקון לפי שהיא בבחי' אין כו' ונלקחו מפנימי' הכלי' הגבה למעל' ממקור מחצב נפשות המלאכים.

And so too Israel must nullify the "something," which is their physical body, through their G-dly soul, which in itself needs no rectification, since it is in a state of "nothing," etc., and was taken from the inner dimension of the vessels, higher than the quarry from which the souls of the angels were hewn.

> The Jewish people likewise must nullify their physical body through the G-dly soul, which needs no rectification itself; it comes from the inner dimension of the vessels, a source higher than that of the angels' souls.

22 ולכך יכולה להפוך ולכבש[59] גם גוף גשמי משא"כ המלאכי' אילו היה להם גוף גשמי לא היו יכולים להפכו כלל ולהיות בביטול היש אלא היו נופלים ממדרגתם לגמרי.

Therefore it can transform and subdue even a physical body; whereas the angels, had they a physical body, could not transform it at all and bring it to the nullification of the "something"; rather, they would fall from their level entirely.

> Because the G-dly soul is rooted so high, it can transform and master even a coarse physical body. An angel placed in a physical body could not refine it; it would simply be dragged down from its level.

רק נשמות האדם דוקא מצד מעלת נשמתם עלו במחשב'[60] כו' יכולים להפוך גם גוף גשמי.

Only the souls of man specifically, by virtue of the loftiness of their soul — they "arose in [G-d's] thought," etc. — can transform even a physical body.

> Only human souls, which "arose in G-d's thought" before creation (Bereshit Rabbah 1:4), have the power to transform physical matter.

23 וכמשל מדורת אש גדולה שמאירה למרחוק יותר מקטנה כו'. ונמצא מובן עכ"פ שגוף ונפש של המלאכים הן קרובים בערך זל"ז ונתהוו כאחד ממש ממקורם היא בחי' מל' דאצי'

It is like the analogy of a large bonfire, which shines farther than a small one, etc. It is understood, in any case, that the body and soul of the angels are close in rank to each other and came into being truly as one from their source, which is the level of Malchus of Atzilus,

> As a large fire lights up farther, a greater soul reaches further down. Angels' bodies and souls, being close in rank, came into being as one from their source, Malchus of Atzilus.

שהיא אם כל חי[61] דבי"ע שע"ז נאמר תוצא הארץ נפש חיה[62] פי' ארץ העליונה שהיא המל' תוצא נפש כל חיה הם המלאכים שנק' חיות ויצאו ביחד גופם עם נשמתם which is "the mother of all life" of [the worlds of] Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah. Of this it is said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures": meaning, the supernal earth, which is Malchus, shall bring forth the soul of every living being — these are the angels, who are called "beasts" — and their bodies came forth together with their souls, > Malchus of Atzilus is "the mother of all life" for the three lower worlds, Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah. "Let the earth bring forth living creatures" is read on this level: the "supernal earth," Malchus, brings forth the angels, called "beasts," body and soul together.

כי הגוף שהוא בחי' צומח[63] הוא אצל וסמוך לבחי' החי כנ"ל שהצומח הי' כלול בחי בבחי' עבור כו':

for the body, which is the level of the vegetative, is beside and adjacent to the level of the animal, as said above, that the vegetative was contained in the animal in a state of gestation, etc.

> Their bodies are of the vegetative level, adjacent to the animal level of their souls, since the vegetative was first contained in the animal as in gestation.

SECTION 6 • ¶24–29

Malchus and the letters come from a higher source

24 וכמו"כ יובן גם למעלה יותר בחיון עלאין שהם האבות שהן הן המרכבה[64] והיינו בבחי' אצי' והיו כלולים מתחלה ג"כ בבטן אימא עלאה בחי' עבור ואח"כ יצאו לגילוי.

And so too it will be understood even higher, regarding the supernal beasts, which are the Patriarchs — "they are the Chariot" — that is, on the level of Atzilus: they too were at first contained in the womb of the supernal Imma, in a state of gestation, and afterward came out into revelation.

> The same pattern holds higher, in Atzilus: the "supernal beasts" of the divine Chariot are the Patriarchs, that is, the divine emotions that Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov embodied. These emotions first gestated within the supernal Imma (Binah) and then emerged.

ואז הם בבחי' יניקה כו' והיינו ענין צומח וחי הסמוכים זה לזה שנמשכים זמ"ז בדרך השתלשלות עו"ע כו'.

And then they are in the state of nursing, etc. And this is the matter of the vegetative and the animal, which are adjacent to each other, being drawn from one another by way of a chain of cause and effect, etc.

> After emerging they "nurse" from the intellect. This is the adjacent vegetative-animal relationship: each level flows from the one above by cause and effect.

משא"כ בחי' הדומם שהיא בחי' המל' היא מובדלת בערך מהם ואינה נמשכת בבחי' השתלשלות עו"ע כדרך המשכת המדות מהשכל.

But the level of the inanimate, which is the level of Malchus, is separated in rank from them and is not drawn by way of a chain of cause and effect, in the way the emotive attributes are drawn from the intellect.

> Malchus, the "inanimate," is different: it is not simply an effect of the level above, as the emotions are an effect of understanding.

כי מן החכמה ולמטה הוא בחי' השתלשלות עו"ע חכ' ואח"כ בינה ואח"כ דעת עד שאח"כ נמשכים המדות כו'

For from Chochmah downward it is a chain of cause and effect: Chochmah, and afterward Binah, and afterward Daas, until afterward the emotive attributes are drawn, etc.,

> From Chochmah downward the Sefiros form a causal chain: Chochmah produces Binah, then Daas, and these produce the emotions.

עד בחי' המל' ולא עד בכלל כי התהוות המל' שהיא בחי' אותיות דבר ה' אינן מסוג וערך הבחינה שלמעלה ממנה עד שיתכן לומר שתהא down to the level of Malchus, but not including it. For as to the coming into being of Malchus, which is the level of the letters of the word of G-d — they are not of the kind and rank of the level above it, that it could be said that it is

> But the chain stops short of Malchus. Malchus is the "letters" of G-d's word, His speech, and letters are not the same kind of thing as the level above them.

נמשכת בדרך עו"ע וכמשל האותיות הגשמיים שאינן מערך המדות והשכל כו' אלא שהתהוותן הוא מלמעלה יותר והיינו מעצמיות הנפש שקבועים בה כ"ב אותיות אלו.

drawn by way of cause and effect. It is like the analogy of the physical letters, which are not of the rank of the emotive attributes and the intellect, etc.; rather, their coming into being is from higher up, namely, from the very essence of the soul, in which these twenty-two letters are fixed.

> Likewise human letters are not a product of one's feelings or ideas. They come from something higher, the very essence of the soul, in which the twenty-two letters are inherently fixed.

כי הגם דאחה"ע מהגרון[65] כו' היינו שהם באים ומתלבשים במוצאות אלו אבל שרשם בנפש כידוע ומבואר באגהה"ק ע"פ ויעש דוד שם.[66, 67]

For although the letters Alef, Ches, Hei, Ayin are from the throat, etc., this means that they come and are vested in these points of articulation; but their root is in the soul, as is known and explained in Iggeres HaKodesh on the verse "And David made a name," see there.

> The throat letters (Alef, Ches, Hei, Ayin) and the other groups are only expressed through the organs of speech; their root is in the soul itself, as explained in Iggeres HaKodesh, Epistle 5.

25 ולכן אותיות שוים יכולים להורות על ב' שכליים הפכים רק בשינוי הצרופים בהקדמת ואיחור אות זה מזה

Therefore the same letters can express two opposite concepts, merely through a change in their combinations, by placing one letter before or after another,

> Proof that the letters are not tied to ideas: the same letters can express opposite ideas merely by being rearranged.

אע"פ שהן הן אותן האותיות ממש ויהיה שינוי גדול בההשכלה מהפוך להפוך כמו מאש למים שזהו חסד וזהו גבורה כו'.

although they are the very same letters, and there will be a great change in the concept, from one extreme to its opposite, as from fire to water — this is Chesed and this is Gevurah, etc.

> The same letters, reordered, can yield concepts as opposite as fire and water, one expressing kindness (Chesed) and the other severity (Gevurah).

26 והטעם מפני שבאמת גוף ועצם האותיות אין להם שייכות למהות השכל כלל עד שיתכן לומר שאותיות אלו שייכים לשכל זה דוקא ולשכל שכנגדו יצטרכו אותיות אחרים כדרך

The reason is that in truth the body and substance of the letters have no connection at all to the essence of the intellect, such that one could say that these letters belong specifically to this concept, and that for the opposite concept other letters would be needed, as is the case

> The reason: the letters themselves have no inherent connection to any particular idea, so no idea "owns" certain letters.

שהוא במדות שיש שכל נוטה כלפי חסד ואינו נוטה כלפי גבורה ויש שכל נוטה כלפי גבורה כו' לפי שהן נמשכים בבחי' השתלשלות עו"ע כו'.

with the emotive attributes, where there is a concept that inclines toward Chesed and does not incline toward Gevurah, and there is a concept that inclines toward Gevurah, etc., because they are drawn by way of a chain of cause and effect, etc.

> Emotions are different: a given line of reasoning naturally leads toward kindness or toward severity, because emotions flow from ideas by cause and effect.

27 וכמו"כ למעלה התהוות האותיות אינו בהשתלשלות עו"ע. וכמו שהמדות נמשכים מבינה כי אינם מערך זה כו'.

So too above, the coming into being of the letters is not by way of a chain of cause and effect, [as] the emotive attributes are drawn from Binah, for they are not of this rank, etc.

> Above too, Malchus (the "letters") does not come into being as a link in the causal chain, the way the emotions come from Binah; it is not of that category.

אבל מ"מ לזאת הנה יש בהם מעלה יתירה שהתהוות' הוא ממקו' יותר עליון שמשם דוקא הוא שיכול להיות השפלה זו להיות התהוות מדת המל'.

But nevertheless, for this very reason, they have an added superiority: their coming into being is from a higher place, for only from there can there be this lowering — the coming into being of the attribute of Malchus.

> Yet this very independence is a virtue: it comes from a higher source, and only a higher source could produce such a "lowering" as Malchus, the attribute through which the worlds are created.

28 והוא מ"ש בחכמה יסד ארץ[68] כונן שמים בתבונה שבחי' ארץ נמשכת מהחכמה דוקא שהיא למעלה משכל המושג הנק' תבונה שבו כונן שמים שהם המדות.

And this is what is written, "With Chochmah He founded the earth; He established the heavens with Tevunah": the level of "earth" is drawn specifically from Chochmah, which is above the comprehended intellect called Tevunah, with which He established the heavens, which are the emotive attributes.

> This is the meaning of Proverbs 3:19: "earth" (Malchus) comes from Chochmah, which is above comprehensible intellect (Tevunah, Binah), while the "heavens" (the emotions) come from Tevunah.

אע"פ דגם המדות נמשכים מחכ' היינו ששם הוא מקורם אבל עיקר התהוותם להיות בהתחלקות כמו שהן עתה הוא מן התבונה.

Although the emotive attributes too are drawn from Chochmah, this means that their source is there; but the main part of their coming into being, to be differentiated as they are now, is from Tevunah.

> The emotions are rooted in Chochmah too, but their actual formation as distinct attributes comes from Tevunah.

כי החכמה נק' יו"ד שהיא למעלה מהתחלקות עדיין כנקודה שהיא בלתי מתחלקת כידוע והשפעת המדות משם הוא ג"כ בבחי' כללות והוא כדמיון חלק הבן שמהאב נמשך טפה א' לבד רק שהיא כוללת כל גופו

For Chochmah is called Yud, which is still above differentiation, like a point, which is indivisible, as is known; and the flow of the emotive attributes from there is also in an all-inclusive form. It is like the analogy of the son's share: from the father only a single drop is drawn, yet it includes his whole body;

> Chochmah is symbolized by the Yud, a mere point, undivided. Whatever it gives the emotions is compressed and general, like the father's single drop, which contains the whole future child in potential.

אבל עיקר בנינו בגידול אבריו להיות בציור פרצוף אדם בהתחלקות האברים הוא מהאם ע"י עבור בבטן האם.

but the main part of his building, in the growth of his limbs into the form of a human figure with differentiated limbs, is from the mother, through gestation in the mother's womb.

> The development into a formed body with distinct limbs comes from the mother, during gestation; likewise Binah develops the emotions into distinct attributes.

29 וכך הוא יתי כונן שמים שיהיו המדות מתכוננים היטב כפי שצ"ל בבחי' פרצוף הוא בתבונה דוקא

And so He, blessed be He, "established the heavens" — that the emotive attributes be well established as they should be, in the form of a complete configuration (partzuf) — specifically "with Tevunah."

> So "establishing the heavens" — shaping the emotions into a complete, structured configuration (partzuf) — is the work of Tevunah.

והיינו ענין עבור המדות בבינה ואח"כ יש ימי יניקה ומוחין כו' והוא ענין צומח וחי שהם סמוכים זל"ז כנ"ל.

And this is the matter of the gestation of the emotive attributes in Binah, and afterward there are the days of nursing and [of] intellect, etc., which is the matter of the vegetative and the animal, which are adjacent to each other, as said above.

> That process is gestation in Binah, then nursing and maturity of intellect: the adjacent vegetative-animal relationship.

משא"כ המל' הנה בחכמה דוקא יסודה ממש וכמ"ש בזוהר אבא יסד ברתא[69] דהיינו שכמו שהחכמה נמשכת מאין ליש שלא בדרך השתלשלות.

But Malchus is founded specifically with Chochmah itself, as it is said in the Zohar, "Abba founded the daughter"; that is, just as Chochmah is drawn from nothing to something, not by way of a chain of descent, > Malchus, however, is founded directly by Chochmah, as the Zohar says, "Abba (Chochmah) founded the daughter (Malchus)." Chochmah itself emerges "from nothing to something," not as a product of anything before it.

כך גם המל' שהיא בחינת אותיות יש בזה בחי' זו במה שנמשכת ג"כ מבחי' אין שהרי עפ"י השתלשלות לא היה ראוי להיות התהוות האותיות מהשכל או מהמדות כו' so too Malchus, which is the level of the letters, has this quality, in that it too is drawn from the level of "nothing"; for according to the chain of descent it would not be fitting for the letters to come into being from the intellect or from the emotive attributes, etc.

> In the same way Malchus, the letters, also comes "from nothing," not as an effect of the intellect or the emotions; by the causal chain alone, letters could never have emerged from them.

(ומש"ל דגם חכמה נקרא חי' כמ"ש והחכמה תחיה[70] היינו כי בחכמה יש ב' מדרגות בחי' אבא עלאה והוא יו"ד של שם הוי"ה ח"ע אבל בחינה ב' הוא נק' ישראל סבא ומרומז באות ה' כמ"ש במשנת חסידים מסכת או"א.

(And as for what was said above, that Chochmah too is called "living," as it is written, "And wisdom gives life": this is because in Chochmah there are two levels: the level of supernal Abba, which is the Yud of the Name Havayah, supernal Chochmah; but the second level is called Yisrael Saba, and is alluded to in the letter Hei, as written in Mishnas Chassidim, Tractate Abba and Imma.

> A parenthetical note: Chochmah was earlier called "living" ("wisdom gives life"). That is because Chochmah has two levels: supernal Abba, the Yud of Havayah; and a second level, Yisrael Saba, alluded to in the Hei, as the Kabbalistic work Mishnas Chassidim explains.

והנה בחי' ה' הוא בחי' מקור לבחי' חי כמש"ל שארבעה אותיות שם הוי"ה הן מקור בחי' דצחי"מ לכך בחי' זו הב' דחכמה נקרא ג"כ חי וזהו והחכמה תחיה אבל בחי' ראשונה נקרא מדבר)

Now the level of Hei is the source of the level of the animal, as explained above that the four letters of the Name Havayah are the source of the levels of inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking; therefore this second level of Chochmah is also called "living," and this is "And wisdom gives life"; but the first level is called "speaking.")

> Since the Hei is the source of the "animal" level, the second level of Chochmah is called "living," while the first level, the Yud, is "speaking."

ולכן אדה"ר היה גופו דומם ממש. כי יש ב' מיני אדם. א' הוא בחי' שם מ"ה שנק' אדם

Therefore Adam, the first man, had a body that was truly inanimate. For there are two kinds of "Adam": one is the level of the Name Mah, which is called "Adam,"

> Therefore Adam's body was truly inanimate. The maamar distinguishes two kinds of "Adam"; the first is the Name Mah, the spelling of Havayah whose numerical value, 45, equals that of אדם ("man").

כמ"ש כתפארת אדם לשבת בית[71] שבחי' ת"ת שהוא כללות ז"א הנק' שם מ"ה נקרא אדם.

as it is written, "Like the beauty of a man, to dwell in the house": the level of Tiferes, which is the general and collective expression of Z'eir Anpin, called the Name Mah, is called "Adam."

> This "Adam" is Tiferes, representing all of Z'eir Anpin, as in "like the beauty (tiferes) of a man" (Isaiah 44:13). The second, higher "Adam" is explained in the next paragraph.

SECTION 7 · ¶30–32

Adam as supernal Chochmah; the pattern in every realm

30 ואמנם בחי' אדה"ר היינו בחי' ח"ע[72] שהיא ראשית האצי' ממש והוא בחי' שם ע"ב. ולכן הוא דוקא שהיה גופו דומם.

However, the level of Adam, the first man, is the level of supernal Chochmah, which is the very beginning of Atzilus, and it is the level of the Name Av. Therefore it was specifically he whose body was inanimate.

> The second, higher "Adam" — Adam the first man — corresponds to supernal Chochmah, the very beginning of Atzilus, and to the Name Av (Havayah spelled out with Yuds, numerical value 72). That is precisely why his body was inanimate.

כי בחכמה דוקא יסד ארץ[73] שמהחכמה הוא שיכול להיות התהוות הדומם ואדרבה בדומם דוקא מתלבשת החכמה משא"כ בצומח שהרי כונן שמים הוא בתבונה בלבד.

For specifically "with Chochmah He founded the earth": it is from Chochmah that the inanimate can come into being; on the contrary, Chochmah is vested specifically in the inanimate — not so in the vegetative, for "He established the heavens" only "with Tevunah."

> Since "with Chochmah He founded the earth," Chochmah produces the inanimate and even vests itself specifically in it, whereas the vegetative, the "heavens," comes only from Tevunah.

משא"כ נפש החי לא יכלה להתלבש בגוף שמבחי' דומם שהרי מהבינה לא יכול להיות רק בחי' השתלשלות בלבד עו"ע

Whereas the animal soul could not be vested in a body of the inanimate level, since from Binah there can be only a chain of cause and effect,

> The animal soul, which derives from Binah, could not enter an inanimate body, because Binah can only produce things in a gradual chain of cause and effect.

והוא בחי' צומח ולא התהוות בחי' המל' הנקרא דומם שזה אינו אלא מח"ע דוקא כו'.

which is the level of the vegetative, and not the coming into being of the level of Malchus, called "inanimate," which is only from supernal Chochmah specifically, etc.

> Such a chain yields the vegetative level, not Malchus, the "inanimate"; Malchus comes only from supernal Chochmah.

וז"ש בבריאת האדם דוקא וייצר ה' אלקים בב' שמות. שבהן ועל ידן הוא התחברות החכ' עם המל' כו':[74]

And this is why it is written specifically in the creation of man, "And Havayah Elokim formed," with two Names: for in them and through them is the joining of Chochmah with Malchus, etc.

> Hence the two Names in "Havayah Elokim formed man": through them Chochmah is joined with Malchus — the highest soul with the lowest body.

31 ונמצא מובן מכ"ז עכ"פ בטוב טעם ודעת מה שנפש החיה יש לה גוף שמבחינת צומח דוקא ונפש המדברת היותר עליונה יש לה גוף מבחינת דומם.

It turns out that from all this we understand, at any rate, with good reason and understanding, why the animal soul has a body specifically of the vegetative level, while the speaking soul, which is higher, has a body of the inanimate level.

> Summary: the animal soul has a vegetative body; the higher, human soul has an inanimate body.

כי אדרבה היא הנותנת כי נשמה גבוה היא שיכולה להתלבש בגוף נמוך דוקא כו'.

For, on the contrary, this is exactly what dictates it: it is a high soul that can be vested specifically in a low body, etc.

> This is not despite the soul's height but because of it: only a high soul can enter a low body.

וזהו בין למעלה ובין למטה כלומר בין בעולמות עליונים שיש שם דצח"מ והם בחי' מלאכים הנק' בשם חיות ועופות כנ"ל

And this is so both above and below; that is, both in the higher worlds, where there are inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking — these being the angels, who are called by the names of beasts and birds, as mentioned above,

> The same pattern holds "above" as well: in the higher worlds too there are the four levels; the angels, called beasts and birds, correspond to the animal level.

כמ"ש פני אריה[75] ופני שור ופני נשר כו' ויש שם בחינת מדבר. ונשמת אדה"ר כולל כל נש"י[76, 77, 78] כו'. וכולם נולדים מהארץ שהיא מל' דאצילות.

as it is written, "The face of a lion and the face of an ox and the face of an eagle...," etc. — and there is the level of the speaking there. And the soul of Adam, the first man, includes all the souls of Israel, etc. And they are all born from the "earth," which is Malchus of Atzilus.

> This is seen in Ezekiel's vision of the faces of a lion, an ox and an eagle. There is also a "speaking" level there: the soul of Adam, which contained all the souls of Israel. All of them are born from the supernal "earth," Malchus of Atzilus.

32 והנה במאמר תוצא הארץ נפש חיה[79] ועוף יעופף[80] שהוא ענין התהוות נפש החיה אזי הגוף שלה יצא כאחד עם הנפש דהיינו שהיה הגוף בחינת צומח ויצא ביחד עם הנפש.

Now, by the utterance "Let the earth bring forth living creatures... and let birds fly...," which is the coming into being of the animal soul, its body came forth together with the soul; that is, the body was of the vegetative level and came forth together with the soul.

> Above: when Malchus of Atzilus produced the angels ("living creatures" and "birds"), their bodies came forth together with their souls; their body is of the vegetative level.

והיינו מפני שגם הנפש נלקחה מחיצוניות הכלים דמל' לכן גופו ג"כ רוחני והוא בחי' צומח כו'.

This is because the soul too was taken from the outer dimension of the vessels of Malchus; therefore its body too is spiritual, and it is the level of the vegetative, etc.

> This is because the angels' souls come from the outer dimension of Malchus' vessels, so their bodies are correspondingly spiritual.

אבל נפש המדברת של האדם לא נתהוית ביחד עם הגוף רק שאח"כ מתלבשת בגוף דומם דוקא היותר נמוך.

But the speaking soul of man did not come into being together with the body; rather, afterward it is vested specifically in an inanimate body, the lowest.

> The human soul, in contrast, did not come into being with its body; it later entered the lowest, inanimate body.

כי להיותה בעצמה עליונה ביותר ע"כ יכלה לסבול גם גוף גשמי כו' (וכמ"ש ג"כ במ"א שזהו ענין ההפרש בין זיווג נשיקין[81] שממנו התהוות המלאכים שהוא רוחני ביותר.

For since it is in itself exceedingly high, it could therefore bear even a physical body, etc. (As is also written elsewhere, that this is the difference between the "union of kisses," from which the angels came into being, which is exceedingly spiritual —

> Being so high in itself, it can bear a physical body. The parenthesis explains this in Kabbalistic imagery: angels are born of the "union of kisses," a purely spiritual union between the Sefiros.

ומ"מ הוא רק השפעה חיצוני' ולכן לא יכולים להתלבש בגוף גשמי. אבל זיווג גופני שממנו נשמות עם היותו השפעה גשמית אבל שרשו בפנימי' דייקא וע"כ מתלבשים בגופות כו') nevertheless, it is only an external influence, and therefore they cannot be vested in a physical body; but the physical union, from which the souls [come], although it is a physical influence, has its root specifically in the inner dimension, and therefore they are vested in bodies, etc.)

> That union conveys only an outer influence, so angels cannot be vested in physical bodies. Souls are born of the "physical union" (in Kabbalistic terms), which though more "physical" is rooted in the innermost dimension; therefore souls enter physical bodies.

ובין למטה דהיינו בהתהוות דצח"מ גשמיים מהארץ הלזו שנפש החיה יצאה מהארץ ממש דהיינו שחומר וצורה של החי

And [so it is] below, that is, in the coming into being of the physical inanimate, vegetative, animal and speaking from this earth: the animal soul came forth from the earth itself, that is, the matter and form of the animal —

> Below, in the physical world, the same holds: the animal's matter and form — its body and its vital soul — came out of the earth itself.

שהוא ענין נפשו החיונית וגופו יצאו שניהם מן הארץ כמו שיצא הצומח בחומר וצורה שלו ויצאו שניהם כאי' להיות סמוכים וקרובים בערך כנ"ל.

which is its vital soul and its body — both came forth from the earth, just as the vegetative came forth in its matter and form; and both came forth together, being adjacent and close in rank, as said above.

> They came out both together, just as the plant emerges with its matter and form, because they are adjacent in rank.

אבל במדבר אינו כן כנ"ל שהגוף נתהווה מן הארץ בבחי' דומם ואח"כ נתלבשה בו נפש מלמעלה והיא הנפש המדברת שלא יכלה לשכון בבחי' צומח רק בדומם גשמי כו'.

But with the speaking it is not so, as said above: the body came into being from the earth on the level of the inanimate, and afterward a soul from above was vested in it — this is the speaking soul, which could not dwell in the vegetative level, but only in the physical inanimate, etc.

> Not so man: his body came from the earth as inanimate matter, and afterward a soul from above entered it; the speaking soul cannot dwell in the vegetative, only in inanimate matter.

והיינו כי גם למעלה מעלה בבחי׳ אצי׳ הוא כמו״כ שהחי מתלבש בצומח והם סמוכים כאחד והוא מ״ש כונן שמים בתבונה[82] וארץ יסודתה בהררי קדש[83] ח״ע כו׳:

And this is because even far above, on the level of Atzilus, it is likewise so: the animal is vested in the vegetative, and they are adjacent as one. And this is what is written, "He established the heavens with Tevunah," and the earth — "its foundation is in the holy mountains," [that is,] supernal Chochmah, etc.

> The root of all this is in Atzilus: the animal (Binah) is vested in the vegetative (the emotions), adjacent to it, as "He established the heavens with Tevunah"; while the "earth" is founded "in the holy mountains" (Psalms 87:1), which the Alter Rebbe identifies with supernal Chochmah.

IN ONE'S AVODAH

Man was placed in the lowest, most physical body precisely so that he can raise everything above it: by using bread and clothing for his needs while serving G-d with understanding, he elevates the sparks in the inanimate, vegetative and animal realms; and through his G-dly soul he must nullify and transform his physical body, something even the angels cannot do.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why could an animal's body and soul come into being together, while man's body had to be formed first as lifeless dust?
2. How does the analogy of lifting a wall from its lowest beam explain man's role as the purpose of creation?
3. In what sense are the letters of speech "inanimate," and what does the ability of the same letters to express opposite ideas show about their source?
4. Why does "With Chochmah He founded the earth" assign the lowest level to the highest attribute?
5. What can the G-dly soul do with a physical body that an angel could not, and why?

For the children at the table

Why Adam began as dust

THE BIG IDEA

A person's body was made from the lowest thing, lifeless dust, so that the soul, coming in at the very bottom, can lift up the whole world.

When G-d made the plants and the animals, He said, "Let the earth bring forth," and they came out of the ground whole and alive. But the first man, Adam, was made differently: first his body was formed from lifeless dust, and only afterward did G-d breathe a soul into it. Why? The world has four levels: things that do not grow, like stones; plants, which grow; animals, which are alive; and people, who can speak. Plants and animals are next to each other, so an animal's body and life could come together. But a person's soul is so high that it could be joined only to the very lowest level, lifeless dust. Only the highest can come down all the way to the lowest. And there is a purpose in it. A person is called medaber, "speaking," which also means "leader." When we eat bread and wear clothing in order to serve G-d, we lift up all the levels of creation with us. Even the angels cannot make a body holy; a Jewish soul can.

THE MASHAL

To lift the walls of a house with a jack, you must begin with the lowest beam, and then all the beams above it rise too. If you began from the middle, the lower ones would stay behind. So the soul was placed in a body of the lowest level, so that by lifting it up, everything above it is lifted too.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. Why was Adam's body made first as lifeless dust, and not together with his soul like the animals?
2. What does the jack that lifts the lowest beam of a wall teach us about the soul?
3. How can eating, sleeping or getting dressed this week become a way of serving G-d?

בתרס"ו שם נוסף: "ולכן נברא גופם ונפשם כאי".

3 תדשא הארץ דשא . . עץ עושה פרי . . ויהי כן

The command on the third day by which the earth brought forth grasses and fruit trees. The Alter Rebbe cites it to show that plants arose, fully formed, by G-d's word.

Genesis 1:11 בראשית א:י"א

וַיֹּאמֶר אֱלֹקִים תַּדְשֵׁא הָאָרֶץ דֶּשֶׁא עֵשֶׂב מַזְרִיעַ זֶרַע עֵץ פְּרִי עֹשֶׂה פְּרִי לְמִינוֹ אֲשֶׁר זַרְעוֹ־בוֹ עַל־הָאָרֶץ וַיְהִי־כֵן:

And G-d said: 'Let the earth put forth grass, herb yielding seed, and fruit-tree bearing fruit after its kind, wherein is the seed thereof, upon the earth.' And it was so.

4 ישרצו המים שרץ נפש חיה

The command on the fifth day by which the waters brought forth fish and other living creatures. It shows that animal life, too, arose complete from its element at G-d's word.

Genesis 1:20 בראשית א:כ'

וַיֹּאמֶר אֱלֹקִים יִשְׁרְצוּ הַמַּיִם שֶׁרֶץ נֶפֶשׁ חַיָּה וְעוֹף יְעוֹפֵף עַל־הָאָרֶץ עַל־פְּנֵי רְקִיעַ הַשָּׁמָיִם:

6 תוצא הארץ

"Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind." The land animals came forth from the earth alive, body and soul at once.

Genesis 1:24 בראשית א:כ"ד

וַיֹּאמֶר אֱלֹקִים תּוֹצֵא הָאָרֶץ נֶפֶשׁ חַיָּה לְמִינָהּ בְּהֵמָה וָרֶמֶשׂ וְחַיְתוֹ־אֶרֶץ לְמִינָהּ וַיְהִי־כֵן:

7 והוא צוה ונבראו

"For He commanded and they were created." The phrase is borrowed to stress that the creatures came into being at once, just as they are, through G-d's command.

Psalms 148:5 תהילים קמ"ח:ה'

9 וייצר ה' אלקים את האדם

"And G-d formed man of dust from the ground, and blew into his nostrils the breath of life." The verse separates the forming of the body from the giving of the soul.

Genesis 2:7 בראשית ב':ז'

PARAGRAPH 4

12 שהרי הגוף שלו נמוך במדרגה

There the Rebbe Rashab notes that although Torah Ohr explains that man's body is lower than the animals' (vegetative) bodies, since it is inanimate, still, as regards the soul, the speaking soul is far higher than the animal and vegetative souls.

KEHOT'S NOTE

13 Man's body was lifeless until G-d breathed the soul into it; this is the "lowliness" of his bodily origin.

Genesis 2:7 בראשית ב':ז'

לא טוב היות האדם לבדו
אעשה לו עזר כנגדו

It is not good that the man be alone; I will make him a helper opposite him

The concealment of the Name Elokim, which seems to oppose G-d's revealed light, is itself the "helper": like the silver backing of a mirror, it turns the light back upward as reflected light that rises even higher than its source.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar opens with "For a sun and a shield is Havayah Elokim." Havayah is the light that brings all into being; revealed as it is, creatures would be utterly nullified. Elokim is its shield, concealing the light so that separate beings — a "people" for the King — can exist, and this concealing power is the Shechinah, G-d's presence within creation. The purpose is that the created "something" then nullify itself; when divine light sustains powers that never do, that is the exile of the Shechinah. Scripture calls the Shechinah a mirror: a thin silver coating blocks sight and produces reflected light that shows what direct sight cannot. So Elokim's concealment produces a reflected light rising above Havayah, as "a woman of valor is the crown of her husband." Hence "the man alone" is unhindered revelation, and "a helper opposite him" is the concealment — body and animal soul — from which the higher light comes. After the sin the covering became coarse, "garments of skin," kelipas nogah; serving G-d is like tanning hides. The wedding blessings express the same pattern.

OUTLINE

1 Havayah and its shield, Elokim ¶1–2

Havayah is the creative light; unveiled, it would nullify creation. Elokim conceals it so that separate beings can exist, making possible G-d's kingship and His dwelling (Shechinah) within creation.

2 The purpose of descent and the exile of the Shechinah ¶3–4

The light descends into separate beings so that they will nullify themselves; this is G-d's gratification. When it sustains the seventy princes, who remain independent, it is the exile of the Shechinah.

3 The mirror and reflected light ¶5–6

A mirror's thin silver coating blocks sight and reflects it back. Likewise Elokim's concealment produces reflected light that rises above the source of Havayah, as the wife becomes her husband's crown and the soul descends for the sake of ascent.

4 The helper opposite him ¶7–8

"The man alone" is total revelation and nullification; the "helper opposite him" is the concealment that forms body and animal soul, from which higher light comes — the source of the future laughter and delight beyond Havayah.

5 Garments of skin and the service of refinement ¶9–11

After the sin the covering became coarse: kelipas nogah, the "garments of skin" through which the external forces feed. Serving G-d is like tanning hides; Chanoch made shoes from the refined skin.

6 The partition before and after the sin ¶12–14

Even before the sin there was a helper opposite him: elevating what is below the partition present in every world. After the sin it is refining kelipas nogah, which is still thin enough to yield reflected light.

7 Groom and bride ¶15

The wedding blessings move from "groom and bride" to "the groom with the bride": the bride, Malchus, first receives, then adds light and becomes her husband's crown.

KEY CONCEPTS

Havayah and Elokim הוי"ה ואלקים

Havayah is the light that brings all into being; Elokim is the shield that conceals it, making separate existence possible.

Reflected light אור חוזר

Light that returns upward when blocked, like light off a mirror's silver; it rises higher than the direct light's source.

Exile of the Shechinah גלות השכינה

When divine light sustains powers that do not nullify themselves before G-d, contrary to the purpose of creation.

Helper opposite him עזר כנגדו

The concealment that seems to oppose revelation, which through its refinement becomes the source of a greater light.

Garments of skin כתנות עור

The coarse concealment after the sin, kelipas nogah; man's service is to "tan" it, transforming darkness into light.

Kelipas nogah קליפת נוגה

The "glowing husk" of mixed good and evil that gives life to permitted things, whose good can be elevated.

The partition פרסא

The divide present in every world, like the diaphragm in the body and the boundary between Atzilus and Beriah, below which lies what must be elevated.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–2

Havayah and its shield, Elokim

1 לא טוב היות האדם לבדו[1,2] אעשה לו עזר כנגדו. כתיב כי שמש ומגן הוי"ה אלקים.[3]

"It is not good that the man be alone; I will make him a helper opposite him." It is written, "For a sun and a shield is Havayah Elokim."

> The maamar opens with G-d's words before creating Chavah (Genesis 2:18) and pairs them with Psalms 84:12, "For a sun and a shield is Havayah Elokim." The two Names will be likened to the sun and its protective shield.

פי' הוי"ה הוא גילוי והמשכת ההארה להיות מקור להתהוות העולמות כי הוי"ה מלשון התהוות[4] כנודע.

Meaning: Havayah is the revelation and drawing forth of the illumination to be the source for the coming into being of the worlds, for Havayah is from the expression "bringing into being," as is known.

> Havayah, the Tetragrammaton, is linked to hava'ah, "bringing into being": it is the divine light that is the source of all existence.

אך אם היה הארה זו מתגלית ונמשכת להיות חיות לנבראים כמו שהיא בעצמותה לא היו הנבראים כלל על אופן שהם עתה כי לא היה יכול להיות מציאות יש ונפרד

But if this illumination were revealed and drawn forth to be life-force for the creatures as it is in its essence, the creatures would not exist at all in the manner they are now, for there could not be an existence that is "something" and separate

> If that creative light were revealed as it truly is, creatures could not exist as independent-seeming, separate beings ("something," yesh).

כמו שהוא עתה מאחר שאור וחיות המהוה היה מאיר עליו בגילוי אלא היו בבחי' ביטול המציאות מכל וכל כמו שהוא קמי' ית' דכולא כלא חשיבי.[5]

as it is now, since the light and life-force that brings it into being would shine upon it openly; rather, they would be in a state of utter nullification of existence, as it is before Him, blessed be He, before whom "all is considered as nothing."

> Exposed to the light that creates them, they would be utterly nullified, just as before G-d Himself "all is considered as nothing."

2 ולזאת עשה השי"ת מגן ונרתק לשם הוי"ה והוא בחי' שם אלקים[6] שמעלים ומסתיר תוקף ההארה

Therefore G-d, blessed be He, made a shield and a sheath for the Name Havayah, and this is the level of the Name Elokim, which conceals and hides the intensity of the illumination,

> So G-d made a "shield" or sheath for Havayah — the Name Elokim — which conceals the intensity of the light, as a sheath shades the sun.

והיינו ע"י גבורות וצמצומים ואז יכול להיות התהוות היש ונפרד וזהו פי' שם אלקים לשון שררה כי אין מלך בלא עם.[7,8] namely, through severities and contractions; and then the coming into being of the "something" and the separate can take place. And this is the meaning of the Name Elokim, an expression of rulership, for "there is no king without a people."

> Elokim works through severities (gevuros) and contractions (tzimtzumim), making room for separate beings. That is why Elokim connotes rulership: a king needs a people, subjects who are distinct from him.

ובחי' זו הוא הנק' ג"כ בשם שכינה כי שכינה הוא מלשון ושכנתי בתוכם[9] שע"י מדה זו הוא מתלבש בנבראים

And this level is also called by the name Shechinah, for Shechinah is from the expression "And I will dwell in their midst," for through this attribute He is vested in the creatures;

> This same concealing power is the Shechinah, from "I will dwell (veshachanti) in their midst" (Exodus 25:8): through it G-d dwells within, and is clothed in, created things.

משא"כ אם היה ההארה מתגלית כמו שהיא בעצמותה לא היו הנבראים יכולים להכיל אותה כלל וכנ"ל.

whereas if the illumination were revealed as it is in its essence, the creatures could not contain it at all, as said above.

> Without it, creatures could not hold the light at all.

SECTION 2 • ¶3–4

The purpose of descent and the exile of the Shechinah

3 והנה נז' בדרז"ל ענין גלות השכינה כמו שאמרו גלו לאדום שכינה עמהם גלו לבבל כו'.[10]

Now, the matter of the exile of the Shechinah is mentioned in the words of our Sages, of blessed memory, as they said: "They were exiled to Edom — the Shechinah was with them; they were exiled to Babylon…," etc.

> The Sages speak of the "exile of the Shechinah": wherever Israel was exiled, to Babylon or to Edom (Rome), the Divine Presence went with them.

וענין גלות זה הוא כך בהיות כי תכלית ירידת והמשכת אור אלקותו יתי' שנמשך להתלבש בנבראים ולהחיותן ע"י צמצום דשם אלקים כנ"ל עד שיהיו מתהוים באופן שהם בחי' יש ונפרד.

And the matter of this exile is as follows: the purpose of the descent and drawing forth of the light of His G-dliness, blessed be He, which is drawn down to be vested in the creatures and give them life through the contraction of the Name Elokim, as said above, until they come into being in such a way that they are "something" and separate —

> To explain it: G-d's light descends and is clothed in creatures through the contraction of Elokim, so that they come to exist as separate beings.

הוא בשביל שאח"כ יתבטל היש לאין ע"ד מ"ש וצבא השמים[11] לך משתחוים שכל המלאכים צבא מעלה מיכאל וגבריאל כו' עם שהם בחי' יש ודבר[12] אבל הם בטלים אל האין.

is so that afterward the "something" be nullified to the "nothing," in the manner of what is written, "And the host of heaven bow down to You": all the angels, the host above, Michael and Gavriel, etc., although they are "something" and an entity, are nullified to the "nothing."

> The goal of that descent is that this "something" then nullify itself to the "nothing," its divine source, just as the angels, though they are real entities, bow down to G-d (Nehemiah 9:6).

4 וזהו נח"ר לפניו יתי' שיהיה יש ושיתבטל ובזאת דוקא הוא חפץ. ובשביל זה היה ירידת הארת אלקותו ע"י העלמים והסתרים עד שיהיה התהוות היש כנ"ל וכדכתיב כל הנקרא בשמי[13] ולכבודי בראתיו וגו'.

And this is the gratification before Him, blessed be He: that there be a "something" and that it be nullified; and in this specifically He desires. And for this reason there was the descent of the illumination of His G-dliness through concealments and hidings, until the "something" comes into being, as said above; and as it is written, "Everyone that is called by My Name, and for My glory I created him…."

> G-d's "gratification" is precisely this: that there be a "something" that nullifies itself. For that, His light descended through concealments, as "for My glory I created him" (Isaiah 43:7).

אבל בחי' גלות השכינה הוא כשנמשך הארת אלקותו יתי' הנקי' בשם שכינה ומתלבשת בע' שרים להחיותן והם יש ודבר בפ"ע לי יאורי[14] כו'

But the exile of the Shechinah is when the illumination of His G-dliness, blessed be He, which is called by the name Shechinah, is drawn down and vested in the seventy princes to give them life, and they are "something" and an entity in their own right — "My river is mine…," etc. —

> The exile of the Shechinah is when the divine light is drawn into the "seventy princes" — the spiritual patrons of the seventy nations — giving them life, while they consider themselves independent, like Pharaoh boasting, "My river is mine" (Ezekiel 29:3).

רק דקרו ליה אלקא דאלקיא.[15] אשר זהו בחי' גלות ממש מאחר שלא נעשה בחי' ביטול אח"כ מירידה זו.

only they call Him "the G-d of gods." This is actual exile, since no nullification came about afterward from this descent.

> They acknowledge G-d only as "the G-d of gods" (Menachos 110a), a supreme power above their own, not as the One before whom they are nothing. Since this descent produces no nullification, it is true exile.

וזהו הפך הכוונה כנ"ל והוא סוד גלות השכינה שהארת אלקות מקור חי העולמים נשפלת ונגלית עד תחתית המדרגות שהם מדור הקליפות והיכלות החיצונים וכנודע:

And this is the opposite of the intention, as said above; and it is the mystery of the exile of the Shechinah: that the illumination of G-dliness, the source of the life of the worlds, is lowered and revealed down to the lowest of levels, which are the abode of the kelipos and the outer chambers, as is known.

> It defeats the purpose of creation: the light that is the source of all life sinks to the lowest levels, the domain of the kelipos, the forces of concealment, and their "outer chambers."

SECTION 3 • ¶5-6

The mirror and reflected light

5 והנה השכינה נקראת בכתוב בשם מראה. כמ"ש במראה אליו אתודע.[16] והענין שהוא עד"מ כמו המראה הגשמית שפעולתה להראות לאדם מה שמלאחוריו

Now the Shechinah is called in Scripture by the name "mirror," as it is written, "In a vision (mar'ah) I make Myself known to him." The matter is, by way of analogy, like a physical mirror, whose function is to show a person what is behind him.

> Scripture calls the Shechinah a "mirror": "In a vision (mar'ah, which also means 'mirror') I make Myself known to him" (Numbers 12:6). A mirror shows a person what is behind him.

והיינו ע"י שהזכוכית מצופה בצפוי כסף שהוא מכסה ומסתיר על הזכוכית ומונע את הראות בלתי תוכל להתפשט עוד להלאה.

This is because the glass is coated with a silver coating, which covers and conceals the glass and blocks the sight, so that it cannot extend any farther.

> It works because the glass is backed with silver, which blocks the line of sight from continuing through.

ומחמת העכוב והמניעה נעשה אור חוזר עד שתפול הראות גם לאחוריו (והוא מכח הזכוכית והצפוי) מה שלא היה יכול לראות אם לא היה צפוי זה.

And because of the obstruction and blocking, reflected light is produced, until the sight falls even behind him (and this is by the power of the glass and the coating) — what he could not have seen were it not for this coating.

> Blocked, the light is reflected back, letting one see what lies behind — something impossible without the coating.

אך מ"מ היינו דוקא כשהיא מצופה ומכוסה בכסוי דק וקלוש כמו הכסף אבל כשהיא מכוסה בכיסוי עב וחשוך לא יראה בה כלום.

However, this is specifically when it is coated and covered with a thin, fine covering such as silver; but when it is covered with a thick and dark covering, nothing will be seen in it.

> But the coating must be thin, like silver; a thick, dark covering reflects nothing.

6 וכך יובן הנמשל. והוא כי הנה שם הוי"ה הוא בבחי' המשכה מלמעלה למטה כנ"ל ובחי' מל' לת'

And so is the analogue to be understood. The Name Havayah is the level of drawing down from above to below, as said above; and the level of His Malchus, blessed be He, > Applied: Havayah is the light flowing downward, while Malchus, G-d's sovereignty, holds it back.

שהוא הנק' בשם אלקים היינו בחי' צמצום והסתר שבה מסתתר' ומתעלמת ההארה בלתי תתפשט ותתגלה עוד כנ"ל.

which is called by the Name Elokim, is the level of contraction and concealment, in which the illumination is hidden and concealed, so that it does not extend and become revealed any further, as said above.

> Malchus is called Elokim, and it is the concealing "coating" that stops the light from spreading further.

ומחמת צמצום והעלם זה נעשה אור חוזר שהוא חוזר ועולה למעלה מעלה יותר מכפי ערך כח מקור ההארה המתפשטת דשם הוי"ה

And because of this contraction and concealment, reflected light is produced, which returns and ascends far higher than the measure of the power of the source of the extending illumination of the Name Havayah;

> Because of that concealment, "reflected light" (or chozer) arises — a light that rises back upward, reaching even higher than the source of the direct light of Havayah.

וכמ"ש אשת חיל עט"ב[17] וכתיב והיה אור הלבנה[18] כאור החמה כו'. והיינו כמשל המראה שע"י הכיסוי המסתיר ומונע התפשטות ההארה נעשה או"ח עד למרחק ודי"ל.

as it is written, "A woman of valor is the crown of her husband," and it is written, "And the light of the moon shall be like the light of the sun…," etc. This is like the analogy of the mirror: through the covering that conceals and blocks the extension of the illumination, reflected light is produced, reaching far; and this suffices for the discerning.

> Hence "a woman of valor is her husband's crown" (Proverbs 12:4), and in the future "the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun" (Isaiah 30:26): the receiving, concealing aspect — Malchus, the "wife," the "moon" — will rise to and above the giver.

וז"ש עולת שבת בשבתו.[19] וכן מ"ש רז"ל (כתובות סא) ע"פ בעולת בעל[20] בעלייתו של בעל[21] עולה עמו כו'.

And this is what is written, "The burnt-offering of Shabbos on its Shabbos." And likewise what our Sages, of blessed memory, said (Kesubos 61) on "a husband's wife": "she rises with the rising of her husband," etc.

> So too "the burnt-offering (olas, from 'ascent') of Shabbos" (Numbers 28:10), and the Sages' reading of be'u-las ba'al ("a husband's wife") as "she rises with her husband's rising" (Kesubos 61a).

And see what is written on the verse "Show me your appearance...," that this too is the matter of the descent of the soul into the body that conceals, which is for the sake of an ascent, to return from below to above and be included in the light of G-d, etc.

> The Alter Rebbe refers to his discourse on "Show me your appearance" (Song of Songs 2:14): the soul's descent into a concealing body is likewise for the sake of a greater ascent back into G-d's light.

SECTION 4 • ¶7–8

The helper opposite him

7 והוא ג"כ מ"ש ויעש ה' אלקים לאדם ולאשתו כתנות עור[24] וילבשם שהוא בחי' לבוש המכסה ומעלים וע"י לבוש והעלם זה נעשה אח"כ הכאת האור חוזר כנ"ל.

And this is also what is written, "And Havayah Elokim made for Adam and his wife garments of skin, and clothed them": this is the level of a garment that covers and conceals, and through this garment and concealment there is afterward produced the striking of the reflected light, as said above.

> The same idea appears in "Havayah Elokim made for Adam and his wife garments of skin" (Genesis 3:21): a garment covers and conceals, and through it the reflected light "strikes" back upward.

וזהו לא טוב היות האדם לבדו.[25] פי' וענין היות האדם לבדו היינו להיות הכל המשכה בבחי' גילוי מלמעלה שז"ס אדם העליון שם מ"ה על הכסא דמות כמראה אדם[26] כו'

And this is "It is not good that the man be alone." Meaning: the matter of "the man being alone" is that everything would be a drawing forth in a revealed manner from above — which is the mystery of the supernal Adam, the Name Mah, "upon the throne, a likeness as the appearance of a man…," etc. —

> Now the opening verse: "the man alone" would mean all divine light flowing down openly. That light is the "supernal Adam," the Name Mah, which Ezekiel saw as "the likeness of the appearance of a man" upon the throne (Ezekiel 1:26).

שיהיה בבחי' גילוי מאליו ומעצמו למטה שאז היה הכל בבחי' ביטול כמו שהוא למעלה בבחי' יחו"ע[27] דכולא כלא חשיבי כאין ואפס וזהו היות האדם לבדו ר"ל שהי' הכל בביטול אליו ית'.[28] that it would be revealed below of itself and by itself; for then everything would be in a state of nullification, as it is above, on the level of the higher unity, where "all is considered as nothing," as naught and nil. And this is "the man being alone": that is, that all would be in nullification to Him, blessed be He.

> In that state the light would be revealed below by itself. Then all would be nullified, as in the "higher unity," where everything is as nothing before G-d. That is "the man alone": only G-d, with nothing else felt to exist.

אעשה לו עזר כנגדו שיהיה עזר וסיוע מבחי' כנגדו[29] דוקא דהיינו מבחי' הצמצום וההסתר המנגד להתפשטות ההארה כנ"ל שמחמת זה מתהווה הגוף ונפש הבהמית

"I will make him a helper opposite him": that there be help and assistance specifically from the level of "opposite him," that is, from the level of the contraction and concealment that opposes the extension of the illumination, as said above, because of which the body and the animal soul come into being,

> "I will make him a helper opposite him": the help comes precisely from what opposes — the contraction and concealment that resists the spread of light, which is what brings about the body and the animal soul.

שהם בחי' יש ונפרדים כנ"ל ומזה דוקא יהיה העזר כי מהעלם זה נעשה אח"כ או"ח למעלה מעלה.

which are "something" and separate, as said above; and specifically from this will come the help, for from this concealment there is afterward produced reflected light, far above.

> The body and the animal soul are separate "somethings." From this very concealment comes reflected light that rises higher still; this is the "help."

8 וכמ"ש צחוק עשה לי אלקים[30] שעיקר הצחוק והתענוג לע"ל ישמח ה' במעשיו נמשך משם אלקים

And as it is written, "Elokim has made laughter for me": the essence of the laughter and delight in the Time to Come — "G-d will rejoice in His works" — is drawn from the Name Elokim, > Sarah's words at Yitzchak's birth, "Elokim has made laughter for me" (Genesis 21:6), show that the ultimate laughter and delight of the future — when "G-d will rejoice in His works" (Psalms 104:31) — come through the Name Elokim, the power of concealment.

כמ"ש במ"א שעי"ז יהיה אח"כ הגילוי מבחי' שלמעלה משם הוי"ה כמ"ש עד יעבור עמך[31] הוי"ה והוא בחי' אשר לא ישב אדם שם[32] כמ"ש ע"פ בעטרה שעטרה לו אמו[33, 34] כו'.[35, 36]

as explained elsewhere, that through this there will afterward be the revelation from the level that is above the Name Havayah, as it is written, "Until Your people pass over, Havayah"; and this is the level "where no man has dwelt," as explained on the verse "With the crown with which his mother crowned him," etc.

> Through the concealment of Elokim will come a revelation from beyond even Havayah: "until Your people pass over, Havayah" (Exodus 15:16) is read as passing beyond Havayah, to a level "where no man (adam) has dwelt" (Jeremiah 2:6), beyond even the "supernal Adam."

SECTION 5 • ¶9–11

Garments of skin and the service of refinement

9 והנה אחר חטא אדה"ר[37] כתיב כתנות עור בעי"ן. כי מקודם החטא היה כסוי וההעלם דק ביותר[38] דהכתיב ויניחהו בגי"ע[39] כו'

Now after the sin of Adam, the first man, it is written "garments of skin," with an Ayin. For before the sin the covering and concealment was exceedingly fine, as it is written, "And He placed him in the Garden of Eden…,"

> After the sin, Adam's garments are called "skin" (עור, with an Ayin). Before the sin the concealing layer was very fine, suited to the Garden of Eden in which G-d placed him (Genesis 2:15).

אבל אחר החטא הוא בחי' הכנגדו ביותר שהוא בחי' קליפת נוגה וזהו ענין כתנות עור.

but after the sin it is the level of "opposite him" to the greatest degree, which is the level of kelipas nogah; and this is the matter of the "garments of skin."

> After the sin the "opposition" became much coarser: kelipas nogah, the "glowing husk" that mixes good and evil. That is the "garments of skin."

כי הנה עיקר[40] ענין יניקת החיצונים הוא ע"י העור כי יניקתם הוא מבחי' השערות כמ"ש כרחל לפני גוזזיה נאלמה[41] (עמ"ש פ' פנחס ע"פ צו את קרבני[42] כו')

For the main nurture of the external forces is through the skin, since their nurture is from the level of the hairs, as it is written, "Like a ewe that is dumb before her shearers" (and see what is written in Parshas Pinchas on the verse "Command… My offering…"),

> Skin is where the "external forces" (the kelipos) draw nourishment, since they feed from the level of "hairs," as in "like a ewe that is dumb before her shearers" (Isaiah 53:7); the Alter Rebbe refers to his discourse in Pinchas.

ועיקר צמיחת השערות הוא ע"י העור שיש בו גומות שמהם השערות צומחות כו' כמ"ש גבי פרה אדומה[43] היו בה שתי שערות בתוך גומא[44] א' פסולה כו' and the main growth of the hairs is through the skin, which has follicles from which the hairs grow, etc., as it is said regarding the red heifer: "If it had two hairs in one follicle, it is invalid," etc.;

> Hair grows from follicles in the skin; halachah recognizes this, for a red heifer with two hairs from one follicle is invalid (Mishnah Parah 2:5).

ובפרק העור והרוטב[45] נקב שאין הדיו עובר עליו כו' ולכן העבודה הוא עד"מ עבוד עורות.[46] and in the chapter "Ha'or Veharotev": "a hole over which the ink does not pass," etc. Therefore the service is, by way of analogy, the tanning of hides.

> The Talmud likewise notes that a hide has perforations through which hairs grow (ruling that a perforation the ink passes over is not considered a hole). Hence divine service is compared to tanning hides — working the coarse "skin" until it is usable.

10 וזה נקי' עובד אלקים[47] שמתקן הסתר בחי' העור הנ"ל הנמשך משם אלקים להיות אתהפכא חשוכא לנהורא כו'.

And this is called "one who serves Elokim": one who rectifies the concealment of the level of the skin mentioned above, which is drawn from the Name Elokim, so that there be "the transformation of darkness into light," etc.

> Such a person is called an "oved Elokim" — one who serves, and in the sense of the previous paragraph "works" like a tanner, the Name Elokim: he refines the concealment of "skin" that stems from Elokim, turning darkness into light.

ולכן נאמר ויעש ה' אלקים לאדם ולאשתו כתנות עור[48] שני שמות כו'. וגם הפי' דשני שמות קאי לאדם ולאשתו לאדם עשה שם הוי"ה ולאשתו שם אלקים.

Therefore it is said, "And Havayah Elokim made for Adam and his wife garments of skin" — two Names, etc. And the interpretation is also that the two Names refer to "Adam and his wife": for Adam, the Name Havayah made [them], and for his wife, the Name Elokim.

> That is why the verse says "Havayah Elokim made… garments of skin," with both Names. Alternatively, the two Names match "Adam and his wife": Havayah made Adam's garment and Elokim his wife's.

11 וחנוך היה תופר מנעלים[49] פי' לאחר שנתקן בחי' עור הנ"ל ע"י כתנות עור דאדם וחוה תפר מהם חנוך מנעלים כמ"ש ענין זה ע"פ מה יפו פעמיך בנעלים[50, 51] כו' ע"ש.

"And Chanoch was a stitcher of shoes": meaning, after the level of skin mentioned above was rectified through the garments of skin of Adam and Chavah, Chanoch stitched shoes from them, as this matter is explained on the verse "How beautiful are your steps in sandals…," etc.; see there.

> A tradition says that Chanoch (Enoch) was a stitcher of shoes. Once the "skin" was refined through the garments of Adam and Chavah, Chanoch made shoes from it; see the discourse on "How beautiful are your steps in sandals" (Song of Songs 7:2).

ומ"מ גם אילו לא חטא אדה"ר ולא היה קליפת נוגה מ"מ היה שייך עזר מבחי' כנגדו רק שהיה בחי' הכנגדו בדקות יותר.

Nevertheless, even had Adam, the first man, not sinned, and had there been no kelipas nogah, a help from the level of "opposite him" would still have been relevant; only, the level of "opposite him" would have been more refined.

> Even without the sin, and without kelipas nogah, there would have been a role for the "helper opposite him," only in a subtler form.

SECTION 6 • ¶12–14

The partition before and after the sin

12 והוא שהיתה העבודה להעלות מתחת הפרס׳ כי יש בחי׳ פרסא בכל העולמות שמה שתחת הפרסא אינו ממהות שלמעלה מן הפרסא

That is, the service would have been to elevate from beneath the partition; for there is a level of partition in all the worlds, such that what is beneath the partition is not of the essence of what is above the partition;

> Before the sin, man's service would have been to elevate what lies "beneath the partition" (parsa). Every world has such a partition, and what lies beneath it is of a different nature from what lies above.

כמו באדם יש בחי׳ פרסא שהוא חצר הכבד המפסיק ומבדיל והרי כל בחי׳ האדם המוח והלב וכל החושים הן למעלה מן הפרסא.

as in man there is a partition, which is the diaphragm, which interrupts and separates; and indeed all the [chief] aspects of man — the brain and the heart and all the senses — are above the partition.

> In the human body the diaphragm is that partition: the brain, the heart and the senses — the higher faculties — are above it.

13 ומה שלמטה מן הפרסא אינו ע״ד מהות הכחות המעולים שלמעלה מהפרסא. ועד״ז יובן למעלה בענין בחינת פרסא שיש בעולמות דקדושה עצמן בין אצי׳ לבריאה כו׳.

And what is below the partition is not of the nature of the essence of the superior faculties that are above the partition. And in this way it will be understood above, regarding the level of partition that exists within the worlds of holiness themselves, between Atzilus and Beriah, etc.

> What is below the partition is of a lesser nature than the higher faculties above it. Similarly above, even within holiness, a partition separates Atzilus (divine emanation) from Beriah (created existence).

לכן היה שייך להעלות מתחת הפרסא אף גם בבחי׳ היותו קודם החטא וזה היה ענין העזר כנגדו בכוונת הבריאה. אבל אחר החטא הוא עזר כנגדו ענין בירור קליפת נוגה.

Therefore it was relevant to elevate from beneath the partition even in the state before the sin, and this was the matter of the "helper opposite him" in the intention of creation. But after the sin, the "helper opposite him" is the matter of the refinement of kelipas nogah.

> So even before the sin there was work to raise what lies below the partition; that was the "helper opposite him" built into the plan of creation. After the sin, the "helper opposite him" became the refinement of kelipas nogah.

14 וזהו ענין ויגרש את האדם[52] כו' ומ"מ גם בחי' זו נמשל לצפוי דק וקלוש שיוכל להיות ממנו אור חוזר.

And this is the matter of "And He drove out the man…," etc. Nevertheless, this level too is likened to a thin and fine coating, from which reflected light can come.

> The expulsion from Eden (Genesis 3:24) reflects this coarser state. Yet even kelipas nogah counts as a "thin coating," like a mirror's silver, from which reflected light can arise.

כי ק"נ היא כלולה מטו"ר והוא חיות כל דברים המותרים כו' שנק' היתר שאינו אסור וקשור בידי החיצו' ויוכל להעלות הטוב בבחי' אור חוזר כו'.

For kelipas nogah is composed of good and evil, and it is the life-force of all permitted things, etc., which are called "heter" (released), for it is not forbidden and bound in the hands of the external forces, and one can elevate the good as reflected light, etc.

> Kelipas nogah mixes good and evil and gives life to all permitted things. They are called heter, "released," because they are not "bound" (assur, "forbidden") in the hands of the external forces, so their good can be elevated as reflected light.

SECTION 7 • ¶15

Groom and bride

15 ובכ"ז יובן מה שאומרים בברכת חתנים בברכת שמח תשמח משמח חתן וכלה[53] ובברכה אחרונה שהיא אשר ברא אומרים משמח חתן עם הכלה

And with all this will be understood what is said in the wedding blessings: in the blessing "Grant abundant joy" [we say] "who gladdens groom and bride," and in the last blessing, which is "Who created," we say "who gladdens the groom with the bride."

> This explains a detail of the wedding blessings: the sixth blessing ends "who gladdens groom and bride," while the last ends "who gladdens the groom with the bride."

פי' כי הכלה היא בחי' מל'. תחלה היא מקבלת האור מהחתן שנמשך מעלמא דדכורא בעלמא דנוקבא. וזהו חתן וכלה.

Meaning: the bride is the level of Malchus. First she receives the light from the groom, drawn from the world of the masculine into the world of the feminine; and this is "groom and bride."

> The bride represents Malchus. First she receives light from the groom, flowing from the "world of the masculine" to the "world of the feminine" — "groom and bride," each in their role.

אמנם אח"כ הוא משמח חתן עם הכלה שע"י הכלה הוא משמח את החתן שהרי נעשה לו עזר ממש ותוספת אור מבחי' כנגדו כנ"ל. וזהו שנעשית עטרה לבעלה:[54]

However, afterward it is "who gladdens the groom with the bride": through the bride He gladdens the groom, for she becomes for him an actual help and an addition of light from the level of "opposite him," as said above. And this is how she becomes "the crown of her husband."

> Afterward, "the groom with the bride": through her the groom is gladdened, since she becomes a true "helper opposite him," adding light by reflection. Thus she becomes "the crown of her husband."

IN ONE'S AVODAH

A person should not see the body, the animal soul and the permitted things of this world only as obstacles: they are the "helper opposite him." By serving G-d through them — "tanning the hide," refining kelipas nogah and elevating its good — one transforms darkness into light and brings about a reflected light that rises higher than revelation alone; so too the soul's descent into a concealing body is for the sake of a greater ascent.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why would the unveiled light of Havayah make a separate world impossible, and how does Elokim make it possible?
2. What distinguishes the intended descent of divine light from the "exile of the Shechinah"?
3. How does the mirror analogy explain that concealment can produce a light higher than its source, and why must the coating be thin?
4. In what sense is the body and animal soul a "helper opposite" the G-dly soul?
5. How do the two endings of the wedding blessings express the relationship between giver and receiver described in the maamar?

FOR CHILDREN · AGES 9–13

For the children at the table

The mirror that sends light higher

THE BIG IDEA

What seems to hide G-d's light, like our body and the world around us, is really a helper: through it the light shines back even higher.

The maamar begins with the verse, "It is not good that the man be alone; I will make him a helper opposite him," and another verse, "For a sun and a shield is G-d." G-d's light is like the sun, which brings everything into being. If that light were fully revealed, nothing could exist as a separate thing, just as no one can look straight at the sun. So G-d made a shield, a covering that hides the light, and this is the meaning of the Name Elokim. Because of it there can be a world, and a people who choose to make G-d their King. The purpose is that we, who feel separate, choose to give ourselves over to G-d. Then something wonderful happens: the light that was hidden shines back upward, even higher than before. That is the "helper opposite him." Our body and the everyday things of this world can seem to stand in the way of serving G-d. But when we use them for good, they help us reach a light higher than we could reach without them. A soul comes down into a body for the sake of going up.

THE MASHAL

A mirror is glass with a thin coat of silver behind it. The silver blocks our sight, and because it blocks it, the light turns back, and we can see what is behind us, which we could never see without it. If the coating were thick and dark, we would see nothing; it must be thin and fine.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. How can something that hides G-d's light end up helping it shine even higher?
2. What does the silver behind a mirror teach us about the things in our life that seem to get in the way?
3. What is one ordinary thing, like food or a toy, that you can use this week to serve G-d?

21 The Sages read "a husband's wife" as "she rises with her husband's rising." The Alter Rebbe uses it for the ascent of the receiver (Malchus).

22 ע״פ הראיני את מראיך

The discourse referred to: "Show me your appearance" is advice to the soul to remember that it is only a "reflection" that descended for the sake of ascent and return; this arouses great compassion for the divine spark in it, and through teshuvah its Torah and mitzvos become sweeter and more radiant.

ויאמר ה' אלקים הן האדם היה כאחד ממנו...

"And the L-rd G-d said: Behold, man has become like one of us"

Knowing evil is harmless 'above,' where knowledge is encompassing and keeps evil apart, but for man, whose knowing is inner, it means becoming mixed with evil; therefore G-d forbade the Tree of Knowledge, kept man from eternal life once he was mixed with evil, and sent him to refine the world through struggle instead of through sheer light.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar asks why the Tree of Knowledge 'opened their eyes,' why G-d kept man from the Tree of Life, and how the serpent knew what eating would do. The answer turns on the difference between encompassing (makif) and inner (pnimi) knowledge. Above, good and evil are known only in an encompassing way, so evil stays separate, as the frankincense gives life to the other spices without mixing with them. Man is an inner being: whatever he knows becomes part of him, so knowing evil meant becoming mixed with it, which began the long war between good and evil in every generation. G-d had wanted man to stay wholly holy and refine the world by drawing down so much light that the fallen sparks would be absorbed of themselves, like a candle before a torch. After the sin, eternal life from the Tree of Life, which stems from Keser, above distinctions, would have made the evil in him eternal too, so man was sent to 'work the ground' and refine it through labor, prayer and the separating power of Chochmah. The serpent, itself rooted in the Tree of Knowledge, understood all this and told Eve a cunning truth.

OUTLINE

1 The questions ¶1–2

Why did the Tree of Knowledge open their eyes, why keep man from the Tree of Life, and how did the serpent know? The answer begins: above, good and evil are known but not mixed.

2 Encompassing and inner knowledge ¶3–4

Knowledge above is encompassing and keeps evil separate (the spider in the king's palace, Havdalah, the frankincense); the Tree of Knowledge is inner knowledge, where good and evil truly mix.

3 Man's inner nature and the war with evil ¶5–7

Because man absorbs what he knows, knowing evil mixed him with it, producing a see-saw struggle through the generations and, on the plain level, the awareness of desire.

4 Why man was kept from the Tree of Life ¶8–9

The Tree of Life, rooted above the shattering in Keser, would have made the evil in him eternal; evil must instead be separated through Chochmah and its gevuros until death is swallowed up forever.

5 Expulsion and the work of refinement ¶10–11

Incense alone cannot remove guilt; man was sent to work the ground and refine the sparks, whereas originally he would have absorbed them through the light of the 248 positive commandments, like a candle before a torch.

6 Refinement by light and by war ¶12

In Temple times and for Adam before the sin, sparks were drawn in of themselves; after the sin they must be won through labor and prayer, 'the time of prayer is the time of battle.'

7 How the serpent knew ¶13

The serpent, rooted in the Tree of Knowledge, understood the prohibition and, to avoid being absorbed into Adam's light, drew man into war by telling a cunning truth.

8 Addendum: Adam in the chambers; Judah's descent ¶14

From the Arizal: Adam fell by agreeing merely to look into the chambers of impurity; from Rabbi Avraham son of the Maggid: Judah 'turned aside' into the realm of the kelipos to raise sparks.

KEY CONCEPTS

Encompassing and inner (makif and pnimi) מקיף ופנימי

Encompassing knowledge or light acts on something from above without entering it and so stays separate from it; inner knowledge is absorbed and becomes part of the knower. The maamar's key to why knowing evil harms man but not the higher realms.

The Tree of Knowledge of good and evil עץ הדעת טוב ורע

The level of mixture, where good and evil draw on each other and are fused; it arises from the shattering of the vessels.

Refinements (beirurim) בירורים

The work of separating the sparks of holiness from the evil they are trapped in and elevating them, man's task after the sin, carried out through labor, eating, prayer and mitzvos.

A candle before a torch כנר בפני האבוקה

The image for refinement through light: when enough holiness is revealed, the fallen sparks are absorbed into it of themselves, without a battle.

Chochmah as judgment חכמה נקראת דין

Because 'through Chochmah they are refined,' Chochmah contains gevuros that separate good from evil, unlike Keser, which is simple mercy and makes no distinction.

Sparks of holiness נצוצי קדושה

The holy vitality that fell into the realm of evil and sustains it; when it is withdrawn and elevated, the kelipah ceases to exist.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–2

The questions

1 ויאמר ה' אלקים הן האדם[1,2] היה כאחד ממנו לדעת טוב ורע ועתה פן ישלח ידו כו'. יי"ל א' מהו שע"י עה"ד נפקחו עיניהם להיות כאלקים יודעי טו"ר.[3]

"And the L-rd G-d said: Behold, man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil; and now, lest he put forth his hand, etc." There is room to ask: first, what is it that through the Tree of Knowledge their eyes were opened, to be like G-d, knowing good and evil?

> The maamar opens with G-d's words after Adam and Eve ate from the Tree of Knowledge. The first question: why should eating a fruit 'open their eyes' and make them 'like G-d, knowing good and evil'? What kind of knowing is this, and why would it come from eating?

וגם מ"ש ה' אלקים ועתה פן ישלח ידו ולקח גם מעץ החיים ואכל וחי לעולם ומה איכפת לו בזה הרי מה שצוה אותו שלא לאכול הוא ג"כ כדי שלא ימות.

And also [we must understand] what the L-rd G-d said, "And now, lest he put forth his hand and take also from the Tree of Life, and eat, and live forever" — why should this concern Him? After all, what He commanded him not to eat was also so that he would not die.

> The second question: G-d then expels man so that he will not eat from the Tree of Life and live forever. But G-d's original prohibition was itself meant to keep man alive ('on the day you eat from it you shall die'); why then should G-d now be concerned to prevent him from living forever?

2 ועוד והוא העיקר מאין ידע הנחש מזה אשר ביום אכלכם ממנו ונפקחו עיניכם[4] שלפי האמת כן הוא.

Further, and this is the main [question]: from where did the serpent know of this — "that on the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened" — which in truth is so?

> The main question: the serpent told Eve that eating would open their eyes, and the maamar will show that this was actually true. How did the serpent know something that G-d had not told man?

ואם אדם ששמע הצווי מהקב"ה לא הכיר בזה רק כפשוטו שאמר לו ה' אלהים כי ביום אכלך ממנו מות תמות[5] והנחש לא נזכר כלל ששמע הצווי הזה

For Adam, who heard the command from the Holy One, blessed be He, did not recognize this, but [understood it] only according to its plain sense — that the L-rd G-d told him, "For on the day you eat from it you shall surely die"; and the serpent is not mentioned at all as having heard this command.

> Adam heard the command directly from G-d, yet understood only its plain meaning, the warning of death. The serpent is never described as having heard the command at all.

וגם אם שמע כשנצטווה אדם מאין היה בו בינה יתירה להבין דבר מתוך דבר יותר מהאדם עצמו. אם לא שנאמר שגבוה הוא מהאדם וכ"ז פלאי.[6]

And even if it heard [it] when Adam was commanded, from where did it have extra understanding, to infer one thing from another, more than Adam himself? Unless we say that it is higher than man — and all this is astonishing.

> Even if the serpent overheard it, how could it deduce more from it than Adam himself? That would imply the serpent is higher than man, which is astonishing, since man was the crown of creation.

הנה תחלה יתבאר מ"ש האדם היה כאחד ממנו לדעת טו"ר[7] שהוא מאמר ה' להמלאכים ומשמע שלמעלה יודעים את הטוב ואת הרע גם שניהם.

Now, first let us explain what is said, "Man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil," which is G-d's statement to the angels; and it implies that above they know good and evil, both of them.

> The Alter Rebbe begins his answer with the phrase 'like one of us.' G-d is speaking to the angels, the higher beings, and the phrase implies that they, 'above,' also know both good and evil.

אבל מ"מ אינן מעורבים זה בזה כי גלוי וידוע שזה טוב וזה רע ומובדל הרע מן הטוב אע"פ שידוע שם הטו"ר.

Nevertheless, they are not mixed with one another, for it is revealed and known that this is good and this is evil, and the evil is separated from the good, even though good and evil are known there.

> Yet above, knowing evil does not mean being mixed with it: each is clearly recognized for what it is, and evil stays apart from good.

משא"כ בחי' עה"ד טו"ר היינו בחי' תערובת הטוב עם[8] רע שהרע יונק מהטוב והטוב מהרע והיו לאחדים.

This is not so with the level of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, which is the level of a mixture of the good with evil, where the evil draws nourishment from the good and the good from the evil, and they become one.

> The Tree of Knowledge is a different kind of knowing: good and evil are blended, each feeding off the other until they are fused. This is what man took in by eating.

SECTION 2 • ¶3–4

Encompassing and inner knowledge

3 וצ"ל דהרי פי' עץ הדעת טוב ורע היינו לשון ידיעה וא"כ למה נעשה תערובת טו"ר מחמת הדעת בטו"ר הלא למעלה ג"כ ידוע הטו"ר.

Now this needs [explanation]: for the meaning of "the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil" is a term of knowing; if so, why did a mixture of good and evil come about because of the knowledge of good and evil? Above, too, good and evil are known!

> A difficulty: 'Tree of Knowledge' means knowing. If knowing good and evil causes them to mix, why does it not cause a mixture above, where good and evil are also known?

אך ההפרש בזה הוא ענין ההפרש בין מקיף לפנימי כי בחי' ידיעת הטו"ר שלמעלה היא בבחי' מקיף בלבד

But the difference here is the matter of the difference between the encompassing (makif) and the inner (pnimi): for the knowledge of good and evil above is only in the manner of the encompassing.

> The answer is the distinction between makif, 'encompassing,' and pnimi, 'inner.' Something known in an encompassing way is grasped from outside and above without being absorbed; something known in an inner way is taken into oneself. Above, the knowledge of good and evil is only encompassing.

ולכן יכול להיות הבדלה בין טוב לרע שידע את הרע ולא יחליפנו ולא ימירנו[9] בטוב ח"ו.

And therefore there can be a separation between good and evil, so that He knows the evil and yet will not exchange it nor substitute it for good, heaven forbid.

> Because it is only encompassing, knowledge above keeps good and evil apart: evil can be known without being confused with good. The phrasing borrows the Torah's law that one may not exchange a consecrated animal, good for bad or bad for good.

כענין שממית בידים תתפש[10] והיא בהיכלי מלך שאע"פ שהיא בהיכלי מלך אבל יודע הוא ומכירה ששממית היא.

As in the matter of "The spider you can catch with the hands, yet it is in the king's palaces": even though it is in the king's palaces, he knows it and recognizes that it is a spider.

> The verse about the spider in the king's palace illustrates this: a spider may be found even in a palace, yet one who sees it knows it is only a spider. Being present in the same place does not blur its identity.

4 ויש הבדלה בין טוב לרע כמאמר המבדיל בין קודש לחול.[11] והיינו מצד שיודע טו"ר בבחינת מקיף עליהם ולכן אינם מתערבים יחד.

And there is a separation between good and evil, as the saying [goes], "Who separates between holy and profane." That is, because He knows good and evil in the manner of encompassing them, they therefore do not mix together.

> The separation between good and evil above is like the Havdalah blessing, 'Who separates between holy and profane.' Because G-d's knowledge of them encompasses them from above, they remain distinct.

וכענין בחינת לבונה זכה[12] שבי"א סממני הקטורת[13] שהעשרה סממנים הם י' נצוצי קדושה המובלעים בקליפות והי"א היא לבונה היא בחינת מקיף עליהם ואינה מתלבשת בפנימיותם.[14]

It is like the level of the pure frankincense among the eleven spices of the incense: the ten spices are ten sparks of holiness that are swallowed up in the kelipos, and the eleventh, the frankincense, is the level that encompasses them and does not become enclothed in their inner being.

> A second illustration: the Temple incense had eleven spices. The ten are compared to sparks of holiness swallowed inside kelipos (the husks of concealment), while the eleventh, frankincense, stands for a light that encompasses them without entering their inner being.

(ולבונה היא ג"כ חיות להם אבל לפי שהחיות הזה שהיא מחיה אותם הוא רק ע"י שהיא בבחי' מקיף בלבד עליהם ע"כ אינה מתערבת עמם כלל וכולה טוב).

(And the frankincense is also a life-force for them; but since this life-force by which it gives them life is only through its being solely encompassing over them, therefore it does not mix with them at all, and it is entirely good.)

> Frankincense too gives them life, yet because it does so only from outside, as an encompassing light, it never mixes with them and remains wholly good.

והנה המקיף הוא גם דוחה את החיצונים כנראה בציור האילן[15] שבפרד"ס במקיפים ופנימיים שמעמד ומצב הקליפות אחוריהם אל המקיף כו'. משא"כ בחי' עה"ד טו"ר הוא בחי' פנימי[16] ואז הטוב מעורב עם הרע ממש.

Now, the encompassing [light] also repels the external forces, as is seen in the diagram of the Tree in the Pardes, in the encompassing and inner [lights], where the position and stance of the kelipos is with their backs toward the encompassing, etc. This is not so with the level of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, which is the level of the inner, and then the good is actually mixed with the evil.

> The encompassing light even pushes away the external (negative) forces: in a Kabbalistic diagram of the Tree of the Sefiros, the kelipos are drawn with their backs to the encompassing lights. By contrast the Tree of Knowledge is inner knowledge, and there good and evil are truly mixed.

SECTION 3 • ¶5–7

Man's inner nature and the war with evil

5 וז"ש הן האדם היה כאחד ממנו.[17] פי' שהוא היה ג"כ כאחד ממנו פי' כמו שבבחי' אחדות דהיינו למעלה ידוע הטו"ר כן היה גם הוא ע"י שטעם מעה"ד המעורב טו"ר.

This is [the meaning of] what is said, "Behold, man has become like one of us." That is, he too became like one of us — meaning: just as in the level of oneness, that is, above, good and evil are known, so too was he, through having tasted from the Tree of Knowledge, which is mixed of good and evil.

> Now the verse is explained: 'like one of us' means that man, by eating from the Tree of Knowledge, came to know good and evil just as they are known above, in the realm of oneness.

אבל לו הדבר מזיק כי הרי האדם הוא מבחי' פנימי' ומיד שידע הוא מן הרע ע"י שטעם מעה"ד הרי יתערב עמו ויהי' הוא ממש מעורב ברע.

But for him the matter is harmful, for man is of the level of the inner, and as soon as he knows of evil, through having tasted from the Tree of Knowledge, he will become mixed with it, and he will actually be mixed with evil.

> But for man this is harmful, because man is a 'pnimi' being: what he knows he takes into himself. Once he knew evil, it became part of him.

לא כמו שהוא למעלה שאעפ"י שיודעים גם את הרע מ"מ מובדל הוא ומרוחק מן הטוב ואין לו התקרבות כו' לפי שהוא בבחי' מקיף.

Not as it is above, where, even though they also know the evil, nevertheless it is separated and distant from the good and has no closeness [to it], etc., because it is in the manner of the encompassing.

> Above it is different: evil is known but remains distant from the good, because the knowing there is encompassing.

אבל האדם שהוא מבחי' פנימי כשידע גם הוא מן הרע אזי יתערב הוא גם הוא ממש[18] עם הרע

But man, who is of the level of the inner — when he too knows of the evil, then he too will actually become mixed with the evil.

> Man, being inward, cannot know evil from a distance; knowing it means becoming mixed with it.

כי בבחי' פנימי' א"א להיות כ"כ מובדל הרע כנ"ל ואז הוא קשה מאד להפריד את הרע אלא מלחמה עצומה היא ולאם מלאם יאמץ[19] פעמים זה גובר ופעמים שכנגדו גובר.

For in the level of the inner it is impossible for the evil to be so separated, as explained above; and then it is very hard to separate out the evil, but rather it is a tremendous war, "and one nation shall be mightier than the other nation": at times this one prevails, and at times its opponent prevails.

> Once evil is mixed within him, separating it is very difficult; it becomes a constant war, like Rivkah's twins, where 'one nation shall be mightier than the other': when one rises, the other falls.

כאשר מצאנו ראינו בנשמות ישראל מראש הדורות עד עתה שהיו כמה עתים משונים פעמים בדור א' היו נשמות שבמעלה עליונה ונצחו את הרע.

As we have found and seen in the souls of Israel from the first generations until now, that there have been many differing periods: at times, in one generation, there were souls of an exalted level who vanquished the evil, > History bears this out: some generations had lofty souls who overcame evil.

6 ובדור אחר היו רשעים גדולים שגבר הרע מאד. והיינו כי כולם נמשכים מאדה"ר והיה בו ג"כ שינויים אלו פעמים גבר הוא ופעמים גבר הרע עליו.

and in another generation there were great wicked men, in whom the evil prevailed greatly. This is because they all derive from Adam, the first man, and these changes were in him as well: at times he prevailed, and at times the evil prevailed over him.

> Other generations had great wicked men. This alternation is inherited from Adam, the root of all souls, who himself had times when he prevailed and times when evil prevailed over him.

וכ"ז היה לפי שהוא בבחי' פנימיות ומיד שידע מן הרע נתערב עמו ממש וא"כ הוא מלחמה גדולה וקשה להפרידו מאד אלא עת כך ועת כך כנ"ל.

All this was because he is of the level of the inner dimension, and as soon as he knew of evil he became actually mixed with it; and if so, it is a great war and very hard to separate it, but rather [there is] a time [for] this and a time [for] that, as explained above.

> All this comes from man's inner nature: once he knew evil, it was truly mixed into him, and the struggle to separate it goes back and forth, 'a time for this and a time for that.'

7 וכן גם עפ"י פשוט שמקודם היו ערומים והיו עסוקים בתשמיש להוליד בנים ולא יתבוששו[20] כמו שהיו אוכלים ושותים

So too according to the plain [sense]: beforehand they were naked, and they engaged in marital relations to beget children and "they were not ashamed," just as they would eat and drink,

> The same point on the simple level: before the sin Adam and Eve were naked and unashamed, and they related to marital union to have children the way one eats and drinks, as a simple act.

כי מצות ה' היא ולא היו יודעים כלל שיש תאוה בזה[21] אבל אחר שאכל עה"ד וידעו שיש תאוה בזה אזי קשה לפרוש כו'.

for it was G-d's commandment, and they did not know at all that there is desire in this; but after he ate from the Tree of Knowledge and they knew that there is desire in this, then it is hard to withdraw, etc.

> For them it was simply fulfilling G-d's command to be fruitful; they knew nothing of lust. After eating from the Tree of Knowledge they became aware of desire, and from then on it is hard to hold back.

SECTION 4 • ¶8–9

Why man was kept from the Tree of Life

8 ולכן לא רצה הקדוש ברוך הוא שיטעם האדם מעה"ד כי לו הדבר מזיק כנ"ל והיה רוצה שלא ידע ממציאת הרע כלל ויהיה כולו קדוש ולא רצה להכניסו במלחמה עצומה הזאת.

Therefore the Holy One, blessed be He, did not want man to taste from the Tree of Knowledge, for to him the matter is harmful, as explained above. He wanted him not to know of the existence of evil at all and to be entirely holy, and He did not want to bring him into this tremendous war.

> This answers the first question. G-d forbade the Tree of Knowledge not merely as a test but because knowing evil would harm man, who absorbs what he knows. G-d wanted man to remain wholly holy, never drawn into the struggle with evil.

אבל אחר שכבר טעם מעה"ד ונתערב ברע אז אמר פן ישלח ידו ולקח גם מעה"ח ואכל וחי לעלם.[22]

But after he had already tasted from the Tree of Knowledge and become mixed with evil, then He said, "Lest he put forth his hand and take also from the Tree of Life, and eat, and live forever."

> Only after man had already eaten and become mixed with evil did G-d express concern about the Tree of Life.

פי' שחשש עוד מעתה שכבר נתערב ברע ולקח גם מעה"ח ששרשו מבחי' שלמעלה מהשבירה שמשם הוא שהיה התחלת המיתה והתהוות עה"ד טו"ר משא"כ מה שלמעלה מהשבירה הוא עה"ח ואם יאכל גם ממנו וחי לעולם.

That is, He was further concerned, now that he had already become mixed with evil, [that he would] take also from the Tree of Life, whose root is from the level that is above the shattering — for it is from there that the beginning of death and the coming into being of the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil came about, whereas what is above the shattering is the Tree of Life — and if he eats from it too, he will live forever.

> The Tree of Life is rooted above the 'shattering of the vessels' (the primordial cosmic breakage from which evil and death originate in Kabbalah). The Tree of Knowledge, with its mixture of good and evil, comes from the shattering; the Tree of Life comes from a level untouched by it, and eating from it grants eternal life.

פי' כי הרי באמת בבחי' זו נאמר אם צדקת מה תתן לו (איוב לה) ורבו פשעיך מה תעשה לו[23] ואע"כ אף שמעורב ברע הרי גם אם רבו פשעיך כו'

That is: for in truth, of this level it is said, "If you are righteous, what do you give Him" (Job 35), "[and if] your transgressions are many, what do you do to Him?" If so, even though he is mixed with evil, still, even "if your transgressions are many," etc.,

> At that lofty level, sin makes no difference: as Job says, man's righteousness gives G-d nothing and his sins do nothing to Him. So even a man full of sins could receive eternal life from it.

ויכול להיות וחי לעולם ואז גם הרע שבו יהיה לו קיום לעולם מאחר שהוא בבחי' פנימי' והרע מעורב כו'

> But since evil is now mixed inside man, eternal life for man would mean eternal life for the evil within him as well.

וא"א לו להפרידו מעליו. א"כ כשיהיה הוא חי לעולם אזי גם הרע שבו יהיה לו קיום לעולם.[24] and it is impossible for him to separate it from himself. If so, when he lives forever, the evil within him too will have existence forever.

> Man cannot peel the evil away from himself, so if he were to live forever, the evil would also be preserved forever.

9 וזהו היפך הכוונה שהרי צ"ל בלע המות לנצח[25] שיהיה ובערת הרע[26] כמאמר והרשעה כולה בעשן תכלה שזה יהיה לימות המשיח.

And this is the opposite of the intention, for there must be [the fulfillment of] "He will swallow up death forever," that there be "you shall eradicate the evil," as the saying [goes], "and all wickedness will vanish like smoke" — which will be in the days of Mashiach.

> Eternal life for evil contradicts G-d's purpose, which is that evil and death be abolished: 'He will swallow up death forever,' and 'all wickedness will vanish like smoke' (a phrase from the High Holiday prayers), in the days of Mashiach.

כי בכל משך הגלות הוא עת הבירורים והפרדת הרע והיינו ע"י בחי' חכמה דבחכמה אתברירו[27,28] להפריד הרע מהטוב

For the entire duration of the exile is the time of the refinements and of separating the evil; and this is through the level of Chochmah, for "through Chochmah they are refined," to separate the evil from the good.

> Until then, the exile is the time of 'refinements' (beirurim): sorting the good out of the mixture and separating it from evil. This is done through Chochmah, as the Zohar says, 'through Chochmah they are refined.'

ולכן נק' החכמה דין. שלא כמו שדימו המקובלים הראשונים שהחכ' כולה חסד שהרי היא מקור חסד.

Therefore Chochmah is called judgment — not as the early Kabbalists imagined, that Chochmah is entirely kindness, since it is the source of Chesed.

> Because it separates, Chochmah is called 'judgment' (din), which differentiates and sets limits. Earlier Kabbalists had thought Chochmah was pure kindness, since Chesed flows from it.

והחייט[29] המציא שיש בה ג"כ דין ושבחו האר"י ז"ל[30] שכך מבואר בזוהר באדרא כחמרא דשקיט[31] ושכיך על דורדיי כו'.

The Chayat innovated that there is judgment in it as well, and the Arizal, of blessed memory, praised him, for so it is explained in the Zohar, in the Idra: "like wine that is still and settled on its lees," etc.

> Rabbi Yehudah Chayat (a Kabbalist of the Spanish expulsion, commentator on Maarechet HaElokut) taught that Chochmah contains judgment too, and the Arizal endorsed this, citing the Zohar's image of settled wine resting on its dregs: the clear wine is separated from the sediment below it.

כי מאחר שיש בירורים להפריד הרע וזהו ע"י גבורות וע"ז נאמר (תהלים צד) אשרי הגבר[32] אשר תיסרנו יה שגם היסורים שהם לתועלת העברת הרע הוא מבחי' י"ה וכידוע שהיסורים הם לתועלת הפרדת הרע.

For since there are refinements to separate the evil, and this is through gevuros, and of this it is said (Psalms 94), "Fortunate is the man whom You, Yah, chasten" — that the sufferings too, which serve to remove the evil, are from the level of Yah; and as is known, sufferings serve to separate the evil.

> Separating evil is done through gevuros (forces of severity). The verse 'Fortunate is the man whom You, Yah, chasten' shows that even suffering, which serves to remove evil, comes from the Name Yah (whose letters Yud-Hei correspond to Chochmah and Binah).

כי הקליפות נמשלים לעלוקה שכשמוצצת דם אזי מיד מתה וז"ש (משלי ל) לעלוקה שתי בנות[33].[34]

For the kelipos are likened to a leech, which, when it sucks blood, immediately dies; and this is [the meaning of] what is said (Proverbs 30), "The leech has two daughters."

> The kelipos (forces of concealment) are like a leech: once it sucks its fill of blood it dies. So too, when the kelipah receives its portion, it is thereby detached and falls away.

וזהו ג"כ ענין שעיר המשתלח.[35] וכן וישלח יעקב[36] וגו' מנחה לעשו אחיו[37] עזים מאתים[38] כו' שבזה שנותן לו חלקו הוא מפרידו.

And this is also the matter of the goat that is sent away. So too, "And Jacob sent," etc., "a gift to Esau his brother: two hundred she-goats," etc. — for by giving him his portion he separates him.

> This is the idea behind the goat sent to Azazel on Yom Kippur, and Jacob's gift of goats to Esau: giving evil its due portion separates it from holiness.

וכך צ"ל לאחר שכבר טעם האדם מעה"ד ונתערב ברע אזי צריך לבירורי' עד שיפרידו ע"י שיקחו כל נצוצי קדושה שבו כו'.

So too, after man has already tasted from the Tree of Knowledge and become mixed with evil, there must be refinements until it is separated, by taking all the sparks of holiness in it, etc.

> Likewise, once man has become mixed with evil, a process of refinement is needed until the evil is separated from him, by extracting all the sparks of holiness from it.

And all this is through Chochmah, for "through Chochmah they are refined," since there is in it also the level of gevuros, so that there be "You, Yah, chasten," and as it is written (Deuteronomy 8), "As a man chastens his son," etc.

> This refining is done by Chochmah, which contains gevuros; hence 'You, Yah, chasten,' and 'as a man chastens his son,' that is, chastening that comes from love and aims to purify.

משא"כ בחינת כתר שלמעלה מחכמה הוא רחמים פשוטים וכחשיכה כאורה[41] ולכן פן ישלח ידו ולקח גם מעה"ח ואז וחי לעולם מאחר דאם צדקת מה תתן לו[42] כו'

This is not so with the level of Keser, which is above Chochmah: it is simple mercy, and "darkness is like light." Therefore [He said], "lest he put forth his hand and take also from the Tree of Life," and then "live forever," since "if you are righteous, what do you give Him," etc.

> Keser (the Crown), above Chochmah, is simple mercy that makes no distinctions: to it 'darkness is like light.' The Tree of Life stems from there, so it would give eternal life regardless of man's deeds.

ולפי שהוא מבחי' פנימית וא"כ הרע קשור ואדוק בו ויהי' גם לו קיום ולא זו היא הכוונה כנ"ל.

And since he is of the inner level, the evil is therefore bound and attached to him, and it too would have existence — and this is not the intention, as explained above.

> Since the evil is bound up inside man, it too would gain permanence, which is the opposite of G-d's intention.

SECTION 5 • ¶10–11

Expulsion and the work of refinement

10 וכמ"ש בזוהר גבי רבי אחא[43] מכפר טרשא שכיפר בקטורת על מקום שהיה הנגף שם ואמרו לו שלא הועיל כי עדיין בחיובא אשתכח.

As it is stated in the Zohar concerning Rabbi Acha of Kefar Tarsha, who atoned with incense for a place where there was a plague, and they told him that it did not help, for "they are still found guilty."

> The Zohar tells that Rabbi Acha came to Kefar Tarsha during a plague and used the incense to stop it; he was told this did not truly help, because the people were still guilty. Burning incense can hold off the destroyer, but it does not remove the evil itself.

בשלמא אם היו עושין תשובה כו'. ולכן מיד וישלחהו מג"ע[44] לעבד את האדמה אשר לקח משם.[45]

"It would be well if they had done teshuvah," etc. Therefore, immediately, "He sent him out of the Garden of Eden, to work the ground from which he was taken."

> Only teshuvah would have truly helped. Likewise, man could not simply be made immortal with his evil; therefore G-d immediately sent him out of Eden to 'work the ground from which he was taken.'

דהיינו עבודת הבירורים ע"י זריעה חרישה וקצירה ואח"כ באכלו ממנו ואו' אחד ואהבת הוא מברר ומעלי כו'.

That is, the work of refinements through sowing, plowing and reaping; and afterwards, when he eats from it and says "One" and "You shall love," he refines and elevates [it], etc.

> 'Working the ground' is the work of refinement: through plowing, sowing and reaping, man produces food, and when he eats it and then serves G-d, saying the Shema ('One,' 'You shall love'), he refines and elevates the sparks in that food.

11 ואז צריך לילך ממש על האדמה אשר לקח משם[46] ושמה יאכל ושמה יברר הבירורים.

And then he must actually go upon the ground from which he was taken, and there he will eat, and there he will carry out the refinements.

> After the sin man must actually go down to the ground, the place of the mixture, eat there and refine there.

אך צ"ל איך היה מתחלה כוונתו יתי כשלא ידע האדם מטו"ר כלל מאחר שיש מציאת הרע בעולם א"כ איך יתבררו הבירורים שזה צ"ל ע"י האדם.

But we must understand: what was His original intention, may He be blessed, when man did not know of good and evil at all? Since there is the existence of evil in the world, how, then, would the refinements be refined, which must be done by man?

> A question: evil already existed in the world before the sin. If Adam was never meant to know evil, how were the sparks trapped in it supposed to be refined, since that is man's task?

אך הענין כי אז היה באופן אחר ממש שלא בדרך מלחמה אלא ע"ד מ"ש ויניחהו בגי"ע לעבדה[47] זה[48] רמ"ח מ"ע להמשיך אור א"ס בגי"ע וע"י רבוי התגלות האור

But the matter is that then it was in an entirely different manner, not by way of war, but in the manner of what is written, "And He placed him in the Garden of Eden to work it" — these are the 248 positive commandments — to draw the Infinite Light into the Garden of Eden; and through the abundant revelation of the light,

> Before the sin refinement was to happen in a completely different way, without war. Adam was placed in Eden 'to work it,' which the Zohar and Targum explain as the 248 positive commandments; through them he would draw the Infinite Light into Eden.

ממילא יתעלו נצוצי[49] קדו' שנפלו ונתערבו ברע ויהיו נכללים בתוך האורות עליונים שימשיך האדם כנר בפני האבוקה שאם האבוקה קטנה אזי נר הסמוך לה יוכלל[50] בה the sparks of holiness that fell and became mixed with evil would rise of themselves and be absorbed within the supernal lights that man would draw down, like a candle before a torch: if the torch is small, a candle close to it is absorbed in it,

> The sheer intensity of that revealed light would automatically draw the fallen sparks upward and absorb them, as a small candle is swallowed up in the flame of a torch.

ואם ירחיקוהו מעט לא יתכלל בה מפני שהאבוקה קטנה. אבל אם תהיה[51] האבוקה גדולה אזי אע"פ שיהיה הנר רחוק יהיה מתכלל בה.

> The larger the torch, the farther away a candle can be and still be absorbed. Adam's light was so great that it would have drawn in even distant sparks, without him ever having to confront evil.

SECTION 6 • ¶12

Refinement by light and by war

12 וע"ד שהיה בזמן שבהמ"ק היה קיים שהרי ארז"ל לא גלו ישראל[52] אלא כדי שיתוספו עליהם גרים דהיינו להעלות נצוצות ומה היה נעשה אם לא חטאו ולא היו גולים.

It is like what was at the time when the Holy Temple stood. For our Sages, of blessed memory, said, "Israel was exiled only so that converts would be added to them," that is, to elevate sparks. What, then, would have happened had they not sinned and not been exiled?

> An illustration from Jewish history. The Talmud says Israel was exiled so that converts would join them, which Chassidus reads as the elevation of sparks of holiness scattered among the nations. So how would those sparks have been elevated had Israel never sinned and been exiled?

אלא ע"כ צ"ל שאז היו נכללים הנצוצות[53] ממילא כנר בפני האבוקה כמו נעמה העמונית[54] וכן כל העמים באו לשמוע חכמת שלמה וכמ"ש במלכת שבא[55] כו'.

Necessarily we must say that then the sparks were absorbed of themselves, like a candle before a torch — like Naamah the Ammonite; and so too all the nations came to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and as is written of the Queen of Sheba, etc.

> The answer: in Temple times the sparks were drawn in of themselves, like a candle swallowed up by a torch. Naamah the Ammonite (a wife of King Solomon, whom the Talmud counts as a 'good dove' from Ammon) joined Israel, and all the nations, including the Queen of Sheba, came to hear Solomon's wisdom.

והיינו לפי שאז היה אבוקה גדולה עד"מ ע"כ ממילא מתכללים בה הנצוצות ואם היה נמשך בהמ"ק כן יותר היו כולם מתבררים עד"ז

That is, because then there was a great torch, so to speak, the sparks were therefore absorbed in it of themselves; and had the Holy Temple continued so longer, they would all have been refined in this way,

> The Temple was a 'great torch' of revealed G-dliness, so the sparks were absorbed of themselves. Had that state lasted, all the sparks would have been refined this way, without exile.

וכמ"ש לע"ל (צפניה ג') אז אהפוך אל עמים שפה ברורה[56] כו'. והלכו גוים לאורך[57] כו'.

as is written of the Time to Come (Zephaniah 3), "For then I will turn to the peoples a clear language," etc., and "Nations shall walk by your light," etc.

> This is what will happen in the Messianic future, as the prophets foretell: the nations will turn to G-d with a clear language and walk by Israel's light, drawn by the revealed light itself.

וכך היה ענין האדם כשלא היה חוטא שהיה כולו קדוש כי גם גופו נלקח[58] ממקום המזבח[59, 60] וממנו נעשו[61] רמ"ח אבריו בלול בשמן כו'

And so was the matter of man when he had not sinned: he was entirely holy, for his body too was taken from the place of the altar, and from it his 248 limbs were made, "mixed with oil," etc.

> Adam before the sin was the same: entirely holy. The Midrash says his body was taken from the place of the altar, and his 248 limbs were made 'mixed with oil,' like a meal-offering, i.e., his very body was sacred.

והיה עומד בג"ע ושם היה מוסיף אורות וממילא היו הקליפות כלים ע"י שהיו הנצוצי קדושה כלים מהם אבל הדבר היה[62] שלא ע"י מלחמה כו'.

He stood in the Garden of Eden, and there he would add lights, and of themselves the kelipos would cease to be, through the sparks of holiness ceasing from them; but the matter was not through war, etc.

> In Eden he would have added light, and the kelipos would have faded away as the sparks of holiness that sustain them were drawn out, without any battle.

משא"כ אחר שחטא אזי צ"ל הבירורים ע"י עבודה ומלחמה שעת צלותא שעת קרבא כנ"ל וצריך לירד אל מקום הקליפות ושם יבררם וזהו את האדמה אשר לקח משם.[63]

This is not so after he sinned: then the refinements must be through labor and war — "the time of prayer is the time of battle" — as explained above; and he must go down to the place of the kelipos and refine them there. And this is "the ground from which he was taken."

> After the sin, refinement requires toil and war. The Zohar's phrase 'the time of prayer is the time of battle' describes prayer as the arena of this struggle. Man must descend to the place of the kelipos, 'the ground from which he was taken,' and refine them there.

SECTION 7 • ¶13

How the serpent knew

13 ובזה יובן גם מה שהנחש ידע מזה. כי הנה אדה"ר עצמו שהיה כולו קדוש למעלה מעה"ד טו"ר לא ידע ממציאת הרע כלל כנ"ל.

With this we will also understand how the serpent knew of this. For Adam, the first man, himself, who was entirely holy, above the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, did not know of the existence of evil at all, as explained above.

> Now the main question is answered: how did the serpent know what eating would do? Adam, entirely holy and above the Tree of Knowledge, knew nothing of evil's existence.

אבל הנחש שהוא עצמו נלקח מבחי' עה"ד טו"ר וידע מזה וידע שמה שצוה[64] לאדם שלא יאכל[65] ממנו היה בכדי שלא יהיה לו ידיעה[66] ברע כלל שלא יצטרך לכנוס עמו במלחמה כלל.

But the serpent, which was itself taken from the level of the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, knew of this; and it knew that [G-d's] commanding Adam not to eat from it was so that he would have no knowledge of evil at all, so that he would not need to enter into war with it at all.

> The serpent, however, came from the Tree of Knowledge itself, the realm where good and evil are mixed, so it understood what Adam did not: that the prohibition was meant to keep Adam from any knowledge of evil and so spare him the war with it.

וחרה לו מאד על שכ"כ נשמרים ממנו אף שלא לידע ממנו שלא יכשל בו והשיא עצות בנפשו שמוטב לו שיכנס האדם בזה ויהיה מלחמה ואז פעמים שיגבור גם הוא

And it was very vexed that they guard themselves so much from it — even not to know of it, so as not to stumble in it; and it took counsel in its soul that it would be better for it that man enter into this and there be a war, for then at times it too would prevail,

> The serpent resented being so completely avoided. It reasoned that if man entered the mixture and there was a war, the serpent would at least sometimes win.

וכמ"ש (קהלת ח) עת אשר שלט האדם באדם[67] כו' משלא ידע האדם מזה כלל ואז יהיה הטוב המעורב בו נכלל באדה"ר כנר בפני האבוקה והוא ימות ויפסד לגמרי ובא בערמומית לחוה as is written (Ecclesiastes 8), "A time when man rules over man," etc. — rather than that man not know of this at all, for then the good mixed in it would be absorbed into Adam like a candle before a torch, and it would die and perish entirely. So it came with cunning to Eve,

> 'A time when man rules over man to his harm' is read as the times when the evil in man prevails. But if man never knew evil, his great light would absorb the good within the serpent, 'like a candle before a torch,' and the serpent, left with no life, would perish. So it approached Eve with cunning.

וכמ"ש (בפר"א פי"ג) בא ס"מ ורכב על הנחש[68] כו'. ואמר[69] כי ידע אלקים כי ביום אכלכם ממנו[70] וגו' והייתם כאלקים ידעי טו"ר.

as is stated (in Pirkei deRabbi Eliezer, ch. 13), "Samael came and rode upon the serpent," etc. And it said, "For G-d knows that on the day you eat from it," etc., "and you will be like G-d, knowing good and evil."

> The Midrash says Samael (the angel of evil) rode upon the serpent, i.e., used it as his vehicle. The serpent told Eve that eating would make them 'like G-d, knowing good and evil.'

וכן הוא עפ"י האמת ולא אמר שקר כנ"ל רק שבערמה דבר זה כי הוא אמר והייתם כאלקים למעליותא. אבל באמת זהו חסרון.

And so it is according to the truth, and it did not speak a lie, as explained above; only it said this with cunning, for it said "and you will be like G-d" as an advantage, but in truth this is a deficiency.

> This was true; the serpent did not lie. Its cunning lay in presenting as an advantage what was really a flaw.

אף שיהי' יודע טו"ר כאלקים הנה למעלה אין זה פוגם כלל אף שיודע טו"ר מ"מ הרע נבדל לפי שלמעלה הוא בחי' מקיף משא"כ אם האדם שהוא מבחי' פנימי[71] יהי' יודע מטו"ר לו יהי' הדבר מזיק כנ"ל:[72]

Even though he would know good and evil like G-d — above, this is no blemish at all: even though good and evil are known, nevertheless the evil is separate, since above is the level of the encompassing; but if man, who is of the level of the inner, would know of good and evil, for him the matter would be harmful, as explained above.

> Knowing good and evil is harmless 'above,' where knowledge is encompassing and evil stays separate. For man, whose knowing is inner, it means being mixed with evil, as explained earlier.

SECTION 8 • ¶14

Addendum: Adam in the chambers; Judah's descent

14 בלק"ת מהאר"י ז"ל נת' הענין שאדה"ר היה הולך בהיכלות[73] כי בחי' אדם היה למעלה גם מרשב"י[74] כי היה בערך אחר ממש שהרי היה יציר כפיו של הקב"ה.

In Likkutei Torah of the Arizal, of blessed memory, the matter is explained that Adam, the first man, would walk through the chambers, for the level of Adam was higher even than Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, since he was of an entirely different order, for he was the handiwork of the Holy One, blessed be He.

> A supplement from the Arizal's Likkutei Torah: before the sin, Adam's soul was so exalted, being G-d's own handiwork, that he could walk through the heavenly 'chambers' (heichalos). His level was of a different order entirely, beyond even Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, author of the Zohar.

ובהיכלות הטומאה לא רצה להביט כלל והשיאו הנחש שעכ"פ יביט מה יש בהם[75] ועי"ז נכשל ונפל בתאוה אליהן.

Into the chambers of impurity he did not want to look at all; and the serpent enticed him that he should at least look at what is in them, and through this he stumbled and fell into desire for them.

> He avoided looking into the chambers of impurity, but the serpent persuaded him at least to look at what was there. Merely looking, even with a lofty intention, led him to stumble and fall into desire for them.

וכן שמעתי מהקי' ר'[76] אברהם בן ההי"מ ז"ל ע"פ ויט יהודה עד איש עדולמי ושמו חירה[77] שמחמת מעשה דיוסף אזי ויט.

So too I heard from the holy Rabbi Avraham, son of the Maggid, of blessed memory, on [the verse] "And Judah turned aside to an Adullamite man whose name was Chirah": that because of the episode of Joseph, therefore "he turned aside."

> A parallel teaching from Rabbi Avraham 'the Angel,' son of the Maggid of Mezritch: Judah 'turned aside' to the Adullamite after the sale of Joseph.

פי' ויט היינו שנטה למטה בהיכלות הקליפות[78] עד איש עדולמי כדי להעלות נצוצות משם[79] וזהו ענין הכוונה דנפילת אפים כו':

The explanation: "he turned aside" means that he inclined downward into the chambers of the kelipos, "to an Adullamite man," in order to elevate sparks from there; and this is the matter of the intention of the falling on the face, etc.

> Judah descended into the realm of the kelipos to raise sparks from there. This is also the inner meaning of 'falling on the face' (nefilas apayim, the Tachanun prayer), in which one descends in order to raise sparks from below.

IN ONE'S AVODAH

After the sin, a person is inwardly mixed with good and evil, so his life is a struggle in which at times one side prevails and at times the other. His task is to 'work the ground from which he was taken': to engage the physical world, eat and work in it, and through prayer ('the time of prayer is the time of battle'), the Shema and the mitzvos refine and elevate the sparks of holiness within it. The Adam story also teaches caution: Adam fell by agreeing merely to look into the chambers of impurity.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. What is the difference between encompassing and inner knowledge, and why does knowing evil harm man but not the angels?
2. Why would eternal life from the Tree of Life have been harmful after the sin, and how does this relate to Keser being 'simple mercy'?
3. How does the image of a candle before a torch describe the original way the world was to be refined, and how does it differ from refinement 'by war'?
4. Why is Chochmah called 'judgment,' and what does this say about suffering and purification?
5. In what sense did the serpent tell the truth, and where did its cunning lie?

FOR CHILDREN · AGES 9–13

For the children at the table

Why the Tree of Knowledge was forbidden

THE BIG IDEA

G-d wanted us to stay wholly good, and now that good and bad are mixed in us, our work is to sort them out through prayer, Torah and mitzvos.

After Adam ate from the Tree of Knowledge, G-d said, "Behold, man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil." But the angels above also know good and evil, so why was this bad for man? The maamar explains that there are two ways of knowing. Above, knowing is "encompassing" (makif): it stays around a thing, not inside it, so good and bad stay apart. A person's knowing is "inner" (pnimi): whatever we know becomes part of us. So when Adam came to know evil, good and evil became mixed inside him, and life became a struggle in which sometimes the good wins and sometimes the bad. That is why G-d did not want him to taste the fruit at all. G-d's first plan was that Adam would do the mitzvos and draw down so much light that everything around him would become holy by itself. Now we must "work the ground": live in the world, eat, work and pray, and lift up the sparks of holiness hidden in it. The serpent knew all this and told Eve a clever half-truth: it called a harm an advantage.

THE MASHAL

When a small torch stands near a candle, the candle's flame is swallowed into the torch; if the candle is moved a little away, it is not. But when the torch is very large, even a far-off candle is swallowed into its light. Before the sin, Adam's light was meant to be so great that the hidden sparks of holiness in the world would join it by themselves.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. Why is knowing something "from the inside" different from knowing it "from around it"?
2. What does the picture of the candle and the great torch teach about how light changes the world?
3. What ordinary thing this week, like eating, working or helping at home, can you do in a way that brings out its holiness?

PARAGRAPH 8

22 פן ישלח ידו ולקח גם מעה"ח ואכל וחי לעלם

G-d's concern after the sin that man might also eat of the Tree of Life and live forever.

Genesis 3:22 בראשית ג':כ"ב

וַיֹּאמֶר ה' אֱלֹקִים הֵן הָאָדָם הָיָה כְּאַחַד מִמֶּנּוּ לָדַעַת טוֹב וָרָע וְעַתָּה פֶּן־יִשְׁלַח יָדוֹ וְלָקַח גַּם מֵעֵץ הַחַיִּים וְאָכַל וָחַי לְעֹלָם׃

And the L-RD G-d said: 'Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil; and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever.'

40 כאשר ייסר איש את בנו

The manuscript reads instead 'as a father reproves the son' (כאב את בנו יוכיח), a different verse with the same idea of loving chastisement.

KEHOT'S NOTE

בגוכתי"ק: כאב את בנו יוכיח.

41 וכחשיכה כאורה

To G-d 'darkness is like light'; describes Keser, which makes no distinction between good and evil.

Psalms 139:12 תהילים קל"ט:י"ב

גַּם־חֹשֶׁךְ לֹא־יַחְשִׁיךְ מִמֶּךָּ וְלַיְלָה כַּיּוֹם יָאִיר כַּחֲשֵׁיכָה כָּאוֹרָהּ׃

"To understand the matter of the blessings"

A blessing's opening 'Baruch' draws G-d's hidden Infinite Light into revelation, and its closing 'Baruch,' the 'seal,' guards that revelation so that it stays in holiness and does not feed the forces of evil; the same structure shapes the wedding blessings, Torah study and the love of G-d in prayer.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar asks why blessings were instituted only in the Second Temple era: in the First Temple, faith in G-d was openly revealed in the souls, while later it had to be drawn down, 'baruch' meaning 'drawn.' The formula traces this descent: 'Havayah our G-d' in Jewish souls, then 'King of the world.' The mitzvos, which sanctify and join us to G-d, give us the power to do so. The Jerusalem Talmud's rule that short blessings open with 'Baruch' while long ones also seal with it is explained through the hidden and revealed worlds. Like seed and fetus, the hidden world holds everything in unity, while the revealed world unfolds into particulars and produces 'waste' on which evil feeds; so a long blessing needs a seal, like the seal on a letter. The first two wedding blessings correspond to Adam and Eve, the Written and Oral Torah, supernal and lower Chochmah. Torah study can be an elixir of life or of death depending on intention, and love in prayer has an inner 'day' and an outer 'night.' In both, the seal from above, earned through our own effort, keeps holiness from the kelipos.

OUTLINE

1 Why blessings were instituted ¶1–2

Faith is above reason; in the First Temple it shone openly in the souls, but in the Second Temple blessings were needed to draw it down ('baruch' = drawn).

2 The order of the blessing ¶3–4

'Havayah our G-d' is G-d revealed in Jewish souls, above angels and world; 'King of the world' is His sovereignty. The mitzvos, which sanctify and join us to G-d, give the blessing its power.

3 Hidden and revealed worlds ¶5–8

Short blessings open with 'Baruch'; long ones also seal with it. Like seed and fetus, the hidden world holds all in unity, while the revealed world's differentiation produces 'waste' on which evil feeds.

4 The seal ¶9–10

The closing 'Baruch' is like a seal on a letter: an encompassing protection that reserves the revealed flow for holiness; Ne'ilah is the seal of all Israel.

5 The wedding blessings: Written and Oral Torah ¶11–13

'Yotzer ha'adam' (Adam) and 'Asher yatzar' (Eve) correspond to the Written Torah, supernal Chochmah, a hidden point, and the Oral Torah, lower Chochmah, which reveals it in detail; 'Day to day pours forth, night to night expresses knowledge.'

6 'In His image… an everlasting edifice' ¶14–20

Forming as revealing; the added 'es' and doubled 'image' mean revelation after revelation; the revealed world is built 'from Himself,' contracted so that worlds can exist, for G-d's reign and His desire for a dwelling below.

7 Torah study: elixir of life or death ¶21–23

Because the Oral Torah is clothed in physical matters, learning for self-importance gives the kelipos a hold; learning as G-d's word draws His light, and the 'seal' keeps it in holiness.

8 The two hearts and the seal in prayer ¶24–30

The inner 'day' love of the G-dly soul is one with its source; the outer 'night' love, clothed in body and animal soul, reveals it but needs a seal; chosam is techum, a boundary on what one gives the animal soul.

KEY CONCEPTS

Blessing as drawing down ברוך ונמשך

'Baruch' is read as 'drawn down': a blessing draws the hidden Infinite Light into revelation, so that faith becomes as vivid as sight.

The hidden world and the revealed world עלמא דאתכסיא ועלמא דאתגליא

The hidden world contains everything in unified potential, like a seed; the revealed world unfolds it into particulars, like a formed fetus, and in doing so produces 'surplus' that evil can feed on.

The seal חותם

The closing 'Baruch' of a long blessing: an encompassing protection that keeps the revealed flow in holiness and limits the other side to its bare surplus; chosam has the letters of techum, 'boundary.'

Supernal and lower Chochmah חכמה עלאה וחכמה תתאה

The Written Torah, a concentrated 'point' of wisdom, and the Oral Torah, which spells out its hidden content in detailed law; symbolized by Adam and Eve.

Higher and lower unity יחודא עילאה ויחודא תתאה

The higher unity sees the world as nothing before G-d; the lower unity sees G-d as giving life within an apparently real world. The inner love of the heart comes from the first, the outer love from the second.

Arousal from below אתערותא דלתתא

A person's own intention and effort, which evoke a corresponding response from above; the seal too depends on it.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–2

Why blessings were instituted

1 להבין ענין הברכות[1] כי הנה אנשי כנה"ג תקנו הברכות בזמן בית שני אבל בזמן בית ראשון לא[2] היו מברכים.

To understand the matter of the blessings: the Men of the Great Assembly instituted the blessings in the time of the Second Temple, but in the time of the First Temple they did not recite blessings.

> The maamar sets out to explain what a blessing (berachah) does. It starts from a historical fact: the fixed blessings were instituted by the Men of the Great Assembly (the sages at the start of the Second Temple era); in First Temple times there were no such formal blessings. Why were they needed later?

והענין כי הנה כל ישראל מאמינים בני מאמינים[3] כו' מה שנלאו חכמי הפילוסופים והמחקרים להבין בשכלם

The matter is this: all Israel are believers, sons of believers, etc. — [believing in] what the philosophers and investigators wearied themselves to understand with their intellect.

> Every Jew has an inborn faith in G-d, 'believers, sons of believers,' as the Talmud puts it. Jews simply believe what philosophers struggled, and failed, to reach through reasoning.

כי האמונה היא למעלה מן ההשגה והשכל[4] ואפי' מההשגה שבשרש נפש האלקית שבישראל דמזליה חזי[5] כו' שהרי לית מחשבה תפיסא ביה[6] והוא רם ונשא[7] למעלה ממזלייהו.[8]

For faith is above comprehension and intellect, even above the comprehension that is in the root of the G-dly soul in Israel, of which [it is said] "its mazal sees," etc.; for no thought can grasp Him, and He is exalted and lofty above their mazal.

> Faith is higher than understanding, higher even than the lofty perception in the soul's own root above (its 'mazal,' which 'sees' what the person does not). G-d Himself is beyond all thought, so He can be reached by faith, not by comprehension.

2 והנה בזמן בית ראשון היו נשמות ישראל במעלה העליונה והי' אוא"ס שורה ומתגלה בנפשם להיות אצלם גילוי אמונה זו כאילו רואה[9] כו'.

Now, in the time of the First Temple the souls of Israel were of the highest level, and the Infinite Light rested and was revealed in their souls, so that this faith was revealed to them as if one sees, etc.

> In the First Temple era the souls were so lofty that G-d's Infinite Light shone openly in them; their faith was revealed, as vivid as sight.

אך בזמן בית שני לא היו הנשמות במעלה עליונה כ"כ תקנו אנשי כה"ג הברכות להמשיך גילוי אמונה זו להיות ברוך ונמשך הוי' אוא"ס ב"ה בגילוי למטה.

But in the time of the Second Temple, when the souls were not of so high a level, the Men of the Great Assembly instituted the blessings, to draw down the revelation of this faith: that Havayah, the Infinite Light, blessed be He, be "blessed" and drawn down in revelation below.

> In the Second Temple era souls were lower and faith became hidden, so the sages instituted blessings. 'Baruch' ('blessed') is read as 'drawn down' (as in grafting a vine): a blessing draws G-d, the Infinite Light, down into revelation.

SECTION 2 • ¶3–4

The order of the blessing

3 וסדר השתלשלות המשכת הגילוי הוא מתחלה להיות הוי"ה אלקינו[10] הוא גילוי אוא"ס ב"ה בנשמות ישראל להיות אלקינו ממש בבחי' ביטול לפי שהם מפנימיות העולמות.

The order of the progression of the drawing down of the revelation is: first, "Havayah our G-d" — the revelation of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, in the souls of Israel, that He be actually "our G-d," in a state of self-nullification, because they are from the inner dimension of the worlds.

> The blessing's words describe the stages of the drawing down. 'Havayah our G-d' (Elokeinu) comes first: G-d revealed in Jewish souls, who are from the 'inner dimension' of the worlds and so are nullified to Him, making Him truly 'our' G-d.

משא"כ המלאכים הם מחיצוניות העולמות שעליהם נאמר ומשם יפרד[11] והיה לארבעה ראשים. ארבעה נהרות הם ארבע מחנות השכינה[12] מחנה מיכאל כו'. וזש"א רז"ל[13] (ברכות ד:) מיכאל באחת[14].

This is not so with the angels, who are from the outer dimension of the worlds, of whom it is said, "And from there it divided and became four heads" — four rivers, which are the four camps of the Shechinah: the camp of Michael, etc. And this is what our Sages, of blessed memory, said (Berachos 4b), "Michael in one."

> Angels come from the 'outer dimension.' The Garden's river that 'divided into four heads' alludes to the four angelic camps around the Shechinah (Michael, Gabriel, etc.). The Talmud says Michael crosses the world in one flight.

ולא אמרו איזה שיעור על נשמות ישראל לפי שענין טיסה שטסים את העולם לא שייך גבי נשמות כלל שהעולם ומלואו אינן תופסין מקום כלל נגדם.[15]

They did not state any measure for the souls of Israel, because the matter of flying, in which they fly across the world, does not apply to souls at all, for the world and all it contains takes up no space at all in relation to them.

> The Talmud gives measures of flight for angels but none for souls, since for a soul the whole world occupies no space at all.

משא"כ לגבי המלאכים תופס העולם איזה מקום אלא שמיכאל די לו בטיסה אחת וגבריאל בשתים כו' ואליהו בארבע עם גופו שהיה תחלה גשמי ונהפך כו'.[16]

Whereas in relation to the angels, the world does take up some space; only, Michael needs just one flight, Gabriel two, etc., and Elijah four — with his body, which at first was physical and was transformed, etc.

> For angels the world does occupy some space: Michael needs one flight, Gabriel two, and Elijah four, because his body began physical and was transformed.

ואח"כ מלך העולם שעל העולם הוא גילוי מלכותו ית' בלבד שאין מלך בלא עם[17] כו'.

And afterwards, "King of the world," which is over the world, is only the revelation of His sovereignty, may He be blessed, for "there is no king without a people," etc.

> Then comes 'King of the world': this is only G-d's sovereignty (Malchus), a lower level relating to the world, since 'there is no king without a people.'

4 והנה ע"י הברכה ממשיך ברכה והמשכה להיות גילוי אור א"ס בנפש כלל ישראל שתתחזק אמונת ה' בלבם בבחי' גילוי כאלו רואה כו'.

Now, through the blessing one draws down blessing and drawing-down, that there be a revelation of the Infinite Light in the soul of the community of Israel, so that faith in G-d be strengthened in their heart in a revealed manner, as if one sees, etc.

> The purpose of a blessing is to draw down a revelation of the Infinite Light into the souls of all Israel, so that their faith becomes as strong and vivid as sight.

אך המוקדם לברכה והמשכת השראת גילוי זה הוא המברך שהוא הוא העושה המצוה לפי שהמצות הם כלים להשראת אא"ס ממש כו' ובהם ועל ידם ממשיך אא"ס למטה.

But what precedes the blessing and the drawing down of the indwelling of this revelation is the one who blesses — he is the one who does the mitzvah — because the mitzvos are vessels for the indwelling of the Infinite Light itself, etc., and in them and through them one draws the Infinite Light below.

> But the drawing down depends first on the one blessing, who is doing the mitzvah. The mitzvos are 'vessels' for G-d's Infinite Light; through them the light is drawn below.

וזהו אשר קדשנו במצותיו. אשר מלשון דהא[18,19] שהוא נתינת טעם לדבר כלומר לפי שקדשנו במצותיו.

And this is "Who has sanctified us with His commandments." "Asher" has the sense of "for," which gives the reason for something; that is to say, because He has sanctified us with His commandments.

> Hence the formula 'Who has sanctified us with His commandments': 'asher' here means 'because.' We can draw down the light because He has made us holy through the mitzvos.

וצונו מלשון צוותא והתקשרות[20] באוא"ס ב"ה שרש המצות למעלה לכך יש לנו כח להמשיך גילוי אור א"ס ב"ה בברכה זו:[21]

"And has commanded us" (vetzivanu) is from the term tzavta, joining, and connection with the Infinite Light, blessed be He, the root of the mitzvos above; therefore we have the power to draw down the revelation of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, with this blessing.

> 'Vetzivanu' ('and commanded us') is read as from tzavta, 'joining': the mitzvos bind us to the Infinite Light, their root above. This bond gives us the power to draw down its revelation through the blessing.

SECTION 3 • ¶5–8

Hidden and revealed worlds

5 והנה אמרו בירושלמי[22] (פ"ק דברכות הלכה ח') מטבע קצר פותח בברוך ואינו חותם בברוך ומטבע ארוך פותח בברוך וחותם בברוך.[23]

Now, it is said in the Jerusalem Talmud (Berachos, ch. 1, halachah 8): A short formula opens with "Baruch" and does not seal with "Baruch"; a long formula opens with "Baruch" and seals with "Baruch."

> A Talmudic rule about blessings: a short blessing (like one over food) begins with 'Baruch' and does not end with one; a long blessing (like those of the Amidah or Grace after Meals) both begins and ends with 'Baruch.'

ולהבין זה גם להבין מהו לשון חותם[24] והל"ל ומסיים. הענין כי הנה נודע שיש ב' בחינות בחי' עלמא דאתכסי' ובחי' עלמא דאתגליא.

To understand this — and also to understand what the term "seal" means; it should have said "end" — the matter is that, as is known, there are two levels: the level of the hidden world and the level of the revealed world.

> Why is the closing called a 'seal' (chasimah) rather than simply an 'ending'? The answer uses two realms: the 'hidden world' (alma de'iskasya), where everything is still concealed and unified, and the 'revealed world' (alma de'isgalya), where it becomes manifest.

והנה על עלמא דאתגליא נאמר (בראשית ב) ומשם יפרד[25] והי' לארבעה ראשים ארבעה נהרות כנגד ארבע מחנות השכינה שהיא מתלבשת בבי"ע כו'

Of the revealed world it is said (Genesis 2), "And from there it divided and became four heads" — four rivers, corresponding to the four camps of the Shechinah, which enclothes itself in Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah, etc.

> The revealed world is the Eden river that 'divides into four heads,' the four camps of the Shechinah as it enclothes itself in the lower worlds of Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah.

ובהשתלשלות וירידות המדרגות מדריגה אחר מדריגה בהתלבשותה בע' שרים כו' נעשה עלמא דפרודא כו' ושם יש אחיזה ויניקה לקליפות וסט"א לינק מהקדושה כביכול.

And in the progression and descent of the levels, level after level, as it enclothes itself in the seventy princes, etc., there comes to be the world of separation, etc.; and there the kelipos and the sitra achra have a hold and nurture, to draw from holiness, as it were.

> As the Divine flow descends step by step and passes through the seventy angelic 'princes' of the nations, it becomes a 'world of separation,' where the forces of evil can latch on and draw nourishment from holiness.

אך אין יניקתם אלא מותרי השפע ופסולת כו' ולא מעיקר הקדושה ח"ו וענין התהוות מותרי השפע ופסולת בעל' דאתגלי' היינו

But their nurture is only from the surplus of the flow and the waste, etc., and not from the essence of holiness, heaven forbid. And the matter of how the surplus of the flow and the waste come into being in the revealed world is this:

> Yet they draw only from the leftovers and waste of the flow, never from its core. How does such waste arise?

כי הגם שגם עלמא דאתגלי' מצד עצמה באמת אינה[26] דבר נפרד ח"ו וכמ"ש (דברים ד) כי הוי"ה הוא האלקים כו'

Even though the revealed world, too, of itself, is in truth not a separate thing, heaven forbid — as it is written (Deuteronomy 4), "For Havayah is Elokim," etc. —

> The revealed world is not truly separate from G-d, as the verse says 'Havayah is Elokim': the G-d who transcends and the G-d hidden in nature are one.

אלא שהוא בחי' גילוי מה שהי' בהעלם בעל' דאתכסיא וכמשל הולד שמצטייר בבטן הנקבה בהתחלקות עצמות וגידין כו' שהם מטפת הזכר לובן שממנו עצמות[27] כו'.

it is rather the revelation of what was hidden in the hidden world; like the analogy of the fetus, which is formed in the womb of the female with a differentiation into bones and sinews, etc., which come from the drop of the male, the white, from which [come] the bones, etc.

> The revealed world only unfolds what was hidden in the hidden world. The analogy is a fetus: its bones and sinews develop in the womb, yet they come from the father's seed, the 'white' from which bones are formed, as the Talmud says.

אלא שבטפת הזכר לא הי' התחלקות עצמות וגידין בפועל ממש רק שהי' בכח הטפה ההיא בהעלם וע"י שהייתה בבטן הנקבה ט' חדשים מצטייר בציור הולד ויוצא מהעלם אל הגילוי.[28]

Only, in the drop of the male there was no actual differentiation of bones and sinews; they were only in the potential of that drop, in concealment; and through its being in the womb of the female nine months, it takes on the form of the fetus and emerges from concealment to revelation.

> The seed contains everything only in potential; it takes nine months in the womb for the differentiated form of the child to emerge. So too the hidden world contains all, and the revealed world makes it manifest.

6 והנה כמו במשל הולד כאשר נתגדל ונגמר ציור כל האברים אזי דוחה ממנו מותרות שערות וצפרנים[29] שזהו סימן גידול הולד[30] שהוא בשלימות כשגמרו שערו וצפרניו כו'

Now, as in the analogy of the fetus: when it has grown and the formation of all the limbs is complete, it then pushes out from itself surpluses, hair and nails; this is the sign of the fetus's growth, that it is complete when its hair and nails are completed, etc.

> Continuing the analogy: once the fetus has grown and all its limbs are formed, it produces 'surpluses,' hair and nails; their completion is the sign that the fetus is fully formed.

ובצאתו מרחם אמו[31] דוחה פסולת יותר ע"י פתיחת נקביו כו' מה שלא הי' פסולת זה בטפה כי אין הולד נוצר אלא מברור שבה.

And when it leaves its mother's womb it expels more waste through the opening of its orifices, etc. —waste that was not in the drop, for the fetus is formed only from the refined part of it.

> At birth, more waste is expelled through the body's openings. None of this waste existed in the seed, since the fetus is formed only from its refined part; waste appears only with differentiated development.

כך עד"מ בהגלות נגלות סדר ההשתלשלות בעלמא דאתגליא מהעלם אל הגלוי ברבוי התחלקות המדרגות להיות ציור פרטי העולמות במזגם ותכונתם

So too, by way of analogy, when the order of the chain of descent is revealed in the revealed world, from concealment to revelation, in a great division of levels, so that there be the form of the particulars of the worlds in their blend and character,

> So too in the revealed world: the chain of worlds unfolds from concealment into many distinct levels, each world with its particular character.

אזי נעשה בחי' מותרי שפע ופסולת שדוחה לחוץ והוא מעבר השפע להיות יניקה ואחיזה לס"א.

then there come to be surpluses of the flow and waste, which it pushes outward; and this is the overflow of the flow, [giving] nurture and a hold to the sitra achra.

> As this happens, surpluses and waste are produced and pushed outward. This spill-over is what gives the sitra achra (the 'other side,' the forces opposed to holiness) its hold and nourishment.

משא"כ בבחי' עלמא דאתכסיא שהוא בהתכללות כו' ושם חביון עזו[32] ואין שטן ופי"ר[33] ח"ו כו'.

This is not so with the hidden world, which is in a state of inclusion, etc.; and "there is the hiding of His strength," and there is "no adversary and no evil occurrence," heaven forbid, etc.

> In the hidden world, where everything is included and unified, there is no waste: it is 'the hiding place of His strength,' where there is 'no adversary and no evil occurrence.'

7 והנה מטבע קצר רומז לעלמא דאתכסיא[34] שהוא בחי' טפה לבד בהתכללות בבחי' העלם ובכח ולכן הוא מטבע קצר שכולל הכל בלשון קצר וא"צ

Now, the short formula alludes to the hidden world, which is the level of the drop alone, in inclusion, in concealment and potential; therefore it is a short formula, which includes everything in brief language, and it needs

> Now the rule is explained. The short blessing corresponds to the hidden world, like the seed that holds everything in potential and unity; so its wording is brief and inclusive.

אלא לפתוח בברוך להיות ברכה והמשכה מאור א"ס ב"ה עצמו שהברכה הוא להיות השראה וגילוי מעצמות אור א"ס ב"ה שאינו בגדר עלמין כלל כנ"ל.

only to open with "Baruch," so that there be blessing and drawing-down from the Infinite Light itself, blessed be He; for the blessing is to be an indwelling and revelation from the essence of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, which is not within the category of worlds at all, as explained above.

> It need only open with 'Baruch,' drawing down blessing from the essence of the Infinite Light, which is beyond all worlds.

8 ומאחר שתמשך שם ברכה והמשכה זו היא בל תמוט עולם ועד[35] כי אין שם יניקה לס"א ח"ו.

And since this blessing and drawing-down will be drawn there, "it shall never be moved," for there is no nurture there for the sitra achra, heaven forbid.

> A blessing drawn into the hidden world 'shall never be moved': no seal is needed, since there is nothing there for evil to feed on.

אבל מטבע ארוך רומז לעלמא דאתגליא שהיא בחי' גילוי ההתהוות לפרטי פרטים בהתחלקות רבות ועצומות וכך הוא מטבע ארוך באריכות הדברי' בפרטי פרטיות הדברים רבים שנאמרו ונשנו בה.

But the long formula alludes to the revealed world, which is the level of the revelation of creation into its minutest particulars, in many and vast divisions; and so is the long formula, with length of words, in the many detailed particulars of the things that are said and repeated in it.

> The long blessing corresponds to the revealed world, which unfolds into countless particulars; so its wording is long, full of detailed matters.

SECTION 4 • ¶9–10

The seal

9 והנה בעלמא דאתגליי׳ אחר שמשם יפרד[36] בבחי׳ התחלקות הפרטים יש יניקה לס״א ח״ו וצריך להפרידם שלא יינקו מעיקר הקדושה ח״ו רק דרך מעבר השפע ממותרות ופסולת כו׳ לכן צ״ל ג״כ חותם בברוך.

Now, in the revealed world, after "from there it divided" into the level of the division of particulars, there is nurture for the sitra achra, heaven forbid; and they must be separated, so that they do not draw from the essence of holiness, heaven forbid, but only by way of the overflow of the flow, from the surpluses and waste, etc. Therefore it must also seal with "Baruch."

> This explains why a long blessing needs a closing 'Baruch.' In the revealed world, where the flow divides into particulars, the forces of evil can feed. They must be kept from drawing on the core of holiness and limited to the spill-over, the 'surpluses and waste'; the closing blessing, the 'seal,' does this.

10 וענין החותם הוא כמו לשון חותם שעל האגרת מבחוץ כדי שלא יקרא באגרת הזאת איש זר אשר אין רצונו שידע הכתוב שם.

The matter of the seal is like the term "seal" [used for the one] on the outside of a letter, so that no stranger reads this letter, one whom [the writer] does not want to know what is written there.

> The word 'seal' (chosem) is explained by the seal on the outside of a letter, which keeps outsiders from reading what is not meant for them.

כך הוא החותם הזה מן הברכה וההמשכה אשר ימשיך עוד אחר המטבע הארוך שהמשכה זו שהיא גלוי ההעלם תהי׳ רק בבחי׳ הקדושה לבדה ואין לזרים אתה חלק ונחלה

So too is this seal of the blessing and drawing-down that one draws further after the long formula: that this drawing-down, which is the revelation of the hidden, be only in the realm of holiness alone, and that strangers have no portion or inheritance in it.

> Likewise, the closing of a long blessing ensures that the revelation drawn down stays within holiness alone and that 'strangers,' the forces of evil, get no share of it.

וזהו ההפרש שבין פתיחת הברכה לחתימתה כי פתיחת הברכה הוא המשכת הגילוי לבד להיות ברוך ונמשך[37] ה' אלקי ישראל מעולם עד עולם.

And this is the difference between the opening of the blessing and its seal: the opening of the blessing is the drawing down of the revelation alone, that "blessed" and drawn down be "the L-rd, the G-d of Israel, from world to world."

> The opening 'Baruch' only draws the revelation down, as in the verse 'Blessed is the L-rd, the G-d of Israel, from world to world.'

אבל החתימה היא שתהי' המשכה זו בקדושה דוקא. הבוחר בעמו ישראל באהבה. (מלאכי א) ואהב את יעקב ואת עשו שנאתי.[38] (תהלים מז) יבחר לנו את נחלתנו את גאון יעקב אשר אהב כו'.

But the seal is that this drawing-down be specifically in holiness: "Who chooses His people Israel with love"; (Malachi 1) "And I loved Jacob, and Esau I hated"; (Psalms 47) "He chooses our inheritance for us, the pride of Jacob whom He loved," etc.

> The seal directs that revelation specifically to holiness. Hence closings like 'Who chooses His people Israel with love,' and verses of G-d choosing Jacob and rejecting Esau: the light is reserved for Israel and kept from the forces Esau represents.

ולכן נק' בלשון חותם כמו שחותמין על האגרת שלא יקרא אחר וכמו חותם ממגע זר שהוא שמירה כו'.

Therefore it is called by the term "seal," as one seals a letter so that another will not read it, and like a seal against the touch of a stranger, which is a safeguard, etc.

> So it is called a 'seal,' like a sealed letter, or like the seal that protects wine or food from a stranger's touch.

ולכן חותמין בברוך שהיא המשכה מבחי' המקיף שהיא שמירה מלמעלה כמ"ש (שם קכא) ה' שמרך ה' צלך[39] כו'

And therefore one seals with "Baruch," which is a drawing down from the level of the encompassing, which is a protection from above, as it is written (ibid. 121), "The L-rd is your guardian, the L-rd is your shade," etc.

> The seal uses 'Baruch' because this second drawing-down comes from the encompassing (makif) level, which guards from above, as in 'G-d is your guardian, G-d is your shade.'

ולכן החותם של כללות ישראל הוא בנעילת יו"כ שאז זוכים למעלה העליונה (ויקרא טז) לפני הוי"ה תטהרו למעלה מבחי' הוי"ה כו' וכמ"ש במ"א:[40,41,42]

Therefore the seal of the community of Israel as a whole is at Ne'ilah of Yom Kippur, for then they merit the highest level: (Leviticus 16) "Before Havayah you shall be purified" — above the level of Havayah, etc., as explained elsewhere.

> The seal for all of Israel is Ne'ilah, the closing prayer of Yom Kippur (when G-d's judgment is 'sealed'). Then Israel reaches the highest level: 'Before Havayah you shall be purified' is read as a purification from a level above even Havayah.

SECTION 5 • ¶11–13

The wedding blessings: Written and Oral Torah

11 ועתה נבא לביאור ענין ב' ברכות ראשונות של נשואין שהם יוצר האדם ואשר יצר את האדם[43] בצלמו[44].

Now we will come to the explanation of the matter of the first two blessings of marriage, which are "Who forms man" and "Who formed man in His image."

> The maamar now applies this to the wedding blessings (sheva berachos). The first two creation blessings are 'Who forms man' (Yotzer ha'adam) and 'Who formed man in His image.'

הראשונה פותחת בברוך ואינה חותמת והשניה פותחת בברוך וחותמת בברוך.[45] והענין כי הנה בגמרא (כתובות ח' א' ע"ש)

The first opens with "Baruch" and does not seal, and the second opens with "Baruch" and seals with "Baruch." The matter is that in the Gemara (Kesubos 8a; see there)

> The first is short: it opens with 'Baruch' and has no seal. The second is long and ends with 'Baruch... Yotzer ha'adam.' The Talmud in Kesubos discusses why there are two.

אמרו שב' יצירות הללו כנגד שתי יצירות שהי' באדה"ר[46] תחלה נברא האדם לבדו בדו פרצופין ואח"כ נסר הקב"ה את חוה[47] כו'.

they said that these two formations correspond to the two formations that there were with Adam, the first man: first, man was created alone, with two faces, and afterwards the Holy One, blessed be He, sawed off Eve, etc.

> The two blessings correspond to two stages in Adam's creation: first he was created with two faces, male and female joined, and afterwards G-d separated Eve from him.

וביאור הדבר הנה אדם וחוה רומזים לתושב"כ ותושבע"פ תושב"כ בחי' אדם בחי' טפת הזכר לובן שממנו עצמות כו'

The explanation of the matter: Adam and Eve allude to the Written Torah and the Oral Torah. The Written Torah is the level of Adam, the level of the drop of the male, the white, from which [come] the bones, etc.

> Adam and Eve represent the Written Torah and the Oral Torah. The Written Torah is 'Adam,' like the father's seed, the 'white' from which bones are formed: it contains everything in concentrated, hidden form.

כי תושב"כ היא בחי' חכמה עלאה שאינה אלא בחי' טפה ונקודה שהחכמה היא בחי' ברק המבריק במוחו שעדיין לא באה לידי אורך ורוחב ההשגה

For the Written Torah is the level of supernal Chochmah, which is only the level of a drop and a point; for Chochmah is the level of lightning that flashes in one's mind, which has not yet come to the length and breadth of comprehension,

> The Written Torah is supernal Chochmah (wisdom), which is only a 'point,' like the flash of insight that has not yet been developed into full understanding.

להבין ולהשיג כל דרכי החכמה בכלל ובפרט רק שהוא כברק בעלמא שמתנוצץ ומאיר במוחו כח ההשכלה ואינו מתגלה to understand and grasp all the paths of the wisdom in general and in particular; rather, it is like mere lightning that sparkles and illuminates the power of intellect in his mind, and it is not revealed

> A flash of insight lights up the mind for a moment but does not yet spell out the idea's details, general or particular.

אלא בחי' נקודה אלא שאח"כ מתפשטת הנקודה באורך ורוחב ובאה לידי השגה ואזי נקראת בשם בינה כו' except as a point; but afterwards the point expands in length and breadth and comes to comprehension, and then it is called by the name Binah, etc.

> Only later does the point expand 'in length and breadth' into detailed understanding, which is called Binah.

וכך היא בחי' תושב"כ שאין בה גילוי ההשגה שהרי ר"ע הי' דורש על כל קוץ וקוץ תלי תלים של הלכות.[48]

And so is the level of the Written Torah, in which there is no revelation of comprehension; for Rabbi Akiva would expound on each and every thorn mounds upon mounds of laws.

> So too the Written Torah does not spell out its content. The Talmud says Rabbi Akiva expounded 'mounds upon mounds of laws' from every little crown on the letters.

שההלכות הללו אינן מבוארות ונגלות בגילוי ההשגה בקוץ ההוא רק שכל קוץ וקוץ כלול מכמה תלי

These laws are not explained and revealed in manifest comprehension in that thorn; rather, each and every thorn includes many mounds

> Those laws are not visible in the crown itself, though each crown includes many mounds of them.

תלים של ההלכות הכלולים ונעלמים בקוץ ההוא מבחי' העלם והרי אין בקוץ זה אלא רמז בעלמא ובחי' נקודה והקוצין הן בחי' תגין.

upon mounds of laws, which are included and hidden in that thorn in a state of concealment; and in this thorn there is only a mere hint and the level of a point. And the thorns are the level of the crowns (tagin).

> They are contained in it in hidden form. The crown is only a hint, a point. The 'thorns' are the tagin, the small crowns on certain letters of a Torah scroll.

12 וכן עד"ז בכל בחי' טנת"א הכל רמוזים לכמה ענינים וכמה סודות מופלאים. וכל זה הוא בתושב"כ בבחי' העלם ובכח

And so too, in this manner, in all the aspects of the cantillation marks, vowels, crowns and letters: all allude to many matters and many wondrous secrets. And all this is in the Written Torah in a state of concealment and potential,

> Every aspect of the Torah's text, its cantillation marks, vowels, crowns and letters, hints at many matters and wondrous secrets, but in the Written Torah they are all hidden and in potential.

ולא בפועל וגילוי וכמשל טפת הזכר הכלולה מכל הבחי' שבולד לובן שממנו עצמות וגידין וכו' שבטפה ההיא אין התחלקות העצמות וגידים כו' נגלים בפו"מ רק שהם בהעלם ובכח.

and not in actuality and revelation — like the analogy of the drop of the male, which includes all the aspects that are in the fetus, the white, from which [come] the bones, sinews, etc.; in that drop the differentiation of the bones and sinews, etc., is not revealed in actual fact; they are only in concealment and potential.

> This is like the father's seed, which contains all the parts of the child without their being differentiated in actual fact.

ויציאתם מהעלם אל הגילוי הוא ע"י שהייה ט"ח בבטן הנקבה ששם מצטייר הולד והיא מוציאתו לידי גילוי בהתחלקות האברים פרטיים נגלים.

And their emergence from concealment to revelation is through remaining nine months in the womb of the female, where the fetus takes form; and she brings it out to revelation, in the differentiation of particular, revealed limbs.

> The fetus takes form over nine months in the mother's womb, and she brings it out into revelation with distinct limbs.

וכך הוא עד"מ יציאת ההעלם מתושב"כ שהיא בחי' ח"ע לידי גילוי הוא ע"י תושבע"פ (ור"ע הי' דורש כו' כי ר"ע הי' מקור תושבע"פ כמו שאמרו סתם ספרי כו' וכולהו אליבא דר"ע)[49] שהיא בחי' חכמה תתאה.

And so, by way of analogy, the emergence of the concealed of the Written Torah, which is the level of supernal Chochmah, into revelation is through the Oral Torah (and Rabbi Akiva would expound, etc., for Rabbi Akiva was the source of the Oral Torah, as they said, "an anonymous Sifrei," etc., "and all of them follow Rabbi Akiva"), which is the level of lower Chochmah.

> So the Oral Torah (the level of 'lower Chochmah') brings out what is hidden in the Written Torah. Rabbi Akiva is the source of the Oral Torah: the Talmud says the anonymous opinions of the Mishnah, Tosefta, Sifra and Sifrei all follow his approach.

שממאמר א' שבתושב"כ כמו ענין שמירת שבת שנאמרה בתו' בכלל נעשה מסכת שלימה שהוא גילוי פרטי הלכות שבת מה הן האבות מלאכות וכיצד מתחייב בהן וכל עניניהם בכל פרטיהן ודקדוקיהן.

For from one statement in the Written Torah, such as the matter of keeping Shabbos, which was stated in the Torah in general terms, a complete tractate is made, which is the revelation of the particulars of the laws of Shabbos: what the primary categories of labor are, and how one becomes liable for them, and all their matters in all their particulars and fine points.

> For example, the one general command to keep Shabbos becomes a whole tractate in the Oral Torah, detailing the primary labors, when one is liable, and every fine point.

ולכן נק' תושבע"פ בשם חוה כי חוי"ה בגימטריא המילוי של[50] הוי"ה (שהוא עולה י"ט) כי המילוי הוא גילוי ההעלם כמ"ש במ"א וגם חוה לשון גילוי כי תרגום ויגד וחוי.[51]

Therefore the Oral Torah is called by the name Chavah, for Chavah is numerically equal to the filling of Havayah (which amounts to 19), for the filling is the revelation of the concealed, as explained elsewhere. Also, Chavah is a term of revelation, for the Targum of "and he told" is "vachavi."

> Hence the Oral Torah is called Chavah (Eve). Chavah's letters (ח-ו-ה) equal 19, which is the 'filling' of Havayah: spelling the Name's letters out in full (as 45) adds 19 to its basic value of 26. The filling reveals what is hidden in the letters. Also, 'chavah' means to tell: the Aramaic Targum renders 'and he told' as 'vachavi.'

והגדה לשון המשכה שנמשך מהעלם אל הגילוי וז"ש ויקרא האדם שם אשתו חוה[52] כי היא היתה אם כל חי ולכאורה א"כ למה קרא שמה חוה הי' לו לקרא שמה חיה

And telling is a term of drawing down, drawing from concealment to revelation. And this is [the meaning of] what is written, "And the man called his wife's name Chavah, because she was the mother of all living." Seemingly, then, why did he call her Chavah? He should have called her Chayah!

> Telling draws something from hiddenness into the open. This explains the verse 'Adam called his wife Chavah because she was the mother of all living': why not 'Chayah,' the direct word for life?

אלא לפי שחוה לי' גילוי וזהו כי היא היתה אם כל חי פי' ולכך הוציאתם מהעלם אל הגילוי כמו אם הבנים שהולד מצטייר בקרבה והיא מוציאתו מההעלם:

Rather, because Chavah is a term of revelation; and this is "because she was the mother of all living," meaning: and therefore she brought them out from concealment to revelation, like the mother of children, in whom the fetus takes form and she brings it out from concealment.

> Because 'Chavah' means revelation: as a mother, she brings children from concealment into revealed existence, just as the Oral Torah brings out the hidden content of the Written Torah.

13 וזהו יום ליום[53] יביע אמר ולילה ללילה יחוה דעת פי' יום ליום בחי' תושב"כ יביע אמר אמ"ר ר"ת אש מים רוח ובבחי' תושב"כ יביע כמעיין הנובע ממקורו

And this is [the meaning of] "Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night expresses knowledge." Explanation: "Day to day" is the level of the Written Torah; "pours forth omer" — omer is an acronym of fire (esh), water (mayim), air (ruach); and in the level of the Written Torah it "pours forth" like a spring that flows from its source,

> A verse from Psalms illustrates the two Torahs. 'Day' is the Written Torah. The word omer ('speech') is read as an acronym for the three basic elements: fire (esh), water (mayim) and air (ruach). 'Yabia' ('pours forth') describes a spring bubbling up from its source.

שהוא עדיין דבוק במקורו ומתאחד עמו לפי שתושב"כ היא בחי' ח"ע ושם שורה ומתגלה אוא"ס הוי"ה בחכי' which is still attached to its source and one with it; because the Written Torah is the level of supernal Chochmah, and there the Infinite Light, Havayah, rests and is revealed in Chochmah.

> A spring is still attached to and one with its source. So too the Written Torah, as supernal Chochmah, is where G-d's Infinite Light itself rests and is revealed.

ולכן שם יביע כמעיין הנובע שנובע מן המקור ואינו הולך ומתפשט באורך ורוחב רק נביעו דחכמתא בלבד שהיא בחי' נקודה וברק המבריק והאמ"ר

Therefore there [it says] "pours forth," like a flowing spring, which flows from the source and does not go and spread out in length and breadth, but is only the flowing of Chochmah, which is the level of a point and a flashing lightning; and the omer,

> The spring does not yet spread out in breadth; it is only the first welling-up of wisdom, the 'point' and 'flash of lightning' described earlier.

שהוא ר"ת אש מים רוח כלולים ומתעלים בו בהעלם ובכח ולא בגלוי ובפו"מ שאין שם התחלקות בחי' אש רוח מים ממש which is the acronym of fire, water, air, is included and elevated in it in concealment and potential, and not in revelation and in actual fact; for there is no differentiation there of the levels of fire, air and water as such,

> The elements (fire, water, air), the building blocks of all created things, exist in it only in potential; they are not yet distinguished from one another.

כמו שהם אחר שנפרטו ובאו לידי גילוי רק הם בבחי' נביעו בלבד כהתכללות המעיין הנובע ממקורו ומתאחד ונכלל במקורו הוא א"ס ב"ה הוי"ה בחכ'.

as they are after they have been particularized and come to revelation; they are only in the level of the flowing alone, like the inclusion of the spring that flows from its source and is united and included in its source, which is the Infinite One, blessed be He, Havayah in Chochmah.

> They exist only as the spring's flow, still merged with its source, the Infinite One revealed in Chochmah, rather than as the distinct elements they become once creation is spelled out.

ולילה ללילה בחי' תושבע"פ יחוה דעת בבחי' גילוי לבאר ולפרט פרטי התחלקות ההתהוות כמו שהם בסדר ההשתלשלות במדרגות רבות ועצומות (וזהו שמשרע"ה למד ביום מקרא ובלילה משנה כשהי' בהר[54] כו'):

"And night to night" is the level of the Oral Torah, "expresses knowledge" in revelation, to explain and detail the particulars of the division of creation as they are in the order of the chain of descent, in many and vast levels. (And this is why Moses our teacher, peace be upon him, learned Scripture by day and Mishnah by night when he was on the mountain, etc.)

> 'Night' is the Oral Torah, which 'expresses (yechaveh) knowledge,' the same root as Chavah, i.e., reveals and details all the particulars of creation at every level. Hence the Midrash says that on Sinai Moses learned Scripture by day and Mishnah by night.

SECTION 6 • ¶14–20

'In His image... an everlasting edifice'

14 והנה ברכה ראשונה כנגד אדה"ר שהיא בחי' ח"ע תושב"כ[55] דהיינו כדי להמשיך אור א"ס בחכמה כו' ופי' יוצר

Now, the first blessing corresponds to Adam, the first man, who is the level of supernal Chochmah, the Written Torah — that is, to draw down the Infinite Light into Chochmah, etc. And the meaning of "Yotzer" (Who forms)

> The first wedding blessing, 'Who forms man,' corresponds to Adam, i.e., supernal Chochmah, the Written Torah; its purpose is to draw the Infinite Light into Chochmah.

כמו צר צורה עד"מ שהוא מצייר תמונת החומר. ותמונה זו היא ג"כ גילוי בערך החומר שהי' חומר פשוט כמו גוף גולמת המתכת.

is like "forming a form," by way of analogy, one who fashions the shape of the material. And this shape too is a revelation in relation to the material, which was simple material, like the body of a raw lump of metal.

> 'Forming' (yetzirah) is like a craftsman shaping raw material: a lump of metal is given a form. The form is itself a revelation of the material, which was shapeless before.

15 ומראהו ומעשהו או הצורה שמציירין עליו הוא גילוי החומר שנעשה על תמונה זו דוקא והרי ציור זה אינו דבר נפרד ואין הציור נראה דבר בפ"ע

Its appearance and its workmanship, or the form that is fashioned upon it, is the revelation of the material, which was made into this particular shape; and this form is not a separate thing, nor is the form seen as a thing in itself;

> The form given to the metal is simply the metal made visible in a specific shape. The form is not a separate thing that can be seen by itself.

אלא שע"י הציור מתראה תבנית הכלי באופן יותר נאות מכמות שהי' גולמו. וגולמת הכלי עצמו הוא שנצטייר ונתגלה.

rather, through the form the structure of the vessel appears in a more fitting way than it was in its raw state; and it is the raw material of the vessel itself that was formed and revealed.

> The form merely shows the raw material in a more fitting way; it is the raw material itself that has been formed and revealed.

כך הנה בנמשל האדם שהוא תושב"כ הוא ג"כ בבחי' גילוי אל החומר הראשון שהוא כח ההיולי שלא נתפס בו שום גילוי שעליו נאמר (תהלים יח)

So too in the analogue: "Adam," which is the Written Torah, is also in the level of revelation relative to the primordial matter, which is the hylic potential, in which no revelation at all is grasped, of which it is said (Psalms 18),

> Likewise, 'Adam,' the Written Torah, is a revelation of the 'primordial matter,' the hylic potential (a philosophical term for formless matter that holds all forms in potential), in which nothing is revealed at all.

ישת חשך סתרו וחומר ההיולי הוא נק' בשם אדם דבריאה וראשית הגילוי הוא בחכמה תושב"כ ונק' אדם דיצי'.

"He made darkness His hiding place." The hylic matter is called by the name "Adam of Beriah," and the beginning of revelation is in Chochmah, the Written Torah, and it is called "Adam of Yetzirah."

> Of that hidden level it is said, 'He made darkness His hiding place.' The formless potential is called 'Adam of Beriah,' and its first revelation, in Chochmah, the Written Torah, is called 'Adam of Yetzirah,' formed man.

וברכה שניה נגד חוה בחי' תושבע"פ. ולכן נתוסף בה תיבת את. אשר יצר את האדם.[56]

And the second blessing corresponds to Eve, the level of the Oral Torah. Therefore the word "es" is added in it: "Who formed es ha'adam."

> The second blessing corresponds to Eve, the Oral Torah. That is why it adds the word 'es' ('Who formed es ha'adam').

את פי' בחי' אותיות מא' ועד תי"ו שהאותיות הן מבחי' עלמא דאתגליא כי האותיות הן גילוי השכל.[57]

"Es" means the level of the letters, from alef to tav, for the letters are of the level of the revealed world, since the letters are the revelation of the intellect.

> 'Es' (spelled alef-tav) stands for all the letters from alef to tav. Letters belong to the revealed world, because they reveal and express the intellect.

16 והיינו גילוי חכמה תתאה שהיא בחי' גילוי לחכמה עלאה תושב"כ כנ"ל והוא גילוי אחר גילוי שהח"ע הוא גילוי חומר הראשון ההיולי כנ"ל.

That is, the revelation of lower Chochmah, which is the level of revelation of supernal Chochmah, the Written Torah, as explained above; and it is a revelation after a revelation, for supernal Chochmah is the revelation of the primordial hylic matter, as explained above.

> Lower Chochmah (the Oral Torah) reveals supernal Chochmah (the Written Torah), which itself reveals the formless potential. So the Oral Torah is a second revelation built on the first.

וזהו בצלמו בצלם דמות תבניתו.[58] כי צלם לשון ציור וגלוי וכפל בצלמו בצלם. פי' גילוי אחר גילוי.

And this is "in His image, in the image of the likeness of His form." For "image" is a term of form and revelation, and the doubling, "in His image, in the image," means revelation after revelation.

> This explains the blessing's wording 'in His image, in the image of the likeness of His form.' 'Image' (tzelem) means form and revelation, and its doubling indicates revelation upon revelation.

גילוי הראשון להיות אור א"ס בחכמ' עלאה בבחי' יביע ואח"כ גילוי חכמה תתאה והיא היא דמות תבניתו דהיינו בחי' עלמא דאתגלי'[59] ממש.

The first revelation is that the Infinite Light be in supernal Chochmah in the manner of "pours forth"; and afterwards [comes] the revelation of lower Chochmah, and it is "the likeness of His form," that is, the level of the actual revealed world.

> The first revelation is the Infinite Light welling up in supernal Chochmah ('pours forth'); the second is lower Chochmah, 'the likeness of His form,' which is the fully revealed world.

17 והתקין לו ממנו בנין עדי עד[60] שבחי' עלמא דאתגלי' אע"פ שרגלי' יורדות[61] כו' מ"מ איננה דבר נפרד ח"ו

"And prepared for him from himself an everlasting edifice": the revealed world, even though "her feet go down," etc., nevertheless is not a separate thing, heaven forbid,

> The blessing continues 'and prepared for him from himself an everlasting edifice' (Eve built from Adam's own side). The revealed world descends far, as the verse says of the woman, 'her feet go down,' yet it is not separate from its source.

אלא והתקין לו ממנו בעצמו כי גילוי חכמה תתאה הוא גילוי הארת אור א"ס ב"ה עצמה שבחכ' עלאה but rather "and prepared for him from himself" — from himself; for the revelation of lower Chochmah is the revelation of the radiance of the Infinite Light itself, blessed be He, that is in supernal Chochmah.

> 'From himself': lower Chochmah is the very light of the Infinite that was in supernal Chochmah, now revealed.

אלא לפי שבה נפרטו ונתחלקו בבחי' רבוי המדרגות בדרך פרט מה שהיו כלולים בח"ע בהעלם בדרך כלל

Only, since in it there were particularized and divided, in a multitude of levels, in particular form, what had been included in supernal Chochmah in concealment, in general form,

> What was included in general and hidden form in supernal Chochmah is spelled out in lower Chochmah into many distinct levels.

הנה האור שבה הוא מצומצם ומלובש בכמה מיני צמצומים והתלבשות שונות כדי להאיר ולהתגלות בכל מדרגה ומדרגה לפי מה שהיא להיות המדרגות ההם נראים ונגלים ולא יתבטלו במציאות.

the light in it is contracted and enclothed in many kinds of contractions and various enclothings, in order to shine and be revealed in each and every level according to what it is, so that those levels be seen and revealed and not be nullified out of existence.

> So the light there is contracted and enclothed in many garments, so that each level receives it according to its capacity and can exist as a visible level, rather than being nullified out of existence by overwhelming light.

18 וכ"כ נתצמצם האור ונתמעט עד שירד מדרגה אחר מדרגה בסתר המדרגות שהלבוש מסתיר ומכסה על האור ההוא ונעשה מקור לעלמא דפרודא להיות משם יפרד כו'.

And the light was contracted and diminished so much, until it descended level after level into the hiddenness of the levels, where the garment hides and covers that light, and it became a source for the world of separation, that "from there it divides," etc.

> The light contracted so far, level after level, that the 'garment' fully conceals it; this became the source of the 'world of separation,' where things feel separate from G-d.

אבל עיקר צמצום האור הוא כדי שיהיה בנין העולמות שלא יתבטלו במציאות וזהו בנין עדי עד

But the main purpose of the contraction of the light is that there be the edifice of the worlds, that they not be nullified out of existence; and this is "an everlasting edifice,"

> But the main purpose of the contraction is positive: to allow the worlds to exist as a stable 'edifice' rather than dissolve in G-d's light. This is the 'everlasting edifice.'

דהיינו להיות לעדי עד ימלוך[62] להיות מדת מלכותו עדי עד למעלה עד אין קץ ולמטה עד אין תכלית.

that is, that "He shall reign forever and ever": that the attribute of His sovereignty be forever, above without end and below without limit.

> 'Everlasting' points to G-d's sovereignty, which requires existing subjects, being eternal, extending without end above and without limit below.

19 והיא התגלות מלכותו בבחי' א"ס ממש רק שכדי שיהי' גילוי א"ס ב"ה בבחי' מלכותו הוצרך להיות בחי' בנין.

And this is the revelation of His sovereignty in the level of the actual Infinite; only, in order that there be a revelation of the Infinite One, blessed be He, in the level of His sovereignty, there had to be the level of an edifice,

> This sovereignty is the revelation of the Infinite itself. But for the Infinite to be revealed as King, an 'edifice,' a structured world, was needed.

דהיינו להיות הסתר האור וצמצומו והתלבשותו בכמה מיני לבושין עד שיאיר ויתגלה אור זה בבחי' זו דוקא.

that is, the concealment of the light, its contraction and its enclothing in many kinds of garments, until this light shines and is revealed in this level specifically.

> That means concealing and contracting the light in many garments, until it can shine at this specific level of sovereignty.

כי אור א"ס מצד עצמו כשמו כן הוא אין לו סוף כו' ולאו מכל מדות כלל[63]

For the Infinite Light in itself is as its name: it has no end, etc., and is not of any of the attributes at all,

> In itself, the Infinite Light is truly without end and beyond all attributes, as the Tikkunei Zohar says.

כמ"ש במ"א ואפי' אור א"ס שבח"ע הוא בבחי' צמצום ולבוש שח"ע נק' בשם לבוש לאור א"ס כו'.

as explained elsewhere; and even the Infinite Light that is in supernal Chochmah is in a state of contraction and garment, for supernal Chochmah is called a garment for the Infinite Light, etc.

> Even the Infinite Light in supernal Chochmah is already contracted, for Chochmah is called a 'garment' for the Infinite Light.

20 וכל מה שירד האור ונתגלה גילוי אחר גילוי ירידה היא זו. ומיעוט האור והתלבשותו וירידה זו היא כדי שיאיר אור א"ס ב"ה גם במדרגות התחתונות.

And to whatever extent the light descended and was revealed, revelation after revelation, this is a descent. And this diminution of the light and its enclothing, and this descent, are so that the Infinite Light, blessed be He, shine also in the lower levels.

> Each successive revelation is a descent, a diminishing and enclothing of the light, whose purpose is that the Infinite Light should shine even in the lowest levels.

כי נתאוה הקב"ה להיות לו דירה בתחתונים[64, 65] ואי"כ תכלית המכוון מבחי' מלכותו להחיות עולמות נפרדים אינה להיות נפרד ח"ו רק אדרבה להיות בנין עדי עד כי והתקין לו ממנו כו' כנ"ל:

For the Holy One, blessed be He, desired to have a dwelling place among the lower realms; and if so, the ultimate intent of His sovereignty in giving life to separate worlds is not that they be separate, heaven forbid, but on the contrary, that there be "an everlasting edifice," for "and prepared for him from himself," etc., as explained above.

> For G-d desired a 'dwelling place among the lower realms' (the Midrash's statement of the purpose of creation). So His sovereignty over separate worlds is not meant to separate them from Him but to build an 'everlasting edifice' that is 'from Himself.'

SECTION 7 • ¶21–23

Torah study: elixir of life or death

21 אך הנה ארז"ל זכה נעשה לו סם חיים[66] כו' דבזכותא תליא מילתא ואחר כוונת הלב של העוסק בתורה נאמרו הדברים

However, our Sages, of blessed memory, said, "If he merits, it becomes for him an elixir of life," etc. — for the matter depends on merit, and the words were said with regard to the intention of the heart of the one who occupies himself with Torah.

> Now the 'seal' is applied to Torah study. The Talmud says the Torah can be an elixir of life to one who 'merits' and an elixir of death to one who does not. Which it becomes depends on the inner intention of the learner.

כי לפי שעוסק בתושבע"פ שהיא חכמה תתאה שירדה לעלמא דפרודא ונתלבשה בדברי' גשמיי' שהם מהע' שרים שנתלבשה בהם ברבוי השתלשלות המדרגות ליתן בהם כח וממשלה על הדברים הגשמיים ההם והדבר הגשמי שעוסק בו

For since he occupies himself with the Oral Torah, which is lower Chochmah, which descended into the world of separation and enclothed itself in physical things, which are from the seventy princes, in which it enclothed itself through the great chain of descent of the levels, to give them power and dominion over those physical things — and the physical thing with which he occupies himself,

> The Oral Torah is 'lower Chochmah,' which descended into the world of separation and enclothed itself in physical matters (the objects and cases the laws deal with). These physical things come under the seventy angelic 'princes' who govern the nations and the natural world.

שהוא תחת ממשלת השרים הוא המסתיר ומכסה על קדושת אור א"ס הנמשך מחכמה עלאה ומתלבש בחכמה תתאה לכך יכול להמשיך את האדם ולהורידו ולהפילו למטה בל יראה גאות[67] ה' והוד מעטה לבושו which is under the dominion of the princes, is what hides and covers the holiness of the Infinite Light that is drawn from supernal Chochmah and enclothed in lower Chochmah — therefore it can draw a person and bring him down and make him fall below, so that "he not see the majesty of G-d" and the splendor of the mantle of His garment,

> The physical subject matter conceals the holiness of G-d's light within the law. So it can pull the learner down, so that he no longer perceives G-d's majesty clothed in it.

שהוא התלבשות אור א"ס ב"ה הנמשך ומתלבש בחכמה תתאה בפסק הלכה הערוכה בדברים הגשמיים ההם. כי דבר ה' זו הלכה[68] והיא חכמתו ורצונו כו'.

which is the enclothing of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, that is drawn down and enclothed in lower Chochmah, in the ruling of the law as it is set forth concerning those physical things. For "the word of G-d" — this is halachah, and it is His wisdom and His will, etc.

> Yet what is clothed there is the Infinite Light itself, expressed in the practical ruling; the Talmud says 'the word of G-d' is halachah, which is G-d's wisdom and will.

22 ולכך לא זכה ונמשך אחר עלמא דפרודא וגורם להפריד עלמא דאתגלי' היא חכמה תתאה ממקורה ושרשה היא ח"ע ונותן יד וממשלה להיות שליטה ואחיזה לקליפות וס"א שיהי' יניקתם ואחיזתי' מעיקר הקדושה[69] כו'

Therefore, [if] he did not merit and is drawn after the world of separation, he causes the separation of the revealed world, which is lower Chochmah, from its source and root, which is supernal Chochmah; and he gives a hand and dominion for there to be rule and a hold for the kelipos and the sitra achra, so that their nurture and hold be from the essence of holiness, etc.,

> One who does not 'merit' and is drawn after the world of separation causes a split between the revealed world, lower Chochmah, and its root in supernal Chochmah. This gives the kelipos (forces of concealment) a hold on the very core of holiness.

ולא מן השמרים ופסולת אשר ניתן להם כדי חיותם מלמעלה מחכמה תתאה היא מלכותו ית' בהתלבשות' בהשרי' כו' and not from the dregs and waste that were given to them for their life-force from above, from lower Chochmah, which is His sovereignty, may He be blessed, in its enclothing in the princes, etc.,

> Normally they receive only the 'dregs and waste' allotted to them from above, from lower Chochmah, G-d's sovereignty as it is clothed in the angelic princes.

דרך ירידת והשתלשלות המדרגות מדרגה אחר מדרגה עד שירדה בסתר המדרגות שנמשך להם חיות מעט מן השמרים והפסולת דרך יניקת שערות וצפרנים מותרי השפע כו'.

by way of the descent and chain of the levels, level after level, until it descended into the hiddenness of the levels, so that a little life-force is drawn to them from the dregs and waste, by way of the nurture of hair and nails, the surplus of the flow, etc.

> That allotment reaches them only after a long descent through hidden levels, as a meager life-force from the surplus, like the 'hair and nails' described earlier.

כי מאחר שנמשך אחר גשמית הדברים שהן מהשרים כו' ומחשיב אותם ליש ועיקר הרי מעורר כך למעלה כביכול

For since he is drawn after the physicality of things, which are from the princes, etc., and regards them as something existing and primary, he thereby arouses the same above, as it were.

> But when a person is drawn after physicality and treats it as real and primary, he evokes the same response above, as it were: the separate existence of things is strengthened.

ולכך נעשה לו סם המות ממש שלוקח חיותו מהקליפות הנקרא מות ומשם נופל לו מחשבות רעות מהיכלות הקליפות וס"א להחזיק א"ע ליש ודבר במה שלומד כו'

And therefore it becomes for him an actual "elixir of death," for he takes his life-force from the kelipos, which are called death; and from there evil thoughts fall upon him from the chambers of the kelipos and sitra achra, to regard himself as something existing and significant through what he learns, etc.

> Then the Torah becomes an actual 'elixir of death': his vitality comes from the kelipos, called 'death,' and from them come thoughts of self-importance about his own learning.

[ועי' ביומא ד' ע"ב ב' ע"פ וזאת התורה אשר שם משה זכה[70] כו' ובזוהר ר"פ חקת בענין וזאת ועי' בפ' בהר דף ק"י ע"ב[71] בענין ועשה טוב כו'

[And see Yoma 72b, on "And this is the Torah that Moses placed": "If he merits," etc.; and in the Zohar at the beginning of Parshas Chukas, on the matter of "And this"; and see Parshas Behar, folio 110b, on the matter of "And do good," etc.;

> A bracketed reference: the Talmud's statement in Yoma, the Zohar on 'And this is the Torah' at the start of Chukas, and the Zohar in Behar on 'Do good' treat the same theme.

ע"ש] וזהו האומר אין לי אלא תורה[72] כו' שאומר אין לי לעצמי מפני שהוא בבחי' לא זכה ורוצה להיות לעצמו יש ודבר נפרד.

see there.] And this is "one who says, 'I have nothing but Torah,'" etc.: that he says "I have" for himself, because he is in the state of "did not merit" and wants to be, for himself, something existing and a separate thing.

> The Talmud says 'one who says I have nothing but Torah' does not even have Torah. The Alter Rebbe reads this as one who learns for himself, to be 'something' in his own right, the mark of 'not meriting.'

23 ולכן אפי' תורה אין לו שהתורה היא נשפעת ונמשכת במקום קדושה דוקא כי אין אור א"ס שורה

Therefore "even Torah he does not have," for the Torah is bestowed and drawn down specifically in a place of holiness, for the Infinite Light rests

> So such a person 'does not even have Torah': the Torah's light flows only into a place of holiness.

אלא במי שבטל[73] כו' והיינו סטרא דקדושה ולכן כל השפעת הקדושה היא ממנה ולזולתה דהיינו שאינו רוצה לעצמו only on one who is nullified, etc.; and this is the side of holiness. Therefore all the bestowal of holiness is from itself and to another, that is, one does not want [it] for oneself.

> G-d's light rests only on one who is nullified (bittul) before Him. Holiness by nature gives to others and seeks nothing for itself.

משא"כ סטרא דקליפה הרי כל טיבו דעבדין[74] לגרמייהו[75] וכו' ולכן אי על דואג ואחיתופל[76] דלא מסקי שמעתתא אליבא דהלכתא

This is not so with the side of kelipah, for "all the good that they do, they do for themselves," etc. Therefore it is said of Doeg and Achitophel that they did not bring their learning to accord with the halachah, > Kelipah, by contrast, does everything for itself. The Talmud says Doeg and Achitophel, great scholars in their day, never arrived at the correct halachah in their learning.

אבל בדהע"ה כתי' והי' עמו שהלכה כמותו[77] בכ"מ[78] והיינו לפי שהמשכת התורה היא דוקא במקום קדושה ואחר כוונת הלב של העוסק בתורה.

but of David, king of Israel, peace be upon him, it is written, "And G-d was with him" — that the halachah follows him in every place. And this is because the drawing down of the Torah is specifically in a place of holiness, and according to the intention of the heart of the one who occupies himself with Torah.

> Of King David, 'G-d was with him,' which the Talmud reads as 'the halachah follows him everywhere.' The Torah's light flows to the learner according to his holiness and inner intention.

כי כפי מה שהוא באתעדל"ת. כך מעורר למעלה שיערה עליו רוח ממרום[79] באתעדל"ע אם זכה ומדבק א"ע באור א"ס הנמשך בתורה

For according to how he is in the arousal from below, so he arouses above, that "a spirit from on high be poured upon him" in an arousal from above — if he merits and cleaves to the Infinite Light that is drawn down in the Torah,

> As a person's 'arousal from below' (his own effort and intent), so is the 'arousal from above': if he cleaves to the Infinite Light in the Torah, a 'spirit from on high' is poured upon him.

וכמ"ש וכל בניך למודי[80] ה'. דהיינו שיהא לימוד הלכה זו מפני שהיא דבר ה' כו'.

as it is written, "And all your children shall be taught of G-d"; that is, that his learning of this halachah be because it is the word of G-d, etc.

> This is 'All your children will be taught of G-d': learning the law because it is the word of G-d.

אך הכח הזה להיות המשכת אור א"ס שבתורה בקדושה דוקא הוא הוא מבחי' החותם שלמעלה

But this power, that the drawing down of the Infinite Light that is in the Torah be specifically in holiness, is from the level of the seal above,

> The power that keeps the Torah's light within holiness comes from the 'seal' above.

וכמ"ש חתום תורה בלימודי[81] שפי' בלימודי להיות למודי ה' דוקא וחותם זה הוא המפריד הקליפות שלא יינקו מעיקר הקדושה ח"ו כנ"ל.

as it is written, "Seal the Torah among My disciples" — the meaning of "among My disciples" being that they be "taught of G-d" specifically; and this seal is what separates the kelipos, so that they not draw from the essence of holiness, heaven forbid, as explained above.

> The verse 'seal the Torah among My disciples' means the Torah is sealed for those who are 'taught of G-d.' This seal keeps the kelipos from drawing on the core of holiness.

ולכן אנו חותמין בברוך שלא יהיה יניקה ואחיזה לקליפות ע"י לא זכה כי גם חותם זה באתעדל"ת תליא מילתא.[82,83]

Therefore we seal with "Baruch," so that there be no nurture or hold for the kelipos through "did not merit"; for this seal too depends on the arousal from below.

> This is why a long blessing ends with 'Baruch': to prevent the kelipos from gaining a hold through learning without merit. Yet this seal too depends on the person's own arousal from below.

SECTION 8 • ¶24–30

The two hearts and the seal in prayer

24 והנה מבקשי ה' יבינו כל שכמו שהוא לענין תורה כך כיוצא בזה הוא לענין עבודת הלב באהוי"ר כו'.

Now, those who seek G-d will understand that just as it is with regard to Torah, so, similarly, it is with regard to the service of the heart, in love and awe, etc.

> The same applies to prayer, the 'service of the heart,' with love and awe: here too there is a seal.

כי הנה בי[84] בחינות יש בלב דהיינו פנימיות הלב וחיצוניותו. בחי' פנימית הלב היא התלהטות והתלהבות האהבה לה' בשמחה וטוב לבב מרוב כל[85]

For there are two levels in the heart: the inner dimension of the heart and its outer dimension. The level of the inner dimension of the heart is the blazing and flaming of love for G-d, with joy and gladness of heart, more than anything,

> The heart has an inner and an outer dimension. The inner dimension is a blazing love for G-d, with joy and gladness of heart 'more than anything' (the Torah's phrase for serving G-d joyfully).

שהיא שמחת הנפש האלקית המשכלת ומתבוננת באור א"ס ב"ה מקור חוצבה ושרשה שהיתה כלולה במאצילה ב"ה טרם ירידתה לעוה"ז.

which is the joy of the G-dly soul, which intellectually grasps and contemplates the Infinite Light, blessed be He, the source from which it was hewn and its root, in which it was included in its Emanator, blessed be He, before its descent into this world.

> This is the joy of the G-dly soul, which contemplates the Infinite Light, the source from which it was 'hewn,' where it was included before it descended into this world.

25 וגם עתה כן הוא כל חפצה וכל ישעה להתענג על ה' הוא אור א"ס ב"ה ממש אהבה בתענוגים[86] בגילוי אוא"ס ב"ה בחכמה שבנפש כח מ"ה כו'.

And now, too, it is so: all its desire and all its delight is to delight in G-d, that is, the actual Infinite Light, blessed be He — love in delights, in the revelation of the Infinite Light, blessed be He, in the Chochmah that is in the soul, the koach mah, etc.

> Even now in the body, the G-dly soul desires only to delight in G-d Himself, 'love in delights,' through the revelation of the Infinite Light in the soul's Chochmah, which Chassidus reads as koach mah, the 'power of what,' i.e., the capacity for selflessness.

ואיזהו חכם הרואה את הנולד[87] מאין כו' שאין העולם מעלים ומסתיר על אור א"ס ב"ה שאינו בגדר עלמין כלל וכולא קמי' כלא[88] וכאין ממש.[89]

"Who is wise? One who sees what is born" — from nothing, etc.; for the world does not conceal and hide the Infinite Light, blessed be He, which is not within the category of worlds at all, and all before Him is as nothing and truly as naught.

> 'Who is wise? One who sees what is born' is read as seeing everything being born from nothing. To such a person the world does not hide G-d, since everything is as nothing before Him.

26 ואי לזאת תהי' דביקות הנפש בשרשה באלקי' חיים בהתכללות ויחוד עצום כמו שהיתה כלולה ומיוחדת טרם ירידתה וע"ז נאמר יום ליום יביע[90] כמעיין הנובע ממקורו שמתאחד עמו

And therefore there will be a cleaving of the soul to its root in the living G-d, in a tremendous inclusion and unity, as it was included and united before its descent; and of this it is said, "Day to day pours forth," like a spring that flows from its source and is united with it.

> As a result, the soul cleaves to its root in the living G-d, as united as it was before it descended. This is 'Day to day pours forth,' a spring still one with its source.

ומזה תהי' שמחת הנפש בה' עושה הוא אור א"ס ב"ה השורה ומתגלה בחכמה ותהי' השמחה גדולה לאלהים

And from this will come the soul's rejoicing in G-d its Maker, that is, the Infinite Light, blessed be He, which rests and is revealed in Chochmah; and the joy will be great, for G-d,

> From this comes the soul's joy in its Maker, the Infinite Light revealed in Chochmah, a great joy directed to G-d.

בהתלהבות והתלהטות הנפש מחמת קרבת ה' הטוב לה[91] ובשמחתה לא יתערב זר[92] ח"ו כי אין בנמצא שמחה זו כמוה וכדוגמתה בזה לעו"ז כלל.

with the flaming and blazing of the soul because of the nearness of G-d, which is good for it; "and in its joy no stranger shares," heaven forbid, for there exists no joy like it or resembling it [on the other side,] "one corresponding to the other," at all.

> The soul blazes with the closeness of G-d that is 'good for it.' 'No stranger shares in its joy': the forces of evil have no part in it, for no worldly joy resembles it.

שהיא מבחי' יחידה שבנפש שאינה מלובשת כלל בלבושי הגוף והנפש הבהמית רק שתתמלא הנפש אורה ושמחה להי' לבדו.

For it is from the level of yechidah in the soul, which is not enclothed at all in the garments of the body and the animal soul; rather, the soul is filled with light and joy for G-d alone.

> It comes from the yechidah, the soul's innermost essence, which is not clothed in the body or the animal soul, so it is filled with light and joy for G-d alone.

27 וזוהי מדת יום ואור כמ"ש יום ליום יביע. אבל חיצוניות הלב היא מדת לילה וחשך שיש בו העלם והסתר מלבושי הגוף ונה"ב שמנוגה שמלבישים את הנפש.

And this is the quality of day and light, as it is written, "Day to day pours forth." But the outer dimension of the heart is the quality of night and darkness, in which there is concealment and hiding from the garments of the body and the animal soul, which is from nogah, which clothe the soul.

> The inner love is 'day and light,' like the spring one with its source. The outer dimension of the heart is 'night and darkness': there the soul is clothed in the body and the animal soul, which stem from kelipas nogah (the 'glowing husk,' the realm that mixes good and evil), and these garments conceal G-d.

וכמו שהמדות שבנפש אלקית אהוי"ר כו' כך הם בזה לעו"ז כי אהבה זו היא מבחי' יחודא תתאה שנראה העולם ליש כו'

And just as [there are] the emotive attributes in the G-dly soul, love and awe, etc., so they are [also], "one corresponding to the other"; for this love is from the level of the lower unity, in which the world appears as something existing, etc.,

> Parallel to the G-dly soul's love and awe there are corresponding emotions in the outer heart. This outer love belongs to the 'lower unity,' a perspective in which the world seems to exist in its own right, and G-d is sensed as giving it life from within.

מחמת התלבשות אור א"ס בהשתלשלות וירידת המדרגות עד שנעשה עוה"ז הגשמי כו' ולכן צריך מלחמה ולאם מלאם יאמץ[93] ואלמלא הקב"ה[94] כו' because of the enclothing of the Infinite Light in the chain of descent and the descent of the levels, until this physical world came to be, etc. Therefore war is needed, "and one nation shall be mightier than the other nation," and "were it not that the Holy One, blessed be He," etc.,

> This is because the Infinite Light is clothed in a long chain of descending levels down to the physical world. So this love requires a war between the two souls ('one nation shall be mightier than the other'), which, as the Talmud says, one could not win without G-d's help.

שיש בכח נפשו לעורר את האהבה עד שתחפץ להתפשט מלבושי' לפי שבאמת אינה דבר נפרד כו' רק היחוד הוא מבחי' יחו"ת כו' for it is in the power of his soul to arouse the love until it desires to divest itself of its garments, because in truth it is not a separate thing, etc.; only, the unity is of the level of the lower unity, etc.

> Still, the soul has the power to arouse love so strongly that it wants to shed its garments, since it is not truly separate from G-d; its unity is simply of the 'lower' kind.

(ועמ"ש ע"פ שיר השירים בענין ב' בחי' כלה משם יובן מ"ש כאן ועיין עוד מ"ש ע"פ צאנה וראנה[95] בענין שאו ידיכם כו') וע"ז התפלל דהע"ה יחד לבבי.[96]

(And see what is explained on "Shir HaShirim," on the matter of the two levels of "kallah"; from there what is said here will be understood. And see further what is explained on "Tze'enah u're'enah," on the matter of "Lift up your hands," etc.) And for this David, king of Israel, peace be upon him, prayed, "Unite my heart."

> The Alter Rebbe refers to other discourses in Likkutei Torah on Song of Songs. For the unity of the two dimensions of the heart King David prayed, 'Unite my heart.'

כי אע"פ שהם שני לבבות מדת יום ומדת לילה אינן נפרדים בעצמותן ח"ו רק מדת הלילה היא בחי' גילוי לעצמיות המדה

For even though they are two hearts, the quality of day and the quality of night, they are not separate in their essence, heaven forbid; only, the quality of night is the level of revelation of the essence of the attribute,

> The two 'hearts,' day and night, are not separate in essence. The 'night' is the way the essential 'day' love becomes revealed.

שהיא מדת יום כדי שתבא בבחי' גילוי בפו"מ מהעלם ומצפוני בינת הלב לידי גילוי הלב בפו"מ שיהא הלב כלי ומשכן להשראת אהבה זו.[97] which is the quality of day, so that it come into revelation in actual fact, from the concealment and hidden recesses of the understanding of the heart into the revelation of the heart in actual fact, so that the heart be a vessel and dwelling place for the indwelling of this love.

> The 'night' brings that love out of the hidden depths of the heart's understanding into actual, felt emotion, so that the physical heart becomes a vessel and dwelling for it.

28 וכן אהבה עליונה הבאה מלמעלה מן השתלשלות בחי' אהבה בתענוגים[98] מבחי' יחודא עילאה תהיה בגילוי הנפש באהבת הלב המלובשת בגוף ונפש הבהמית

So too, the supernal love that comes from above the chain of descent, the level of love in delights, from the level of the higher unity, is to be revealed in the soul in the love of the heart that is enclothed in the body and the animal soul,

> Likewise, the highest love, 'love in delights,' which comes from above the chain of worlds and the 'higher unity' (where the world is nothing before G-d), is meant to be revealed in the heart's love as it is clothed in body and animal soul.

שהיא האהבה מיחודא תתאה ואין גילוי המדה דבר נפרד מעצמיות המדה רק והתקין לו ממנו[99] כו'.

which is the love from the lower unity; and the revelation of the attribute is not a thing separate from the essence of the attribute, but rather "and prepared for him from himself," etc.

> That love of the heart is the love of the 'lower unity.' The revealed emotion is not separate from its essence; as the wedding blessing says, it is fashioned 'from himself.'

אלא שא"א שתבא בחי' אהבה עליונה לידי גלוי רק ע"י מדת לילה וחשך שהוא צמצום

Only, it is impossible for the level of supernal love to come to revelation except through the quality of night and darkness, which is the contraction

> But the higher love can only become revealed through 'night and darkness,' the contraction of the light.

האור והתלבשותו בירידתו מדרגה אחר מדרגה עד שקנה שם לעצמו מדת לילה ויחו"ת ונראה כאלו הוא דבר נפרד לכן התפלל יחד לבבי[100] כו'.

of the light and its enclothing in its descent, level after level, until it acquired for itself the name "the quality of night" and "the lower unity," and it appears as if it were a separate thing. Therefore he prayed, "Unite my heart," etc.

> The light contracts as it descends step by step until it is called 'night' and the 'lower unity,' and seems separate. That is why David prayed, 'Unite my heart.'

29 והנה בגילוי המדות מאחר שנרא' כאלו הוא נפרד ויש שם התלבשות הגוף ונפש הבהמית שמנוגה המעלימים ומסתירים כו'

Now, in the revelation of the attributes, since it appears as if it is separate, and there is there the enclothing of the body and the animal soul, which is from nogah, which conceal and hide, etc.,

> Revealed emotions seem separate and are clothed in the body and animal soul, which conceal G-d.

לכך יש אחיזה לקליפות וסט"א להתאחז ולינק מעיקר הקדושה ח"ו ולזאת צ"ל המשכת החותם דהיינו להיות המשכה וברכה עליונה להפריד הקליפות ושלא תהיינה גילוי המדות כי אם ליחודו ג"כ וכמ"ש יחד לבבי.[101] therefore the kelipos and the sitra achra have a hold, to take hold and draw from the essence of holiness, heaven forbid. And for this there must be the drawing down of the seal, that is, that there be a supernal drawing-down and blessing to separate the kelipos, and that the revelation of the attributes be only for His unity as well, as it is written, "Unite my heart."

> Because of this, the kelipos can latch on to them and draw on the core of holiness. So here too a 'seal' is needed: a blessing drawn from above that keeps the kelipos out, so that even revealed emotions serve only G-d's unity: 'Unite my heart.'

30 וחות"ם אותיות תחו"ם כלומר עד פה תבא ולא תוסיף[102] שלא תהיה תוספת חיות יותר משיעור המוגבל כו'

And chosam (seal) has the letters of techum (boundary); that is to say, "Thus far you shall come, and no further" — that there be no addition of life-force beyond the limited measure, etc.,

> The word chosam ('seal') has the same letters as techum ('boundary'). A seal sets a limit, like 'thus far you shall come and no further': the other side may receive no more life-force than its fixed measure.

דהיינו שלא יוסיף האדם תת כחו וכל יגיעתו לנפשו הבהמית רק כמ"ש יגיע כפיך[103] כו' וכמ"ש במ"א.

that is, that a person not add to giving his strength and all his toil to his animal soul, but only as it is written, "The toil of your hands," etc., and as explained elsewhere.

> In practice, a person should not devote more strength and effort to his animal soul than necessary: 'the toil of your hands,' only the hands, not one's whole heart and mind.

ובזה מעורר למעלה באתעדל"ת שלא יומשך להם אלא מותרי שפע שערות וצפרנים כו' וכמאן דשדי בתר כתפוי[104] כו' שאינו נותן מרצונו הטוב דרך אהבה וחיבה רק

And by this he arouses above, through the arousal from below, that there be drawn to them only the surplus of the flow, hair and nails, etc., and "like one who throws [it] over his shoulder," etc., who does not give of his good will, by way of love and affection, but only

> By limiting himself below, he causes a limit above: the kelipos receive only the 'surplus,' like hair and nails, given reluctantly, 'as one throws something over his shoulder' to an enemy, not with love.

כמ"ש ואת עשו שנאתי[105] וכ"ז באתעדל"ת תליא מלתא. והכח לאתעדל"ת זו שיהא תלוי בזה אתעדל"ע הוא מבחי' חותם הנ"ל:

as it is written, "And Esau I hated." And all this depends on the arousal from below. And the power for this arousal from below — that the arousal from above should depend on it — is from the level of the seal explained above.

> As in 'And Esau I hated.' All this depends on the person's arousal from below, and the power for that arousal to evoke a response from above comes from the 'seal.'

IN ONE'S AVODAH

Study Torah as G-d's word, not for self-importance: the same learning becomes an elixir of life or of death according to one's intention. In prayer, draw the inner love of the G-dly soul into the felt emotions of the heart ('Unite my heart'), and set a boundary on what one gives the animal soul, giving material needs only 'the toil of your hands,' so that the forces of evil receive only the bare surplus.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why were blessings unnecessary in First Temple times, and what does the word 'Baruch' do according to the maamar?
2. How does the analogy of seed and fetus explain the difference between the hidden and revealed worlds, and where does 'waste' come from?
3. Why does a long blessing need a 'seal,' and how is it like the seal on a letter?
4. In what sense are the Written and Oral Torah like Adam and Eve, and what does 'from himself' teach about the revealed world?
5. How do the ideas of the seal and the boundary (chosam/techum) apply to Torah study and to the love of G-d in prayer?

For the children at the table

The opening and the seal of a blessing

THE BIG IDEA

When we say "Baruch" we draw G-d's hidden light down into the world, and the closing "Baruch" seals it so that it stays holy.

In the time of the First Beis HaMikdash, faith in G-d shone openly in the Jewish people, almost as if they could see it. Later, when souls were not on so high a level, the Men of the Great Assembly set the blessings we say. The word "Baruch" means "drawn down": each blessing brings G-d's light down to us, first as "our G-d," close to each Jew, and then as "King of the world." We have the power to do this because G-d "sanctified us with His mitzvos," and a mitzvah joins us to Him. Some blessings are short and only open with "Baruch." Long blessings also end with "Baruch," called the "seal." A long blessing speaks about the world in all its many details, and where things spread out into details, holiness needs protection so that it is not used for the wrong things. The same is true of Torah learning: when we learn it as G-d's word, not to feel important, it gives life. In prayer too, the love of G-d that we feel deep inside should come out into our heart and our actions, and stay pure.

THE MASHAL

A person who writes a letter puts a seal on the outside so that no stranger can open it and read what is inside. The closing "Baruch" of a blessing is like that seal: it keeps the light that was drawn down for holiness alone.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. Why does a long blessing need a "seal" at its end when a short one does not?
2. The maamar says "Baruch" means "drawn down." What is being drawn down when we say a brachah?
3. Which brachah will you say more slowly this week, thinking that you are drawing G-d's light into the world?

5 דמזליה חזי

The Talmud says that even when a person does not see, 'his mazal sees'; the soul's root above perceives what the person below does not.

Megillah 3a:13–14 מגילה ג' א:י"ג-י"ד

וְכִי מַאַחַר דְּלָא חָזוֹ, מַאי טַעְמָא אִיבְּעִיתוּ? אַף עַל גַּב דְּאִינְהוּ לָא חָזוֹ, מַזָּלַיְיהוּ חָזוֹ. אָמַר רָבִינָא: שְׁמַע מִינַּהּ: הַאי מַאן דְּמִיבְּעִית, אַף עַל גַּב דְּאִיהוּ לָא חָזֵי, מַזָּלֵיהּ חָזֵי. מַאי תַּקַּנְתֵּיהּ? לִיקְרֵי קְרִיאַת שְׁמַע. וְאִי קָאִים בְּמָקוֹם הַטָּנוֹפֶת — לִינָּשׁוֹף מִדּוּכְתֵּיהּ אַרְבַּע גַּרְמִידֵי. וְאִי לָא — לֵימָא הָכִי: "עֵיזָא דְּבֵי טַבָּחֵי שַׁמִּינָא מִינַּאי".

But if they did not see, why were they frightened? Although they themselves did not see, their star saw. Ravina said: We learn from this that if a man is seized with fright though he sees nothing, [the reason is that] his star sees. What is his remedy? He should recite the Shema. If he is in a place which is foul, he should move away from it four cubits. If he cannot do this, he should say this formula: "The goat at the butcher's is fatter than I am."

יבל הוא היה אבי יושב אהל ומקנה

"Yaval — he was the father of those who dwell in tents"

Every ascent to a higher level comes through "song," the nullification of one's existing self, as a seed must rot before it sprouts. Yuval with his harp is that song; Yaval, "father of tent-dwellers and cattle," is its source, an encompassing light beyond division that can be drawn down even into the lowest things.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar reads the verses about Lamech's sons, Yaval and Yuval, through the Mishnah "all that have a shir go out with the shir," taking shir as "song." Song is bittul, the nullification of one's "something": nothing rises to a new level unless it first becomes "nothing," like a seed that must decompose before it grows. Souls and angels ascend from one comprehension to a greater one only by setting aside the first; this is the "pillar" joining the lower and higher Gardens of Eden, and the reason song accompanied the Temple sacrifices. Nullification has grades — a single song of bare self-effacement, and double, triple and quadruple songs blended with love, awe and compassion — illustrated by the pillar's colors, the four winds and the sun's daily circuit. Yuval, "the one who conveys," is this song that carries upward. Yaval is its source: the "tent" G-d set for the sun, an encompassing light in which everything blends and which, having no above and below, reaches even to "cattle," as Jacob, who dwelt in tents, drew that lofty level into his shepherding.

OUTLINE

1 Song as the way of ascent ¶1–2

"All that have song go out with song": every ascent requires nullifying one's existing self and comprehension, like a seed that rots before it grows; this is the pillar between the Gardens of Eden and the song at the sacrifices.

2 Grades of song ¶3

Single, double, triple and quadruple song: bare nullification, or nullification blended with love, awe and more, illustrated by the pillar's colors, the four winds and the sun's path.

3 Yuval: the harp that carries upward ¶4

Yuval, from "conveying," is song, which carries the soul upward.

4 Yaval: the tent and the cattle ¶5

The "tent" is an encompassing light, the source of nullification; being beyond division, it reaches down even to "cattle," as with Jacob the tent-dweller who became a shepherd.

KEY CONCEPTS

Song שיר

In this maamar, the self-nullification by which a soul or angel leaves its present level and rises to a higher one.

Nullification of the "something" ביטול היש

Setting aside one's existing self and understanding; a new, greater "something" can come only from a state of "nothing."

The pillar in the Garden of Eden עמוד שבין ג"ע התחתון לג"ע העליון

The Zohar's pillar by which souls rise from the lower to the higher Garden of Eden; here it is the state of nullification itself.

Single, double, triple and quadruple song שיר פשוט, כפול, משולש, מרובע

Grades of nullification: bare self-effacement, or self-effacement blended with one, two or more emotions such as love, awe and compassion.

Encompassing light מקיף

Light that surrounds rather than enters, symbolized by the "tent"; it is above division, blends everything, and so can be drawn even to the lowest levels.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–2

Song as the way of ascent

1 יבל הוא[1,2] היה אבי[3] יושב אהל ומקנה. ושם אחיו יובל הוא היה אבי כל תופש כנור ועוגב. הנה ארז"ל כל בעלי השיר יוצאין בשיר[4] כו'.

"Yaval — he was the father of those who dwell in tents and [keep] cattle. And his brother's name was Yuval; he was the father of all who handle the harp and the pipe." Now, our Sages, of blessed memory, said: "All that possess song (shir) go out with song," etc.

> The maamar opens with the verses about Lamech's sons: Yaval, "father of those who dwell in tents and [keep] cattle," and his brother Yuval, "father of all who handle the harp and pipe." It then cites a Mishnah on which animals may go out on Shabbos, "all that have a shir go out with the shir": in the Mishnah a shir is a chain collar, but the Alter Rebbe reads the word in its other sense, "song."

פי' שכל בחי' העלאה ממהות למהות כמו מג"ע התחתון לג"ע העליון וכדומה הוא ע"י השיר

The meaning: every elevation from one state of being to another — such as from the lower Garden of Eden to the higher Garden of Eden, and the like — is through song,

> He explains: every ascent from one level of existence to a higher one — for instance, a soul's rise from the lower Garden of Eden to the higher Garden of Eden — takes place through "song."

שהוא בחי' בטול היש וכנודע שלא יוכל להתהוות מיש ליש[5] אא"כ נעשה היש תחילה בחי' אין אז יוכל להתהוות ממנו יש אחר בתוס' ברכה.

which is the level of the nullification of the "something" (bittul hayesh). As is known, a "something" cannot come into being from a "something" unless the "something" first becomes a state of "nothing"; then another "something" can come into being from it, with added blessing.

> Song is the nullification of one's "something" — one's own existence and self-awareness. A general rule: nothing new comes from a thing while it remains what it is; it must first become "nothing," and then a new, greater existence can emerge from it.

כמשל הגרעין הנזרע בארץ שצריך להיות נרקב בארץ[6] ואח"כ יכול לצמוח מזה הרבה גרעיני'.

It is like the seed sown in the ground, which must rot in the ground, and afterward many seeds can grow from it.

> A seed planted in the ground illustrates this: it must first decompose and lose its form, and only then can a plant bearing many seeds grow from it.

2 וכמו"כ למעלה בנשמות ומלאכים כדי שיהיה לו עלייה בתוספת השגה צריך מקודם להיות בבחי' בטול היש והשגה ראשונה[7] שהיה לו

So too above, in souls and angels: in order for one to have an ascent with added comprehension, he must first be in a state of nullification of his "something" and of the first comprehension he had,

> The same rule holds for souls and angels above: to rise to a greater comprehension of G-dliness, one must first set aside one's own existence and the comprehension one already had.

ואח"כ יוכל לעלות השגה יותר גדולה וזהו בחי' עמוד שבין ג"ע התחתון לג"ע העליון[8,9] הוא בחי' בטול כנ"ל and afterward he can rise to a greater comprehension. And this is the level of the pillar between the lower Garden of Eden and the higher Garden of Eden: it is the level of nullification, as mentioned above.

> Only then can one attain a greater understanding. This is the meaning of the "pillar" that, in the Zohar, joins the lower and higher Gardens of Eden: the pillar by which souls ascend is the state of nullification.

וזהו כל בעלי השיר יוצאין בהשגתם ונמשכים לעלות למעלה ע"י השיר ולכן בשעת הקרבת הקרבן היה צריך להיות ג"כ שיר[10]

And this is [the meaning of] "All that possess song go out": in their comprehension, and are drawn to rise upward through song. Therefore at the time the sacrifice was offered there also had to be song,

> So "all that have song go out" — they go beyond their present comprehension — "and are drawn" upward through song. This is why song accompanied the offering of sacrifices in the Temple.

כי ענין הקרבנות הוא העלאה ממטה למעלה אשה ריח ניחוח וצריך לזה ג"כ בחי' שיר בחי' בטול כנ"ל שיוכל להתעלות:[11] for the matter of the sacrifices is an elevation from below to above, "a fire-offering, a pleasing fragrance"; and for this, too, there must be the level of song, the level of nullification, as mentioned above, so that it can be elevated.

> A sacrifice is an elevation from below to above ("a fire-offering, a pleasing fragrance"), and elevation requires song, that is, nullification.

SECTION 2 • ¶3

Grades of song

3 והנה יש שיר פשוט ושיר כפול[12] וכנודע שבהעמוד יש ג׳ גוונים[13] חיור וסומק שהוא בחי׳ חו״ג וירוק בחי׳ התכללות כו׳. כי הנה בבחי׳ בטול יש הרבה מדרגות.

Now, there is a single song and a double song. As is known, in the pillar there are three colors: white and red, which are Chesed and Gevurah, and green, the level of integration, etc. For within the level of nullification there are many levels.

> Nullification has many levels, and so does song. The Alter Rebbe distinguishes a "single" and a "double" song, recalling that the pillar in the Garden of Eden has three colors: white (Chesed, kindness), red (Gevurah, restraint), and green, which blends them.

יש בחי׳ בטול פשוט נקודה אחת בחי׳ יו״ד ויש בחי׳ בטול שנכלל בזה גם מדות בחי׳ אהבה או יראה וכו׳ וכן בחיצוניות המדות שהן חו״ג יש התכללות ג״כ חסד שבגבורה

There is a level of simple nullification, a single point, the level of Yud; and there is a level of nullification in which emotive attributes are also included — the level of love or awe, etc. And so too in the outer dimension of the emotive attributes, which are Chesed and Gevurah, there is also integration: Chesed within Gevurah,

> The simplest nullification is a single "point," like the letter Yud: bare self-effacement. A fuller nullification includes an emotion as well, such as love or awe. Even the outward expressions of kindness and restraint can be blended, with kindness contained within severity.

כמו המכה את בנו שהוא בחי׳ גבורה ונכלל בזה בחי׳ חסד ואהבה שמחמת אהבה רצונו להדריכו בדרך הישר ולכן מכה דייקא בנו ולא אחר כי את אשר יאהב יוכיח[14].

like one who strikes his son, which is the level of Gevurah, and within it is included the level of Chesed and love: out of love he wishes to guide him in the straight path, and therefore he strikes specifically his son and not another, "for whom He loves He rebukes."

> A father who strikes his son acts with severity, but out of love, to set him on the right path; that is why he strikes his own son and not another's child. As Proverbs says, "whom He loves He rebukes."

וכשהבטול הוא בטול פשוט נקרא שיר פשוט וכשיש בזה עוד מדה אחת אהבה או יראה

When the nullification is simple nullification, it is called a single song; and when there is in it one more attribute, love or awe > Bare nullification is a "single song." Above it is nullification joined with one emotion, love or awe.

(עמ"ש בפי' הזהר פ' קרח[15] ע"פ קרואי מועד)[16,17] נקרא שיר כפול וכשיש התכללות המדות (אהוי"ר גם שניהם בהבטול) נק' שיר משולש ועד"ז יש ג"כ שיר מרובע[18]

(see what is explained on the Zohar, Parshas Korach, on the verse "called to the assembly"), it is called a double song; and when there is an integration of the attributes (love and awe, both of them together in the nullification), it is called a triple song; and in the same way there is also a quadruple song

> Nullification joined with one emotion is a "double song." When love and awe are both joined in the nullification, it is a "triple song," and likewise there can be a "quadruple song." The parenthesis refers to the Alter Rebbe's explanation of the Zohar on Korach's men "called to the assembly."

(עמ"ש בענין תכלת וארגמן ותולעת שני ושש[19] משזר שהן התכללות ד' בחי' יחד אהוי"ר ורחמנות ובחי' שש הוא האהבה מוסתרת כו')[20]

(see what is explained on the matter of the blue wool, purple wool, scarlet wool and twisted linen (shesh), which are the integration of four levels together: love, awe and compassion, and the level of shesh is the hidden love, etc.),

> The four materials of the Tabernacle's tapestries — blue, purple and scarlet wool and twisted linen — stand for four blended qualities: love, awe, compassion, and shesh, the hidden love (the innate love every Jewish soul has for G-d).

כי כארבע רוחות[21,22] השמים פרשתי אתכם[23] שהוא התכללות מצפון לדרום ע"י הרוח המנשב מצפון לדרום for "As the four winds of the heavens I have spread you out," which is the integration from north to south through the wind that blows from north to south,

> The quadruple blending is like Zechariah's "four winds of heaven": a wind blowing from north to south blends the qualities of those two directions.

וכן ממזרח למערב כו' (ולפעמים יש התכללות כל הד' בחי' מזרח מערב צפון ודרום ע"י הרוח המנשב כך כו') and likewise from east to west, etc. (and sometimes there is an integration of all four levels — east, west, north and south — through the wind blowing thus, etc.).

> A wind from east to west does the same; sometimes a wind blends all four directions together.

וזהו ג"כ ענין הליכת השמש ממזרח למערב הוא ג"כ ענין בטול והוא בחי' נפש שבשמש

This is also the matter of the sun's movement from east to west: it too is a matter of nullification, and it is the level of the soul within the sun,

> The sun's daily path from east to west is also an expression of nullification. It comes from the "soul" of the sun, its awareness of its Creator.

שהוא בחי' השגתהומחמת זה גוף השמש הולך תמיד בגשמיות בבחי' בטול (כמבואר בענין שמש בגבעון דום[24] כו' בדרוש דחרבות צורים).[25,26] which is its comprehension; and because of this the body of the sun moves constantly, physically, in a state of nullification (as explained regarding "Sun, stand still in Givon," etc., in the discourse on "Knives of flint").

> Because of this awareness the sun's physical body moves constantly in self-nullification. The Alter Rebbe refers to his discourse on "Knives of flint," where the sun's standing still at Givon is explained.

ויש בזה ב' דעות בהליכתה אם הוא מצד אהבה ותשוקה או מצד בטול הפשוט. ובאמת יש לפעמים בטול פשוט ולפעמים יש בזה ג"כ בחי' אהבה כנ"ל

There are two views about its movement: whether it is out of love and longing or out of simple nullification. In truth, sometimes there is simple nullification and sometimes there is also the level of love in it, as mentioned above

> There are two views on what drives the sun's movement: love and longing, or bare nullification. In truth both occur: sometimes simple nullification, sometimes nullification with love.

(וז"ש וזרח השמש[27,28] כו' הולך אל דרום וסובב אל צפון[29] כו' וכדפי' ע"ז בזהר ר"פ ויצא שהוא להיות בחי' התכללות ד' בחי' מזרח ומערב צו"ד כו' וזרח ובא הן מזרח ומערב):

(and this is [the meaning of] "And the sun rises," etc., "goes toward the south and circles toward the north," etc., as the Zohar explains on this at the beginning of Parshas Vayetzei, that it is so that there be the integration of the four levels — east and west, north and south, etc.; and "rises" and "sets" are east and west).

> Ecclesiastes describes the sun rising and setting (east and west) and going south and circling north. The Zohar at the beginning of Vayetzei explains that this circuit blends all four directions — a "quadruple song."

SECTION 3 • ¶4

Yuval: the harp that carries upward

4 וזהו ענין יובל אבי כל תופש כנור[30] כו' פי' יובל לשון הולכה שמוביל וממשיך למעלה ע"י כנור ועוגב בחי' שיר כנ"ל שע"י השיר הוא העלייה יוצאין בשיר[31] כו'.

And this is the meaning of "Yuval, the father of all who handle the harp," etc. The meaning: Yuval is a term of conveying, for he conveys and draws upward through the harp and the pipe, the level of song mentioned above; for through song there is the ascent — "they go out with song," etc.

> Now the verse about Yuval is explained. The name Yuval is related to hovalah, "conveying" (movil, "he carries"): he carries and draws the soul upward through the harp and pipe — through song, nullification. This is the ascent of "they go out with song."

SECTION 4 • ¶5

Yaval: the tent and the cattle

5 ויבל הוא היה אבי יושב אהל[32] ומקנה[33] כי כתיב לשמש שם אהל בהם[34] פי' כדי שיהיה להשמש בחי' זו שיהיה לה בחי' בטול ותשוקה[35] הוא ע"י אהל בהם.

"And Yaval was the father of those who dwell in tents and [keep] cattle": for it is written, "For the sun He set a tent in them." The meaning: in order that the sun have this quality — that it have nullification and longing — this is through "a tent in them."

> Yaval, the other brother, represents the source of that nullification. The Psalmist says G-d "set a tent for the sun in them": the sun's nullification and longing, described above, come from this "tent."

אהל הוא בבחי' מקיף מלמעלה נמשך הארה זו שתהיה תמיד בבחי' בטול[36] וזהו בחי' יבל לשון ויבל לחמורים[37] שהוא ענין בלבול ותערובות

A tent is in the manner of an encompassing [light]: from above this radiance is drawn so that it be constantly in a state of nullification. And this is the level of Yaval, from the term "and he gave fodder (vayavel) to the donkeys," which is a matter of mixing and blending.

> A tent surrounds whatever is within it, so it represents an encompassing light (makif) from above, which keeps the sun constantly in nullification. The name Yaval recalls "he gave fodder (vayavel) to the donkeys" — mixed fodder — and so means blending and mixing.

פי' שהיא הארה מבחי' מקיף ששם הוא בלי התחלקות ויוכל להתערב הכל שיומשך הארה גם למטה שיוכל להיות אח"כ בחי' יובל אבי כל תופש כנור שהוא בחי' בטול כנ"ל

The meaning: it is a radiance from the level of the encompassing [light], where there is no division and everything can be blended, so that the radiance be drawn also below, so that afterward there can be the level of "Yuval, the father of all who handle the harp," which is the level of nullification, as mentioned above.

> An encompassing light is above all divisions, so everything can be "blended" in it, and its radiance can reach even below. This makes possible the next stage, Yuval and his harp — the nullification of song.

וזהו אבי יושב אהל ומקנה שבחי' אהל הוא בחי' מקיף כנ"ל ולכן יוכל להיות גם למקנה להמשיך למטה

And this is [the meaning of] "the father of those who dwell in tents and [keep] cattle": the level of "tent" is the level of the encompassing [light], as mentioned above, and therefore it can also be for cattle — to draw down below

> So Yaval is "father of those who dwell in tents" — the encompassing light — and for that very reason he can also be "father of cattle," drawing that light down into the lowest things.

(כי המקיף אין בו מעלה ומטה כמ"ש ומתחת זרועות עולם)[38] כמו יעקב שהיה רועה צאן מקל לבנה לח[39,40] כוי

(for the encompassing [light] has no above and below, as it is written, "and beneath are the everlasting arms"). Like Jacob, who was a shepherd of sheep — "a rod of fresh poplar," etc.

> An encompassing light has no "above" and "below"; it surrounds everything equally, as in "beneath are the everlasting arms," so it can reach down too. Jacob is the example: he shepherded flocks using rods of fresh poplar and other woods.

(התכללות חג"ת ע' זהר ויצא) שאדם אחר רועה צאן הוא רועה בגשמיות משא"כ יעקב שהיה יושב אהלים המשיך מבחי' מקיפים להיות רועה צאן

(the integration of Chesed, Gevurah and Tiferes; see the Zohar, Vayetzei). For another man who is a shepherd of sheep is a shepherd in a physical way; but Jacob, who was one who "dwelt in tents," drew down from the level of the encompassing lights to be a shepherd of sheep.

> The Zohar sees these rods as a blend of Chesed, Gevurah and Tiferes. An ordinary shepherd tends sheep in a purely physical way; but Jacob, who "dwelt in tents" — connected to the encompassing lights — drew from that lofty level into his shepherding.

וזהו יושב אהל ומקנה כנ"ל[41] (ועמ"ש מענין יובל בפ' שלח ע"פ מקושש[42, 43] ועיין עוד מענין מקנה בפ' ויצא ע"פ ושש שנים בצאנך[44, 45] כו' וע"פ ואלה המשפטים[46, 47] כו'):[48, 49]

And this is [the meaning of] "dwell in tents and [keep] cattle," as mentioned above. (And see what is explained about Yuval in Parshas Shelach, on the verse "gathering [wood]," and see further about "cattle" in Parshas Vayetzei, on the verse "and six years for your flock," etc., and on the verse "And these are the ordinances," etc.)

> This is "dwell in tents and [keep] cattle." The closing parenthesis refers to other discourses: on Yuval (Parshas Shelach, on the man "gathering wood"), and on "cattle" (Vayetzei, "six years for your flock," and Mishpatim, "And these are the ordinances").

IN ONE'S AVODAH

To grow in understanding and closeness to G-d, a person must be ready to set aside his present self and even his previous grasp of G-dliness, as a seed must rot before it sprouts; this nullification, which may be bare or filled with love and awe, is the "song" that lifts him higher. And like Jacob, who dwelt in tents yet tended flocks, one can bring that lofty level down into ordinary, practical work.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why must a "something" first become "nothing" before a greater "something" can come from it? How does the seed illustrate this?
2. How can giving up a comprehension one already has lead to a greater one? What does this suggest about learning Chassidus?
3. What distinguishes a single song from a double, triple or quadruple song, and what does the father who strikes his son teach about blended attributes?
4. Why does the sun serve as an example of nullification, and what are the two views of its motion?
5. How does the "tent," an encompassing light, make it possible to reach down to "cattle," and how did Jacob exemplify this?

For the children at the table

Rising higher through song

THE BIG IDEA

To grow closer to G-d we must first set aside what we already are, and this humble setting aside is the "song" that lifts us higher.

The Torah tells of two brothers: Yaval, "the father of those who dwell in tents and keep cattle," and Yuval, "the father of all who play the harp and the pipe." The maamar explains them with a teaching of our Sages: "All that have song go out with song." Here "song" (shir) means bittul, setting ourselves aside before G-d. Nothing can rise to a new, higher level while it holds on to what it already is. Even souls and angels, to understand G-d more deeply, must first let go of their earlier understanding. That is why the Levi'im sang when an offering was brought in the Beis HaMikdash: an offering goes up, and going up needs song. Some song is plain humility; some is joined with love of G-d, or with awe, or with both. Yuval, whose name means "one who carries," is this song that carries a person upward. Yaval is its source: the "tent," a light that surrounds everything and is not divided into high and low. Because of this, it can reach even the "cattle," the plainest things, just as Yaakov, who "dwelt in tents," brought that holiness into his work as a shepherd.

THE MASHAL

A seed planted in the ground must first rot and stop being a seed. Only then does a new plant grow from it, with many more seeds than before. So too a person must first set aside their old self to grow into something greater.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. Why must something let go of what it already is before it can rise higher?
2. What does the seed in the ground teach us about growing in our learning and our Yiddishkeit?
3. How can you bring the feeling of davening or learning into an ordinary job this week, the way Yaakov did as a shepherd?

Go Forth and Gaze

Prayer, the "service of the heart," is G-d's "joy of heart," gathering the soul's powers upward as blood returns to the heart; but the Torah, clothed in physical mitzvos, is His "wedding," for like a seed it draws a truly new light from the Infinite essence, above the whole order of creation.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The Mishnah reads "the day of his wedding" as the giving of the Torah and "the day of the joy of his heart" as the building of the Temple. The maamar explains why. Prayer, instituted in place of the offerings, is the service of the heart, so the Temple is G-d's "joy of heart." The Community of Israel is G-d's "heart": as blood circulates from the heart to the limbs and back, prayer (Pesukei deZimra and Shema) gathers all one's powers upward into love of G-d, while the Amidah, Torah and mitzvos carry that life outward into every limb and deed; above, Malchus likewise descends at night and ascends from midnight. A sin is a wound that blocks this circulation; teshuvah, and also Torah, both of which preceded the world, heal it by drawing a new light from above the chain of worlds. The giving of the Torah is a "wedding" because, like a physical seed that carries the father's essence, Torah clothed in physical deeds draws a truly new light from the Infinite essence, beyond the kav. Hence souls "go forth" into this world, and the new light brings peace, uniting opposites — "the King to Whom peace belongs."

OUTLINE

1 The question ¶1

Why is the giving of the Torah a "wedding" and the Temple "the joy of His heart"? Prayer, in place of the offerings, is the service of the heart.

2 Israel as G-d's heart: the circulation of life ¶2–8

As blood flows from the heart to the limbs and back, prayer gathers the soul's powers upward (Pesukei deZimra, Shema, rooted in Divine Thought above time and space), and the Amidah, Torah and mitzvos draw life outward; Malchus above descends and ascends likewise.

3 Illness and healing: sin and teshuvah ¶9–12

Daily deeds for Heaven keep the circulation healthy; a sin is a wound that blocks it; teshuvah, which preceded the world, heals it with a new light, and confession repairs the wound.

4 Torah as the "wedding": a new light ¶13–16

Torah too heals; like a physical seed carrying the essence of the father, Torah clothed in physical deeds draws a truly new light from the Infinite essence, above the kav — seen in the repeated offerings of the princes.

5 "Go forth" and "the King to Whom peace belongs" ¶17–18

Souls go forth from Gan Eden to this world, where alone the new light is drawn; this light unites opposites, as Malchus rooted in Keser joins the worlds, and all peace flows from the Malchus of the Infinite.

KEY CONCEPTS

Service of the heart עבודה שבלב

Prayer, which replaces the Temple offerings; it is G-d's "joy of heart," the ascent of the soul's love to Him.

Ratzo and shov רצוא ושוב

The ascent of the soul's powers toward G-d (Pesukei deZimra and Shema) and the return that draws Divine life down (Amidah, Torah and mitzvos), like blood flowing to the heart and back out to the limbs.

Divine Thought מחשבה עלאה

The level of Chochmah and Binah, above speech and the attributes, where all time is included in a single glance; the level of "Havayah our G-d" and of sovev kol almin.

Teshuvah תשובה

Return to G-d "with all your might," which preceded the world and so draws a new light from above creation, healing the soul's wounds.

New light אור חדש

Light drawn from the essence of the Infinite Light, above the vacated space and the kav through which the chain of worlds unfolds; drawn through Torah clothed in physical deeds.

The King to Whom peace belongs מלך שהשלום שלו

G-d as the Malchus of the Infinite, source of the peace that unites opposites such as giver and receiver, fire and water, Atzilus and Beriah.

SECTION 1 • ¶1

The question

1 (שה״ש ג) צאינה וראינה[1,2] וגו׳. ביום חתונתו זה[3] מתן תורה וביום שמחת לבו זה בנין בהמ״ק.

(Song of Songs 3) "Go forth and gaze," etc. "On the day of his wedding" — this is the giving of the Torah; "and on the day of the joy of his heart" — this is the building of the Holy Temple.

> The maamar opens with a verse from the Song of Songs about King Solomon crowned "on the day of his wedding and on the day of the joy of his heart." The Mishnah reads the verse as an allegory of G-d and Israel: the "wedding" is the giving of the Torah at Sinai, and the "joy of his heart" is the building of the Holy Temple.

להבין למה נמשל מ״ת ליום חתונתו[4] ובנין בהמ״ק לשמחת לבו. והענין דתפלה הוא במקום קרבנות[5]

[We need] to understand why the giving of the Torah is likened to "the day of his wedding," and the building of the Holy Temple to "the joy of his heart." And the matter is that prayer is in place of the offerings.

> The question: why is the Torah compared specifically to a wedding, and the Temple to joy of the heart? The answer begins from the Talmudic principle that our prayers were instituted in place of the Temple offerings.

והנה תפלה נק׳ עבודה שבלב כמ״ש בגמ׳ ע״פ ולעבדו בכל לבבכם[6] איזהו עבודה שבלב זו תפלה ולכן בהמ״ק שהוא מקום הקרבת הקרבנות נק׳ שמחת לבו שהרי הקרבנות הם כענין התפלה שנקרא עבודה שבלב

Now, prayer is called "the service of the heart," as is stated in the Gemara on the verse "and to serve Him with all your heart": "What is the service of the heart? This is prayer." Therefore the Holy Temple, which is the place where the offerings were brought, is called "the joy of his heart," for the offerings are like prayer, which is called the service of the heart.

> The Talmud calls prayer "the service of the heart." Since the offerings were the Temple's form of that same service, the Temple, where they were brought, is fittingly called G-d's "joy of heart."

ולכן גם עכשיו התפלה בכוונה ובפרט בצבור בבהכ״נ הנקרא מקדש מעט[7,8] היא בחי׳ שמחת לבו כביכול.[9]

And therefore even now, prayer with intention, and especially [prayer] with the congregation in the synagogue, which is called a "minor Sanctuary," is the aspect of "the joy of His heart," as it were.

> It follows that even today, when there is no Temple, heartfelt prayer — especially communal prayer in a synagogue, which the Sages call a "minor Sanctuary" — brings G-d, as it were, the "joy of His heart."

SECTION 2 • ¶2–8

Israel as G-d's heart: the circulation of life

2 והענין דהנה כתיב לבבתני[10] אחותי כלה[11] שכנס״י נק׳ לב דהנה עד״מ הלב[12] באדם ששופע החיות לכל האברים

And the matter is: it is written, "You have captured My heart, My sister, [My] bride" — for the Community of Israel is called "heart." For by way of analogy, the heart in a person pours forth life-force to all the limbs,

> To explain "the joy of His heart," the Alter Rebbe cites G-d's words to Israel, "You have captured My heart, My sister, My bride." The Community of Israel is called G-d's "heart." To understand this, he turns to the role of the heart in the human body.

דכל הדמים הולכים מן הלב ויוצאים לכל האברים דרך הגידים והעורקים עד סיום כל הגוף כמו גם בציפורני הרגל מגיע חיות הדם שהוא הנפש כידוע.

for all the blood goes from the heart and goes out to all the limbs through the sinews and the arteries, to the extremity of the whole body, so that even in the toenails the life-force of the blood, which is the soul, arrives, as is known.

> The heart sends life to every limb through the blood vessels, reaching even the tips of the toes. The Torah says "the blood is the soul," so the blood carries the soul's life-force throughout the body.

3 והנה כל הדמים שיצאו מהלב לכל האברים הם חוזרים ושבים ללכת אל הלב והיינו שיש בלב ב׳ חללים שבחלל אחד בו מתקבצים הדמים העולים מהאברים אל הלב ויוצאים דרך חלל הב׳.[13]

Now, all the blood that went out from the heart to all the limbs returns and goes back to the heart. That is, there are two chambers in the heart: in one chamber the blood rising from the limbs to the heart is gathered, and it goes out through the second chamber.

> The blood does not just flow outward; it circulates back to the heart. The heart has two chambers: one gathers the returning blood, and from the other the blood is sent out again.

וגם הדם שנתהווה מהמאכלים והמשקים עולה אל הלב ואח״כ יוצא מהלב לכל האברים. וה״ז כדמיון כל הנחלים הולכים אל הים

And also the blood that is formed from food and drink rises to the heart and afterwards goes out from the heart to all the limbs. And this is like "all the rivers go to the sea,"

> New blood made from food and drink also goes first to the heart and only then out to the body. The pattern resembles Ecclesiastes' description of the rivers flowing into the sea…

ואח"כ חוזר חלילה ויוצאים המים מהים אל הנהרות ע"י גידי הארץ כו' ולכן הים איננו מלא[14] כו'.

and afterwards it goes round again, and the water goes out from the sea to the rivers through the veins of the earth, etc.; and therefore "the sea is not full," etc.

> ...and returning to their sources through underground channels, so that "the sea is never full." Both images describe a continual cycle of ascent to a center and return outward.

4 והנה כמו"כ בעבודה שבלב זו תפלה שאז זמן העלאה והתקשרות האהבה של הניצוץ האלקי בהקב"ה ואתערותא זאת בלב הוא דוקא כמ"ש ואהבת כו'

Now, similarly in the service of the heart, which is prayer — for then is the time of the ascent and binding of the love of the Divine spark to the Holy One, blessed be He, and this arousal is specifically in the heart, as it is written, "And you shall love," etc.,

> Prayer is the soul's "ascent": the time when the G-dly spark within a person rises and binds itself to G-d in love. This love is felt specifically in the heart, as the Torah commands, "You shall love G-d... with all your heart."

בכל לבבך[15] והי"ז כמו קבוץ הדמים מהאברים אל הלב וזהו שמע ישראל[16] שמע לי' אסיפה וקבוץ לבחי' ע' רבתי הוא כללות השבע מדות.

"with all your heart" — this is like the gathering of the blood from the limbs to the heart. And this is [the meaning of] "Hear (Shema), O Israel": shema is an expression of assembling and gathering, to the level of the large ayin, which is the general and collective expression of the seven emotive attributes.

> Gathering all one's energies into love of G-d in prayer is like the blood flowing back from the limbs to the heart. The word Shema ("Hear") also means "gather." Its ayin is written large in the Torah; the ayin, numerically 70, stands for the seven emotional attributes (each composed of ten), all gathered together.

5 ואהבה זו נמשכת ונולדה ע"י התבוננות בפסוד"ז ובשמע ישראל. ופי' שמע ישראל ה' אלקינו הוא בחי' יחוד חו"ב שנקרא בזוהר פ' חיי שרה[17] מחשבה ויובלא.[18]

And this love is drawn forth and born through contemplation in the Verses of Praise (Pesukei deZimra) and in "Hear, O Israel." And the meaning of "Hear, O Israel, G-d is our G-d" is the level of the union of Chochmah and Binah, which in the Zohar, Parshas Chayei Sarah, is called "Thought" and "Jubilee."

> Love of G-d is born from contemplation during the Verses of Praise and the Shema. "G-d is our G-d" in the Shema refers to the union of Chochmah and Binah, the two intellectual Sefiros, which the Zohar calls "Thought" and "Jubilee."

והענין ע״ד מ״ש בזהר דבמחשבה[19] אי׳ ברא כל העולמות והוא כענין צופה ומביט עד סוף כל הדורות[20] בסקירה אחת כי מה שנמשך ונתהווה בחי׳ זמן עבר הוה ועתיד זהו מקורו ושרשו ממדות עליונות[21]

And the matter is along the lines of what is said in the Zohar, that with one thought He created all the worlds; and this is like [the idea that] He sees and looks to the end of all the generations with a single glance. For what is drawn forth and comes into being as the dimension of time — past, present and future — has its source and root in the supernal emotive attributes,

> The Zohar says G-d created all the worlds with one thought; the Rosh Hashanah liturgy speaks of G-d surveying all generations "in a single glance." Time — past, present and future — originates only on the level of the Divine emotional attributes…

וכמ״ש אלף שנים בעיניך[22] כיום אתמול וששת ימ״ב שרשן מששה מדות הנ״ל ועל ידי שנמשכו המדות בדבור ומתחלקים לחלקים נעשה מכל מדה אלף שנים ומתחלקים עוד לר״ח וימים ושעות וכו׳.

as it is written, "For a thousand years in Your eyes are like yesterday"; and the six days of Creation are rooted in the six attributes mentioned above. And through the attributes being drawn forth into speech and divided into parts, each attribute became a thousand years, and they are further divided into new months and days and hours, etc.

> …as the psalm says, a thousand years are for G-d "like yesterday": each of the six attributes that underlie the six days of Creation becomes, when expressed through Divine "speech," a thousand years, subdivided further into months, days and hours.

אבל בבחי׳ המחשבה עלאה שלמעלה מהדבור ואפי׳ מהמדות דהיינו קודם שנולדו ונמשכו בחי׳ מדות שם נכלל הכל בסקירה א׳.

But on the level of the supernal Thought, which is above speech and even above the attributes — that is, before the attributes were born and drawn forth — there everything is included in a single glance.

> But on the level of Divine "Thought," above speech and even above the attributes, there is no time: everything is contained together in one glance.

6 וזהו פי׳ הוי״ה אלקינו שהוא בחי׳ מחשבה כנ״ל. וישראל עלה במחשבה[23,24] לכן נאמר הוי״ה אלקינו. וכמו שהוא בבחי׳ זמן כך הוא בבחי׳ עולם ונפש כי עולם שנה נפש[25] הם.

And this is the meaning of "Havayah is our G-d": it is the level of Thought, as mentioned above. And Israel arose in Thought; therefore it says "Havayah is our G-d." And just as it is in the dimension of time, so it is in the dimension of space and soul, for they are "world, year, soul."

> "Havayah is our G-d" therefore refers to the level of Thought — and the Midrash says that Israel "arose in [G-d's] Thought" before Creation. This is why G-d on that level is called "our" G-d. And as with time, so with space and soul: Sefer Yetzirah describes all reality in three dimensions — "world" (space), "year" (time) and "soul."

7 וכיון שהוא למעלה מבחי׳ שנה כך בחי׳ מחשבה הנ״ל הוא למעלה מבחי׳ עולם והוא בחי׳ סוכ״ע. ואי לזאת יומשך ואהבת שיהי׳ הוי״ה אלקיך שיהי׳ גלוי בחי׳ סוכ״ע.

And since it is above the dimension of "year," so too the level of Thought mentioned above is above the dimension of "world," and it is the level of sovev kol almin. And accordingly, "And you shall love" will be drawn forth, so that Havayah will be "your G-d" — so that there will be a revelation of the level of sovev kol almin.

> Divine Thought, being above time, is also above space; it is sovev kol almin, the light that encompasses and transcends all worlds. The purpose of contemplating it in the Shema is that the love of "You shall love" will make this transcendent level "your G-d" — revealed within the person.

וענין פסוד״ז שלפני ק״ש היינו בהיות שעד ק״ש הוא בחי׳ העלאה לבא לבחי׳ בכל לבבך עד״מ העלאה וקבוץ הדמים מהאברים ללב ע״כ תקנו לומר מזמורים

And the matter of the Verses of Praise that precede the reading of the Shema: since up to the reading of the Shema is the aspect of ascent, to come to the level of "with all your heart" — by way of analogy, the ascent and gathering of the blood from the limbs to the heart — therefore they instituted the recitation of

> The Verses of Praise, recited before the Shema, belong to the stage of ascent that culminates in "with all your heart" — like blood returning from the limbs to the heart. That is why the Sages arranged them as they did…

מיוחדים שמזמור זה הוא העלאה מבחי' אברים אלו ומזמור שני העלאה מאברים אחרים וכמ"ש בכהאריז"ל[26] שמזמורים דהללוי' הן ע"ס דיצירה. שבמזמור זה הוא מלכות דיצירה.

specific psalms, so that this psalm is an ascent from the level of these limbs, and a second psalm an ascent from other limbs, as is written in the writings of the Arizal of blessed memory, that the Halleluyah psalms are the ten Sefiros of Yetzirah: this psalm is Malchus of Yetzirah,

> ...with each psalm raising a different "limb." The Arizal teaches that the final psalms beginning "Halleluyah" correspond to the ten Sefiros of the World of Yetzirah, each psalm to a particular Sefirah, beginning with Malchus.

8 ובמזמור שני נגד יסוד דיצירה כו' ע"ש. וכ"ז הוא בחי' רצוא והעלאה ואח"כ שמו"ע באי"י הוא בחי' שוב והמשכה.

and the second psalm corresponds to Yesod of Yetzirah, etc.; see there. And all this is the aspect of ratzo (running forth) and ascent; and afterwards the Shemoneh Esreh, in Atzilus, is the aspect of shov (return) and drawing-down.

> The next psalm corresponds to Yesod of Yetzirah, and so on. All of this is ratzo, "running" upward. Then the Amidah, which corresponds to the World of Atzilus, is shov, "returning": drawing Divine light back down.

וכן עסק התורה ומצות מעשיות והוא כמו שהדמים נמשכים מן הלב לכל הרמ"ח אברים ושס"ה גידים כך המצות נק' רמ"ח אברים דמלכא.[27,28]

And so too the engagement in Torah and practical mitzvos: just as the blood is drawn from the heart to all the 248 limbs and 365 sinews, so the mitzvos are called the 248 limbs of the King.

> Torah study and the practical mitzvos continue the "return," like blood flowing from the heart out to the 248 limbs and 365 sinews; indeed the 248 positive commandments are called the 248 "limbs of the King."

ומצוה בלא כוונה[29] כגוף בלא נשמה והכוונה הוא התפלה (כמ"ש במ"א ע"פ לא הביט און[30] ביעקב)[31] לכן זהו כמשל התפשטות והמשכת הדם מהלב לכל הרמ"ח אברים.

And a mitzvah without intention is like a body without a soul, and the intention is prayer (as is explained elsewhere on the verse "He has not beheld iniquity in Jacob"); therefore this is like the analogy of the spreading and drawing of the blood from the heart to all the 248 limbs.

> The Sages say a mitzvah without intention is like a body without a soul. The intention that animates the day's mitzvos comes from prayer, just as the heart animates the limbs with blood.

וכך יובן ג״כ למעלה כי גם בחי׳ המל׳ הנה בלילה יורדת לבי״ע וה״ז כמו ירידת הדם מהלב עד צפורני הרגלים וירידתה זו לברר רפ״ח ניצוצים

And so it can be understood also above: for the level of Malchus as well descends at night to Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah, and this is like the descent of the blood from the heart to the toenails; and this descent of hers is to refine the 288 sparks;

> The same cycle exists above. Malchus, the Divine "Community of Israel," descends each night into the lower worlds, like blood reaching the toes, in order to refine the 288 sparks of holiness that fell there in the breaking of the vessels.

ואח״כ מחצות לילה מתחלת לעלות והוא כמו שהדמים עולים אל הלב ועי״ז נמשך מהמוח ללב והוא ענין יחוד או״א וזו״נ בק״ש ותפלה כו׳.

and afterwards, from midnight on, she begins to ascend, and this is like the blood rising to the heart; and through this [light] is drawn from the brain to the heart, which is the union of Abba and Imma and of Z'eir Anpin and Nukva in the reading of the Shema and in prayer, etc.

> From midnight Malchus begins to rise again, like blood returning to the heart; and this ascent brings down a flow "from the brain to the heart" — the unions of the Divine configurations (Abba and Imma, Z'eir Anpin and Nukva) effected by the Shema and the prayers.

וזהו שכנס״י נק׳ לבי לבבתני אחותי כלה (ועמ״ש ע״פ ולבי ער כו׳ דופק כו׳ והי׳ פקד[32] כו׳) ועיין באגה״ק בסופו סי׳ ל״א ד״ה נודע בשערים מ״ש בתקונים:[33]

And this is why the Community of Israel is called "My heart": "You have captured My heart, My sister, [My] bride" (and see what is explained on the verse "and my heart is awake," etc., "knocks," etc., and "and G-d remembered," etc.). And see Iggeres HaKodesh, at its end, section 31, beginning "It is known in the gates," what is written in the Tikkunim.

> That is why the Community of Israel is called G-d's "heart": like a heart, it is the center through which Divine life circulates. The Alter Rebbe refers the reader to his other discourses and to Iggeres HaKodesh 31.

SECTION 3 • ¶9–12

Illness and healing: sin and teshuvah

9 והנה אנו רואים באדם שאם סיבוב והילוך רוח החיים מהלב אל האברים ומהאברים אל הלב הוא כהלכתו אזי האדם בריא בתכלי׳.

Now, we see in a person that if the circulation and flow of the spirit of life from the heart to the limbs and from the limbs to the heart is as it should be, then the person is perfectly healthy.

> The analogy continues: a person is healthy when the flow of life from the heart to the limbs and back is unobstructed.

אך אם יש איזה קלקול באיזהו מקומן כמו איזה אוטם ומכה באיזה אבר המונע ומעכב או ממעט סיבוב והילוך הדם

But if there is some damage in any of their places, such as some blockage or wound in some limb which prevents and holds back, or diminishes, the circulation and flow of the blood,

> If there is a blockage or a wound anywhere that obstructs or reduces the circulation of the blood…

אזי נפסק או מתמעט הקשר הלז המקשר כל האברים אל הלב ואזי נופל האדם למשכב וחולי ה״י וצריך רפואה.

then this bond that connects all the limbs to the heart is cut off or diminished, and then the person falls to his bed with illness, may G-d protect us, and needs healing.

> …the connection between the limbs and the heart is broken or weakened, and the person becomes ill and needs healing.

10 וכך הנמשל בעבודה כי עסק האדם כל היום הוא כמשל המשכת החיות מהלב אל האברים

And so it is in the analogue, in [divine] service: for a person's occupation all day long is like the analogy of the drawing of the life-force from the heart to the limbs,

> In service of G-d, a person's activity through the day is the outward flow from the "heart"…

דהיינו מהתפלה אל רמ״ח מ״ע רמ״ח אברים וגם לכל מעשה האדם ע״ד וכל מעשיך[34,35] יהיו לש״ש.

that is, from prayer to the 248 positive commandments, [the] 248 limbs, and also to all of a person's deeds, in the manner of "and let all your deeds be for the sake of Heaven."

> …carrying the love aroused in prayer into the 248 positive mitzvos, the "limbs," and into all of one's ordinary activities, as the Mishnah teaches, "Let all your deeds be for the sake of Heaven."

11 ולכן אם העסק בהיתר עד״ז יוכל למחר לחזור ולעלות מהאיברים אל הלב להיות ואהבת בכל לבבך

Therefore, if the occupation with permitted things is in this manner, he will be able on the morrow to return and ascend from the limbs to the heart, so that there be "And you shall love… with all your heart."

> If a person's dealings with permitted, everyday matters are carried out for the sake of Heaven, the "circulation" stays healthy: the next morning, in prayer, his energies can again gather back to the "heart" in love of G-d.

אבל אם נכשל באיזה עון ה״ז כמו מכה באיזה אבר[36] המונע ומעכב ההעלאה ונפסק הקשר

But if he stumbled in some sin, this is like a wound in some limb, which prevents and holds back the ascent, and the bond is cut off.

> A sin, however, is like a wound in one of the limbs: it blocks the return flow, and the bond between that part of the person and his love for G-d is cut.

וזהו חולי הנפש וע״ז אמר מכף רגל ועד ראש[37] אין בו מתום[38] פצע וחבורה כו׳ ואין תקנה כ״א ע״י תשובה שנקראת רפואה

And this is illness of the soul, and of this it is said, "From the sole of the foot to the head there is no soundness in it: wounds and bruises," etc. And there is no remedy except through teshuvah, which is called healing,

> This is spiritual illness, which Isaiah describes in the image of a body wounded from head to foot. The only cure is teshuvah (return to G-d), which the Sages call "healing."

כמארז״ל גדולה תשובה[39] שמביאה רפואה לעולם[40] והיא בחי׳ בכל מאדך שמבחי׳ זו נמשך רפואה אם ח״ו יש קלקול בבחי׳ אהבה דבכל לבבך.

as our Sages of blessed memory said, "Great is teshuvah, for it brings healing to the world." And it is the level of "with all your might," for from this level healing is drawn if, G-d forbid, there is damage in the level of the love of "with all your heart."

> The Talmud says teshuvah brings healing to the world. Teshuvah corresponds to "with all your might" (me'odecha), the love that goes beyond one's limits; from that level comes healing for a failure in the ordinary love of "with all your heart."

כי תשובה קדמה לעולם[41,42] פי' שממשיך אור מבחי' שלמעלה מכל החיות דהשתלשלות העולמות והיינו ע"י מאדך בחילא יתיר.

For teshuvah preceded the world; this means that it draws down light from a level that is above all the life-force of the chaining-down of the worlds — and this is through "your might," with greater strength.

> The Midrash says teshuvah preceded the creation of the world. This means it draws light from a level above the whole chain of worlds and their life-force. That is possible because teshuvah comes from "your might," with a greater strength than regular service.

12 ולכן ביכולת המשכה זו לתקן הפגם והקלקול שבסיבוב והילוך רוח החיות מהלב אל האברים שהוא בחי' האור וחיות המחי' עולם שנה נפש בחי' מל' מכ"ע שנק' לבי כנ"ל וכיון

Therefore this drawing-down is able to repair the blemish and the damage in the circulation and flow of the spirit of life from the heart to the limbs — which is the level of the light and life-force that gives life to "world, year, soul," the level of Malchus, memalei kol almin, which is called "My heart," as mentioned above. And since

> Because teshuvah draws from above the created order, it can repair a break in the ordinary "circulation" of Divine life. That circulation belongs to Malchus, the Divine light that fills the worlds and animates all of space, time and soul ("world, year, soul") — the level called "My heart."

שע"י תשובה נמשך בחי' ממעמקי' מגלה עמוקות[43] מה שהוא נמשך אור חדש ומחודש ע"כ חוזר ומחדש החיות כו' (ותקון המכה הוא ע"י הוידוי דברים[44] אשמנו בגדנו כו'):

through teshuvah the level of "from the depths" is drawn down — "He reveals deep things" — that is, a new and renewed light is drawn down, it therefore renews the life-force again, etc. (And the repair of the wound is through the verbal confession, "We have trespassed, we have betrayed," etc.)

> Teshuvah calls out "from the depths" to the G-d Who "reveals deep things": it draws a new, renewed light, and so it can restore life where it was cut off. The specific wound is repaired through verbal confession of one's sins ("We have trespassed, we have betrayed…").

SECTION 4 • ¶13–16

Torah as the “wedding”: a new light

13 והנה התורה נקי׳ ג״כ רפואה[45] לנפש כמ״ש ולכל בשרו מרפא[46] והיינו ג״כ משום דהתורה קדמה לעולם[47,48] שבה ועל ידה נמשך ג״כ אור חדש מלמעלה מהשתלשלות

Now, the Torah too is called healing for the soul, as it is written, “and healing to all his flesh.” And this too is because the Torah preceded the world, so that in it and through it, too, a new light is drawn from above the chaining-down.

> Torah, too, is called healing, as Proverbs says of its words, “healing to all his flesh.” The reason is similar: the Midrash says the Torah preceded the world, so through it, too, a new light is drawn from above the order of creation.

וזהו ביום חתונתו זו מ״ת פי׳ כי התפלה נקי׳ עבודה שבלב והוא ענין שמחת לבו ובלב הוא יסוד האש שהוא העלאה מלמטה למעלה

And this is [the meaning of] “On the day of his wedding — this is the giving of the Torah.” The explanation: prayer is called the service of the heart, and it is the matter of “the joy of his heart”; and in the heart is the element of fire, which is ascent from below to above;

> Now the maamar returns to its opening verse. Prayer, the service of the heart, is “the joy of His heart.” The heart is associated with the element of fire, which rises upward — an ascent from below.

אך יסוד המים הוא במוח ובו שורה כח התענוג שבנפש כי מים מגדלים כל מיני תענוג והתענוג הוא למעלה מהשמחה.

but the element of water is in the brain, and in it rests the soul’s power of delight, for water makes all kinds of delights grow; and delight is above joy.

> Water, however, is associated with the brain, the seat of the soul’s delight: water makes all delights grow. Delight is a deeper level than joy. The giving of the Torah, the “wedding,” belongs to this deeper level.

14 והנה עד״מ הטפה נמשכת מיסוד המים שבמוח ובה מתלבש מעצם השכל והתענוג שבנפש ולכן ע״י נעשה הולדה חדשה להוליד בדומה לו והיינו דוקא ע״י התלבשותה בטיפה גשמית

Now, by way of analogy, the drop is drawn from the element of water in the brain, and in it is clothed [something] of the very essence of the soul's intellect and delight; and therefore through it a new birth takes place, to beget one similar to himself — and this specifically through its being clothed in a physical drop,

> An analogy from human reproduction: the seed is drawn from the "water" of the brain and carries the very essence of the father's intellect and delight; that is why it can create a new being like him. It can do so only by being clothed in a physical drop.

משא״כ בדבור כו׳[49] כמו״כ ע״י התלבשות התורה בעשיי׳ גשמיות היום לעשותם[50] יומשך ע״י אור חדש ממש מאור א״ס ב״ה[51] מלמעלה מההשתלשלות.

which is not so with speech, etc. So too, through the Torah's being clothed in physical deeds — "today to do them" — a truly new light will be drawn through this from the Infinite Light, blessed be He, from above the chaining-down.

> Speech, though it too expresses a person, cannot give birth to a new being. Likewise, when Torah is clothed in physical deeds — "today to do them," in this world — it draws a genuinely new light, from G-d's Infinite Light above the chain of worlds. This is why the giving of the Torah is called a "wedding."

15 וז״ש אין כל חדש תחת השמש[52] משא״כ עמלא דאורייתא[53] דהוא לעילא מן שמשא ממשיך אור חדש כי ס״ר אותיות התורה הן אותיות המחשבה.

And this is what is said, "There is nothing new under the sun"; whereas the toil of the Torah, which is above the sun, draws down a new light. For the 600,000 letters of the Torah are the letters of Thought.

> Koheles says "there is nothing new under the sun." The Zohar comments that the toil of Torah is "above the sun," and so it can produce something new. The Torah's letters (traditionally 600,000, corresponding to the souls of Israel) are letters of G-d's "Thought," not merely His "speech."

והרי במחשבה אי צופה ומביט כו׳ והתורה היא מבחי׳ מאד עמקו מחשבותיך[54] עמקו דוקא בחי׳ עומק המחשבה וכמו גבי תשובה כתיב ממעמקים[55] והיינו דוקא ע״י התלבשות התורה בגשמיות וכמשל הנ״ל.[56]

And behold, with a single Thought He sees and looks, etc. And the Torah is from the level of "Your thoughts are very deep" — "deep" specifically, the level of the depth of Thought; and so concerning teshuvah it is written, "From the depths." And this is specifically through the Torah's being clothed in physicality, as in the analogy mentioned above.

> Divine Thought is the level at which all is seen in one glance, above time. The Torah comes from the "depth" of G-d's thought ("Your thoughts are very deep") — just as teshuvah calls "from the depths." But this depth is drawn down specifically when the Torah is clothed in the physical, as in the analogy of the seed.

16 ופי׳ וענין אור חדש הוא כי הנה ידוע דשרש כל ההשתלשלות דאבי״ע הוא נמשך מבחי׳ הקו״ח והוא נמשך ע״י צמצום ומק״פ מתחלה ונמשך אח״כ רק קו

And the explanation and meaning of "new light" is this: it is known that the root of the whole chaining-down of Atzilus, Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah is drawn from the level of the kav and the chut (the line and the thread); and it is drawn through the tzimtzum and the vacated space at first, and afterwards only a line was drawn.

> What does "new light" mean? The whole chain of worlds is rooted in the kav, the thin line of light drawn into the empty space left after the tzimtzum (contraction).

ולכן כל מה שנמשך מבחי׳ הארת הקו לא נק׳ אור חדש ממש כו׳ אך אור הנמשך מעצמות אא״ס שלמעלה מהחלל והקו נק׳ אור חדש וכמארז״ל על ד״ת בכ״י יהיו בעיניך כחדשים[59, 58, 57] כו׳

Therefore whatever is drawn from the level of the illumination of the kav is not called a truly new light, etc.; but the light drawn from the essence of the Infinite Light, which is above the vacated space and the kav, is called a new light. And as our Sages of blessed memory said concerning the words of Torah, "Every day let them be in your eyes as new," etc.

> Whatever comes from the kav is not truly new; it is part of the established order. A "new light" comes from the essence of the Infinite Light, above both the empty space and the kav. This is the Sages' teaching that the words of Torah should be new in one's eyes every day.

ולכן נק׳ חתן חות דרגא מדלג על ההרים[60] בחי׳ דילוג מלמעלה מהשתלשלות כו׳ ולכן בקרבנות הנשיאים הוכפל בתורה בכ״א[61] ולא אמר וכן הקריב נשיא פלוני

And therefore he is called chasan (bridegroom) — chus darga ("descend a level") — "leaping upon the mountains," the aspect of leaping from above the chaining-down, etc. And therefore, with the offerings of the princes, the Torah repeated [the account] for each one, and did not say, "And so did prince so-and-so offer,"

> The bridegroom (chasan) is related to the Aramaic chus darga, "descend a level": in marriage something comes down from above. It is like the Beloved "leaping over the mountains" — a leap from above the chain of levels. That is also why the Torah repeats the identical offerings of each of the twelve princes, rather than saying "and so did the next prince."

אלא משום דאעפ״י שצירופי האותיות שבכל קרבן של כל הנשיאים שוין הן ממש מ״מ האור המלובש בהן הוא בכ״א בחי׳ אור חדש ממש וכמו שלשים ומאה משקלה[62] שהם ה׳ שמות הוי״ה but rather [it is] because, although the combinations of letters in each offering of all the princes are exactly the same, nevertheless the light clothed in them is in each one the aspect of a truly new light. And as with "its weight was one hundred and thirty," which are five Names of Havayah:

> Although the words — the letter-combinations — of each offering are identical, the light clothed in each was new. For example, the silver bowl weighing 130 shekels corresponds to five times 26, the numerical value of the Name Havayah.

הנה בכל קרבן של נשיא נמשך בחי׳ ה׳ שמות דהוי״ה חדשים מעצמות המאציל מה שלא נמשך כן בשל נשיא שלפניו כו׳ ע״ד ממעמקים קראתיך הוי״ה:[63]

in each prince's offering the aspect of five new Names of Havayah was drawn from the essence of the Emanator, which was not drawn thus in that of the prince before him, etc. — along the lines of "From the depths I have called You, Havayah."

> Each prince drew down five new Names of Havayah from the essence of the Emanator — light that had not been drawn in the previous prince's offering. It is like the one who calls "from the depths" and reaches something new each time.

SECTION 5 • ¶17–18

“Go forth” and “the King to Whom peace belongs”

17 וזהו צאנה וראנה פי׳ צאנה ממקום שרשם למעלה בג״ע להתלבש בעוה״ז הגשמי כי דוקא היום לעשותם בעוה״ז אז יומשך ע״י התורה אור חדש ומחודש כו׳ משא״כ למעלה ברוחניות כנ״ל:

And this is [the meaning of] “Go forth and gaze”: “Go forth” from the place of their root above in Gan Eden, to be clothed in this physical world. For specifically [through] “today to do them,” in this world, a new and renewed light will then be drawn through the Torah, etc., which is not so above, in spirituality, as mentioned above.

> Now the verse “Go forth and gaze” is explained: the souls are told to “go forth” from their source in Gan Eden and come down into this physical world. Only here, through performing the Torah’s commandments in action, can the new light be drawn — something not possible in the spiritual realms above.

18 במלך שלמה[64] במלך שהשלום שלו[65] פי׳ ע״י שנמשך אור חדש מלמעלה מהשתלשלות נעשה בחי׳ שלום והתחברות ב׳ הפכים משפיע ומקבל אש ומים. ולכן ארז״ל העוסק בתורה משים שלום[66] בפמשמ״ע ובפמשמ״ט.

“Upon King Solomon (Shlomo)” — upon the King to Whom peace (shalom) belongs. The explanation: through a new light being drawn from above the chaining-down, there comes about the aspect of peace and the joining of two opposites — giver and receiver, fire and water. And therefore our Sages of blessed memory said, “Whoever engages in Torah makes peace in the heavenly household and in the earthly household.”

> The Talmud says that “Shlomo” in the Song of Songs refers to G-d, “the King to Whom peace (shalom) belongs.” The new light from above the chain of worlds creates peace: it unites opposites such as giver and receiver, fire and water. Hence the Talmud’s statement that Torah study makes peace in the heavenly and the earthly realms.

כי הנה מלכות דאצי׳ נעשה עתיק לבריאה ומחבר אצי׳ עם בריאה אף שאצי׳ ובריאה הם ב׳ הפכים והכח הזה בבחינת מל׳ דאצי׳ הוא להיות

For Malchus of Atzilus becomes Atik of Beriah and joins Atzilus with Beriah, even though Atzilus and Beriah are two opposites. And this power exists in the level of Malchus of Atzilus

> An example of this peace: Malchus, the lowest level of Atzilus, becomes Atik, the highest level of Beriah, and so joins two worlds that are opposites — Atzilus, one with G-d, and Beriah, a world of separate existence.

כי נעוץ סופן בתחלתן[67] ושרשה מבחי׳ כתר שהוא בחי׳ תחתונה שבמאציל ע״כ ביכולתה לחבר אצי׳ עם בי״ע.

because "their end is wedged in their beginning," and its root is from the level of Keser, which is the lowest level of the Emanator; therefore it is able to join Atzilus with Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah.

> Malchus can do this because, as Sefer Yetzirah says, the end of the Sefiros is wedged in their beginning: Malchus is rooted in Keser, the lowest level of the Emanator Himself, which is above all division.

וכידוע בענין המשל ופחד עמו[68] ע״כ עושה שלום במרומיו[69] כו׳. וזהו מלך שהשלום שלו היינו בחי׳ מלכות דא״ס[70] שכל השלומות נמשכים משם:

And as is known concerning "Dominion and fear are with Him; He makes peace in His heights," etc. And this is "the King to Whom peace belongs," namely, the level of the Malchus of the Infinite, from which all [forms of] peace are drawn.

> Job says, "Dominion and fear are with Him; He makes peace in His heights": peace between opposing forces comes from G-d's sovereignty. "The King to Whom peace belongs" is thus the Malchus of the Infinite One, the source of all peace.

IN ONE'S AVODAH

Pray with intention, so that all your powers gather into love of G-d; then carry that life through the day into Torah study, mitzvos and even permitted everyday matters done for the sake of Heaven, so that tomorrow's prayer can rise again. If a sin has blocked the flow, heal it through teshuvah "with all your might" and verbal confession. And value the physical performance of the mitzvos: only through Torah clothed in deeds in this world is a truly new light drawn from G-d's essence.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why is prayer compared to the Temple and called "the joy of His heart," while the giving of the Torah is called a "wedding"?
2. How does the circulation of blood illustrate the relationship between prayer and the rest of the day? What does a "wound" represent?
3. Why can teshuvah and Torah heal what ordinary service cannot? What does it mean that they "preceded the world"?
4. What is a "new light," and why can it be drawn only through Torah clothed in physical deeds, as a seed begets only through a physical drop?
5. How does the new light bring "peace" between opposites, and how does this explain "King Solomon — the King to Whom peace belongs"?

For the children at the table

The heart of the world

THE BIG IDEA

Prayer gathers all our powers up to G-d like blood returning to the heart, and Torah and mitzvos carry that life out into everything we do.

King Shlomo wrote of "the day of his wedding and the day of the joy of his heart." Our Sages say the wedding is the giving of the Torah and the joy of heart is the building of the Beis HaMikdash. Why? Prayer takes the place of the offerings in the Beis HaMikdash, and prayer is called "the service of the heart." The Jewish people are called G-d's "heart." In the morning, through Pesukei deZimra and the Shema, we gather all our powers up into love of G-d. Then, through the Amidah, Torah study, mitzvos and even ordinary things done for the sake of Heaven, we carry that life out into the whole day. A sin is like a wound that blocks the flow, and teshuvah heals it. Torah heals too, and more: when Torah is lived through real, physical mitzvos in this world, it brings down a truly new light from G-d Himself. That is why the Torah is called a "wedding," and why our souls "go forth" from Gan Eden into this world. This new light also brings shalom, joining together things that are opposite.

THE MASHAL

The heart sends blood out to every part of the body, all the way to the toes, and the blood then comes back to the heart and goes out again. When this flow is free, a person is healthy; when a wound blocks it, the person becomes ill and needs healing. So too prayer gathers us up to G-d, our deeds carry that life outward, and teshuvah heals whatever blocks the way.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. How is davening like blood returning to the heart, and how are mitzvos like blood going out to the body?
2. Why do you think the giving of the Torah is called a "wedding"?
3. What everyday thing this week can you do "for the sake of Heaven," so that the life of your davening reaches it?

44 ע"י הוידוי דברים

The passage explains that uprooting the desire is not enough without verbal confession: through the letters "we have trespassed, we have betrayed" the fallen letters are raised, and since each sin creates an accuser with a "soul" (the desire) and a "body" (the deed or speech), uprooting the will removes the soul and verbal confession erases the body.

The ten Sefiros' end is wedged in their beginning. The Alter Rebbe uses this to explain that Malchus is rooted in Keser.

Sefer Yetzirah 1:7 ספר יצירה א:ז

עשר ספירות בלי מה נעוץ סופן בתחלתן ותחלתן בסופן כשלהבת קשורה בגחלת שאדון יחיד ואין לו שני ולפני אחד מה אתה סופר:

The decade of existence out of nothing has its end linked to its beginning and its beginning linked to its end, just as the flame is wedded to the live coal; because the L-rd is one and there is not a second one, and before one what wilt thou count?

68 וכידוע בענין המשל ופחד עמו

In the name of the Maggid of Mezritch: the breaking of the vessels in Tohu came because each attribute stood alone; in Tikkun the attributes are included in one another, and opposites like Chesed and Gevurah, water and fire, can join only through the Infinite Light shining in them, which makes them nullified before it — this is "He makes peace in His heights."

"With the crown with which his mother crowned him"

The mitzvos, done with lowly physical things, become a crown that draws down G-d's will and delight; for now that delight is hidden and brings joy, but in the Time to Come it will be seen and bring true delight.

THE MAAMAR IN BRIEF

The maamar reads Song of Songs 3:11 phrase by phrase. The "crown" is the 620 commandments, which reach Keser, above the chain of worlds; like gems, prized because inanimate stone shines, the mitzvos draw down Keser because physical matter, refined through them, becomes nullified before G-d. Following the Mishnah, "the day of his wedding" is the Giving of the Torah, which drew down G-d's wisdom and the delight within His will, and "the gladness of his heart" is the Temple. The Alter Rebbe then distinguishes joy from delight: a rich man rejoices over a treasure he cannot see, but delight requires seeing. So the mitzvos now bring joy, since we know G-d's delight is in them without grasping it; the Temple and prayer, too, reach only the existence of the light, not its essence. In the Time to Come the delight will be revealed: "and see." Finally, Malchus is G-d's "heart," circulating life to the worlds and receiving their service back; the sacrifices opened that heart, the Flood generation blocked it ("He was saddened to His heart"), and Noach's offering reopened it.

OUTLINE

1 The crown of mitzvos ¶1–2

The 620 commandments are a crown reaching Keser; like gems, whose worth lies in the marvel of a shining stone, mitzvos done with physical things draw down Keser when matter is refined and nullified.

2 The wedding and the gladness of heart ¶3

The Giving of the Torah drew down G-d's wisdom and delight; the Temple is the opening of the heart, while exile is a lovesickness healed by the Torah.

3 Joy and delight ¶4–6

Joy comes from knowing a hidden good exists, delight only from seeing it; the mitzvos, the Temple and prayer now bring joy, while in the Time to Come G-d's delight will be seen.

4 G-d's heart, the Flood and Noach's offering ¶7–8

Malchus is the heart that gives life to the worlds and receives their service back; sacrifices open it, the Flood generation blocked it, and Noach's sacrifice reopened it.

KEY CONCEPTS

Keser (the Crown) כתר

The level above intellect: G-d's will and delight. The 620 mitzvos (620 is the numerical value of the word keser) draw it down.

Birur (refinement) בירור

Elevating physical matter from kelipas nogah by using it for a mitzvah, so that it becomes nullified before G-d.

Joy and delight שמחה ותענוג

Joy is felt over a good one knows exists even when hidden; delight comes only when the good is actually seen.

Malchus as the heart לב — מלכות

G-d's sovereignty, through which life-force flows to the worlds and to which their service returns, like blood circulating from and back to the heart.

Mayin nukvin and mayin duchrin מ"ן ומ"ד

The upward arousal from below and the divine flow downward that answers it; the sacrifices raised the first and drew down the second.

SECTION 1 • ¶1–2

The crown of mitzvos

1 בעטרה שעטרה לו אמו כי מצות התורה הן תרי"ג מצות דאורייתא וז' מצות דרבנן שהם תר"ך עמודי אור בחי' כתר ועטרה והוא מה שלמעלה מהשתלשלות.

"With the crown with which his mother crowned him": for the commandments of the Torah are the 613 Biblical commandments and the seven Rabbinic commandments, which are the 620 pillars of light, the level of Keser (the Crown) and a crown; and this is what is above the chain of descending worlds (hishtalshelus).

> The maamar opens with Song of Songs 3:11, where King Solomon is crowned by his mother. The "crown" is the mitzvos: 613 from the Torah plus the seven Rabbinic ones make 620, the numerical value of the word keser (crown), so the commandments are called 620 "pillars of light." Keser is the level of G-d's will, above the ordered chain of worlds and levels.

והנה עד"מ העטרה היא עשויה מאבנים טובות מאירים ומבהיקים מאד והרי גוף האבנים הם רק בחי' דומם אלא שמזככים אותם.[1]

Now, by way of analogy: the crown is made of precious stones that shine and sparkle greatly; yet the substance of the stones themselves is only of the level of the inanimate, except that they are refined.

> To show how mitzvos can form such a crown, the Alter Rebbe turns to a real crown. Its jewels glitter, yet in themselves they are only stones, the lowest, inanimate category of creation; they shine only because they have been cut and polished.

2 ולפי שהוא דבר פלא שהדומם כאבן יאיר[2] כ"כ ע"כ הם יקרים מאד ולכך ניתן לתכשיט על הראש אעפ"י שהראש מעלתו נכבדת להיות שבו שוכן אור החכמה כו'

And because it is a wondrous thing that something inanimate, like a stone, should shine so much, therefore they are very precious; and so it is placed as an ornament on the head, even though the head is of honored standing, since in it dwells the light of Chochmah (wisdom), etc.

> Why are gems so precious? A candle that gives light is nothing new, but a lifeless stone that gives light is a marvel. That is why a gem sits on the head, even though the head is the noblest part of the body, the seat of the mind: something even higher than the mind rests on it.

וכך המצות נעשים בענינים גשמיים מבחי' ק"נ אלא ע"י הבירור נעשה זה דבר הפלא שהיש גשמי יהיה בטל לכן נעשה מזה עטרה ובחי' המשכת הכתר והוא לעילא מן שמשא כו':

So too, the commandments are performed with physical things, from the level of kelipas nogah; but through the refinement (birur) this wondrous thing comes about: that the physical "something" becomes nullified. Therefore a crown is made from this, and the level of the drawing down of Keser, which is "above the sun," etc.

> The analogue: mitzvos are done with physical things such as wool, leather and food, which belong to kelipas nogah, the neutral realm that can go either to holiness or to its opposite. When a mitzvah refines that material, the physical, self-standing "something" becomes nullified before G-d, and this marvel is what draws down Keser. "Above the sun" (an Aramaic phrase) means above nature, in contrast to what is "under the sun."

SECTION 2 • ¶3

The wedding and the gladness of heart

3 ביום חתונתו זו מ"ת[3] כבר מבואר למעלה הטעם שנק' ביום חתונתו שהיא המשכת ח"ע מוחא כו'

"On the day of his wedding" — this is the Giving of the Torah. It has already been explained above why it is called "the day of his wedding": that it is the drawing down of supernal Chochmah, the "brain," etc.

> The Mishnah reads the next words of the verse: "the day of his wedding" is the Giving of the Torah. An earlier maamar explained that the Torah draws down supernal Chochmah, G-d's own wisdom, called the "brain."

ובזה מתלבש כח התענוג שהוא פנימי' הרצון כנ"ל. ושמחת לבו זה בנין בהמ"ק פי' פתיחת הלב נק' שמחת לבו

And in this is enclothed the power of delight, which is the inner dimension of the will, as mentioned above. "And [on the day of] the gladness of his heart" — this is the building of the Holy Temple. That is, the opening of the heart is called "the gladness of his heart,"

> Within that wisdom is clothed G-d's delight, which is the innermost core of His will. The Mishnah continues: "the gladness of his heart" is the building of the Holy Temple. Gladness, the Alter Rebbe says, means the heart opening up.

משא"כ בגלות נק' חולת אהבה שאין הסיבוב והילוך רוח החיים מהלב אל האברים כדבעי וע"כ אומרת סמכוני כו' ע"י התורה שנק' רפואה כנ"ל.[4] whereas in exile [she] is called "sick with love," for the circulation and flow of the spirit of life from the heart to the limbs is not as it should be; and therefore she says, "Sustain me," etc. — through the Torah, which is called healing, as mentioned above.

> In exile the Jewish people, the bride of the Song of Songs, is "sick with love": like a body whose blood does not circulate properly from the heart to the limbs. So she asks, "Sustain me," and the remedy is the Torah, which an earlier maamar explained is called healing.

SECTION 3 • ¶4–6

Joy and delight

4 והנה התענוג והשמחה לכאורה ענין א' הם אבל באמת ב' ענינים המה כי עד"מ עשיר שיש לו מטמון

Now, delight and joy seem to be one matter, but in truth they are two matters. For, by way of analogy, a rich man who has a treasure

> The Alter Rebbe now distinguishes two feelings that seem alike: delight (taanug) and joy (simchah). He illustrates with a rich man and his treasure.

כסף וזהב באוצרו הוא שמח וטוב לב אעפ"י שאינו רואה אותו וגם אעפ"י שהממון רחוק ממנו כמה מאות פרסאות.

of silver and gold in his storehouse is joyful and glad of heart even though he does not see it, and even though the money is several hundred parsaos away from him.

> A rich man is happy about his hoard even when he is not looking at it and even when it is hundreds of parsaos away (a parsah is an ancient measure of distance, several kilometers).

אך להיותו יודע שישנם בשלימות בודאי אעפ"י שמכוסה ונעלם הוא מעיניו עתה ישמח לבו מאד וזהו ענין ומהות השמחה שיכול להיות על הטוב אף כשהוא נעלם ומכוסה מעיניו.

But because he knows that it is certainly there, whole, even though it is covered and hidden from his eyes now, his heart rejoices greatly. And this is the matter and essence of joy: that it can be over the good even when it is hidden and covered from one's eyes.

> What makes him glad is the knowledge that the treasure is surely there and intact. That is the nature of joy: it can be felt over something good that is out of sight.

אבל ענין התענוג והשעשועים אינו אלא דוקא כשרואה הדבר שמתענג ממנו בעיניו ממש כמו שעשוע האב עם בנו הוא דוקא כשרואהו בעיניו

But delight and delectation come only when one sees with one's very eyes the thing in which one delights — like a father's delight in his son, which is specifically when he sees him with his eyes;

> Delight is different: it needs the thing itself to be seen. A father takes delight in his child when the child is in front of him.

משא"כ מרחוק אינו שייך תענוג רק שמחה ולכן מברכין ברכת הראיה כשרואה אדם החביב לו[5] כו'.

whereas from afar delight does not apply, only joy. And therefore one says the blessing over seeing when one sees a person dear to him, etc.

> From a distance there can be joy but not delight. This is why the Sages instituted a blessing when one sees a dear friend after a long absence: the seeing itself brings a new delight.

5 והנמשל יובן בענין שמחה של מצוה דהנה טעמי תורה לא נתגלו עתה שאין עתה הגילוי רק שכך רצונו יתי'.

The analogue will be understood in the matter of the joy of a mitzvah. For the reasons of the Torah have not been revealed now; for now there is no revelation, only that such is His will, blessed be He.

> Now the analogy is applied to the joy of doing a mitzvah. At present we do not know the inner reasons of the mitzvos; we do them because this is G-d's will.

ולע"ל יתגלו טעמי תורה בחי' ענג עליון שיש בכל מצוה אמנם גם עתה ידוע לנו שמלובש ונמשך בהמצוה מבחי' תענוג העליון

And in the Time to Come the reasons of the Torah will be revealed — the level of supernal delight that is in every mitzvah. However, even now it is known to us that [something] of the level of the supernal delight is enclothed and drawn down into the mitzvah,

> In the Time to Come (the era of Moshiach) those reasons will be revealed, and they are G-d's own delight in each mitzvah. Even now we know that this delight is clothed in the mitzvah.

רק שאין מהותו מושג ולכן יכול להיות מזה בחי' שמחה גדולה וכמ"ש בשמחה ובטוב לבב מרוב כל.[6] only its essence is not grasped; and therefore great joy can come from this, as it is written, "with joy and with gladness of heart, from the abundance of everything."

> We know it is there but cannot grasp what it is, like the rich man with his hidden treasure; that knowledge can bring great joy. Hence the Torah demands service of G-d "with joy and with gladness of heart."

כמו שהעשיר שמח מהמטמון אף שאינו רואהו בעיניו כו'. אך לע"ל יתגלה מהות התענוג העליון וזהו ישקני מנשיקות פיהו.[7]

Just as the rich man rejoices over the treasure even though he does not see it with his eyes, etc. But in the Time to Come the essence of the supernal delight will be revealed; and this is "Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth."

> In the future, the delight itself will be revealed, and this is the meaning of "Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth": an intimate, direct closeness in place of knowing from afar.

6 ולכן בהמ"ק נק' שמחת לבו שהיה האור ג"כ מוסתר בארון וכפורת כו'. וכן תפלה באהוי"ר הוא ג"כ רק השגת המציאות ולא המהות.

And therefore the Holy Temple is called "the gladness of his heart," for there too the light was hidden in the Ark and the Kapores (the Ark's cover), etc. And likewise prayer with love and awe is also only a grasp of the existence, and not of the essence.

> This explains why the Temple is called only "the gladness of his heart" and not his delight: even there the divine light was concealed within the Ark and its cover. Likewise, love and awe in prayer reach only the knowledge that G-d is there, not a perception of what He is; so they bring joy, not delight.

אך ביום חתונתו זו מתן תורה נמשך בחי' תענוג אלא שמ"מ עכשיו אין התענוג בגלוי

But "on the day of his wedding" — this is the Giving of the Torah — the level of delight was drawn down; except that, nevertheless, now the delight is not revealed,

> At the Giving of the Torah, "the day of his wedding," G-d's delight itself was drawn down into the Torah and mitzvos; yet at present it is not openly revealed.

שמלובש ג"כ בהתלבשות בענינים גשמיים כ"א לע"ל יתגלה מתוך הלבושים וע"ז נאמר וראנה[8] בבחי' ראי' ממש כמ"ש ולא יכנף עוד[9] כו' והיו עיניך רואות כו':

for it too is enclothed in a garment, in physical things; rather, in the Time to Come it will be revealed from within the garments. And about this it is said "and see," in the sense of actual seeing, as it is written, "And [your Teacher] will no longer hide [Himself]," etc., "and your eyes shall see," etc.

> It is hidden in the physical garments of the mitzvos, and in the future it will shine out of them. That is why the verse says "go out and see": actual seeing, as Isaiah promises that G-d will no longer be hidden and "your eyes shall see."

SECTION 4 • ¶7-8

G-d's heart, the Flood and Noach's offering

7 ועפ"ז יובן המדרש (בפי' בראשית פי' כ"ז) ע"פ ויתעצב אל לבו[10] אמר רבי ברכיה משל למלך שבנה פלטין ע"י אדריכל ראה אותה

According to this, the Midrash (on Parshas Bereshis, section 27) will be understood, on the verse "and He was saddened to His heart": Rabbi Berechiah said: A parable of a king who built a palace through an architect; he saw it and it did not please him. With whom should he be angry, if not with the architect? So too, "and He was saddened to His heart." End of quote.

> The Alter Rebbe now applies the theme of G-d's "heart" to a Midrash in Bereshis Rabbah on Genesis 6:6, where G-d, seeing the corruption before the Flood, "was saddened to His heart."

ולא ערבה לו על מי יש לו להתכעס לא על אדריכל[11] כך ויתעצב אל לבו ע"כ.

> Rabbi Berechiah's parable: a king whose palace, built by an architect, displeases him blames the architect. So G-d was grieved "to His heart": the heart is, so to speak, the architect of the world.

כי ממש"ל בענין וביום שמחת לבו זה בנין בהמ"ק[12] שמדת מלכותו ית' נקראת לב שממנו נמשך החיות לכל האברים

For, according to what was explained above regarding "and on the day of the gladness of his heart — this is the building of the Holy Temple": that His attribute of Malchus (sovereignty), blessed be He, is called "heart," from which life-force is drawn to all the limbs,

> To explain the parable he recalls paragraph 3: G-d's Malchus (sovereignty), the attribute through which He creates and rules the worlds, is called "heart," because like a heart it sends life to all the limbs.

ואח"כ חוזרים הדמים מכל האברים אל הלב כך בחי' מלכותך הוא מכ"ע[13] שממנה נמשך השפעת החיות לבי"ע והוא בחי' ממכ"ע and afterwards the blood returns from all the limbs to the heart. So too the level of "Your Kingship" is "the kingship of all worlds," from which the flow of life-force is drawn to [the worlds of] Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah; and this is the level of the light that fills all worlds (memalei kol almin).

> In a body the blood also returns from the limbs to the heart. Likewise Malchus, "Your Kingship, the kingship of all worlds," sends life-force to the three lower worlds, Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah; this is the light that fills all worlds, which gives life to each according to its measure.

ואח"כ עולה האתעדל"ת מבי"ע לבחי' מלכות ואתעדל"ת זו הוא מ"ש ואהבת את הוי"ה אלקיך בכל לבבך[14] כו'

And afterwards the arousal from below rises from Beriah, Yetzirah and Asiyah to the level of Malchus; and this arousal from below is what is written, "And you shall love Havayah your G-d with all your heart," etc.

> The return flow is the "arousal from below": human service rising from those worlds back to Malchus. Its model is loving G-d "with all your heart," the human heart answering the divine "heart."

ולכן בנין בהמ"ק שבו מקריבים הקרבנות שהוא ענין העלאת מ"ן מבירור ק"נ ונפש הבהמית נק' שמחת לבו שהשמחה היא פתיחת הלב שעי"ז המ"ן נמשך מ"ד מבחי' סוכ"ע בממכ"ע.

And therefore the building of the Holy Temple, in which the sacrifices are offered — which is the raising of mayin nukvin from the refinement of kelipas nogah and the animal soul — is called "the gladness of his heart"; for gladness is the opening of the heart, through which the mayin nukvin draws down mayin duchrin from the level of the light that encompasses all worlds (sovev kol almin) into the light that fills all worlds.

> The Temple sacrifices were such a return: elevating mayin nukvin ("feminine waters," the upward striving of the lower) by refining physical animals and the animal soul. That is why the Temple is "the gladness of his heart": gladness opens the heart, and in response mayin duchrin ("masculine waters," the divine flow downward) is drawn from the light that encompasses all worlds into the light that fills them.

8 ולכן ההפוך מזה היה בדור המבול שהיו מכעיסין ובאין. ה"ז עד"מ כמו שיש ח"ו קלקול בהאברים המונע סיבוב והילוך הדם מהלב אל האברים ומהאברים אל הלב כו' וע"ז לא נמשך ג"כ מהמוח בהלב ונפסק הקשר כו'.

And therefore the opposite of this took place in the generation of the Flood, who kept provoking [Him]. This is, by way of analogy, like when there is, G-d forbid, a damage in the limbs that prevents the circulation and flow of the blood from the heart to the limbs and from the limbs to the heart, etc.; and through this [the flow] from the brain into the heart is not drawn either, and the connection is cut off, etc.

> The generation of the Flood did the opposite of the Temple's service: instead of raising their hearts to G-d they kept provoking Him. In the analogy, a damaged limb blocks circulation in both directions, and then the brain's influence no longer reaches the heart either.

וכך הוא ענין ויתעצב אל לבו שלא נמשך האור בגילוי מבחי׳ סוכ״ע אל בחי׳ ממכ״ע הוא בחי׳ מלכות כו׳.

And this is the meaning of "and He was saddened to His heart": that the light was not drawn in revelation from the level of the light that encompasses all worlds to the level of the light that fills all worlds, which is the level of Malchus, etc.

> This is the meaning of "He was saddened to His heart": the higher, encompassing light was no longer drawn openly into Malchus, the light that fills all worlds, since the upward flow from below had stopped.

ולכן בפ׳ נח אחר שהקריב קרבן וכתיב וירח ה׳ את ריח הניחוח[15] כתי׳ ויאמר ה׳ אל לבו כו׳ והוא ע״ד מעין שנקרא בנין בהמ״ק מקום הקרבנות שמחת לבו כנ״ל:[16]

And therefore in Parshas Noach, after he offered a sacrifice, and it is written, "And G-d smelled the pleasing fragrance," it is written, "And G-d said to His heart," etc. And this is in the manner of a likeness of what is called the building of the Holy Temple, the place of the sacrifices, "the gladness of his heart," as mentioned above.

> After the Flood Noach offered a sacrifice, G-d smelled its pleasing fragrance, and the verse says "G-d said to His heart" that He would not again curse the earth. Noach's offering restored the flow and was a small likeness of the Temple, the place of sacrifices, "the gladness of his heart."

IN ONE'S AVODAH

A person should serve G-d with great joy in the mitzvos, knowing that G-d's own delight is clothed in them even though it is not yet seen; and by refining physical things through mitzvos and loving G-d "with all your heart," one raises an arousal from below that opens the flow of divine light into the world.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. Why does the maamar say that a gem's value lies in the marvel of a stone that shines, and how does this explain the power of physical mitzvos?
2. What is the difference between joy and delight, and why can the mitzvos now bring only joy?
3. Why are both the Temple and prayer with love and awe described as grasping only the existence of the light and not its essence?
4. How does the analogy of the heart and the circulation of blood explain "He was saddened to His heart" and G-d's response to Noach's sacrifice?

The crown of mitzvos: joy now, delight later

THE BIG IDEA

Every mitzvah holds G-d's own delight; today we cannot see it, so it brings us joy, and in the Time to Come we will see it.

The maamar explains a verse in the Song of Songs: "With the crown with which his mother crowned him, on the day of his wedding and on the day of the gladness of his heart." The crown is the mitzvos. A real crown is made of precious stones. A stone is only a lifeless thing, yet when it is polished it shines, and because that is so wonderful, it is placed on the head. Mitzvos are done with ordinary physical things, and when a physical thing is used for a mitzvah, it becomes nullified to G-d, given over completely to Him. That is a wonder too, so the mitzvos become a crown that reaches Keser, the "Crown," a level higher than all the worlds. Then the Alter Rebbe teaches that joy and delight are different. Joy can come from knowing that something good is there, even when it is hidden. Delight comes only from seeing it. Today we know that G-d's delight is inside every mitzvah, but we cannot see it, so we do the mitzvos with joy. In the Time to Come that delight will be seen.

THE MASHAL

A rich man has a treasure of silver and gold stored far away. He cannot see it, but he knows it is safely there, so he is happy. A father, though, has real delight in his son only when he sees him with his own eyes. So too, we are joyful in the mitzvos now, and we will have delight when G-d's delight in them is seen.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE

1. What is the difference between being joyful about something and delighting in it?
2. Why does the maamar say that a shining stone is a good picture of a mitzvah done with a physical thing?
3. Which mitzvah could you do this week with extra joy, knowing that G-d's delight is hidden inside it?

PARAGRAPH 4

5 מברכין ברכת הראיה כשרואה אדם החביב לו

Rabbi Yehoshua ben Levi rules that one who sees a friend after thirty days says the blessing Shehecheyanu, and after twelve months, "Who revives the dead." The Alter Rebbe uses it to show that seeing a loved one brings a delight that knowing about him from afar does not.

Berakhot 58b ברכות נ״ח ב

PARAGRAPH 5

6 בשמחה ובטוב לבב מרוב כל

The Torah rebukes Israel for not serving G-d "with joy and with gladness of heart, from the abundance of everything." Here it illustrates the great joy that comes from knowing that G-d's delight is in the mitzvah.

Deuteronomy 28:47 דברים כ״ח:מ״ז

תַּחַת אֲשֶׁר לֹא־עָבַדְתָּ אֶת־ה׳ אֱלֹקֶיךָ בְּשִׂמְחָה וּבְטוּב לֵבָב מֵרֹב כֹּל׃ because thou didst not serve the L-RD thy G-d with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things;

7 ישקני מנשיקות פיהו

The opening plea of the Song of Songs, "Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth," is read here as the revelation of the essence of G-d's delight in the Time to Come.

Song of Songs 1:2 שיר השירים א׳:ב׳

יִשָּׁקֵנִי מִנְּשִׁיקוֹת פִּיהוּ כִּי־טוֹבִים דֹּדֶיךָ מִיָּיִן׃

Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth— For thy love is better than wine.

PARAGRAPH 6

8 וראנה

The verse begins "Go out and see, O daughters of Zion." The Alter Rebbe reads "see" as the actual seeing of G-d's delight in the Time to Come.

Song of Songs 3:11 שיר השירים ג:י״א

צְאֶנָה וּרְאֶינָה בְּנוֹת צִיּוֹן בַּמֶּלֶךְ שְׁלֹמֹה בָּעֲטָרָה שֶׁעִטְּרָה־לּוֹ אִמּוֹ בְּיוֹם חֲתֻנָּתוֹ וּבְיוֹם שִׂמְחַת לִבּוֹ׃

Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, And gaze upon king Solomon, Even upon the crown wherewith his mother hath crowned him in the day of his espousals, And in the day of the gladness of his heart.

9 ולא יכנף עוד

"Your Teacher will no longer hide Himself, and your eyes shall see your Teacher." The Kehot note gives this source; it describes the open revelation that the word "see" refers to.

Isaiah 30:20 ישעיהו ל:כ׳

וְנָתַן לָכֶם אֲדֹנָי לֶחֶם צַר וּמַיִם לָחַץ וְלֹא־יִכָּנֵף עוֹד מוֹרֶיךָ וְהָיוּ עֵינֶיךָ רֹאוֹת אֶת־מוֹרֶיךָ׃

And though the L-rd give you sparing bread and scant water, Yet shall not thy Teacher hide Himself any more, But thine eyes shall see thy Teacher;

PARAGRAPH 7

10 ויתעצב אל לבו

Before the Flood, "G-d regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was saddened to His heart."

Genesis 6:6 בראשית ו:ו׳

וַיִּנָּחֶם ה׳ כִּי־עָשָׂה אֶת־הָאָדָם בָּאָרֶץ וַיִּתְעַצֵּב אֶל־לִבּוֹ׃

And it repented the L-RD that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him at His heart.

11 ויתעצב אל לבו אמר רבי ברכיה משל למלך שבנה פלטין ע״י אדריכל ראה אותה ולא ערבה לו על מי יש לו להתכעס לא על אדריכל

Rabbi Berechiah's parable on Genesis 6:6: one whose palace built by an architect displeases him is angry at the architect; so "He was saddened to His heart." The Alter Rebbe identifies the "heart" with Malchus.

Bereshit Rabbah 27:4 בראשית רבה כ״ז:ד׳

... מתנחם אני שעשיתי אותו וניתן בארץ. ויתעצב אל לבו אמר רבי ברכיה: משל לשר שבנה פלטין על ידי אדריכל, ראה אותה ולא ערבה לו. על מי יש לו להתכעס, לא על אדריכל?! כך, ויתעצב אל לבו. אמר ר׳ אסי: משל לשר שעשה סחורה ע״י סרסור והפסיד. על מי יש לו להתרעם. לא על הסרסור?! כך ויתעצב אל לבו. אפיקורס אחד שאל את רבי יהושע בן קרחה אמר לו: אין אתם אומרים שהקדוש ברוך הוא רואה את הנולד?! אמר לו: הן. והא כתיב ויתעצב אל לבו?! אמר לו: נולד לך ...

"The L-rd regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was saddened in His heart" (Genesis 6:6). "The L-rd regretted [vayinaḥem] that He had made man on the earth" – Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Neḥemya, Rabbi Yehuda said: [G-d said:] 'There was regret before Me that I created him below ["on the earth"], for had I created him on High, he would never have rebelled against Me.' Rabbi Neḥemya said: [G-d said:] 'I take solace [mitnaḥem] in the fact that I created him below ["on the earth"], ...

12 ושמחת לבו זה בנין בהמ״ק

The Mishnah's identification of "the gladness of his heart" with the building of the Temple, recalled here.

Mishnah Ta'anit 4:8 משנה תענית ד:ח׳

... וְכֵן הוּא אוֹמֵר, צְאֶינָה וּרְאֶינָה בְּנוֹת צִיּוֹן בַּמֶּלֶךְ שְׁלֹמֹה בָּעֲטָרָה שֶׁעִטְּרָה לוֹ אִמּוֹ בְּיוֹם חֲתֻנָּתוֹ וּבְיוֹם שִׂמְחַת לִבּוֹ (שיר השירים ג). בְּיוֹם חֲתֻנָּתוֹ, זֶה מַתַּן תּוֹרָה. וּבְיוֹם שִׂמְחַת לִבּוֹ, זֶה בִּנְיַן בֵּית הַמִּקְדָּשׁ, שֶׁיִּבָּנֶה בִּמְהֵרָה בְיָמֵינוּ. אָמֵן׃

Rabbon Simeon hen Gamaliel says, "Never were more joyous festivals in Israel than the 15th of Ab and the day of atonement, for on them the maidens of Jerusalem used to go out dressed in white garments—borrowed ones, in order not to cause shame to those who had them not of their own; —these clothes were also to be previously immersed, and thus they went out and danced in the vineyards, saying, Young men, look and observe well whom you are about to choose [as a spouse]; regard not beauty [alone], ...

13 מלכותך הוא מכ״ע

"Your kingship is a kingship over all worlds": Malchus is the attribute that gives life to all the worlds.

Psalms 145:13 תהילים קמ״ה:י״ג

מַלְכוּתְךָ מַלְכוּת כָּל־עֹלָמִים וּמֶמְשַׁלְתְּךָ בְּכָל־דּוֹר וָדֹר׃

Thy kingdom is a kingdom for all ages, And Thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 ואהבת את הוי״ה אלקיך בכל לבבך

The commandment to love G-d with all one's heart is presented as the arousal from below that rises back to Malchus.

Deuteronomy 6:5 דברים ו:ה׳

וְאָהַבְתָּ אֵת ה׳ אֱלֹקֶיךָ בְּכָל־לְבָבְךָ וּבְכָל־נַפְשְׁךָ וּבְכָל־מְאֹדֶךָ׃

And thou shalt love the L-RD thy G-d with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

PARAGRAPH 8

15 וירח ה׳ את ריח הניחוח

After Noach's offering, "G-d smelled the pleasing fragrance, and G-d said to His heart: I will not again curse the ground because of man."

Genesis 8:21 בראשית ח:כ"א

וַיָּרַח יְהוָה אֶת־רֵיחַ הַנִּיחֹחַ וַיֹּאמֶר יְהוָה אֶל־לִבּוֹ לֹא־אֹסִף לְקַלֵּל עוֹד אֶת־הָאֲדָמָה בַּעֲבוּר הָאָדָם כִּי יֵצֶר לֵב הָאָדָם רַע מִנְּעָרָיו וְלֹא־אֹסִף עוֹד לְהַכּוֹת אֶת־כָּל־חַי כַּאֲשֶׁר עָשִׂיתִי׃

And the L-RD smelled the sweet savour; and the L-RD said in His heart: 'I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

16 ועפ"ז . . שמחת לבו כנ"ל

In this manuscript the whole section from "According to this, the Midrash will be understood" to "the gladness of his heart, as mentioned above" is absent.
